TORONTO, May 9.—The semi-annual meeting of the Sabbath School Association of Ontario was held yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Bible Society, Yonge street. Mr. Lewis C. Peake, chairman of the executive, was in the chair. The financial statement showed a small balance on hand. The secretary's report showed that 33 counties in Ontario were organized and 25 local organizations had been added to the association during the year. In educational department of the association work a good report was made of progress attained in the past half-year. Normal schools, institutes and teachers' meetings have been working in every part of the Province, and the advantages thereof have been marked. Ottawa was chosen as the next place of meeting.

In the evening Erskine Church was well filled by a representative audience of Sabbath School workers. W. N. Hossie (Brantford), the president, presided. The president's remarks dealt with the work of the year and the vast field yet to be occupied. Hon. John Dryden, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, delivered an instructive address on "Common Mistakes in Sabbath School Work." Mr. L. C. Peake gave a concise review of the half year's work and Miss Brown, president of the Primary Union of Brantford, read a capital paper on "The Importance of Primary Work."
