SAME STORE—Stock of Dry Goods, small stock, peculiar stock, none the worse for that.

We have been asked when are you going to open? Our answer is whenever you are ready. To all intents and purposes we are open now. The stock is far from complete, and the window isn't dressed, but don't wait for those things; if we delayed our opening on their account we might never open, for our blinds are in the hands of the painter, and some of our goods are on the C. P. R. fast freight.

Of course whatever goods are sold will be sold for cash only, when we begin to keep books we'll tell you of it.

Respectfully,

GEO. H. McKAY.

Duties on Spirits.

The following order in regard to the duties on spirituous and alcoholic liquors has been received by the collector of customs here:—

CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT, Ottawa, 26th April, 1890.—Some of the items of the Tariff Resolutions as adopted on the 27th March last, have been amended in committee, and I have to call your attention to the amendment in re item 148, Spirituous or Alcoholic Liquors, etc., which now reads as follows:—

148. Spirituous or alcoholic liquors distilled from any material, or containing, or compounded from or with distilled spirits of any kind and any mixture thereof of the strength of proof, and when of a greater strength than that of proof at the same rate on the increased quantity that there would be if the liquors were reduced to the strength of proof. When the liquors are of a less strength than that of proof, the duty shall be at the rate herein provided, but computed on a reduced quantity of the liquors in proportion to the lesser degree of strength; provided, however, that no reduction in quantity shall be computed or made on any liquors below the strength of fifteen per cent. under proof, but all such liquors shall be computed as of the strength of fifteen per cent. under proof, as follows, viz.:

(a) Ethyl alcohol or the substance commonly known as alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirits of wine; gin of all kinds, N. E. S.; rum, whiskey, and all spirituous or alcoholic liquors, N. O. P., $2 per gallon.

(b) Amyl alcohol or fusil oil, or any substance known as potato spirit or potato oil $2 per gallon.

(c) Methyl alcohol, wood alcohol, wood naphtha, pyroxylic spirit, or any substance known as wood spirit or methylated spirit; absinthe, arrack or palm spirit, brandy including artificial brands and imitations of brandy; cordials and liqueurs of all kinds; N. E. S.; mescal, pulque, rums hrub, schiedam and other schnapps; tafia, angostura, and similar alcoholic bitters or beverages, two dollars per gall.

(d) Spirits and strong waters of any kind mixed with any ingredient or ingredients and being or known or designated as anodynes, elixirs, essences, lotions, tinctures, or medicines, N. E. S., two dollars per gallon and thirty per cent. ad valorem.

(e) Alcoholic perfumes and perfumed spirits, bay rum, cologne and lavender waters, hair, tooth and skin washes and other toilet preparations containing spirits of any kind, when in bottles or flasks weighing not more than 4 ounces per gallon, fifty per cent. ad valorem; when in bottles, flasks or other packages weighing more than 4 ounces each, two dollars per gallon and forty per cent. ad valorem.

(f) Nitrous ether, sweet spirits of nitre and aromatic spirits of ammonia, two dollars per gallon and thirty per cent. ad valorem.

(g) Vermouth and ginger wine, containing not more than forty per cent. of proof spirits, seventy-five cents per gallon; if containing more than forty per cent. of proof spirits, two dollars per gallon.

(h) In all cases where the strength of any of the foregoing articles cannot be correctly ascertained by the direct application of the hydrometer, it shall be ascertained by the distillation of a sample, or in such other manner as the Minister of Customs may direct.

By which you will be governed in taking entries until further orders, still bearing in mind that all entries taken since the 27th March will be subject to amendment as per terms of the Tariff Act when finally passed, at which time you will be notified and furnished with completed copies of the Act, and as before stated as soon as possible thereafter with a new edition of the whole tariff.

St. Andrew Donald Campbell, who died in New York on the 10th day of Janyl. last, was born on St. Andrew's day 1836, while a meeting of the North British society was being held in his father's house in Halifax. At that meeting of the society he was made an honorary member for life.

Some time ago a young man living in Calais, Me., took unto himself a wife and after enjoying wedded life for about a week, the pair quarrelled and parted. The young husband sold all his furniture, which was purchased on the instalment plan, and left for parts unknown with a young lady to whom he was engaged at the time of his marriage.

Four Johns, in direct line, sat down to dinner on a Sunday three weeks ago at Halifax; old John Fitzgerald, chief messenger of the House of Assembly; his son John, in the W. U. Telegraph employ; his son John, at A. Stephen & Sons, and his son John, a comparatively new resident of this city. They all dined together at John the 2nd's residence.

CLIMO'S WORK should be seen at his rooms by those who desire the finest art effects in photography, 85 Germain street.
