Komoka, May 8.—Arbor Day was celebrated here on Friday in the most appropriate style. Both pupils and teachers were busy the most of the day cleaning up the school and the school yard and planting trees. Messrs. Sinclair and Small, trustees of the school, were present to aid in the engineering of the work.

Moving old buildings and building new fences is the order of the day here just now.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the Methodist Church, in this place, on Sabbath forenoon. Service will commence at 10:30 a.m. Bros. George and Mortimer will conduct the service.

Misses E. Hoard returned home on Tuesday from New York city, where she has been visiting her relatives and friends.

Mr. T. H. Turnbull, of the grain store, is doing a rushing business just now. He will be forced to ship some grain to make room for more.

Mrs. J. Nash, who is lying ill at her home, is still under the doctor's care.

Mrs. J. Oliver is at present suffering very much with a sore hand.

Mr. C. Tilden has put a new planer in his mill.

A DINNER PILL—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

The righteous shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.—Job.

Chilly Days in London.

Ladies Find Their Furs and Overcoats Comfortable.

Fancy Dress Balls the Fad for the Present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone's Granddaughter Invited to Windsor.

Many Charitable Pulls on the Purses of Londoners.

Success of the Daily Mail—Paderewski Returning—Miscellaneous Matters.

[Special Cable Letter to The Advertiser.]

London, May 8.—Cold weather still prevails in most parts of England, and on Wednesday last there was frost in London. Although the town is full and the summer clubs, like the Hurlingham and Ranelagh, are open, outdoor gayeties hang fire. The ladies are still wearing their furs, and overcoats are quite comfortable.

FANCY DRESS BALL.

Society is already on the qui vive in anticipation of the five fancy dress balls to be given by prominent hostesses. They promise a commotion approaching the "Bradley Martin." They are all to be representations of different periods of history, and will entail a great expense. A feature of the Duchess of Devonshire's will be an Oriental quadrille with Lady de Gray as Cleopatra and Lady Dudley in a Byzantine costume. Mrs. Arthur Paget, Lady Colebrooke and Miss Muriel Wilson will give the second ball at the Holland House. The guests will appear in the costumes of their ancestors, as painted by Gainsborough and Reynolds. At Mrs. Cavendish Bentinck's ball, the costumes worn will be similar to those which were the fashion at the beginning of the reign of Queen Victoria. Lady Naylor-Leyland, formerly Miss Jane Chamberlain, of Cleveland, Ohio, will also give a costume ball.

THE QUEEN'S GRACEFUL ACT.

The Queen did a graceful thing on Thursday and delighted Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone by summoning their granddaughter, Dorothy Drew, to Windsor Castle. Her Majesty was anxious to see the child who has figured so prominently in Mr. Gladstone's domestic life.

The Prince and Princess of Wales and Princess Maud of Wales (Princess Charles of Denmark) are spending Sunday with the Duke of Westminster at Eaton Hall, Chester, where a large party has been gathered to meet them. On Monday the Prince and Princess of Wales will drive to Hawarden and lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone. Each member of the royal family will plant a tree at Hawarden as a memorial of the occasion.

LONDON'S CHARITY.

The appeals to the charity of the Londoners are endless, and are generally answered generously. The Mansion House Indian famine fund has now nearly reached the sum of $2,650,000. Every class has contributed. The children of London board schools have given $7,500. It is understood that the efforts to raise money for the relief of the Indian sufferers will in no way be relaxed, as the famine will be severely felt throughout the year. The Daily Chronicle within a week has raised nearly $45,000 for the Greek wounded.

The Prince of Wales' Hospital fund alone hangs fire. The yearly deficit of the London hospitals is over $500,000, and the prince hoped to raise $15,000,000. It is doubtful if even $2,500,000 will be obtained; but the Prince of Wales will personally address a meeting of bankers, merchants and other prominent people in the city, and will appeal for more money for the hospital fund.

TEA IN THE ASTOR OFFICE BUILDING.

Mr. William Waldorf Astor gave a tea on Tuesday in his office building on the Thames Embankment, the inside of which has just been completed. The United States ambassador, Col. John Hay, Mrs. Hay, the Duchess of Cleveland, the Duchess of St. Albans, the Duchess of Buckingham, Lady Wolseley, Lady Vernon Harcourt, Viscount Peel, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin, Col. Ralph Vivian and Mrs. Vivian, Lord Iveagh and a host of others were present.

One of the features of the building is a marble and malachite staircase leading to the second floor. Mr. Astor was showing this with great gusto to the Duchess of Cleveland, when she said: "Yes, it is far finer than mine at Battle Abbey (Sussex), where the steps are spoiled by the marks left by the knights' 'spurs.'"

THE TRANSVAAL TROUBLE.

Great importance is attached to the decision of the Transvaal Volksraad to repeal the Transvaal immigration law. It is the most important concession yet made by the Transvaal, and removes the chief cause of friction, not only between the Transvaal and Great Britain, but between Cape Colony and the Transvaal. It was on this point that Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch took almost the form of an ultimatum.

A SUCCESSFUL NEWSPAPER.

The Daily Mail, which celebrated its birthday this week, has been the greatest success known in English journalism. It is now selling about 320,000 copies daily, its building is the largest newspaper building in London, and all its proprietors are under 32 years of age.

PADEREWSKI.

Paderewski will return to this city in June, when he will appear, under the management of Robt. Newman, for one concert only. This will be given during the afternoon of June 15 at Queen's Hall. In the early winter the pianist will return to England for a two months' visit.

UNDERGROUND TO THE THEATER

Recent excavations in Paris, while constructing a sewer in the Rue Delayrac, revealed a subterranean passage in connection with the imperial box at the old Theater Italian. After the attempt on Napoleon's life with an infernal machine in the Rue St. Nicaise, as he was on his way to the opera, almost all the subsidized theaters subsequently built were supplied with underground exits, so that the emperor might be able to withdraw secretly or troops might be introduced into the theater without being seen by the audience.

The Papal Delegate.

He Denies Unwarranted Statements Which Have Been Made.

Every Voter Free to Vote as He Believes to Be Right.

Montreal, May 8.—In spite of the presence of Mgr. Merry del Val in the country, certain of the Roman Catholic clergy in this province keep hammering away at the Manitoba school settlement in order to injure the Liberals in the present local election contest, which has nothing to do with that question. The denunciation of the settlement by Bishop Lafleche, of Three Rivers, has already been referred to in these columns. On the same day Rev. Cure Cinq-Mars, of Portneuf, made two sensational statements from the pulpit. He first declared that his Excellency Mgr. Merry del Val had approved of the mandement issued by Mgr. Lafleche, Bishop of Three Rivers condemning the school settlement, and, secondly, he states that the Catholic electors could not vote in the present elections in favor of a candidate who had contributed to the election of a partisan of the school settlement. Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere was at Portneuf, and he immediately telegraphed these facts to the honorable President of the Senate. The following is the text of the dispatches exchanged:

"Hon. C. A. P. Pelletier, President of the Senate, Ottawa: I am positively informed that Cure Cinq-Mars, of Portneuf stated from the pulpit last Sunday that Mgr. Lafleche's last mandement, issued during the Champlain election and condemning the school settlement, had been approved by Mgr. Merry del Val. (Signed) H. G. Joly de Lotbiniere."
