PRETTY JUNE WEDDINGS

REID—LEITH.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. Pack, Delaware Township, when Mr. Chas. F. Reid, of 869 Waterloo street, this city, was united in marriage to Miss M. Leith, of East London. After a short trip they will be at home to their friends at 869 Waterloo street.

SCHOTT—SWEENEY.

A very pretty wedding took place at noon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Arabella Sweeney, 427 Nelson street, when her daughter, Miss Maudelena Sweeney, was married to Mr. Harvey Leroy Schott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schott, of English street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Bingham, of the Talbot Street Baptist Church. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. John Sweeney, and the bridal party entered amid the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. Ellison Linwood. After a dainty luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Schott left on the afternoon train for Detroit and western points, and on their return will take up their residence at 401 Nelson street.

LENEHAN—ADDISON.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church yesterday, when Miss Lillian Addison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Addison, of Hamilton road, was married to Mr. William Lenehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lenehan, of York street.

The ceremony was performed by Father Tobin. Miss Lauretta Lenehan was bridesmaid, and the groomsman was Mr. John Addison. After a honeymoon trip to eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. Lenehan will reside on Inkerman street.

Mr. Lenehan is a well-known and popular young Londoner, and the bride has also a host of friends. Many very beautiful presents were received by the young couple.

SHOTWELL—EDY.

The marriage of Miss Irene Edy, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Edy, to Carlos W. Shotwell, M.D., of Detroit, Mich., was solemnized on Tuesday evening at the residence, 4 Cartwright street, by Rev. Dr. Ross in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory satin, veiled wtih ninon, embroidered in pearls, and carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses, her only jewelry being a necklace, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Donna Edy, were pale pink, and carried pink roses, while the groom was supported by Mr. Keith Hammond, of this city.

During the signing of the register Miss Ada Smith, of St. Thomas, sang very beautifully "O Promise Me."

Dr. and Mrs. Shotwell left on the 11 o'clock train, and will take a trip up the lakes, after which they will reside at 49 King avenue, Detroit, Mich.

JUDKINS—DAVIES.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Geo. Laskey, Price street, East London, when her sister, Miss Louise Davies, daughter of Mr. Charles Davies, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Judkins, of Hill street. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

The ceremony was performed by Elder Frank Gray. The bride was handsomely dressed in a gown of embroidered ninon, trimmed with duchess satin, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white bridal roses. Miss Myrtle Pyne, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of Tokio silk and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was assisted by his cousin, Mr. Geo. Hewitt.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold bracelet set with amethysts; to the bridesmaid a garnet ring and to the groomsman a pearl stickpin. The presents were costly and numerous. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mr. Irvin Leathorne.

After a dainty lunch, the happy couple left for a ten-days' trip to eastern points, and will be home to their many friends in their new home after Aug. 15, at 70 Chesley avenue.

BUTCHART—McLOUD.

A pretty wedding took place this morning in St. Paul's Cathedral when Miss Beryl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLoud, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Fenwick Butchart, of Queen's avenue.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Tucker, after which the happy couple left for points east. On their return they will take up their residence on Waterloo street north.

SPREES MORE COSTLY IN LONDON NOW

Magistrate Judd Is Imposing a Stiff Fine or a Period in Jail.

Magistrate Judd's new rule of fining every drunk who does not heed his admonition to stop drinking $20, or three weeks in jail, is beginning to have remarkable effects in stopping some of the habitual drunks from continuing on a spree. In a number of cases lately the court has warned drunks not to come up again, and when they have disregarded his advice, and come up within one, two or even three days, he invariably sends them down for three weeks' rest unless they pay $20.

"It is a good plan," said Crown Attorney McKillop, to The Advertiser today, "and the drunks are beginning to learn that they had better stop drinking when the magistrate tells them. When they really learn that he means all he says, they will stop after being let go once, and a good deal of drunkenness in this city will be ended."

Personal Mention

Mr. Edward Clissold, formerly of The Advertiser editorial staff, and now of Buffalo, is renewing old acquaintances in London.

Miss Gladys Comber, the talented young dancer, has been engaged by the Sons of Scotland of Wiarton to dance at their celebration on July 1, returning in time to accompany her teacher, Mrs. Alice Henderson, to Glencoe, for the celebration there on July 3.

BABIES GALORE.

New York, N. Y., June 29.—Babies have been arriving with such frequency at the Jewish Maternity Hospital here that five physicians, six nurses and the hospital superintendent have had to give up their rooms to accommodate the newcomers. Since June 1, 165 babies have been born, including 12 sets of twins. The doctors and nurses are sleeping under tents on the roof of the hospital.

DERAILS AND SEMAPHORES WORKING ALL RIGHT

Superintendent Davidson Makes This Statement Regarding Rectory Street Accident.

Superintendent Davidson, of the Grand Trunk, stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that after making a thorough investigation into the Rectory street accident, he was satisfied that the derails and the semaphores were working all right. This is perhaps the most important point that will come up at the inquest, and one which the jury, when they visit the scene of the accident tonight, will look into thoroughly.

"Our most important witness," said Mr. Davidson, "was unfortunately killed, and we have absolutely no means of knowing just what he did."

MAGISTRATE JUDD HAS PUZZLING CASE

Did James Watson Steal a Watch From George F. Haywood?

Magistrate Judd is having a 24-hour thinking spell in an effort to discover whether or not James Watson pilfered a gold watch last week from George F. Haywood. As a result of the evidence he heard this morning the magistrate is in a quandary, as the case dwindles down to Watson's absolute denial, told in a very straightforward manner, against the story of F. Hancock, bartender at the Metropolitan Hotel.

"One thing is certain," said the court, "Somebody stole the watch."

Hancock told of seeing Watson, Haywood and another man in the bar drinking, and of them going into another room. He swore that Watson came in a few minutes later and said that "he had got all that that guinea out there (meaning Haywood) had, and that he had been rolled a good many times, and didn't see why he shouldn't get some of it back again."

A Denial.

"I never said anything of the kind," Watson declared stoutly in the box. "I had been drinking, but I remember distinctly everything that took place. This man Hancock produced the only watch that was mentioned that day, and asked me if I thought I could sell it at a pawnshop. I told him I didn't know. That is the only watch I saw."

Put back in the box, Hancock admitted that the had had an old watch in the bar that day.

Questioned by the magistrate, he said he had a pocket-knife, and produced it. Watson said that he had brought a razor home from Niagara camp with him, but when he was drunk had lost it, and his mother. He seemed absolutely sure that he had used the razor to cut the wrist strap that attached the watch to Haywood's wrist.

A Puzzler.

"This is a puzzling case," said the magistrate. "I want to give Watson fair play, particularly as he has no counsel. I will think over it until tomorrow morning."

Watson has a past record, having served five years in Kingston several years ago in connection with some thefts that occurred when the famous gang of Texas Bordell was in town.

JURY WILL VISIT SCENE OF ACCIDENT

Will Inquire Into Wreck at Rectory Street on Tuesday Night.

The jury which, under Dr. Ferguson, will investigate the accident at Rectory street, in which Timothy O'Leary lost his life, will visit the scene of the accident this evening at 8 o'clock and make a thorough examination of all the details etc. that will be of importance in considering the case.

The jury is the first which has been empanelled under the new rule which provides for a coroner's jury of from 7 to 12 instead of from 12 to 15 as formerly.

It is composed as follows, James Jeffries, foreman, George A. Beattie, Walter Cunningham, W. C. Maker, Maurice Scarrow, J. B. Cox, J. S. Shaw, H. Thorne, M. S. Cartier and A. E. Hall.

Too Much Excitement.

A young man, who is getting married today, started in Wednesday night to celebrate and early in the evening had accumulated so many drinks that he became riotous on the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, and had to be arrested. If he attends school regularly from the opening until the end of the month, no more will be heard of the matter. The court advised the boy to cut out playing truant and running away from home, and settle down and study and be a good boy.

A Proposed Pavement.

Petitions are being circulated against the initiation of an asphalt pavement on Queen's avenue, from Matland to Adelaide streets. They will be presented to the council at its next session. There will be opposition also to the bylaws initiating pavements on Waterloo, Colborne, and Maitland streets, from King to Queen's avenue. Ald. Stevenson will protest against putting down these pavements, claiming that they are unnecessary. He also maintains that the council is exceeding its authority by using a two-thirds vote to put down these improvements.

Reid—Leith.

An interesting event occurred at the residence of Mr. Wm. C. Pack, of Lambeth, on the 28th inst., when Minnie M. Leith, daughter of the late Alexander and Lydia Leith, was united in matrimony to Charles F. Reid, flour and feed merchant, both of this city. Miss Leith entered the parlor on the arm of Wm. C. Pack, her brother-in-law, while the Wedding March was played by Miss Vera Pack, niece of the bride. Rev. G. N. Hazen, of London, officiated. The bride was the recipient of numerous presents. Friends and relatives to the number of about fifty sat down to a bountiful spread, after which the bride and groom, amid showers of confetti, left on the 6:53 p.m. G. T. R. train for Toronto and points east. Friends were present from Martinique, Mich., Melbourne, Stratford, Komoka and London. INGERSOLL.

Ingersoll, June 29.—Several of those who are camping along the river are complaining of their tents being pilfered during the day time, when they are away. Last Monday one tent was entered and three trunks were broken open and several articles taken, as well as a number of quilts. The police are investigating.

A charge of indecent conduct has been laid against a resident of Centreville. The case will come up tomorrow.

The merchants of Ingersoll have decided to close their stores on Monday, July 3, instead of Saturday, July 1, for the convenience of the people in the rural districts. As Dominion Day falls on a market day, a largely-signed petition was presented to His Worship Mayor McKay that he proclaim Monday a holiday instead of Saturday.

The annual championship shoot of the Ingersoll Gun Club will be held next Monday for the W. J. Elliott trophy. All the trapsters are earnestly requested to turn out, and there is likely to be an interesting day at the traps.

The local banks will close on Saturday, July 1, but will be open on Monday, July 3.

A special meeting of the town council was held last night to consider the taking over of 25 acres from the Township of North Oxford and adding to the corporation of the town of Ingersoll. Negotiations had been going on between the industrial committeen and Stone Bros. for the putting up of a factory in the near future, and the Stone Bros. wanted reasonable concessions from the town, such as water, light and fixed taxation, which were granted to other industries.

The North Oxford council had met and passed a unanimous resolution to let the 25 acres be taken from the township and added to the town. A resolution to this effect must be passed by both the town and township councils before it can go before the municipal and railway board to be ratified.

The following resolution was unanimously passed:

"This council agrees to the annexation of the McKee property to the corporation of Ingersoll, composed of 25 acres in the township of North Oxford, situated east of Pemberton street, and south of the Grand Trunk Railway."

Mr. Mingued, of London, has been transferred to the local branch of the Royal Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Seldon left last night for their summer home in Muskoka.

Miss Fannie Richardson left this morning for Port Kuwaydin, Muskoka, to spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Seldon.

Mr. Harold Moyer, of Flint, Mich., who has been visiting in town, has returned home.

Mr. Oscar Rogers, of Toronto, is visiting friends in town.

WON'T OPPOSE GERMAN

Conservatives Not Likely to Put Up a Candidate for Welland.

[Canadian Press.]

St. Catharines, June 29.—It was learned today from a prominent Conservative politician that the Conservatives will not put up a candidate to oppose W. M. German, the Liberal member for Welland, who opposes reciprocity, provided that in the redistribution bill, the Township of Pelham, a Liberal stronghold, returning five hundred Liberal majority every election, is not tacked on to Lincoln. If German loses Pelham support, it is pretty certain he will be defeated, and if the Liberal candidate in Lincoln has Pelham back of him, the present Conservative member, E. A. Lancaster, will surely fall by the wayside. It is likely an arrangement will be made to leave Pelham where it is with Welland.
