A PICTURESQUE PLAY

Arizona Throbbing Play of the Strange Cactus Country.

One of the real treats of the return of Helen Mayo and her company to the Opera House will be the presentation of that remarkable play Arizona, at the Opera House tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night. Dr. Chase's more intense drama has ever been given the American stage. Its scenes are filled with the atmosphere of that famed locality. The Squaw Man is announced for this afternoon. The last week of this engagement will commence with The Gentleman of Mississippi, Monday night. This comedy drama is said to be even a better play than The Man of the Hour.

A Blow at the White Plague

Just think what it would mean if even half the deaths from consumption could be avoided. It is surely not too much to claim that at least in many cases are directly due to neglect to cure colds.

It is a simple matter to control a cold when you catch it. The use of Syrup of Linsed and Turpentine in the house for prompt use when the first symptoms appear. Many thousands have found relief from this well-known medicine has.

Croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat and chest colds soon yield to the healing, soothing influence of this great medicine. You can readily prove this and will then understand why this treatment is so popular.

IN THE SUPREME COURT, KING'S BENCH DIVISION.

IN THE MATTER OF Nepsikut Lumber Company Limited and its winding-up under The Winding-up Act and Amending Acts.

UPON application of the Liquidators of the above named Company, and reading their petition, and the order of the court, it is ORDERED that the creditors of the above named Company and all others who have claim against the said Company recently carrying on business at Bathurst in the County of Gloucester in the Province of New Brunswick, are on or before the tenth day of June A. D. 1912 to send by post prepaid to George Gilbert and Eldridge F. Mackay, the Liquidators of the said Company at their offices at Bathurst aforesaid their claims and surmises, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, and the nature and amounts of the securities, if any, held by them, and the specified value of such securities verified on oath, and in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefits of the said Act, and of the winding-up order in this matter.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that I do appoint Friday the twelfth day of July A. D. 1912 at eleven o'clock in the forenoon at my chambers in Pugsley Building in the City of Saint John as the time and place for hearing the report of the Liquidators upon the claims of creditors submitted to them pursuant to this order, and by all parties thereto attend.

Dated the 25th day of March A. D. 1912.

CLOSE THE SEASON BY A DINNER

The Basketball season of the Portland Y. M. C. A. was officially closed last evening when the members, twenty in number, sat down to a banquet and their rooms on Portland street, and after they had done full justice to a sumptuous fare A. C. Powers, president of the organization, called the gathering to order to listen to the following programme:—Singing of the blessing; presentation of a card case to Frank D. Thorne by E. Hamilton on behalf of the basketball teams of the Y. M. C. A.; reading, J. Irvine; presentation of the contest ribbons by F. Thorne; addresses by P. G. Hayes, A. C. Powers and Captain Robinson of the Y. M. C. A. basketball team; comic song, James Todd; addresses, E. A. Armour, G. Lingley and P. S. Thomas; presentation of the basketball ribbons, A. C. Powers; presentation of the shields by Rev. H. D. Marr.

The Portland Y. M. C. A. brought to a close a very successful season during which they won the intermediate championship of the city from the Y. M. C. A. team a few weeks ago. During the winter they conducted an inside basketball league in which many classy games were played.

Ho! For Griddle Cakes and Maple Syrup

Spring is here at last and the sap is flowing free. Now for light, digestible foods and a merrier life under warmer skies. Bring along the griddle cakes and plenty of them. Add plenty of the juice of the maple—the syrup that kings would approve. But, good housewife! If you want your griddle cakes to reflect great credit on you, see that you make them with passingly delicious. Make anything the family desires (anything that you can make with flour) with Purity and your reputation as a cook will go up several notches at least.

N.B.—Put Purity on your grocery list—you'll keep it there.

PURITY FLOUR

the flour that is far-famed simply because it "makes more and better bread." Purity is the name of Canada's extra special flour rolled in bright sun-lit mills from Canada's extra special wheat. No other flour can with it compare. It imparts a flavor and a richness to griddle cakes that makes them sur-
