The UNSOLD parts of the following property will be offered for sale on days which will be specified when the general wishes of purchasers are ascertained.

VALUABLE
Landed Property,
FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

On MONDAY Oct. 16, 1837, at 10 o'clock A. M.

WILL be offered for sale on the Premises, a valuable tract of about 300 acres of land situated on the East side of Magaguadavic River, about a mile above the village at the Lower Falls and extending from the River to Lake Utopia.—About a third of this tract is under cultivation and the remainder is covered with a thrifty and useful growth of wood. The soil is excellent and supplied with fine brooks and springs. There are three dwelling houses and a large new barn near the highway leading from St. John to St. Andrews.—The above property is laid out in lots containing from 5 to 20 acres respectively.

—ALSO—

On TUESDAY Oct. 17, 1837, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the house of Mr. T. P. SHAW Lower Falls.

About 500 acres of land on the Eastern shore of Lake Utopia in rear of the above lots. The soil is of superior quality, well wooded and watered. A road leads through it from L'Etang to Whidden's mills on the Upper Falls. About 20 acres are intervale on the Lake front, with a barn and a house [illegible] On another part of the premises [illegible] in the parish of St. George [illegible] acres of land under cultivation, with a house now occupied. It will be sold entire or in allotments of 10, 40, and 60 acres

—ALSO—

On MONDAY Oct. 23, 1837, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the house of Mr. JOHN McGILL, near Wellington bridge, St. Patrick; 600 acres of land fronting on the West side of Digdeguash River, opposite to Falls' brook, about [illegible] miles above the House and Mills of the Hon. James Allanshaw & Co. The soil and growth of the first quality, finely situated, and surrounded with flourishing settlements. It will be sold in one or smaller lots if desired

—ALSO—

On SATURDAY Oct. 28, 1837, at 10 o'clock A. M. At Beau-sejour, on the premises, the Eastern half of Ministers Isl. (so called,) with all its buildings and improvements, situated at a short distance from the Chamcook mills of John Wilson Esquire, and 5 miles from St. Andrews, bounded by the waters of the Passamaquoddy Bay, Craig's land, and the property of the Church. It contains about 130 acres; the Queen's highway passes obliquely through its rear, on which part of the lot are two comfortable dwelling houses, one at Beau-sejour, the other at Weepeckaw, and a new barn, all finished in the best manner; and along the road are about 20 acres cleared. A private road leads from the highway lengthwise through the lot to Tasse-d'argent cove on the bay, which forms a good harbour for small vessels, and affords a capital privilege for fishing; as also an excellent opportunity for procuring sea manure, which is constantly to be found there. A large fine brook meanders through two thirds of the length of the lot, and debouches into Tasse-d'argent cove. The land is well situated in front and rear, is plentifully stored with a great variety of wood and furnished with many springs of most salubrious water. At the cove, 25 acres are cleared, on most of which crops of grain or potatoes have been produced. It will be sold in divisions of 10 or 20 acres to suit purchasers, or altogether if required

—ALSO—

On MONDAY Oct. 30, 1837, at 10 o'clock A. M. At the several premises in the town of St Andrews, the following property, viz:

The dwelling House, West end of Queen Street, now occupied by C. V. Forster, Esq. of Her Majesty's Customs. It is well finished, conveniently planned, situated in a pleasant part of the Town, and will be sold with the outhouses together with a part of the town lot on which they stand

The convenient and well finished Cottage, adjoining the aforesaid property, with the remainder of the town lot, and appurtenances belonging thereto.

Town Lot No. 1, Block R, Bulkeley's division; the best situation in town for a private residence or respectable house of entertainment.

Town Lot No. 6 in same Block, fronting on Montague Street, and adjoining the former.

Water Lot No. 6, Block K, same division, situated between the house lately built by James McMath, and the large dwelling house near the West end of Water Street.

Descriptive details of each of the above Properties will be produced in writing at the several times of sale.

"By this time, we were passing beautiful islets that speckle the lake. I pointed them out to my "I am unable to look upon that island, "without remembering a sad event happened there, and blighted many hope.

"I was crossing the lake a few years with my daughter—an only child health had suffered in the cold region northwest, and I was journeying to her climate before the rigors of winter spread upon the earth. The steamer Niagara—I mention her name because not injure the owners, as she has been removed from this station—was properly engined, manned, nor commanded. Her cabins were filled with passengers her decks were crowded with luggage freight. We were unable to face the ty of an equinoctial gale, and the poor weak man, every way unqualified command of a vessel, proposed overboard the luggage of the passengers and in spite of our protestations, was carried his absurd proposition into for the resolute conduct of an officer United States' Navy. This gentleman ing the situation of the poor emigrants would have lost their all, upon first monstrance useless, actually confined captain in his cabin, and assumed tion of the boat. The crew were at their commander's pusillanimity, and fully obeyed the naval officer's orders were, therefore, eventually landed at sired port. It is the only instance ever experienced, wherein mutiny tively praiseworthy.

"The gale was awfully severe. waters of the fresh water seas are agitated by the wind; and the waves over our boat in a volume that have disgraced the Atlantic press. that we should be driven on shore into Put-in-Bay—a nook formed in east island in that group. We were in this humble roadstead for three our provisions were exhausted, and unable to obtain anything from the mer on the island but a few bushels rice. We had fresh water in abundance certainly, but it was asserted, and with truth, that the use of the lake riously affected the sweetness of the Perhaps the still water in the bay ed with the decomposition of vegetable ter, and had an offensive factor from exposed to the action of the winds

"Our sufferings were dreadful. days we had barely sufficient nourishment keep life within us. My daughter sunk under the privation, and her constitution received a shock it was sustain. She died in my arms, just vessel left the island—and I bore corse across the stormy waters of the find a resting place in the stranger

The feelings of the parent over good old man. He turned aside, I would not insult him with trite ments, but, leaning over the taffrail on the vagaries of fortune, till the drum summoned us below.

We were enjoying the comforts of spread board, when I noticed the chair clerk suddenly leave the table, and deck. A whisper went the round of ers, and they ran up the stairs in We had scarcely time to make our tions on this curious conduct, when of confusion were heard from the Several of the passengers left the table quire into the cause of this disorder was shortly heard from an open skylight questing some of the men to come up ship was on fire, and the flames were furiously.

The reader must form his own the confusion which such an announcement would make amongst upwards of two passengers, with more than the usual plement of women and children. not attempt a description of the scene universal dismay.

I succeeded in getting upon deck almost suffocated by a cloud of dense smoke. The beams adjoining one places had caught fire, and the frame of the boiler was in flames. The hose vessel had been put for the nearest the shore, which was about five miles Buckets of water were freely applied the violence of the flames did not abate.

The wind being off shore, had driven thick body of smoke over the after part vessel, and the whole of the passengers compelled to crowd the forward deck cape being choked.

A cry arose—"The boilers must burst"—let us take to the boats." ment was made; when my friend nel, jumped on a pile of wood that thrown from one of the fire rooms clear round voice sounded distinctly the tumult.

"My friends there is no danger
