Character in Dress.

An old philosopher has declared that "not matter, but form, is the individualizing principle."

A man's gait, the poise of his hat, the cut of his beard, his attire, all denote or are his individuality.

"Semi-ready" preserves it.

Sold at the trying-on stage, when he may select color and pattern effects accurately.

TOPMAST WON THE HANDICAP

Chopin Second and Alfred Vargrave Third in Feature Event at Woodbine Park.

RED BREAST'S MELGUND STAKES.

Mystic Shriner at 8 to 1 and Jennie at 7 to 2 Spoiled the Success of Favorites.

Again favorites failed only twice on the fourth day of the Hunt Club's races at Woodbine Park. Silver Garter, in the opening race, was easily beaten by Jennie, the second choice, and Higbee in the jumping race ran third to Mystic Shriner and Eli Kindig. The track was fast and the weather cloudy. The crowd was about the same as on Monday and Tuesday, and once more the public had the better of the argument of odds. Except in the maiden event, the fields ranged only from four to six starters, and odds-on ruled against the favorites.

Alfred C. led the way to the three-quarter pole in the opening race, when Gold Lack showed momentarily. Jennie cut loose in the last eighth, and won easily. Silver Garter was slow to get under way, and just managed to get the place in a drive. Silver Garter to win and Jennie two ways received the most attention from the players.

Cassidy sent the big field of a dozen maidens away to a good start under the circumstances. Wilkerson went away in a good position, and never was in trouble, tho Antagone made a gallant attempt, and was leading at the betting ring. Euclaire and Paisley made up a lot of ground. Zazanesse was unfortunate, starting flat-footed, tho carrying a lot of snow money. Mary Kelly ran disappointingly. Euclaire was tipped as a good show proposition, Wilkerson and Antagone were backed as they finished.

It was all over but hoisting the number in the Melgund Stakes. Red Breast, win Ballard up, closed at 1 to 4, was out in front and romped home. Litigation and Gloxinia raced up the stretch for the place, and they finished as they were supported.

The five were well together in the Scarboro Handicap, and all but Vargrave were backed to win. They did not let Butter Scotch too far away this time, tho she led for a mile, but gave up when Topmast drove to the front. Little Martin rode a great race, tho Chopin forced him to his best. The grey was off well, but dropped behind the bunch along the back stretch. Orontas was a sore disappointment, and his supporters left many big bets behind.

The Canadian Hunt, Steeplechase finished a splendid spectacle. After Leading Lady stumbled over the eighteenth jump, the trio raced together, and were all in the air together the second time over the water. Eli Kindig then led a killing pace, and going on the flat the favorite was beaten. Meagher handled Mystic Shriner splendidly, and ran up the stretch an easy winner. Only the nibblers were on the long shot. Eli Kindig was played for the place. Higbie was taken as a cinch.

The farmers' race was something of a farce. Several owners failed to find riders, and after a new book was ordered only four were ready to start, with Richmond as the good thing at 2 to 5. The quartet finished strong, with about five lengths between each pair. Farmers' race, purse $200, 6 furlongs—M. Meagher's Richmond, ch g, 3, by Gamble Orr, 154 (J. Meagher), 1; William Thorn's Lady Bell, b f, 4, 154, (E. Patterson), 2; S. Jewell's Black Jim, blk g, 6, 154 (J. Jewell), 3. Time 1.33¼. Parquet also ran.

Prejudice had the closing race handily, starting out in front and indulging Lotter in the lead around the lower turn. Acushla was easily second. Pharaoh finished strong, taking the show from Lotter. They were backed just as they finished, and the combination book had its best crowd in line.

Messrs. Carruthers & Shields had a good day, and somewhat recouped the firm for earlier losses at the meet. Both Topmast and Prejudice were strongly supported by the stable, and little Jack Martin came in for abig share of the double victory.

Six for Nash Turner.

New York, Sept. 12.—Jockey Nash Turner had a field day at Gravesend to-day, putting four winners first past the judges. A card of six overnight events was run off. Bullman had a narrow escape from a serious injury in the fourth race, and was so badly shaken up by Vulcain's fall that he may not be seen in the saddle again for several days. Only four horses faced the starter in the race, with Vulcain a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 5. Rounding the far turn, Bullman, who had been pulling his mount along behind his field, tried to go up the rail, and in doing so the horse appeared to strike the rail and fell in a heap. Bullman lay stretched on the track where he fell, and looked to be dangerously hurt. He was taken to his home, and it was said he would be all right in a few days. The field went on, and Big Gun, the rank outsider at 50 to 1, won easily, in slow time. Turner rode Decanter to victory in the second race, Barbara Frietchie in the third, Old Dolando in the fifth, and Red Path in the last. It took his best efforts to win in each race. McCue took the other two races, with Big Gun at 50 to 1 and La Vallerie at 10 and 8 to 1. The weather was clear and bright and the track fast.

Grand Circuit Results.

New York, Sept. 12.—A strong wind prevented fast time in the Grand Circuit races at the Empire City track to-day. In the opening event, the 2.15-trot, there were eight starters, and the public made a lively plunge on the chestnut horse, Pilatus, who sold at $100, while the whole field only brought $125. The favorite was never formidable, as the race resolved itself into a duel between Green Brino and Captain Jack. The latter won the first heat by a length, but in a desperate finish in the second Green Brino won by a neck. He won the next two heats with a little to spare.

Eight met in the 2.15 pace, and Daphne Dallas sold at $25 to $40 for the field. The favorite won the first heat easily, but in the second he only landed by a neck, and in the third Gyp Walnut led to the distance, but in a whipping finish Art Alco won by a head.

SPRINGFIELD WON A GAME

Errors Lost for the Islanders and it Was Defeat No. 31 by One Run.

TORONTO HAD NINETEEN HITS.

Rochester Again Beat the Leaders and Worcester Won From Syracuse.

Defeats on Monday and Tuesday disgusted Manager Tom Burns with baseball, so yesterday he visited Woodbine Park to play the horses, and his own Ponies made a winning sprint at the island during his absence.

The teams shift around to-day, with Hartford at the island. The Blue Jays have rested three days in Montreal, and the only suspicion of play that Bill Shindle will report is the morning pranks of the hose on the grounds, and Dooley is credited with no errors.

Rochester took another fall from the leaders, and Worcester, with Crystall, late of Woodstock, on the slab, beat the Stars. Duggleby will twirl this afternoon for Toronto, and likely Flaherty for Hartford.

Yesterday was Toronto's 31st defeat of the season by one run, tho the team made 19 hits. Record:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Providence	78	51	.605
Rochester	72	52	.582
Hartford	64	50	.561
Worcester	62	59	.512
Toronto	58	66	.467
Springfield	55	63	.466
Montreal	53	65	.449
Syracuse	43	79	.352

Games to-day: Hartford at Toronto, Springfield at Montreal, Worcester at Rochester, Providence at Syracuse.

Springfield 9, Toronto 8.

The Ponies won their closing game of the year with Toronto. In the third innings Clymer fumbled Knoll's grounder, and Cargo drew first on balls. Then Tucker, Toft and Woods followed with a single, double and triple for four runs. Shannon walked, and was forced out, while the pitcher scored, and Curley's three-bagger was good for the sixth run. Dolan tried to cross the plate when Schaub was throwing out Schoch, the result being a double play.

The Islanders started at Wally Woods as if they liked him. The Bannons made singles, Carr and Lynch doubles, and Roach a safe hit. The last pair were caught between the bases, or the runs would have been more than three. Clymer's double and Bruce's single scored one in the second. The Ponies' run in the first innings was due to Knoll's two-base hit and Cargo's drive over Clymer's head. Toronto's run in the disastrous round was scored by Schaub on his two-base hit and Bruce's single. Each side drew a pair in the eighth, Toronto by Roach's single and Schaub's homer over the fence, and Springfield on safe drives by Tucker, Toft and Shannon, the second hit being for two bases. The Islanders notched one in the ninth on Grey's single and Carr's double. Score:

Dunnville Beat the Indians.

Dunnville, Sept. 12.—On Monday the home team played a wonderful and exciting 13 innings game with the Nebraska Indians. The score stood 1 to 1, after which it was declared a tie, on account of approaching darkness. Tuesday's game, after a record breaking finish, was won by the Indians by a score of 9 to 8. To-day a number of business men, satisfied that we had the best team, offered to Magor, manager of the Indians, $25 a side on a third game. The Indians accepted the challenge and did not go to Woodstock, as was intended. After a most exciting contest, Dunnville succeeded in winning out in the ninth. Score:

Torontos and Nationals.

As a rule, near the close of a season, lacrosse players are wont to be careless in their training, and club-trainers, too, allow slips on the part of the players to pass unnoticed, which, earlier in the season, would not be countenanced. It is a relief therefore, to see a team preparing for their final match of the season with as much, if not more, willingness than characterized their training in the beginning of the season. Each night at Rosedale the Torontos are out, getting into shape for their game with the Nationals on Saturday, and those spectators who have seen them work are loud in their praise of the enthusiasm which animates all the players, and which is exhibited with great prominence in their playing. The local Senior Lacrosse League representatives will be in first-class condition when they tackle the Nationals, and will be prepared to stand any pace the
