JUDICIAL SALE

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO

Dromgole vs. Barker, et al.

Pursuant to the judgment and final order for sale made in this cause, and bearing date the 25th day of November, 1916, there will be sold, with the approbation of H. S. Blackburn, Esq., Master of this Court at London, at his chambers, in the County Buildings in the City of London, by Joseph Brown, Auctioneer, at the hour of 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the 19th day of June, 1917, the following lands and premises, namely:

The Cruickshank Block, on the south-east corner of Richmond and York streets, in the City of London, in the County of Middlesex, being composed of parts of Lots Numbers Nine and Ten, South York street, and known as Street Numbers 320, 322, 324 and 326 on the east side of Richmond street, having a frontage on Richmond street of ninety-six feet, ten inches, by a depth of one hundred and twelve feet, three and one-half inches.

The said block consists of three separate and distinct warehouses, four stories high with basement. Each warehouse has an elevator and separate heating plant with a combined sprinkler system for the three warehouses.

The property will be offered for sale subject to a reserve bid, which has been fixed by the Master. The purchaser shall pay ten per cent (10%) of his purchase money at the time of sale to the vendors or their solicitors, and the balance in thirty days thereafter to the credit of this action, without interest.

In making requisitions and objections in respect of title the purchaser shall be bound by the following conditions:

The property is sold subject to the existing tenancies and to all easements and rights of adjoining owners, affecting the same, if any, without obligation to the vendor to show the creation thereof. As regards the small portion of the property composed of part of Lot Nine not exceeding three feet three inches in extent, being on the rear and east side of the property, which has been continuously inclosed for fifteen years and upwards by the vendor or his predecessor in title, no title shall be required beyond the possession thereof by the vendors at the time of sale, nor shall any title or evidence be required as to the easement or right to maintain the overhanging cornices and projections on the south wall of the building upon the said lands. The vendors will only be required to furnish a Registrar's Abstract of Title and to produce such deeds, copies thereof or evidence of title as are in their possession. In case the purchaser shall make any objections or requisitions as to title or otherwise which the vendor shall from any cause or on any grounds whatever be unwilling or unable to answer or comply with, and shall not withdraw the same after being required so to do, the vendor may by notice in writing at any time rescind the sale. In that case the purchaser shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit money without interest, costs or compensations or other payment whatsoever, in full satisfaction of all claims and demands, and he shall thereupon return all documents in his possession belonging to the vendor.

In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale shall be the standing conditions of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

Further particulars may be had from Messrs. Ivey & Ivey, Merchants' Bank Building, London, Ontario.

Dated at London, this 15th day of May, 1917.

(Signed) H. S. BLACKBURN,
Local Master at London.
