His teachings show no belief in Jesus Christ any more than in Moses or Paul, in Zeroaster or Mohammed, all of whom he thinks were from God and inspired. In politics as in religion he is far away from the right—the apologist of tyranny, of might in its outrages on helpless weakness. Such are Carlyle's defects, very serious surely, and more than enough to strike him out of the category of Reformers. He has written magnificent things. We do not wonder that the Lecturer, having studied him so well, feels his power. Kneeling at the base of the bold crag, the glorious summits of distant ranges of hills are hidden from our eyes. The crags fill our sight and shut out the golden splendor. Even so the Lecturer has sat so long under Carlyle's shadow that he sees things too much in his light and fails to see other and brighter sources of truth and light. Most of us, good men, have gone through a similar process; but we all get over it sooner or later, and become somewhat ashamed of our idols. Mr. Grant will be ashamed of his idol by and by.

On the abuse given by Mr. Grant to the Religious Press, the Witness says:—

"Rev. G. M. Grant, in his Lecture quotes and endorses the following sentiments from Robertson of Brighton,——"miserable productions miscalled Religious Newspapers, whose unhallowed work it seems to be on earth to point out to its votaries whom they ought to suspect instead of whom they ought to love, and to sow the seed of dissension, malice, hatred, and all uncharitableness." Mr. Grant himself adds, "Religious Newspapers! The Irish Church means I believe a Church not for the Irish people. So most certainly a Religious Newspaper means a newspaper that has no religion." The Religious newspapers are no better than they should be. Like Ministers and Lecturers they make blunders at times, and display a not very charitable spirit. But for Mr. Grant to adopt the language quoted above and hurl it in the teeth of gentlemen on the same platform with himself was at least an odd way of exhibiting charity. The Editors of the Wesleyan, the Messenger, and the Church Monitor sent to that Christian Association Lecture not with the expectation of being insulted and set down as hypocrites doing all sorts of evil work. But it is another illustration of the danger there is to Mr. Grant, and impressible minds like his, in reading naughty books. Robertson was a remarkably brilliant man, but he entertained many most absurd and erroneous views. He was a thorough fanatic and a bigot. A full grown man like Mr. Grant should be above taking such opinions on trust.

We will venture to say that there is more bitterness, ill-feeling and personal abuse in a week's average issue of our leading secular papers than in a twelve-month's issue of the whole Religious press; and further, if Mr. Grant takes the trouble of looking over the columns of the Religious press he will find that not one issue is ever sent forth which does not contain Gospel truth—more Gospel indeed than is to be found in many a printed sermon.

With all their faults too they are generally found on the side of progress in politics, and they have a good word for every good cause.

WELL MERITED TRIBUTE.—We learn that on Wednesday evening last the members of Mr. Archibald Morton's Society Class, had a very pleasant social gathering, in the room which has been used by them as a class-room for many years past; and, after tea, spent an hour delightfully in christian communion and prayer. At the close, the members of the class presented to Mr. and Mrs. Morton some tokens of their christian regard, together with an address expressing their grateful appreciation of Mr. Morton's labours as their leader for so many years; to which Mr. M. made a suitable reply. Mr. Morton is justly held in high esteem for his lengthened usefulness in the church of God.

ON DIT.—It is supposed that the Legislature of Nova Scotia will not be summoned to meet for the despatch of business until the third week in March, and that the Session will be a short one. Hon. Mr. Howe and Mr. Annand are said to be now on their way from England. Hon. Dr. Tupper and colleagues, it is said, will come by the steamer leaving on the 2nd March.

The congregation of St. Paul's Church, in this city, have founded an Institution for the support and training of destitute young girls. Such an enterprise was much needed, and we hope will prove a blessing to many who might otherwise fall into evil.

The Church Monitor is the title of a new paper, published by a committee of gentlemen of the English Church. Its principles, as announced in the Prospectus, render it worthy of encouragement by every Protestant Churchman. We wish the Monitor great success and usefulness.

A letter has appeared in some of the papers, from Isaiah Peppard, of Londonderry, stating that he had been robbed at Broad Cove, C. B., by a man named Willis, and had lost thereby $280. Willis had been apprehended, but the money had not been found.

MR. RAND'S LECTURE.—The Lecture last week by Rev. Mr. Rand, styled, a "Scrripture Panorama, or the Palace, the Prison, and the Prayer Meeting," was delivered before a full house, and was listened to with great attention. It was a beautiful representation of the scenes detailed in the 12th chapter of Acts, and would no doubt serve to give to youth who heard it a greater interest in that chapter, and a more vivid apprehension of the occurrences therein narrated than they previously had. The Rev. C. M. Grant lectures next Tuesday before the Y. M. C. Association, subject, "The Godward side of History."

IRELAND AND THE IRISH.—A lecture on "Ireland and the Irish" will be given on Thursday evening, in Temperance Hall, by Rev. Mr. McKeown, well known as a first class speaker. This lecture has, we believe, been given elsewhere with great success, and we advise all who hail from the Emerald Isle to go and hear a son of old Ireland on his native country. Tickets for sale at the bookstores and at the Hall—Rep.

REV. MR. NARRAWAY.—A writer in the Church Witness, signing himself "Amicus," comes down, in a friendly way of course, upon the Rev. Mr. Narraway for denouncing Ritualism at a recent meeting of the Bible Society in the City of St. John. "The question of Ritualism," says Amicus, "is one which the members of the Church of England are trying to settle among themselves, and they ought to be allowed to do so without the interference of members of others bodies, on the platform of the Bible Society." We can anticipate Mr Narraway's reply—that the existence of Ritualism effects all denominations alike, striking at the fundamental principles of our common Christianity, while it is sapping the foundation of the Church of England. This is not merely a family quarrel, which Episcopalians might otherwise very properly settle among themselves. In England the church is the Church of the nation, hitherto inseparably joined to the State, sworn to protest against Ritualism and all other isms of like nefarious tendencies. To sustain her in these contests, ALL OTHER denominations are compelled to pay directly or indirectly a tenth of their earthly possessions; consequently when any portion of this national establishment gives itself over to error, and would involve others in the same condemnation, it is not to be tried by the remaining portion merely, but in the general of constitutional Protestantism. "Amicus" has made a mistake. We are all as the members of one common body; if the eye or hand offend, the body is in torture; so with reference to the body ecclesiastical, the offending member must be lopped off, must be consigned to the moral lazaretto, else the whole system is innoculated with the virus of error, and the body dies. But Mr. Narraway will tell us all about it.—Fredericton Rep.

United States.

Congress has struck Rome from the list of places to which Ministers of State are to be sent. The reason given for this act is the intolerance of the Pope in driving the Protestant service in connection with the American Embassy beyond the limits of Rome.

A New York paper states that at the present time there is not a single merchant ship or steamer building at any of the numerous ship yards of New York, Brooklyn or Jersey city.

Gen. Butler has declared himself in favour of the annexation of the British Provinces.

Mr. Motley, the American Minister at Vienna, has resigned his post on account of reflection cast upon him by President Johnson and Secretary Seward, Mr. Motley being reported as having expressed his disgust at the conduct of the President, and his preference for English above American gentlemen. Mr. Motley indignantly denied these charges, and resigned his office. The one who sent the report is now an applicant for the position.

The Acts of Congress revoking the Amnesty power of the President, and regulating the elective franchise in the Territories, have been officially published.

The President has vetoed the Bill for the admission of Colerado, and also the Nebraska bill.

The Rev. Dr. Prime has addressed a letter to the N. Y. Observer showing the state of matters as regards the expulsion of the Presbyterian and American worship from Rome, from which we make an extract:—

"JANUARY 5, 1867.—Worse than our worst fears—the blow has been struck, and Presbyterians are ordered to desist from public worship in the Papal dominions!!!

Yesterday, Mr. Odo Russell, as the acting representative of the British Government, had an interview with Cardinal Antonelli, the Prime Minister of the Pope. Mr. Russell expressed his surprise, on being informed that an order had been issued requiring the Scotch Presbyterians to desist from the worship they had been holding in the private houses of their pastors. He asked the Cardinal if he was aware that these meetings had been held for six years past, without objection being made by any one, and if there were any special reason why they were now so summarily suppressed. The Cardinal intimated, in reply, that the Government had for many years past been under restraint; but now that foreign protection was removed, they would administer it according to their own views of duty; that one English chapel was open, (the Episcopal chapel outside of the city) and that was enough for the English in Rome.

Mr. Russell said the Cardinal must be aware that the suppression of Presbyterian worship would produce a great excitement in Britain, and the action of the Pontifical Government be loudly condemned. This suggestion, however, produced no effect, and Mr. Russell remarked that the Americans are allowed to have a place of worship. To this the Cardinal answered that the Government would attend to that also! Finding argument and remonstrance vain, Mr. Russell returned, and reported the result of his interview. The two places of worship are, therefore, peremptorily closed! There is, therefore, no place in Rome, or in the Papal dominions, where Presbyterians are permitted to meet for divine worship.

Paul could preach two whole years, in his own hired house, in Pagan Rome. But Papal Rome forbids the Protestant follower of the Apostle to worship God with his friends, in his own hired house. Pagan Rome was more tolerant in Paul's day than Papal Rome in ours.

In the House of Representatives at Washington on Tuesday last:—

Mr. Darling, of N. Y., offered a resolution, which was adopted, that whereas the commercial marine of the United States is reported to be in a languishing condition, and there exists also a great depression in the ship building interest, owing to the legislation and action of foreign governments, and therefore

Resolved, That the Committee on ways and means be and it is hereby instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending the tariff act by a provision to the effect that all goods imported in American bottoms shall be entitled to a rebate of ten per cent. of the duties imposed by said act.

LONDON, Feb. 12th—No riotous proceedings have taken place at Chester, as was apprehended, and the city is quiet.

The presence of a number of supposed Fenians, who had recently crossed over from Ireland, gave rise to these apprehensions, but they have left the town without creating any disturbance.

Resolutions were passed denouncing the Derby Government, and demanding manhood suffrage.

On Monday afternoon the House of Commons was crowded to hear the expected announcement of the Government programme.

Mr. Disraeli delivered a long historical essay on Reform and the English Constitution. Toward the close of his speech, he said, the Government would introduce resolutions to test the sense of Parliament before presenting a Reform Bill, and fixed the 25th as the day for offering them.

The resolutions are vague and unsatisfactory, and merely state general principles.

LONDON, Feb. 13—The Liberal organs generally denounce the plan of Reform announced by Disraeli on Monday afternoon in the House of Commons. An American ship has left a Spanish port bound to Candia for the purpose of removing suffering families of Christians from the Island.

BERLIN, Feb. 13—In the election which took place yesterday for a member of the North German Parliament the Liberals carried this city.

FLORENCE, Feb. 13—By a decree of King Victor Emanuel the calling Parliament which had been prorogued is dissolved, and elections for a new Parliament are ordered to take place on the 10th of March next.

Consols and 5-20's unchanged.

LONDON, Feb. 14—The British Government will assume the legal expense of the defence of Governor Eyre, of Jamaica whose trial is now progressing. The Bill for the Confederation of the British North American Provinces only embraces the two Canadas.

LONDON, Feb. 14—The government has been advised of the landing of two ship loads of Fenians at Valentia. Sir Hugh Rose, the Commander of the troops in Ireland, and Lord Nass, leave for Ireland at once. There is a wild rumor that the Fenians will attempt to cut the cable. Consols closed at 90¾. U. S. 6-20's 73¼.

The New York Herald's special cable despatch, dated Dublin, Feb. 14, says that news has reached there that the Fenians assembled at Killarney, and marched towards Kentmare. Troops, with artillery, have been sent in pursuit.

VALENTIA, IRELAND, Feb. 15, 8-45 P. M.—The telegraph wires ceased working between Valentia and Killarney at half-past seven o'clock last night, and are still down. Two large despatches which were sent through the cable today, were received by mail from Killarney.

LONDON, Feb. 14—The Government denies the widespread story of the landing of ship loads of Fenians at Valencia and in the Shannon. That there had been a serious revolt at or near Killarney is admitted. The telegraph wires near Valencia have been cut and destroyed for a long distance and in all directions. Riot and pillage are the order of the day, and several establishments have been sacked. A coast guard policeman has been killed.

LONDON, Feb. 15—About eight hundred Fenians, under command of Col. O'Connor, have retreated to the hills lying about Killarney, County Kerry. The British Government posted troops under the command of Col. Horseford at Mallow Junction, in Cork County, commanding the hill district. The excitement in the neighborhood is intense, and many people living in those counties are precipitately leaving.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The telegraph wires in the insurrectionary districts of Ireland, have been cut in all directions, and meagre news is received from that quarter. It is suppressed by the authorities for prudential reasons. A large Fenian party has been surrounded by national troops in Loonis Woods. Chances for escape look exceedingly small. The band of 800, who have retreated to the hills near Killarney, are still at large. The uprising is, thus far, confined to Kerry and Cork counties, and it is not believed that the trouble will spread further.

The Government stated to Parliament to-day that Horseford's forces were altogether too small to follow armed bands of Fenians into Loonis Woods; but the Colonel had hopes of surrounding the insurgents, and preventing their escape.

The Authorities in Ireland have assured the British Government that the present rising is totally stopped

☞ The Lecture in Temperance Hall to-morrow evening, by the Rev. Mr. McKeown, will be worth hearing, and we hope will command a full house. Those who desire to hear something racy upon "Ireland and the Irish," will do well to attend. The proceeds are to be appropriated to aid the Temperance Reading Room.

DARTMOUTH MISSIONARY MEETING.—The Missionary Meeting in the Dartmouth Wesleyan Church will be held this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The Ministers of the Deputation, and others, will address the meeting.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

IT is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer,

LAROOKAH'S

SARSAPARILLA COMPOUND

Is an Alterative Medicine of uniform strength the effect of which is to eradicate from the system all those disorders which originate in IMPURE BLOOD.

Each of its ingredients are known and used by medical men in their practice, but this combination is believed to have a greater medical effect than could be produced by their use separately or in any other form.

SARSAPARILLA, by itself, as is well known, operates slowly on the system, but combined with other and more active agents as in this compound, its purifying effects are speedy and lasting

Hence, Scrofula, in all its multitudinous forms, whether in that commonly known as King's Evil, Enlargement of the Glands or Bones, Goitre, White Swellings, Chronic Rheumatism, Cancer, Diseases of the Skin or Spine, or of Pulmonary consumption, emanating from the same cause, which is a poisonous principle or virus in the system, is in most cases completely eradicated by this medicine.

There are unfortunately, cases of this loathsome distemper which through neglect have passed beyond the reach of human skill; these cases however, are rare, and many patients who had been given up to die by their phosicians and friends have gained health, strength, and a new lease of life, by a persistent use of this remed, coupled with an avoidance of the causes which aggravate the disease.

Curing Scrofula in all its forms, this preparation may be relied on as an effectual remedy for complaints of a kindred nature, such as Dropsical Swellings, Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, Enlargement of the Ovaries, Epilepsy, Erysipelas, St. Anthony's Fire, Gout, Chronic Inflammation of the mucous membranes of the throat, windpipe, nose, and ears, Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections. Neuralgia or Tic Doleureux, Phthsis, Pulmonalis Scald Head, Ulcers of all kinds, Weakness or soreness of the Eyes, Female Complaints, such as Suppression, Irregularity, Leucorrœha, Sterrility, &c, General Debility, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, Carbuncles, Pain in the stomach, side, and bowels, and all those affections which require alterative or purifyind medicine.

Space will not permit the publication of certificates of cures, or of Physicians who use this remedy in their practice. Such, and other valuable information for the sick, accompany each bottle.

Compounded the most scrupulous care from drugs selected or grown by ourselves Larookah's Sarsaparilla is offered to the profession and the public with the utmost confidence that it will always be found the best remedy available for that class class of diseases which we recommend it to cure.

Price $1 per bottle; or 6 bottles for 5$.

For the cure of

Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Catarrah, Bronchitis, Influenza, Pleurisy, Spitting of Blood, Pains in the Side, Night Sweats, Humors, General Debility, the various Throat Affections and Hoarseness to which Public Speakers and Singers are liable, Consumption in its early stages, and Complaints tending to Consumption.

This Preparation is universally acknowledged to be the best remedy for Pulmonic Complaints that has ever been made available to the public Purely vegetable in its composition, it may be administered with safety to the tenderest infant; while at the same time is sufficiently active to meet the requirements of the most robust.—The proprietor constantly bears in mind that the sick require the best aid that science can devise; and under his personal supervision, Dr. Larookah's Syrup is kept at that high standard of excellence which has won for it at the bedside of the suffering such a reputation as no other medicine has ever merited or attained.

For Colds and Coughs.—Take the Syrup morning, noon and evening, according to directions on the bottle. Take the largest dose at night, at retiring to bed.

For Croup or Hives.—Give the Syrup in doses large enough to produce vomiting, and it will effect an immediate cure.

Whooping Cough, however severe, may be alleviated and cured by the Larookah's Syrup given from three to five times a day.

Asthma and Catarrah.—Asthma, or Phthisis is caused by an accumulation of mucus or matter in the bronchial tubes which run through and supply every portion of the lungs with air; besides the phlegm which clogs up the wind tubes, they are often lessened to one-third of their usual diameter by spasmodic contraction, so that it is with the utmost difficult that respiration can be performed.

The Syrup immediately overcomes the contraction of the bronchial tubes, and enable them to expand to their original size; while at the same time it loosen the mucus which clogs them up, and which is by free and easy expectoration, ejected from the lungs.

It should be taken in larger doses than for a mere cough, and in such quantities as will give relief, even if it produces vomiting.

The same treatment should be adopted in Catarrah.

Bronchitis.—Difficulty of breathing, harsh cough, a slimy expectoration, with all other symptoms caused by a disease of the air tubes leading from the throat to the lungs, are directly and specifically relieved by the use of this admirable remedy. This is a very painful, wearing and injurious complaint and always has a powerful tendency to inflame and soften the lungs, and thereby induce the worst forms of pulmonary disease. Be warned in time, ye afflicted, and employ this valuable remedy.

Spitting of blood, Pleurisy, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness, Influenza, &c.—take the Syrup frequently, in moderate doses. Avoid exposure, and everything likely to aggravate the complaint.

Consumption of the Lungs is so distressing and so fatal in its results that those afflicted with its premonitory symptons should have the earliest and best assistance for the recovery of their health which it is possible to secure. We have well founded ground for belief that Larookah's Syrup is a priceless remedy to the unfortunate, who are haunted by the preliminary symptoms of this dreadful disease.
