"Ours."

land possessed of beauties all confined,
uselessness, not even interest showing reby to boast its worth and have combined place to prize, for those that are now growing.

land our country unlimited hopes for thee, ld it be as God intended it t creatures should enjoy thee and be free,
m all such menace that keep thee so unfit.

pure yourself as ever place can be,
ittingly, your beauty goes to waste; trolled are you by people who can't see,
r value, but your own destruction haste.

brains of possibilities gone to waste, ause unknown to a world of seekers.
too, are you poor land, so greatly chaste, use you lack in doers, not in speakers.

sad thy aspect when it should be bright,
ever place should, in this world
of ours;
would that God would cause some guiding light,
would remove such hurtful spheres the showers.

would that He with wisdom at control,
knowledge in advance, of actions after.
vent and cause such creatures of a fold
use such means, as threaten their name grafter.

would that He with all the wrath required,
fix off such heads aspiring to a height;
thinking of a brainless dome inspired,
places where to reign requires might.

War Memorial.

OBJECTIVE REALIZED.

he objective of the War Memorial now been reached, according to statement made by Padre Nangle the meeting of the Executive Com-ee held on Saturday afternoon in Board of Trade Room, with Mr.
Rendell in the chair. Through the tesy of Mr. W. J. Robinson, M.E., his Govt. Engineer's Dept., a blue-t of the Beach, with the elevations ired was presented. The general of the Memorial is a combination Cross, a leading light, if possible, statuary representations of Y, Army, Air Service, including es and Mercantile Marine. De-will be prepared in due course submitted for approval. The preary period having been brought successful conclusion, the forma-period commences, and it is d that within a year the work be finished. In order to facilitate rs it was considered wise to apa small committee of manage-, composed of the President and tary of the Executive Committee, President and Secretary of the T.A., and Lt.-Col. Nangle.

C. L. B. Parade.

PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED.

The C.L.B. Cadets attended Divine Service at St. Mary's Church, Southside, yesterday morning. There was a large attendance and the Old Comrades and Girl Guides added largely to the strength of the parade. The Battalion was inspected at the Armoury by Lieut.-Colonel R. F. Goodridge, and headed by the Band, proceeded to the Church by way of Le Marchant, Springdale and Water Streets. The service was conducted by the Rector, Rev. A. B. S. Stirling, and the sermon was preached by Rev. A. Clayton, C.F., who spoke of the need of recruits to the ministry. The return to the Armoury was made by way of Water Street, Theatre and Long's Hills, thousands of people lining the route. At the Armoury, Lieut. Col. Goodridge addressed the parade, and spoke in appreciation of the excellent turnout. He expressed his regret that this would be the last Church Parade that Miss A. M. Richards, who was in command of the Girl Guides, would attend with the C.L.B. He also announced that there were a number of good conduct stripes to be awarded and several promotions among the N.C.O.'s. He asked Miss Richards to present the stripes. The Royal Salute brought the parade to a close.

War Memorial

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Please permit me to acknowledge through your columns the receipt of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) from the Benevolent Irish Society, as a donation to the War Memorial Fund, for which I desire to express my sincere appreciation and thanks.

Thanking you in anticipation for space.

Yours faithfully,
T. NANGLE, C.F.

Glencoe's Outward Passengers.

A Speed Artist.

Last evening between 8 and 9 o'clock a blue enameled motor car shot in and out over the Long Pond Road at a rate that outraged all decency. Pedestrians who were taking a stroll on this road were compelled to race to the fences for safety. If the speed demon repeats this performance the number of the car will be given to the police. This matter would only be a matter of simple justice to the majority of motorists who conform to the speed regulations.

N. E. Coast Blocked.

S.S. Prospero was due at Groais Island at 2 p.m. on Saturday. The S. S. Portia was at West Cove, St. Anthony, at 11 a.m. According to a message received by the Minister of Shipping today, both ships report the N. E. Coast blocked with ice. The Marconi Station reports a jam of ice North of Battle Hr., but none South.
