The Lobo Council on Tuesday paid $3 for 6 sheep killed by dogs. John Robinson was paid $23 50 for building a bridge, and A. McMurphy $35 59 for repairing a bridge. John Robinson was also paid $13 for work on another bridge.

At Regina, N. W. T., on Monday last, one of Dorchester township's former well-known residents, passed away suddenly, in the person of Reuben Lane. Heart disease brought about the sad event. The deceased removed to the far west last spring with his family, prior to which time he was one of the most popular and respected of Dorchester's sturdy yeoman, and he carried away many hearty wishes for his success. For thirteen years Mr. Lane was assessor and collector of that township, and also held the position of postmaster at Mosley. He was connected with the Methodist Church, and was an esteemed brother in Masonic circles, being a member of Merrill Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and a past master of Moffatt Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Harrietsville. His wife and eight children survive him, one of the latter holding a good situation as a school teacher near St. Catharines. Deceased's mother is also left behind, together with a sister residing in Michigan, and a brother, Thomas Lane, of Dorchester. The interment took place at Regina.

On Thursday evening a parlor social was given at the residence of Wm. Wilkinson, under the auspices of the Oliver's Methodist Church, Crumlin. Recitations, songs, solos, and speeches made up a fine programme. A handsome gold watch and chain was presented to Miss Margaret English, organist of the church in recognition of her valuable services. Miss Hazen read a well worded address and Miss Creighton made the presentation.

OXFORD.

J. W. D. Rouse, late publisher of the Plattsville Echo, died on Wednesday after an illness of about two years of consumption. His sister Nellie died exactly a year before him.

The death of Geo. MacKay is announced in Woodstock at the age of 50. Deceased was a tailor by trade, and did service at the frontier for four months during the St. Alban raid, and was sergeant under Captain (now Major) Beard during the Fenian invasion at Ridgeway. Mr. Mackay was a member of Clan Sutherland and leaves a wife, who is quite ill, and one child to mourn his loss. He was a native of Scotland and came to Canada when a young man.

Mrs. John Hilliker, Burgessville, had a very narrow escape from losing her life the other day. Shortly after arising she was passing over the cistern, when the boards gave way and she fell in. There was about five feet of water in it. The bottom and sides were so slippery that it was impossible for Mrs. Hilliker to keep her feet. Her screams soon attracted attention from some of the household, who came to her rescue, none too soon to save her from drowning.

At the Division Court in Ingersoll, on Wednesday, the case of the Baptist Church vs. Smith, Cook and Morgan occupied the whole of the afternoon, and was postponed until Tuesday as unfinished. The case arises out of the refusal of the above-named gentlemen to pay to the treasurer of the trustees of the church the amount of their subscriptions towards the erection of the new church. There has been a dispute for some time between the members of this body, on account of the pastor, Rev. J. F. Barker, allowing some parties to partake of the communion last spring. The tenets of the church state that no unbaptized person shall partake of the sacrament and the church say the parties referred to were regularly baptized into the church by immersion, and, therefore, were entitled to be received as members. The dissenting portion of the congregation contended that as the parties' names were not on the church roll they were not entitled to sit at the Lord's table. On account of this dispute the pastor sent in his resignation, and at a congregational meeting held shortly after it was refused by the majority. The minority, among whom were the gentlemen against whom the action is brought, withdrew from the church and asked that their names be struck off the church roll, which was done. The present action of the church is to test there power to collect the amount of the subscriptions. M. Walsh for plaintiff. Thos. Wells and J. B. Jackson for defendants.

The death is announce of Geo. Bellamy, uncle of the editor of the Ingersoll Sun, at the residence of his son-in-law, near Alisten. Deceased was over 100 years old, and was a type of the hale and hearty Englishman, though for several years he had been afflicted with rheumatism.

John Steinhoff, of South Norwich, was charged at the Police Court, on Friday, with destroying a note for $50 made by himself in favor of B. W. Coliver. The case was dismissed.

Mrs. E. Baskin, of Ulmer, a native of Harrington, is dead. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Morris, and she was born on Oct. 1, 1858. Outside of her native county she was best known in St. Marys and St. Thomas, in each of which places she resided for a number of years. On Dec. 24, 1886, she was married to Mr. Baskin at Alma College, St. Thomas.

Henry Penny, Holbrook, will visit his old friends in England soon.

Moses Knechtel, who has been making cheese at the factory of the Delaware Cheese Company at Lambeth during the summer, has returned to his home at Rostock.

The furniture and interests of Daniel Whale in the Royal Hotel, Mitchell, were offered for sale by tender on Tuesday. The highest offer was $1,300, but Whale's trustees deemed this figure too low, and no sale was made.

A meeting of directors of South Perth Farmers' Institute was held in Stratford on Wednesday to make arrangements for the winter meeting to be held in St. Marys on Jan. 11 and 12. John McMillan, M.P., Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, Mr. Shannan, B.S.A., of Guelph, Mr. Petel, of Niagara, with a number of local men, have been engaged to give papers and discuss a number of live agricultural questions.

There died on Sunday last one of the pioneer settlers of Anderson in the person of Ellen, relict of the late Humphrey White, at the age of 84 years. Deceased came to this country in the early pioneer days, and until the death of her husband some nine years ago, at the age of 83 years, they had resided continuously at Anderson. The deceased, almost up to the time of death, retained all her faculties, and was comparatively active, evincing the possession of a wonderful constitution. She had raised a family of ten children, eight of whom are living, her sons being John White, editor of the Exeter Times; H. A. L. White, postmaster of St. Marys; Wm. White, of Lemonville, and D. White, of Granton; the daughters, Mrs. Wm. Graham and Mrs. M. Hamilton, St. Marys; Mrs. J. Atkinson and Mrs. J. Anderson, Blanshard.

It is stated that the Rev. Mr. Hincks, of Stratford, has been invited to accept the pastorate of Main Street Church, Mitchell.

WELLAND.

Thomas Wilson, gate tender at Victoria Niagara Falls Park, dropped dead in Superintendent Wilson's office a few days ago, the immediate cause of death being heart failure. The deceased was about 70 years of age. He had resided there for the past 35 years.

WATERLOO.

Abram Tyson, Berlin, was attending to his horses in the stables on Thursday morning, when he dropped down insensible, and died before he could be taken to the house. He had been a citizen for over 40 years as a contractor and merchant. For many years he took an active part in municipal matters, holding seats in the town and county councils, being elevated to the wardenship one year. He was a native of Pennsylvania and a member of St. John's Episcopal Church.

THE NEW System of Medicine.

Have you heard of the reform in Medicine? If not, you are behind the times. Send 3-cent stamp at once for free medical book of nearly 200 pages—"The Entire Revolution of Medicine," by Dr. J. Eugene Jordan.

The greatest boon ever given suffering humanity, no poisonous drugs used in this beautiful system, and medicines perfectly tasteless. Hundreds of dollars saved in doctors' and undertakers' bills and lives of misery through pain and suffering converted into happiness by using this system. Why destroy yourself with poisonous drugs and fill a suicide's grave? It will be a poor excuse for the drunkard at the last great day to plead that the traffic was legalized. Send for our free book then and read it with an unprejudiced mind if you love life and would see many days.

In order to spread the fame of these wonderful remedies quickly, we have decided to sell them at half price for one month, beginning Monday, Dec. 21. Each patient will receive one month's treatment only at the reduced price. We do this to allow sufferers to test the medicines at a small outlay, which will only be $4, $6, or $8 respectively, according to the number of kinds of medicines required to cover the case.

Invalids treated successfully at a distance by means of question sheets. Testimonials on application, many of our patients in London and Toronto request us to send inquirers to them for personal interview. All business or communications strictly confidential. Send money by post-office order. No duty on medicines going to patients in United States.

BRENER BROS.' NEW LEADER

The National Melodrama Brand, PATROL, Is Sure to Be a Winner.

Messrs. Brener Bros., the successful manufacturers of Nos. 182-190 Horton street, London, are in the field with a new leader, which has been happily named "THE PATROL." They intend to make this cigar popular wherever the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes float. It is a Cuban hand-made cigar, of which the filler is all Havana, mild and fragrant. The label, which is the design of the Patrol Co., is strikingly original. The words in which the names of the manufacturers occur at appropriate intervals. Nothing in the way of a label that is so simple, and at the same time so rich and attractive, has been originated, and it would be impossible to present to the trade a more elegant package. "The Patrol," cigar is certain to win instant recognition, and to increase largely the annual output of its manufacturers.

For sale at 182-190 Horton street, London; 63 College street, Montreal; 92 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.; 206 Lasalle street, Chicago. tz
