SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS

Only one Toronto boy plays on the Tecumseh lacrosse team. And still they have formed a rooters' club.

The Hoboken girl, who will be 21 next grass, who can carry a bale of hay to a barn loft, has no place in the domestic side of a quiet family. Her place is at the business end of a flying wedge.

It will be a grand sight when the Telegram man leads that rooters' club in one long, sweet root for the "furriners" on the ball team.

Hamilton's mayor says there will be no civic grant for Sherring. All of which goes to show that all that has been said of Hamilton is not the worst.

Claude's total winnings amounted to over $80,000. He showed little class as a 2-year-old, but in his third year won the California Derby, the Tennessee Derby, the St. Louis Derby, and the Fort Erie Derby. He also won the Toronto cup, the Frontier stakes, and finished second to The Picket in the American Derby.

In fifteen years but four National League skippers have captured the capital prize. Hanlon triumphed five times; Frank Selee likewise; Clarke nailed the rag up in Smoketown three seasons, and McGraw shifted the calico to New York in 1904, where it is likely to remain some time. Hanlon managed Baltimore and Brooklyn, Frank Selee, who is now handling a minor league team in Pueblo, Cal., where he was compelled to go on account of his health, had the Boston champs. Clarke made the highest percentage in 1902, with his average of .741.

The Y. M. C. A. soccer team is getting into good shape, and will be ready for the opening W. F. A. game of the season when they play in Woodstock Friday evening. There are numerous candidates for the different positions, and keen rivalry marks every practice game. The choice will probably be from the following players: Goal, Fields or Tanney; backs, Gillis, Crawford, Hoskins; halves, Sage, Puncher, Brown, Truffit; forwards, Lett, Crisp, Middlemiss, Downing, Bullock, Canfield, Leitch and Brock.

The most notable pitching performance of the year in the major leagues—the first no hit and no run game recorded—was played Tuesday afternoon at Washington Park, Brooklyn. Hugh Duffy's Philadelphia Nationals, meeting the Superbas, performed the shutting out process, and Johnnie Lush, of Duffy's staff, did the record pitching. Lush is a lefthander who has been doing some remarkable work this spring. Already he had pitched a two-hit game, but he pulled off the hitless stunt without anything occurring in the way of doubtful decisions on hits or errors that could cast the slightest reflection on his right to his record.

Lush's feat was the more remarkable from the fact that he further contributed to his record performance by striking out eleven of the trolley dodgers. He passed three men to first on balls, two of these being in succession, in the second inning. This was as far as any of the Brooklynites got.

Maloney, the former Chicago outfielder, was fanned three times in succession. In every inning, excepting the last, Lush disposed of one or more men on strikes. During the nine innings only four men reached first, two of these advancing to second, one on a gift and the other on a sacrifice hit.

Mayor Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, is said to have an embryo motor in his cellar that has a six-mile-a-minute speed. He is trying to axelerate its power. It may be like some of Tom's ideas—fine in the cellar but rather bad out of it.

While a little early to pass judgment, it certainly looks as if the National League race was again to be lopsided, with only one team in the race for first place. Apparently the New York Giants are in a class all by themselves in the baseball world.

Washington was the first in war and first in peace, but stands a mighty slim chance of being as good as fifth in the American League.

A cablegram from New York under a London date line, duly protected by copyright and surmounted by two bottle of catsup, informs us that this year Queen Alexandra will not grace Hepsom, Harscot, nor Goodwood with her presence, her reason being that she has been convinced horse racing is demoralizing to young men. The fact that her gracious majesty never has gone in for racing, allowing the King to do all that sort of thing for the royal family, and is in mourning, anyhow, leads one to believe the cablegram in question merely is a far-fetched swing on August Belmont.—Chicago Tribune.

Though not generally known, Brockville's eastern suburb, Maitland, has achieved the distinction of being the birthplace of two of the world's greatest billiardists, viz., George Slossom, the winner of last week's great contest for the championship of the world, and "Len" Howison. Both of them took their first lesson in billiards in Brockville. Howison is the proprietor of a billiard room in Montreal. Slosson's career as a billiardist was started in Brockville over 40 years ago, when he worked as a boy in the late Hiram Fulford's parlor.

Carl Chester's lastest "Diamond Glints" are as follows:

"Work hard."

Pugilists strike out.

Good ball players are diamond gems.

Ball games are won through base acts.

There is a difference between a bat and a batt.

Ball players have numerous scores to settle.

Umpires do most of the "fine" work in baseball.

Baseball players do not always keep cool when being fanned.

"The batter is out" answered the cook when the boarder asked for more cakes.

The man with the hoe and the man with the bat are now largely in evidence.

"Three strikes" muttered Brown when his wife and twins all boned him for coin.

The Toronto Telegram's funny man gets busy with Hamilton on Sherring's win, as follows:

Hamilton, Ont.—(Special).—In honor of Sherring's victory, all the city bars have decided to close.

Hamilton, Ont.—(Later special).—The statement that the bars are to close is grossly exaggerated.

Communication with Hamilton, Ont., was lost at 8:30 p.m.

Where's that Greece lightning they used to talk about?

Sherring has a laurel wreath upon his brow this morning, but it is cracked ice for many of his jubilant townsmen.

How do John Leith Counsell, Henry Carscallen, K.C., M. P. P., and the other notables look alongside Sherring in the sight of Hamilton? Well, how does an up-ended toothpick look alongside St. James' Cathedral spire?

Sherring just imagined that he was running away from Hamilton and towards Toronto. Hence his great speed and easy victory.

Sherring got a little lamb,
When all the world he beat,
Those who saw the race he ran,
Say it was only meet.

From the number of presents W. Sherring is having poured on him you'd think he was the Berlin Hockey Club.

The first night that the dramatized version of Rob Roy was presented in Edinburgh an enthusiast in the gallery shouted, "Whaur's yer Wullie Shakespeare noo?" In like manner Hamilton looks at Sherring and calleth to Athens: "Lycurgus was a back number compared to Billy."

A wise man says: Fans are those temporarily insane persons who make baseball possible; the wild-eyed, hoarse, strong-lunged, pop-bottle throwing, peanut-eating horse that comes to ball games and roots.

It is not only in baseball, though. Who is more violently insane—if it is to be called insanity—than the much-laughed-at football crank with his loud trousers and little hat who howls himself hoarse all fall, or the man who goes, or tries to go, several hundred miles an hour just for the fun of going? There's the crank in every sport, horse racing, skat, yachting, track athletics, tennis, billiards. Each is wrapped in his little world, derives pleasure from it and is better for it.

SHERRING WILL GET GLAD HAND

Hamiltonians to Give Him a Warm Reception on Return from Athens.

Hamilton, May 2. — Cables of congratulation were sent last night to Sherring, the Marathon race winner, by the mayor, the Canadian Club, St. Patrick's Club and others, and today a few friends cabled him $100 and told him to return via England instead of coming home direct.

Arrangements are being made to tender him a public reception. Subscription lists have been opened by the newspapers, and an effort will be made to raise a substantial sum.

The Dominion and Ontario Governments will be asked to assist, as it is pointed out that Sherring's victory was both a Canadian and provincial one.

The question has frequently been asked since the announcement of Sherring's victory was received, is he a better man than Jack Caffery. Even many of Sherring's most ardent admirers admit that Caffery, while he has shot his bolt, when he was at his best, was Sherring's superior. Caffery demonstrated this in the around-the-bay race, and at the Marathon in Boston, which he won twice, establishing a record that has never been lowered.

Irving Elliott, another speedy Hamilton runner, will represent this city in the Marathon race at St. Louis, Saturday, and his admirers hope he will be able to repeat Sherring's achievement.

GOVERNMENTS MAY ACT.

Toronto, May 2. — Premier Whitney's attention was called to the movement to ask the Dominion and Provincial Governments to take some official cognizance of the victory of Wm. Sherring at Athens. He replied that the matter will be considered. Personally he was delighted with the Hamilton man's success.

LUCKNOW TURFMEN WERE EXPELLED

McLean Brothers Charged by American Trotting Association With Ringing.

Chicago, May 2.—The board of appeals of the American Trotting Association today expelled J. F. Hennessy, Saginaw, Mich., and Thomas and W. H. McLean, Lucknow, Ont., and the mare Marjorie Wilkes, it being charged that the horse had been campaigning under the name of Sweet Heart.

The board temporarily reinstated O. D. Westcott, Melford, N. Y. J. W. Tompkins, of Ossining, N. Y., was permanently reinstated.

Both the Binghampton Racing Association and C. F. Proctor, its secretary, were expelled. The offense alleged was in Proctor's associating himself with an expelled member.

J. B. Galarneaux, of Ottawa, Ont., was suspended for starting Baby Webb out of her class at Ottawa in 1906 until unlawful winnings are returned. Galarneaux was also fined $25.

The applications for removal of expulsion of James Fogarty, St. Thomas, Ont., and Sanford W. Walker, Rochester, N. Y., were denied.

DAMAGES WANTED BECAUSE MEETING WAS CALLED OFF

New York, May 2.—An important case which came before the board of review of the National Trotting Association yesterday was that of John Y. Gatcomb against the Cleveland Driving Park Company.

It grows out of the postponement of the meeting which was to have taken place last year, beginning July 21. The meeting was said to have been called off because of the refusal of the authorities to permit pool selling at the track. The complaint was taken under rule 18, section 1, which refers to postponements.

H. K. Devereux, vice-president of the company's side of the case. Mr. Devereux claimed that there was no cause for action as the rule referred to did not cover the point, and was carefully considered before the meeting was called off. He said a vote was taken about one hour before the first race was scheduled by all horsemen directly interested who were present. The only dissenting vote was that of Mr. Gatcomb, who now wants damages covering the expenses of taking his horses to Cleveland and back home. Mr. Devereux further stated that about 3,000 persons were present, who cheered the action of the company, showing, he thought, that public opinion was with them.

Decision in the case was reserved by the board.

The present population of Austria-Hungary is 46,000,000.

OFF DAY AT WOODBINE; RAIN MADE TRACK HEAVY

Toronto, May 2.—This was an off day at the Woodbine owing to the heavy rain that fell during the early hours. The track was closed to the trainers, so that any work done was confined to the roads. The story got around the track that Eddie Whyte had worked the plater Wicklight at an early hour, and the trainers of other platers were kept busy trying to find out what the story amounted to. No confirmation of the report could be gained by any of them.

Three new stables arrived this morning from Memphis. In the lot there are many winners.

The lot brought up from Memphis by J. F. and C. D. Daniels consisted of Satisfied, The Beach, Ferryman, Pedro and Bill Handsell. Ferryman was once the property of M. J. Daly.

The lot owned by Maclamore consists of John Grady, Thora Lee, Cultry and a 2-year-old.

Joseph McLennan is here with Oleast, Annie Berry, Bert Orsa and Broadway Girl.

A year ago today the plater Capercalize worked a mile in 1:51.

Until yesterday morning the plater Hillhurst was not looked on as a contender in the race this spring. His mile yesterday in 1:47 1-5 has convinced many that he will be another one of Wickham's get worth watching. The play is now on the Seagram and Kirkfield stables, Hillhurst and Courtmartial. The Hendrie horses are not backed to any great extent.

BASEBALL.

IRISH NINE ORGANIZED.

The Lucan Irish Nine Baseball Club reorganized Saturday evening for the season of 1906, electing the following officers: Honorary president, W. E. Stanley; president, John Fox; first vice-president, A. E. Preston; manager and secretary, C. W. Hawkshaw; mascot, C. Foreman. The club is open for two games on May 24 at home.

A CLOSE SCORE.

In a warmly-contested game of ball last night, the Oriens defeated the North End Stars by the close score of 5 to 4. Kerr, of the Oriens, pitched a star game, having the Stars completely at his mercy. Batteries—Oriens, Kerr and Clarke; Stars, Buller and Lane.

MORE TROUBLE FOR RUBE.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—George Edward Waddell, better known to fame as Rube, the southpaw pitcher of the Philadelphia American League baseball team, was struck out by his pretty little wife today. She had him haled before Magistrate O'Brien, asserting desertion and non-support, and the magistrate gave the decision against Rube. Mrs. May Waddell looked reproachfully at her big husband as she took the stand to testify against him.

LACROSSE.

ST. KITTS IN SENIOR, SURE.

St. Catherines, May 2. — Secretary Timmons, of the Athletics, made the following statement this morning:

"St. Catherines will certainly have a team, and a good one, in the senior C. L. A. this year. Many of the players will be the same as last year, but there will be some changes. We have plenty of available material here for a good twelve, however, and the team will commence practicing in about two weeks."

TENNIS.

GOULD WINS AGAIN.

London, May 2.—Jay Gould, of Lakewood, N. J., in the amateur court tennis championship contests at the Queen's Club today, defeated V. W. Yorke by 3—0.

Gould had matters well in hand from the start, winning his set by 6—0, 6—1, and 6—5. His brilliant service was the feature of the play. Yorke's defense was weak.

Gould has now reached the semi-final, which probably will be decided Friday. His opponent on that occasion will be J. F. Marshall.

THE TURF.

SIR HOUN'S DERBY.

Louisville, May 2.—Sir Huon today won the 32nd Kentucky Derby before 25,000 persons at Churchill Downs. The Ellison entry, Lady Navarre and James Reddick, finished second and third. Hyperion II., Debar and Velours were the other starters. The time, 2:08 3-5, was good for the track, which was slow after heavy showers.

THE OAR.

ARGOS LEAVE JUNE 9.

Toronto, May 2.—The Argonaut Henley crew will leave for England on June 9. The Royal regatta on the Thames will be held July 3, 4 and 5.

Nine men will be taken along, exclusive of the coxswain, Tommy Loudon. No definite arrangement will be made in regard to the crew until the day of the race. The following will be the positions in the boat for the next week:

Paul Kent, bow; D. Mackenzie, No. 7; Phil Boyd, No. 6; Austin Fellowes, No. 5; John Walsh, No. 4; J. Grubbe, No. 3; Jim Mackenzie, No. 2; Joe Wright, stroke. Julius Thompson will be the other member of the crew. Positions may be changed in order to get the very best work out of the crew.

TWENTY BRANCHES HAVE BEEN FORMED

Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association Making Rapid Progress.

Sportsmen will be glad to learn that the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association is meeting with great success, and the approval of the people throughout the province generally, and that branches have now been established at the following points: Lakefield, Berlin, Bobcaygeon, Sudbury, Sturgeon Falls, Sturgeon Point, Peterboro, Parry Sound, Gravenhurst, Orillia, Huntsville, Hamilton, Hastings County, Wiarton, Chatham, Windsor, London, Guelph, Scarboro, Lindsay.

All London sportsmen are cordially invited to join the London branch of the association, and to visit the secretary, Mr. James O. Weldon, who will explain to them how the work is being carried on. The London branch should have a membership of at least 700, and it is to be hoped that those interested in the better protection of fish and game will join as members. The annual fee is the nominal one of $1 per year. Copies of the constitution and bylaws can be obtained from Mr. Weldon, or will be mailed to any persons writing for the same. All classes of the community are welcome, who are willing to sign the following obligation: "I hereby agree to obey the game laws of the province, to encourage others to do the same, and to endeavor to prevent anyone breaking them."

The association is working for the interests of the general public. "If Londoners showed the same concern as Toronto, we would have just as many members as there are in the Queen City," said an angler yesterday.

The regular meeting is called for tonight in the Foresters' Hall, Richmond street. The public are invited.

FIRST MATINEE RACES.

The first matinee of the Amateur Road Drivers' Association will be held on May 24 at Queen's Park. There will be about twenty horses entered in the different classes, and the prospects for a most successful season are splendid. There will be four or five classes. President George G. McCormick and Dr. Fred L. Wood are working hard to make this season the best ever, and it looks as if their efforts will be highly successful. They are working Johnnie K. and Clipper at a lively clip these days, and it looks as if either one will break the class A record this season, both going fast and strong. Bert Wilcox's trotter, May B., is going nicely, and should win a number of races. W. E. Robinson's pair are also in prime condition. The others are working their horses slowly.

BOWLING.

$250,000 ANNUALLY FOR UNIVERSITY

Whitney's Measure Provides for Sum To Be Taken from Succession Dues.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 2. — The evening session of the Legislature was taken up with the address of Premier Whitney, in moving the university bill into the committee stage, and Hon. Mr. Harcourt's reply on behalf of the Opposition.

There was a small attendance of members, but educational experts, including all the members of the commission, were present in force. Hon. Mr. Ross and Hon. Mr. Hanna were both absent through illness.

The Premier, after reading nearly the entire report of the commission, said he had no apology for making the main portion of his speech dependent upon the report of the commission. The Government indorsed all the conclusions cited therein, and had seen the way clear to adopt all the recommendations except as to the endowment of land. As a money endowment the Government proposed a sum to be equal to a sum based on the average of three years' revenue. The percentage had not been fixed, but the endeavor would be to secure to the university a sum of about $250,000 annually. Therefore, the administration took full responsibility. The authorities of all the institutions concerned were in full accord with the bill. The Government was actuated only by a burning desire for the success of the university, in which they had every confidence. He had the personal satisfaction of knowing that the Government had redeemed its every pledge regarding the university, and looked for no higher honor than the Government was achieving by putting the future of the institution on a firm basis.

Mr. Harcourt, in reply, referred to the interesting fact that 56 years ago Dr. Goldwin Smith, a member of the present commission, was appointed by the Imperial Government to report on a scheme of reform for Oxford University. The present commission had performed its work with "zeal, tact, good sense and zeal," the words applied to the Oxford commission by Mr. John Morley. Mr. Harcourt thought Toronto University should pay more attention to the scientific side of education, instead of subordinating it to the human, or the culture side. He quoted statistics to show that the Liberal Government had not been niggardly with the university. Speaking of the report, Mr. Harcourt agreed in the main with its conclusions, but he took issue with some of the reasons advanced for these conclusions. He denied that there had been any decline of public sympathy for the university, or any partisanship in connection with its administration. The Premier's motion was carried at 10:30 p.m.

Redding, Cal., the other day notified all Chinese there to leave town. They obeyed. Redding expelled all its Chinese about fifteen years ago and had had none till recently, when the Southern Pacific Company imported some to lay railroad tracks.

In any of these ailments it will give relief and work a cure.
