Zimmerman's Record Half Mile.

Zimmerman went up to Rosedale yesterday morning and felt in proper racing trim. After warming up he went at a half mile and lowered the record from 1.12 to 1.00¾ without much effort. He did not attempt a mile trial and did not appear on the track in the afternoon.

A Cyclist's Serious Injury.

An unfortunate accident happened to R. Jaffray of the Wanderers yesterday morning at Rosedale. He was speeding around the track when the club house dog Jack ran in front of his wheel and the rider was thrown violently on the brick dust path. He remained unconscious all the afternoon, but Dr. Elliott of Carlton-street, who attended him, says in a day or two the rider will be all right again. The dog received a cut on the head with the pedal, and Dr. Elliott in attempting to sew up the wound received a painful bite on his hand, which he cauterized to save further danger.

The Wanderers' Holiday Trip.

The Wanderers will have a big meeting on the Civic Holiday. The route will be the Kingston-road to Whitby, over one of the best graveled turnpikes in the country to Port Perry. Here a steam yacht has been engaged for a trip up Lake Scugog to Washburne's Island and other resorts. A sail may also be taken up Mill River to Lindsay and Sturgeon Lake. The return will be made Monday evening. The roads are in excellent condition en route. The riders will leave to-day after the Rosedale races.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

The Five Club League Matches To-day—At Ottawa and Montreal.

Two matches take place to-day in the five club League. They are as follows:

At Montreal—Toronto v. Shamrocks.
At Ottawa—Cornwalls v. Capitals.

The Toronto colts may perform wonders under the direction of Jimmy Garvin and there are some people who believe they will not get beaten. The Capitals are favorites for the game on the Metropolitan grounds.

Brampton Lacrossists Monday.

Great interest is being taken in the match to be played in the Central District series on the old U.C.C. grounds, corner King and John-streets, on Monday between the Athletics, intermediate champions of the C.L.A., and the Excelsiors of Brampton. The Excelsiors have played eight championship games this season and won all, but the home club have a very strong team and are confident of lowering the colors of this hitherto invincible club. The ball will be faced at 3.30 sharp.

The Boat Race at Orillia Monday.

The boat race on Monday for $500 a side and a purse of $250 between Gaudaur and Stephenson is commencing to excite considerable interest in town. The Australian arrived in Orillia on Tuesday, accompanied by his trainer, Jimmy Rice of Toronto. He has sculled all over Couchiching since that time and express s himself as delighted with it. The course he considers perfect. Mr. Stephenson is in splendid condition. After every practice spin he drinks a glass of ale, and it is his opinion that an oarsman cannot become a "stayer" unless he patronizes the flowing bowl. Gaudaur expects to win the race with considerable to spare.—Orillia News-Letter.

Charlie Brown's Maud J. Wins at Port Huron.

Mr. Charlie Brown's speedy mare, Maud J., has won for her owner additional honors by winning the third straight heat yesterday at Port Huron in the 2.35 trot, purse $800. The race was started Wednesday on a track that was a sea of mud. And Charlie Rae, who drew the pole where the water was most plentiful, was obliged to drop behind early in the race and take an outside and better track. His generalship was good, and the mare captured the heat and also repeated her performance in the next. Owing to continued rain the races were postponed Thursday. Yesterday Maud J. captured the third head handily and the race. The field the clever stepper defeated was a big one and included Johnny Golddust (favorite), Patsy D., Mary E., Leon Davis, Strougoff and Bell More.

Maud J. is a handsome bay mare 15 hands 1 inch high. She is by Windfield Scott, dam by Royal Revenge, grand dam by Tippo and great grand dam by St. Lawrence. Thus she is bred to last out any number of heats and is a natural born trotter. Maud J. was bred in Toronto and has been in Mr. Brown's hands a little more than a year. Last spring she captured the 2.35 stake at Woodbine and also captured a race at Dufferin Park. Other creditable performances were trotting second to Howard H. and Clara K. Besides being a speedy racer Maud J. is a fine gentle driver.

The cricketers belonging to the Phenix Club of Chicago, who were in Canada for a week, have returned delighted with what they saw and experienced. They had a splendid outing, being handsomely entertained at all the places visited—London, Hamilton, Toronto and Guelph—and meeting with no mishap. The treatment received at the hands of their Canuck relatives has decided them to repeat the tour another season, when two weeks at least will be spent in the land of the Maple Leaf. Other Chicago clubs are likely to follow suit, and the exodus of cricketers to Canada in coming seasons will, in all probability, almost partake of the character of an invasion.

NOW IS THE TIME

For Marvelous Bargains For the Ladies—Continuation of Eaton's Fire Sale.

The goods damaged by fire in James Eaton's store are still being rushed off at marvelously low prices. In the course of a few weeks a new stock of underwear will arrive, and so the old goods must be disposed of at whatever cost. The bargains offered in all the lines damaged by the late fire and especially in the underwear department are simply unheard of. The store has been crowded all the past week—rain or shine—and a vast amount of goods have been sold.

The other departments are replete with all the newest styles to be seen anywhere in the city. James Eaton is famous for the enormous amount of goods he can dispose of in a limited term, but this time he is simply out-heroding Herod. But it is no wonder the goods won't stay on his counters. He buys all his goods in Europe at the lowest prices, and handles such large quantities that he can afford to content himself with small profits.

The store is being fitted up with galleries for the wrappers and cash girls, together with a system of wires for carrying cash and parcels from all parts of the store. When complete James Eaton's will be the most conveniently fitted-up store in Toronto. It is just a pleasure to deal with such live merchants as he.

THE NEILL TRIAL.

The Prisoner Enjoyed the Examination of Mr. Birch.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The hearing in the case of Thomas Neill, indicted for the wilful murder of Matilda Clover, was resumed before Sir John Bridge in the Bow-street Police Court to-day. The usual crowd of curious spectators was present. Constable Conley testified that he saw a man closely resembling the prisoner leaving the house No. 18 Stamford-street, where resided Alice Marsh and Emma Shrivell, who met their deaths in a manner similar to that of the Clover girl. This was shortly before the Marsh and Shrivell girls were found in agony on the floor of the house, and were taken therefrom to the St. Thomas' Hospital.

Mr. Birch of the manuscript department of the British Museum testified that in his opinion the letter sent to F. R. Smith, son of the late William Henry Smith, accusing him of the murder of Ellen Dentworth, was in the handwriting of Neill. Mr. Birch also gave it as his opinion that the letters to the Dentworth girl and to the other victims found in their rooms after death were also in the handwriting of the accused. The water marks on the paper also tallied with those on the paper that was admittedly used by Neill.

Mr. Birch was a witness before the Parnell Commission a few years ago and he was severely cross examined to-day regarding the evidence he gave upon that occasion. He said he had formed a mistaken opinion then.

Neill greatly enjoyed the examination of Birch, and when the witness was forced to confess that he could be mistaken in his opinion of handwritings he laughed so heartily that he rocked backward and forward in the chair.

A Woman's Opinion.

Editor World: The lady who waxed so wrath over the conduct of the railway employes is evidently some anti-bellum, plain-featured, sour-visaged damsel, who has been left unnoticed and overshadowed by some of the fairer, younger members of her sex, and has taken umbrage in consequence and adopted this method of avenging herself. Rest assured the green-eyed monster is solely the cause of this outburst of indignation, for I believe I can understand all about those malicious, spiteful little acts of jealousy and know whereof I speak. Then there are some chronic kickers in this world who are always having imaginary grievances, and never lose an opportunity of discharging some of the superfluous venom with which they are inflated. Now, I am not personally interested in this matter, but there are some people in existence who make one tired, and this strait-laced female, with her puritanic views of right and wrong, comes under that category, and being true to the instincts of my sex I cannot refrain from "gnawing my tongue" on them whenever an opportunity like the present offers
