GRIT PAPER DENOUNCES PUGSLEY

PUGSLEY THE HARMONY BREAKER

"The Free Press regrets to find itself in opposition to so clever and distinguished a member of the Liberal party as Hon. William Pugsley, but we cannot help thinking that he has been led astray by the atmosphere of the chamber which has been the scene of so many gallant party fights in which he has been a leading antagonist. From the speeches of the men on both sides who had preceded him, from the speeches of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Dr. Clark, and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, we had been led to expect that the element of party partisanship was to be eliminated from this war session, and we had obtained visions of a real drawing together of the two political parties for the prosecution of the war, beside which everything pales into insignificance. If Mr. Pugsley's lead is followed by other Liberals, our hopes are shattered and Canada, we believe, will suffer.

"In connection with the development of industry on the scale to which the munitions output has attained, it is too much to expect that there has been nothing deserving of condemnation, but to deliberately and in a wholesale way, blackwash men, like Bertram and his associates who have accomplished so much that counts in the successful carrying on of the war does not seem patriotic. The fishing expedition upon which Mr. Pugsley would have Parliament embark might result in the exposure of some grafters, but it would probably be more profitable in valuable information for the enemy."

ALLIED WAR COUNCIL MEETS IN LONDON

Further Plans of Campaign Discussed—Foreign Office Gives Denial to Alarmist Yarns Concerning Greece.

London, Jan. 19.—Members of the French and British governments had another war conference this afternoon in Downing street. France was represented by Premier Briand, Jules Cambon, general under secretary of the foreign ministry, and Alexandre Millerand, former minister of war. For the British government, Premier Asquith, War Secretary Kitchener, Foreign Secretary Grey and First Lord of the Admiralty Balfour were present. A number of French and British military and naval officers also attended the meeting. Further plans for active prosecution of the war were discussed.

A few hours before the conference began the Foreign Office issued a statement, discrediting the German report that the Allies have delivered a forty-eight hour ultimatum to Greece. It was stated that German reports of new developments in Greece are "believed" to be untrue.

Despatches from Rotterdam and from German cities reported a revolutionary republican movement on foot in Greece and King Constantine's government in danger of falling. From several sources some fresh reports of Allied troops landing, and with them a renewal of the reports that the Austro-German-Bulgarian attack on Saloniki is about to begin.

DID LAURIER SHAKE THE STICK AT PUGSLEY?

Member from St. John Changed His Tactics, Somewhat, Over Night.

EVEN HIS OWN NOW INDIGNANT AT HIM.

Many of Opposition Members Hasten to Disavow Any Connection with the Carvell-Pugsley Clique.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Let's throw the old political game into the ditch; it's rotten; when everything is at stake we should be united. Throw politics aside and let us be brothers in this game. Let us do our duty. This was the stirring appeal which Oliver J. Wilcox, of North Essex, made to Hon. William Pugsley in the House today after that gentleman had finished his political diatribe of the government.

When Mr. Pugsley finished last night he stated that his hour and a half speech had been just a "preliminary center," and intimated that he would have much more serious things to say today. Whatever may have happened in the meantime it is impossible to ascertain accurately, but there was this fact staring Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the face that the capital was seething with indignation, and as public opinion in Ottawa is usually representative of the general opinion of the country it became clear that the Liberal party was face to face with a crisis created by the member for St. John. Further, a number of the Liberal members began to be heard disavowing any connection with the Pugsley-Carvell section of the party and the climax came when the Free Press, the official Liberal organ, came out with a strong and unequivocal condemnation of the speech and methods of making a ridiculous use of the privilege of parliament to make dirty political capital at such a time as the present, and showed nothing to the house to sustain his attacks except rumor and stable talk.

Changed Tactics.

It was an immense surprise therefore to find that Mr. Pugsley had changed his tactics. While he was as vicious and virulent as ever, he avoided making any further charges based entirely upon rumor, and confined himself to reading newspaper clippings and delivering himself of side remarks and platitudes upon these. The great object of his speech was to make the Liberal party look like a bunch of cowards who had promised to starve the country if it did not materialize. There was none of it, and the crowded galleries witnessed a fizzle. Mr. Pugsley began his speech by making a ridiculous use of the privilege of parliament to make dirty political capital at such a time as the present, and showed nothing to the house to sustain his attacks except rumor and stable talk.

"If in this time of stress and trial," said the member for North Essex, "he would exercise his ability to give the government all the aid he could he would strengthen the hands of the British cause. Instead of that he has contributed nothing but political babbled for the back concessions of the country."

Mr. Wilcox made a powerful appeal to the members of the Liberal party. "We want your assistance in this war. If you follow the member for St. John you will weaken the character of the citizenship of this country and prevent united action against the enemy. The strength of a state does not lie in its wealth but in the individuality and character of its citizens."

N. B. Woman Gets Divorce.

Mrs. Agnes M. Walker of Cambridge, Mass., formerly of Fredericton, is a petitioner in the Middlesex County Superior Court, East Cambridge, for a divorce from William Walker of Fredericton. Mrs. Walker asks for the custody of her minor child, Blanche Gladys. The Walkers were married at the capital city Aug. 21, 1895. The petitioner claims that her husband was "wholly regardless of his marriage vows and obligations" and was guilty of cruel and abusive treatment and that at Fredericton May 6, 1897, he deserted her and neglected to provide for her. The case will be heard during the first week of next month.

LAVERGNE BRAND OF TALK IN SENATE

Grit Senator Holds England Partly Responsible for War and Opposes Sending More Men or Money.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—(Via Canadian Press).—Declaring that he was opposed to the principle that when England was at war Canada was at war, and asserting that England was somewhat responsible for the war, Senator Choquette, of Quebec, missed something of a sensation in the Upper House this afternoon. The Senator's remarks were made during the debate on the reply to the address from the throne, and immediately brought down on him the censure of a number of the French-Canadian senators, who stated that they agreed in no particle with the utterances of the Quebec member.

The debate was continued during the afternoon, and tonight the Senate passed the address without division. Senator Choquette said the chief items of the speech were proposals of men and money for war, and to prolong the term of parliament. England was off war Canada was at war. Lead-ers on both sides, in the past, had held this was not to be the case, and when Toronto figures forced the late government to send some thousands of men to the South African war they were sent with the declaration that this was not to be regarded as a precedent.

Senator Choquette did not agree yesterday, that when England was off war Canada was at war. Lead-ers on both sides, in the past, had held this was not to be the case, and when Toronto figures forced the late government to send some thousands of men to the South African war they were sent with the declaration that this was not to be regarded as a precedent.

Will Oppose Extending Parliamentary Term

The proposal to amend the constitution to lengthen the term of parliament was a dangerous proposal, Senator Choquette said. He declared that he would oppose the proposal to prolong the term of parliament.

Senator Choquette said that half a million men were called for, and the expenditure of millions was involved, but for himself he was against more men or more money being spent upon the war, unless there was a mandate from the people. He said that when Canadian troops landed upon English shores their pay should be undertaken by England.

Canada was paying not only the soldiers who had been sent from this country, but was paying the British officers who had been given command of them. Eighty per cent. of the forces were British born, and Senator Choquette said it looked as if the Englishmen had come to join the Canadian forces because Canadian pay was four times higher than was English army pay.

Senator Watson objected to the statement, and declared that the Englishmen had not come to Canada or enlisted for any such reason. Quebec had been subjected to the criticism of English-speaking Canadians, and the English-Canadian press for not furnishing a proper share of men. He thanked Gen. Hughes for defending them from the charges.

French-Canadians had done their share, and more in furnishing men. Many of the English-speaking regiments sent from Quebec were largely made up of French-Canadians.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

A Kansas City Lady Darkened Her Gray Hair and Stimulated Her Growth by a Simple Home Process.

A well-known resident of Kansas City, Mo., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home process, made the following statement: "Any lady" or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, stimulate its growth and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, 1 small box of Oris Compound and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently, then every two weeks. This mixture retards the scalp troubles and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair. It does not stain the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It will make a gray haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."

STEAMER WHICH WENT IN SEARCH OF THE PORTLAND TO BE USED IN MOVIES

Old U.S. Revenue Cutter Woodbury to be taken North to take part in film production.

The old Maine revenue cutter Woodbury, the first vessel to put out in search of the steamer Portland, which was lost with all on board (about 150 persons) in the great storm of Nov. 28-29, 1898, will end her existence in northern regions, where she will be used by a New York film company to form part of a picture of the Titanic colliding with an iceberg. The Woodbury will be taken north in the spring, when the bergs get loose and start to drift southward. The vessel was in the government service more than 50 years.

OBITUARY.

Robert T. McLeod, of Point de Bute, one of the best known residents of Westmorland county, died yesterday at the Amherst Hospital. He had been ill for several weeks and recently underwent an operation. Mr. McLeod was a son of Wesley McLeod and Seraphina (Trueman) McLeod, and was born in Newark, N. J., 72 years ago. He came to Canada when young and attended Mount Allison University.

Former Premier Clifford A. Robinson was a nephew of Mr. McLeod, whose sister was the wife of the late William J. Robinson of Moncton. He is survived by a wife, formerly Miss Elizabeth McQueen, sister of James McQueen of Shediac, one of the country Liberal leaders, and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who for some time was in charge of the art department at the Mount Allison Ladies' College.

Mr. McLeod's grandfather came to Canada in 1878, and his father served in the 42nd Highlanders during the Revolutionary War. Alexander McQueen, the great great grandfather of Mr. McLeod, was an officer in the same regiment. The McLeods first settled on the New Brunswick coast, the founder of the family in New Brunswick, was a Methodist minister in St. John, and for a time was an editor here as well. Mr. McLeod was held in high esteem wherever he was known and he will be missed by many, especially by Eastern Westmorland Liberals.

The fire was caused by a lamp exploding in a Prince street house, and the damage done was slight.

POLICE CHIEF SIMPSON TO COME

Police Force Still Smaller City Demands — State Offences for the Year Departments One on McLellan, Chief Simpson to be Congratulated.

W. Simpson, chief constable for the city, presented his first annual report to the Commissioner of Public Safety yesterday. The report is on the work of the police department for the year ending December 31st, together with valuable statistical information for the same period. It takes up very many pages and is complete in every detail. The report shows the strength and distribution of the force to date as follows: One chief constable, one inspector, two detectives, seven sergeants, thirty-five constables, one broad inspector and one police matron, making a total of forty-nine.

Compared with the previous year there is an increase of four, but this does not add to the effective working strength of the department, the additional four being the broad inspector, the police matron, one detective and one desk man.

The distribution in the different divisions of the city is: Central—One chief, two inspectors, three patrol sergeants, two detectives, one desk sergeant, two night call men, eighteen constables, one court sergeant, one bread inspector, and one police matron. Total thirty-two. Northern division—Two patrol sergeants, one night call man, ten constables. Total thirteen. Western division—One acting sergeant, and three constables.

More Men Needed

The estimated population of the city, according to the Railway Company's statistics, is 60,000. There are twenty-one square miles of streets. The population of the city for 1911 according to the Canadian census was 42,511, and the distribution of the force is about equal to that of 1911. A deputy chief, six sergeants, two special officers, one detective, one night call man, one house man, one day call man, one court sergeant and twenty-nine constables, making a total of 100 men, since then our detectives and one desk man have been added to the strength of the establishment, which does not by any means equal the advance in the growth of the city and population, and the force is numerically weak to the extent of at least fifteen men.

Deputy Chief Jenkins through illness has been off the working strength of the department since July last, during which time the commissioners have been pleased to pay him full salary and he is therefore shown on the effective strength of the department. Chief Simpson asks authority to appoint a substitute, and says that should this authority be granted he would recommend Sergeant Caples for the position.

The comparison of strength between 1911 and the present period shows that in 1911 there was one officer to 966 population, where, at present there is one man to 1,276 population, and at the present time extra duties devolve upon the force.

One police constable, Fred Storm, was recalled to the colors during the year and is now in England preparing to go to the front.
