The following item aptly illustrates the effectiveness of "going to law" over trivial matters. It will be appreciated by some of our readers who have "been there." "Two gentlemen in Upper Silesia have been having a law suit over a gooseberry bush, which grows on the borders of their gardens, and with great impartiality, spreads out on both sides. The owner of each garden picked what berries grew on his own side, but happening to quarrel, each claimed the bush and went to law about it. The court has recently decided that each man shall pick the side of the bush overhanging his garden, just as they had been accustomed to do; and each man had to pay about $50 costs, besides his lawyers' fee. There is nothing like having things regularly and legally settled. Each man will now enjoy his two cents' worth of gooseberries all the more because they are legally his."

Mr. Jas B. Foley, our popular hardware merchant, has sold out the stock to Messrs. Wm. Karley and Seymour. Mr. Seymour comes from the vicinity of Toledo. The new firm propose extending the business in several departments, and we bespeak for them a liberal share of public patronage. Attention is directed to Mr. Foley's announcement to be found in our advertising columns.

Jas. Berney the popular secretary of the Lyndhurst fair was in the village on Wednesday last and left a few crisp bank bills on the REPORTER's table in payment for the society's printing for 1890. He speaks hopefully for the future of the Lyndhurst fair and says that extra efforts are going to be made to make the fair of 1891 far outstrip all former fairs, including several new features not before introduced by any agricultural society in Central Canada.

Another of the old pioneers of Leeds County passed away on Sunday last, 21st inst., in the person of Jas. Barlow, Esq. Minard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.

The barns on the Bulger farm, now owned by Pat McGuire, and situated about three miles north of Greenbush were destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last. Mr. McGuire was from home that day and his cattle had not been put in the stables, or the loss would have been far heavier. The barns were filled with the seasons crop of hay and grain, and it is reported that there was no insurance on the property. The fire is clearly of incendiary origin, but if any suspicion of the guilty party exists it has not been made public.

Divine service will be held in Christ church (Anglican) on Christmas Day as follows: Holy Communion, at 9 o'clock, a.m. Evensong at 7 o'clock, p.m. The offertory will be for the benefit of the clergyman of the Parish. The following Pastoral has been issued by the Bishop of the Diocese to the members of the Church in the Diocese of Ontario:

DEAR BRETHREN.—Let me remind you of your duty to the Clergy of your respective Missions and Parishes on Christmas Day. The offertory on that joyous Festival has for so many years been given as a token of good will and respect to the Clergy, that it seems almost unnecessary to remind you of the fact, but lest the absence of my usual Pastoral on the subject might seem to imply that there was less occasion for it than heretofore, I beg of you to bear in mind that the offertory at Christmas is a necessity for supplementing the stipends of the Clergy as well as for the exhibition of affection for those who minister to you in holy things. Allow me, then, affectionately to urge on you the performance of this Scriptural duty at such a sacred season as the Anniversary of the Incarnation, and at the same time to pray that you may all enjoy a profitable and a very happy Christmas.

A successful Christmas tree entertainment was held in the Opera House, Oak Leaf, on Friday evening last, the building being packed to the door. The chair was occupied by the Rev. Wm. Wright, who, in introducing the programme of the evening, made a few salutatory remarks. The entertainment consisted of instrumental music, solos, recitations and dialogues. The different performers acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner, —Master John Murphy displaying considerable histrionic talent. After the first part of the entertainment had concluded, Santa Claus begun the distribution of the presents from the Christmas-tree, which was well laden with a great variety of useful and fancy articles, after which Mr. Richard Green, on behalf of the congregation of Trinity church, presented Rev. Mr. Wright with a very fine set of harness and a whip, the latter article being of sufficient length to enable the Rev. gentleman to reach any part of his horse with the greatest ease, as well as any vicious dog who may have the temerity to approach within a distance of several yards. The Rev. gentleman in his usual felicitous manner returned thanks for the present. The entertainment was then concluded by the audience singing God save the Queen.

The annual Sunday school entertainment of Christ church, Athens, was held on Thursday evening last, at the residence of Mrs. W. Green in this village. There was a large attendance of scholars, teachers and parents present. After a beautiful tea had been partaken of by all, a number of the pupils, under the direction of Mrs. Fowler, sang some Christmas carols. The orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Bristow, consisting of Mrs. Fowler, and Messrs. Bristow, Peebles and Merrick favored the company with some choice selections of instrumental music. A vocal solo by Miss Pierce was very finely rendered and much appreciated. The most interesting part of the evening's proceedings was the distribution of the prizes to the children from a brilliantly illuminated Christmas tree by Santa Claus and not only were the children the recipients, but Mr. Bristow, the superintendent, was also remembered by the presentation of a very fine collar and cuff case, filled with these articles, and Mrs. Fowler, the organist of the church was the recipient of a well filled purse, as a slight mark of appreciation of the congregation for her untiring efforts in improving the music of the services. After a few words of encouragement and advice from the rector, Rev. Wm. Wright, the proceedings were brought to a close, all feeling that they had spent one of the most agreeable and successful evenings. The committee who had charge of the arrangements and Mrs. Green are entitled to the thanks of the congregation for the manner in which they worked for the success of the entertainment.

Last Sabbath afternoon the following address was read by Mr. Joseph Thompson, on behalf of St. Paul's Presbyterian Sabbath school and presented to Miss Halladay:

DEAR MISS HALLADAY.—With feelings of regret we have learned the last few days of your early departure from our midst. We regret to be deprived of your able, instructive and untiring zeal in our day school, conscious also of the mighty influence that a teacher has over her pupils in forming characters, we are sorry to part with you, inasmuch as all feel perfectly satisfied that in every respect both by precept and example, your influence would be for truth and purity. Again we regret very sincerely to loose your very able and hearty assistance both in our Sunday school and church work. It is needless to say that your efforts as Sabbath school teacher have been appreciated by all, the regular attendance and ever increasing interest manifested by all the members of your class is sufficient testimony of how highly your instruction has been valued, the sorrow therefore of the class is deep and universal. That the relation which has subsisted between you for some time as teacher and pupils is now to be severed, therefore we could not let you go without in some way expressing our feelings for one to whom we owe so much. During the two years of your sojourn in our midst, you have duly endeared yourself to us In behalf of the Sabbath school I ask you to accept this short address as manifestation of the good will we bear you and of the esteem in which we hold you. I trust we shall bear you on our spirits at the throne of grace, our prayer shall be that a kind and loving Father and the God of all grace shall cast His mighty arms of love around you and when all our work for the Master is ended we shall all meet in that upper and better sanctuary where free from all limitations of sin we shall wave the Victor's Palm, wear the Crown of Life and enjoy full and sweet communion with the blessed Saviour of mankind.

E. T. TENNANT, Superintendent.

ELBE MILLS.

MONDAY, Dec. 22.—Miss Lottie Haskins and Mr. E. Haskin were on the sick list recently, under care of Dr. Addison, both are better this week.

Mr. Jas. Weaver has been engaged again as cheesemaker here for next year.

Uncle Ben of South St. is having a hard time of it this cold weather living alone.

All hands at the mills here are busily engaged sawing lumber.

Mr. L. N. Phelps, Phillipsville, recently spent a few days with his friends here, and is evidently prospering in the back country.

Mr. Peter Haskin has a fine St. Bernard dog which weighs 112 lbs. He does not have to keep his hen house locked at night.

Dr. S. S. Cornell, Athens, amputated the thumb of Mrs. Paul Allan last week. A felon had caused disease of the bone.

A button in Miss Grace Cornell's nose caused her parents considerable anxiety last week, but it was safely removed on Friday last by Dr. Dixon, Frankville.

TEMPERANCE LAKE.

MONDAY, Dec. 22.—Miss Laura Mansell has just returned from Lansdowne where she has been teaching school the past season to her home Temperance Lake. The friendly spirit and favors shown her where employed are ample proof of her success. She is a natural teacher and quickly wins the hearts and affections of her pupils completely. Miss Mansell is engaged to teach this school at the close of which she intends taking a year at Athens High school.

Wild rice is to be sown next spring in Temperance Lake as a persuader to induce foreign ducks to tarry a while in the fall. Wild rice often grows very thick and six feet high out of the water with a stem in the water three or four feet long where the water is that deep At present this picturesque little lake is destitute of this most tempting forage for ducks.

The mining interest here is quiet just now. It requires capital to obtain specimens in quantity from a depth of 40 or 50 feet in the rock for testing before anything definite may be known. The essay made in Montreal declares that gold does exist here but not in paying quantities on the surface.

The many warm friends of Miss Alma Earl view with alarm and profound regret the rapidly declining health of that amiable young lady. With this exception the health of this locality is good compared with the terrible scourging that some families suffered here about this time last year.

Two gentlemen resident sports of proud Athens drove out to Temperance Lake for a days past time with the gun. Here they were joined by two other gentlemen, admirers of that sport. Making their horse comfortable at Mr. Eli Mansell's stable, and to our surprise they steered direct to the Joint Crossing the lake to Averics Island where they tarried long—as it is here phosphate and gold mines are located. And therefore we kept an eye on their manœuvres. They wandered over cliffs and down in the deep ravines far and wide until dark when we heard the report of a gun. For a time we were in doubt if something formidable had been encountered—or was it a signal of distress. Our suspense happily was not long as the party soon returned delighted with the days amusement. They declined to give the particulars of incidents but triumphantly exhibited a beautiful little specimen of a mouse owl. Who the lucky captor was we did not learn. They carefully conveyed it home with intent to set it up where it might adorn Christmas table as a momento of the day or make a valuable acquisition to the Athens museum in the department of Natural History. Come again gentlemen but not on Friday.

The Township Council met at the town hall, Athens, on Monday Dec. 15th inst. Messrs. Jas. B. Saunders, Reeve, Thos. Moulton, Geo. P. Wight, and Chas. Johnson, Councillors, present. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed.

Livingston, supporting William Wiltse, $15; Selah Hawks to be expended for William Williams $5; B. Culbert Sr., for Paul Allan, $5; Stevens Bros., coffin for a child of Paul Allan $6.

Petition of Justus Robeson and others was laid over for further consideration and the Reeve and Geo. P. Wight were instructed to ascertain the amount necessary to be expended on the road. Taxes of Geo. Derbyshire (except school) were remitted. Henry Hawkins was appointed caretaker of the town hall without salary. Mr. Irwin Wiltse was instructed to take off the boards except two top ones on the road fence between Mr. Steacy's land and Wiltsetown school house and put on four strands of wire, the time for collecting taxes was extended to the 29th inst.

By-law to provide polling places and for holding nomination received the several readings and was passed.

Moved by Mr. Johnson, seconded by Geo. P. Wight that the All Wise Being having in his dispensation of Providence removed from our midst our neighbor and fellow councillor Seabury Scovil, Esq., this council desires to place on record their high appreciation of the moral worth of their late member and we extend to the bereaved family our sympathy and condolence in their hour of affliction, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the family signed by the Reeve and Clerk.—Carried.
