"Fallen in the Night."

DIED.—At his residence in the Township of Goderich, in the night of the first of January, 1864, of disease of the heart, HARRY LAKE, Esquire, aged 36.

Deceased went to bed about eleven at night, near his parlor fire, and when his friend, Mr. R. Rich, who was with him, rose in the morning, his companion was quite dead, having, apparently, passed away without a struggle, his position being, it seemed, unchanged since the time of his retiring to rest. He had complained during the day, and spoke of sending for Dr. Cole, but changed his mind. His remains were interred on the 6th, at the Goderich Cemetery, the funeral being attended by very many of the numerous friends of the departed gentleman, who had during some years' residence in the County, gained the esteem of all who knew him.

Mr. Lake died unmarried, leaving relations in England. An inquest was held by the Coroner, Dr. McDougall, but there was no doubt as to the cause of death, and a verdict was rendered accordingly.

"Lived thy life, and perished when and how He willed;
"Be all lamentation and all murmurs stilled.
"To our last hour live we—fruitful, brave, upright,
"Then be a good ending, 'fallen in the night.'"

THE MARKETS.

GODERICH, January 12th, 1864.

The Produce Market has been extremely brisk to day and yesterday. Those who recently asserted that the back country had been already drained of wheat must be pleasantly disappointed. The receipts of the past two days have been very heavy. Pork, Oats, Hay, &c., are coming in freely, and find remunerative prices.
