WOMEN FROM INDIA GIVEN GREAT OVATION

World's Suffrage Alliance Hear Brilliant Addresses by Indian Delegates.
DRESSED IN NATIVE COSTUME OF SILK

Japanese Delegates Express Belief in Future of Cause in Their Country.
(By Constance Drexel.)
Geneva, June 14.—The brilliant success of the women of India at the international suffrage convention has been one of the features. Everybody has been admiring them from personal observation and conversation, but it was not until the huge audience public meeting Thursday that an opportunity was given to see how Eastern women were capable of taking their share in international affairs. As Mrs. Catt, who was presiding, said, if any one is still so backward as to think that the women of the Far East were in any way inferior to the women of the rest of the world, they must now be convinced to the contrary.

The Indian delegates sitting on the platform had put on most gorgeous costumes of silk, richly embroidered with gold and all cut alike, much in the fashion of flowing tea gowns, except that yards of material were used as a picturesque shawl effect over the head. Three made speeches in perfect English, with perfect poise and especially the Indian poetess, Mrs. Naidan, won a great ovation from the audience, even greater than Lady Astor in her speech. The only hint that was given of India's desire to be an independent nation was Mrs. Naidan's opening remarks. She regretted she could not speak in her own beautiful native language but had to use the language of those who now rule India.

Mrs. Chandrasekhar, who has recently appeared before committees in the House of Commons, and Mrs. Tata, of Bombay, all told something of India's wonderful past and of her present desire to live up to her tradition. Much to everybody's surprise they spoke of suffrage societies in India, that Great Britain had accepted the principle of woman suffrage for India and that the assembly to be formed will have to pass on the matter. They spoke of the exaltation of peace and the enlightenment of motherhood in their country as a climax to woman's existence and said they were glad to have found the same common idea among the women of the West at the convention.

Two Japanese delegates also spoke. They were their native countries. One is a professor of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Japan. The other is secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, but both said woman suffrage had, so far made no progress in their country and was virtually unheard of. But both prophesied that the congress would meet in Tokyo before many years.

Dr. Pauline Luisi, of Uruguay, and Mrs. Josephine Daniels were the only western women on the programme. Mrs. Daniels made a speech as official delegate from the United States. She spoke of President Wilson's advocacy of the suffrage cause and of the need for women in reconstruction problems. Various methods of assistance to widows and unmarried mothers were brought up by the European delegates. But in these discussions America took small part, as the necessity for such assistance in America is not insistent. It was clearly demonstrated that too much State paternalism was not desired in the United States where the individual is expected to be capable of grappling with her own personal problems.

FRENCH SENATE WANTS STRICTER CENSORSHIP

Desires Sex Appeal Prevented in Paris Music Halls.
By WYTHE WILLIAMS.
Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.
Paris, June 14.—Possibly with the idea of safeguarding the morals of thousands of American tourists hereabouts, the French Senate on Thursday rose in warmth against the licentiousness of French music halls and their billboard announcements. It is the first time within memory there has been such unanimity of opinion that a certain portion of the Paris stage has reached the "limit" as regards its pornographic offerings. Specific reasures now playing of the Senators complained are: "All of Love," "Sister Seeks Lover," "Fruits of Voluptuousness" and "Turbo Purvare Nights."

"A Dance of the Seven Veils" recently performed at the Opera, where after abandoning six veils, the dancer had nothing remaining but a very gauzy seventh, was also under discussion. It was further pointed out that a director, who has made a specialty of producing scandals, recently was made an officer of the Legion of Honor.

Minister of the Interior Steeg, replying to the senators, declared the law was not sufficient and urged the creation of a more severe censorship.

WEDDINGS.

Cor-Mier-LeBlanc
Moncton, N. B. June 15.—A wedding at six o'clock this morning when Miss Lillie LeBlanc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. LeBlanc, Sunbury, was united to Cor-Mier LeBlanc, of Soudouac. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. J. LeBlanc of St. Joseph's University, uncle of the bride, in the presence of a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cor-Mier left on a wedding trip to Halifax. They will reside in Sunbury, N. B.

"GO DOWN TO KEW" IN ILLAC-TIME.
(To appreciate this poem it should be remembered it is what a barrel organ sang to the poet.)
Go down to Kew in illac-time, in illac-time;
Go down to Kew in illac-time (it isn't far from London),
And you shall wander hand in hand with love in Summer's wonder-land;
Go down to Kew in illac-time (it isn't far from London),
The cherry-trees are seas of bloom and soft perfume and sweet perfume,
The cherry-trees are seas of bloom (and, oh, so near to London),
And there they say, when dawn is high and all the world's a blaze of gold,
The cuckoo, though he's very shy, will sing a song for London.

For Noah hardly knew a bird of any kind that isn't here
At Kew, at Kew, in illac-time (and, oh, so near to London),
And when the rose begins to put and all the chestnut sprigs are out
You'll hear the rest without a doubt, all chorusing for London:—
Come down to Kew in illac-time, in illac-time;
Come down to Kew in illac-time (it isn't far from London),
And you shall wander hand in hand with love in Summer's wonder-land;
Come down to Kew in illac-time (it isn't far from London).

DR. NANSEN SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING

Resumption of Trade with Russia Needed to Avert Economic Disaster.
RUSSIAN TRANSPORT SYSTEM IN BAD SHAPE
Unless Improvement Before Winter Many in Cities Will Starve to Death.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

London, June 14.—In talking with Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the Norwegian explorer and diplomat, about his task of getting the human remnants of war out of Russia, the conversation developed into a discussion of the trade possibilities in that country and Dr. Nansen's negotiations with President Wilson and the "Big Four" in Paris at the peace conference.

"This white haired Norwegian, who came here to obtain ships and money to finance the repatriation of some million prisoners of war from Russia, after pointing out how streams of these men are now moving to Bolshevik ports, from all parts of Soviet Russia, made the following observations:—
"The economic structure of all Europe will collapse unless trade is resumed with Russia."

"I interrupted Dr. Nansen to ask how he could answer American and French contention that the Soviet government would collapse as a result of its own follies if Europe and America refuse to have anything to do with Bolsheviks."

"My only reply," said Dr. Nansen, "is that I have heard the same argument for three years and I have lost faith in it. The only condition which can succeed in Russia is if the blockade is continued. It is that no government which would be worse than what there is of a system at present. After all the whole communist system as practiced in Russia today is not much different from the old Russian reform. The only thing to do is to give the Russian people an opportunity to get reasonable conditions, any nations brought to existing by revolution or war is willing to accept. I think the time has arrived when the Russian people ought to be given an opportunity to make a choice. They are always fighting cannot think."

"The greatest problem in Russia today is that of reorganizing transport. Unless the Russian transport system is improved before winter it will be impossible to keep the great cities from starvation."

AMERICAN WOMEN Should Take Lead

Mrs. Catt Urged Again to Head Suffrage Alliance—American Women at Geneva Pass Resolution Improving Her to Serve as Only Hope of Keeping United States Represented in International Organization.

By CONSTANCE DREXEL.
Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.
Geneva, June 12.—Immediately preceding the formal opening of the Woman Suffrage Congress, the American delegation met and elected Mrs. Stanley McCormick, of Boston, chairman and Mrs. Jacob Bauer, of Chicago, secretary. A resolution was passed urging, in fact insisting, that Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt reconsider her refusal to serve again as president of the International Suffrage Alliance. Mrs. McCormick said:—
"If we give up the presidency the result will be that America virtually will drop out of this international organization. I think it is high time the women of America assert themselves and take their proper place in international politics. The men of America are washing their hands of world affairs. It is for American women to place America in the position which is rightfully hers and which the men of America are allowing to slip out of their fingers."

"I am convinced this delegation of women has the international point of view. Let us, therefore, not shrink our clear duty; let us assume our responsibilities. We American women have the courage and ability to take a leading part in this international organization of women and to bring to our own American ideas. We cannot afford to allow another nation to take the presidency or else we will drop out of this organization, just as we have dropped out of the League of Nations."

"There has been considerable discussion about having a president from Great Britain; but the resolution of the American delegation was circulated out of the business meeting of the congress."

"The women from the Latin countries seem particularly keen about having America retain the presidency and assume a dominant position in the international alliance."

USE MORE BEANS
(Experimental Farms Note.)
The ripe bean is a form of food very much neglected in Canada. Lack of variety is one of the serious faults in our diet. Many people seem inclined to use a very limited number of foods and as far as possible, to make each day's meals resemble those of the day before; while in other cases, the dull routine of a fixed seven-day cycle prevails. It is well-known that a varied diet is more wholesome than a restricted one, and, especially in these times when food prices are scarce and high in price, it is really deplorable to note the neglect of some of the best Canadian grown food materials, such as beans, peas, Indian corn and barley, while imported products, rice, remains quite popular in spite of its inferior quality as food and the commercial objection that Canadian money must be sent to some foreign country to pay for it.

LEGION TO PUSH PLEA FOR BERGDOOL INQUIRY

Movement for Prosecution of Others Besides Slacker to be Taken to State Cantonment.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.
Philadelphia, June 14.—(Special.)—The American Legion movement for the prosecution of court martials of all those connected with the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdool, army deserter, from his home in Wynnefield, May 21, will be carried to the State cantonment of the organization by the Philadelphia delegates.

The cantonment will be held in Allentown, June 17, 18 and 19. The Philadelphia delegation met in caucus yesterday and upheld the resolutions of the county committee made public on Friday. These resolutions call upon the authorities for the arrest and prosecution of D. Clarence Giboney, the slacker's counsel, who obtained his release from Fort Jay for the "port of gold" pilgrimage; Jas. E. Romig, who was in the Bergdool home when the slacker escaped, and Mrs. Emma C. Bergdool, mother of the slacker. They call also for the court martial of Adjutant General P. C. Harris and all army officers connected with the release of the millionaire convict.

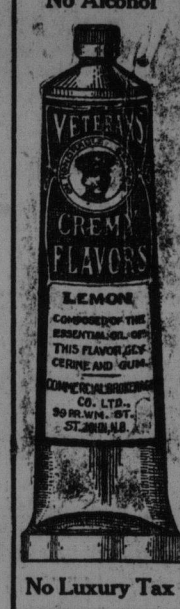

OATS SCARCE IN FREDERICTON
Special to The Standard
Fredericton, N. B. June 16.—Oats have advanced 15 cents a bushel during the past few days and are now posting $1.56 cents a bushel wholesale with the retail price about $1.65 cents a bushel.
Dealers reported today that there was a marked scarcity of oats and they anticipate considerable difficulty in obtaining supplies, even at the advanced prices. It is now estimated that the new crop is available. It was said the elevators now had practically no oats in the West, and the situation is thus looked upon as critical. On the other hand hay is cheaper, a fair quality of loose hay having been sold this week in the local market at $25 a ton and even lower prices have been predicted.

substituted for part of the meat ration. Considerable economy would be obtained in this way, as beans are very cheap indeed in comparison with most animal products. It must be noted, however, that beans cannot be used freely by everyone. There are a few individuals to whom beans seem quite unsuitable; but the vast majority of people would have better, cheaper and more enjoyable meals if beans were used more often. Matters of diet are so often settled by customs of the country rather than by intelligent thought that it is very hard to bring about changes, however desirable. Yet there seems no good reason why the regular use of beans should be limited almost to Massachusetts and a few other favored localities. In these days when, owing to the high cost of living, many individuals are inclined to break away from some of the older and more expensive customs, the introduction of the bean as a regular article of diet offers an opportunity for the display of a little originality and the exercise of judicious economy at the same time.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant—it contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulence, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. A good watch is always an asset
ON the contrary, a inferior watch is always a liability.
The repair bills that will accumulate in a few years, trying to make such a watch keep good time, will equal the cost of a Waltham.
It's much more economical to buy a Waltham in the first place.
Every Waltham is flawlessly constructed—built for complete, enduring accuracy in time-measurement. It is the product of more than sixty-five years of specialized experience in watch-making. Its quality is due to the perfection with which each of the many tiny screws, jewels, plates, wheels and springs are made, assembled and tested. If you want long, dependable service, ask your jeweler for a Waltham.
