THE SHIP "WANATA."

It is customary now a days for every Ship Builder and Ship Owner to speak of his own as the "ne plus ultra" of all that is perfect and complete. We pretend to nothing beyond what we are, and we ask no preference where it is not entitled; but we do say, that having examined the ship Wanata, we are prepared to pronounce and to give an opinion as to her qualities and build. We have been generally accustomed to look at work of an ordinary character, and to consider that any ship having a few extra bolts was to be regarded as something very unusual in the science of Shipbuilding. The fastening now in the lower to the upper part of the ship is accomplished in a manner entirely new, and well worthy the attention of Mechanic's generally, nothing of the kind having, until now, appeared in the way of ship building.

We cannot at present enter into any further particulars, but in the case of the Wanata, we are of opinion that her owner may fairly challenge any ship, which ever left the harbour of St. John, whether British or Foreign, to fair competition, in the way of Model, Material and Workmanship.

Mr. Samuel Smith is the master builder, Mr. John W. Craig the owner—and may the enterprize of both be amply rewarded.

Loss of the Brig Alfred Henry.—We deeply regret to learn (by telegraph) from Boston, (no date given) the melancholy intelligence of the loss of the brig Alfred Henry, of this port, on "The Graves," near Boston Harbour, and that the master and all on board perished. The A. H. was commanded by Henry Kidd, of this city, who leaves a wife and child to mourn their bereavement. He was a young man, whose integrity of conduct had gained for him the sincere respect of all his acquaintances. We deeply sympathise with those who mourn his untimely departure.

Masonic Increase.—It is stated in the Irish papers that upwards of 300 respectable persons have joined the Masonic body, in Ireland, since the denouncement of the order, by Private Paul Cullen. These ancient and respectable bodies will not suffer from his anathemas, they will live and thrive, when his tongue is silent.—St. Andrews Standard.

This is exactly as it should be. Act in direct opposition to the injunctions of a Popish Bishop, and we will not be far out of the way.—Ed. Chron.

Mechanic's Institute.—Next Monday evening, D. S. Kerr, Esq., of Fredericton, will deliver an address on the importance of elevating the condition of our country, and the most effective means of accomplishing it.

Seizure.—13 puncheons and 36 barrels of rum was taken on board the schr. Brunswick Lion, in Dipper Harbour, a few days since, and landed here yesterday.

LINES

On the Death of Geo. Bond, Esq.,

BY JOHN A. MACE.

Weep for your dead, ye mortals weep,
Mourn Carleton, for you've lost a prize
The gen'rous Bond has fall'n asleep,
To wake beyond the starry skies,
Freed from a world of grief and pain,
Your loss is his eternal gain.
He fell asleep in Christ our King,
To join that mighty host above,
The trophies of the cross to sing,
And feast upon redeeming love.
He's got the victory over death,
Altho' the tyrant fled'd his breath.

Relentless death! Thou cong'ring scourge!
We can't behold Thee passing by,
Tho' long we've known the funeral dirge,
And heard the broken hearted sigh.
The high, the low, the rich, the poor,
All bow when you approach their door.
Thou wilt not spare the richest gem,
That ever nature gave to earth;
The pure in heart thou wilt condemn,
And pass their sentence from their birth.
When you destroy the human frame,
The immortal spirit is the same.

The soul's the stamp of Deity,
God's image breath'd in mortal man,
Grand emblem of Infinity—
The centre of Redemption's plan.
That can to full perfection rise,
That living fire that never dies;
So lives our much lamented Bond,
Away beyond this vale of tears,
Where all the blood-wash'd throng are gone,
To dwell in peace for endless years,
And still on earth he has a name,
Stamp'd on the oracles of fame.

Among the just he has a name,
The men who liv'd in ancient days—
Who could the highest honors claim,
(Wisdom delights to sound their praise;)
Their mem'ry lives from age to age,
Go read it on the sacred page.

At Windsor, N. S., on Tuesday, 30th December, by the Rev. I. Bainbridge Smith, Vice President of King's College, William Cunard, Esq., to Laura Charlotte, daughter of the Honorable Mr. Justice Haliburton, Chipman.

Died.

On Sunday evening, at 6 o'clk., Gammon Boyd, Esquire, departed this life, aged 62 years, leaving a wife and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their bereavement. Mr. Boyd came to this country from England in 1818, and soon became one of the merchants in Carleton, as appears, above of the most eminent Black's firms. This business he occupied with credit to himself and benefit to his employees for 33 years, when shortly after his decease, the premises in which he his held till his death, were burnt down, thereby depriving Widow's Widow of a home, where he so plentifully his conscience tells, he had entertained him, as it for 24 years. As a Christian, he was highly esteemed for his consistent deportment, he was a zealous member of the Church of Christ, and an accurate interpreter of Scripture, his sermons were generally so strong, which proved, not only a delight to the hearers of each, but a great benefit. In the decline of life, his friends, his will be long held in grateful remembrance for he acted as a father to the orphans, and counsel for the poor, and he was a friend to the widow, and a father to the fatherless. In the prime of life, he was called to the duties of a husband, and a father, and he ever manifested a tender regard for the best interests, he built it his own, and a home, for the Home, where they might assemble to offer up the worship and service of God. In the prime of life, he expressed himself in strains of heavenly rapture, expectations of soon joining the heavenly host above, who have washed themselves in the Blood of the Lamb.

The remains of Mr. Bond were carried from his late abode by six of his neighbours, to the Meeting House above mentioned, where an appropriate address was delivered, and prayer offered up by the Rev. Messrs. Harris—father and son. The funeral was attended by the Masonic Fraternity under the banner of Carleton Union Lodge, of which the deceased was a member. His brethren also of Loyal Orangemen likewise attended in a body.

At the residence of his Son, Parish of Lancaster, Mr. Richard Avery, Senr. He was a native of Cornwall, England, and came to this country in 1819; and has always borne the name of an honest and upright man.

On Sunday morning, John, only son of Captain Joseph Stephenson, aged 8 years and 4 months.

On the 3rd inst., Mr. W. Paterson, formerly a resident of St. Andrews, N. B., in the 62nd year of his age.

On the 27th ult., William J., infant son of Wm. and Mary Shannon, aged 12 months and 2 days.

On the 29th ult., after a long illness, Mr. Alexander Mitchell, aged 46 years, a native of Scotland, leaving a wife and three children to mourn the loss of a kind father and husband.

On Wednesday morning, 31st ult., Alexander, infant son of Mr. Alexander Patterson, aged eight months.

At Carleton, on Monday, in full hope of a glorious resurrection, Chloe Jane, third daughter of Mr. Daniel L. Dykeman, aged 24 years, leaving a large circle of friends to mourn their loss.

At Springfield, King's County, on the 28th Dec., Mr. Henry Thomas, in 27th year of his age, eldest son of the late Henry Thomas, Esq., of this City.

At Salisbury, County of Westmorland, on the 24th Nov., last, of consumption, Jerusha, wife of Mr. Early Kay, in 39th year of her age.

At Boston, on Monday, 26th ult., of a protracted illness, Mr. James Aton Warlock, in the 34th year of his age, late of this City, and originally of Killarney, County Kerry, Ireland.

SELF-PRESERVATION:

A MEDICAL TREATISE ON THE PHYSIOLOGY OF MARRIAGE, and Disorders of Youth and Maturity, mainly occasioned at an early period of life, which enervate the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the energies of Manhood.—With practical observations on the Treatment of of Nervous Debility and Indigestion, whether arising from those causes, close study, or the influence of Tropical climates; Local and Constitutional Weakness, Syphilis, Stricture, and all diseases and Derangements resulting from Indiscretion. With Fifty Colored Engravings, illustrating the Anatomy, Physiology, and Diseases of the Reproductive Organs, explaining their structures, uses and functions, and the various injuries that are produced in them, "by solitary habits, excesses and infection."

BY SAMUEL LA'MERT, M. D.

No. 37, BEDFORD-SQUARE, London,

Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, Honorary Member of the London Hospital, Medical Society, &c.

CONTENTS OF THE TREATISE.

Chapter I.—On the Philosophy of Marriage, with its Hindrances and Obligations; and on Indelicious and Unproductive Unions.

Chapter II.—On the Anatomy and Physiology of of the Generative Organs, their functions, structures and secretions, proving that great Mental and Physical power are dependent on their healthy action.

Chapter III.—On Solitary Habits; their various effects on the Annual Economy; the concealed cause of Debility of the functions of the Stomach, Lungs, and Brain, and general weakness of the Mental Faculties.

Chapter IV.—On the Secret Disorders of Youth and Maturity and the Treatment of Nervous and Local Weakness, Mental Debility, and Premature Decay.

Chapter V. and VI.—On the Disorders arising from the discriminate Excess, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other Diseases of the Urethra.

REVIEW OF THE WORK.

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil, which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness, be raised, and its true source of every instance be disclosed, in how many would it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointments.—Excesses are always injurious; the gift, which when used in moderation is fraught with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of mischief, and of greater or less injury to the constitution and vital powers. The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise professes to dilate, are productive of greater misery to the human frame than any other to which it is subject.

This work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions in health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the work, the means of escape, as well as the nature of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligible language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical capabilities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortunately happens, that the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and vicious habits, whether acquired in early life, or from the follies of advanced age, while suffering from their invariable consequences, unwisely encertains a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief. Shame and the dread so frequently but erroneously entertained and these complaints are beyond the reach of art alike restrict him, and prevent him seeking for assistance where alone it can be procured. In acting thus, he forgets that accurate discrimination in ascertaining the causes of disease, sympathy with the sufferer, and above all, secrecy, invariably characterize the intelligent and practical physician, and to the medical man, who can show by his possession of the requisite legal qualification that he is entitled to esteem and respect in his professional pursuits the utmost confidence should be extended. DR. LA'MERT has obtained the highest medical honors, as his diplomas testify, and the great extent of his practice for many years, is a guarantee for his professional experience, which has reference almost solely to the treatment of these diseases.

☞ The work may be had in Saint John, of H. Chipman & Co., price 2s. 8d. Stg.; Halifax, Messrs. Morrow & Co.; Quebec, Mr. Nelson.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, SHORTNESS OF BREATH, DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, &c. 18

SHARP'S

Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed.

IS the safest and most effectual remedy ever offered to the Public for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Disease of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, &c.

Persons who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the throat, which deprives them of rest night after night, by the incessant cough which it provokes, will by taking one dose, find immediate relief, and one bottle will in most cases effect a cure.

The Proprietor would submit the following Certificate to those who judge a medicine by its own merits.

Saint John, N. B., Dec. 2, 1851.

This is to certify, That I have been troubled with a very severe cough, attended with pain in the breast, and difficulty of breathing. I have tried several remedies, any never found any of them to do me good, at last I was persuaded to try "Sharp's Balsam of Hourhound;" after using one bottle of which, I found myself considerably relieved, and after taking the second, I was entirely cured. I remain, yours, &c.
