Owen Sound Nine Ties Up N. W. B. A. Senior Finals, Beating Wingham Crew 3--1

Whinfield Allows But Four Hits, Wilson's Homer Wins

Morden, Who Hurled No-Hit, No-Run in First, Not So Good As Usual.

Special to The Advertiser.

Owen Sound, Sept. 25.—In one of the most interesting games ever seen on the home diamond, Owen Sound defeated Wingham in the second game of the final for the North Wellington Baseball Association senior championship by the score of 3 to 1. The win was well deserved, as the home team played fine ball throughout. At no stage of the game was any outstanding miscue noticeable. The win today ties the series, Owen Sound having lost the game in Wingham last Saturday, 5 to 0.

The oustanding players were Whinfield and Wilson; Whinfield because of his masterly pitching throughout the whole nine innings. His achievement of holding down the heavy hitters of the Wingham team to only four hits entitles him to much of the credit for the victory. Wilson, Owen Sound left fielder, made a remarkable catch of what looked to be a sure home run, and his quick return to the infield completed an almost impossible double-play. His good work was rounded out almost immediately after by hitting a home run, which clinched the game.

Morden, the Wingham pitcher, did and show up as well as in the former game, when he held the Owen Sound team hitless. His luck, however, did not hold good today, and when the Owen Sound team connected, hits meant runs.

The location of the play-off game has not yet been decided, but it will likely take place at Chesley on Saturday.

RANGERS TO CLAIM W. F. A. SEN. TITLE BY DEFAULT

Tired of Way Guelph Has Put Off Games, Kitchener Eleven Withdraw.

Special to The Advertiser.

Kitchener, Sept. 26.—The management of the Kitchener Rangers soccer team today announced that they would not participate any further in the senior W. F. A. series. The Kitchener club has written the W. F. A. to that effect, and claimed the senior title, owing to the fact that Guelph failed to be ready to play last Saturday, when the final of four games was scheduled.

Two of the games were played in July, as scheduled, but the August games drifted until September. Then the W. F. A. set dates, but Guelph did not keep them. New dates were set, and in the first of these games Kitchener increased their lead from one to three goals. The final game, scheduled for last Saturday at Guelph, was postponed, after the Kitchener team had called off a Mac and Casey cup game with Hespeler here.

SARNIA BOY MAKES GOOD ON QUEEN'S GRID SQUAD

Special to The Advertiser.

Kingston, Sept. 26.—Queen's football team now has forty players in the game, and all are going strong. Batstone, who made his first appearance yesterday, turned in a good afternoon's work. He showed up well in his kicking and catching. It was announced that Coach Hughes has a friend coming the end of this week to help him with the team. Garvey, of Sarnia, a new recruit, was out for the first time yesterday, and made good. Stringer and McKelvey were on the casualty list as a result of injuries.

Local Rugby Group Dates Will Be Set Here Saturday

Chairman Judd of Local Committee Appointed Group Convenor.

Rugby will get away on Oct. 6 or before, according to a suggestion made by the O. R. F. U. officials in a wire yesterday, appointing Chairman Judd of the local rugby committee convener of the district and instructing him to call a meeting Saturday for London of the clubs interested in the intermediate group.

It is expected that Sarnia and Petrolia and London will comprise the group. St. Thomas is included, but they will not have an intermediate team, and Wallaceburg dropped out some time ago.

Petrolia, too, was almost an absentee, and it was only a frantic wire to the Petrolia delegate at the annual O.R.F.U. meeting which put the Hard Oils in as usual. A meeting to talk over intermediate prospects in the Oil Town neither brought forth enthusiasm or players, but nevertheless Hard Oils may be given every care as in the past.

The locals had another warm workout last night, and things are beginning to shape up into something resembling smooth working order The halves were given another hard drilling yesterday, and a couple of formations were essayed in the drill the front wall was put through yesterday. The weather was much to warm to put the athletes into a real rugby frame of mind, though every candidate was willing and doing his very best. It begins to look as if the remainder of the old guard will not be called on very heavily this year, the way some of the youngsters are progressing.

Doolittle, a former Toronto player, made his first appearance yesterday afternoon and looked like one big addition in strength.

LUCAN KIDS WIN FIRST OF FINALS AT DURHAM

Came From Behind To Beat Northerners 3--2 in Great Game.

Durham, Sept. 26.—Lucan came from behind and defeated Durham 3 to 2 in the first final for the junior N. W. B. A. Both pitchers went strong throughout, Goldsmith striking out 10 men and Riddle 9. Durham's first run was forced in and the second was earned. Lucan scored one in the seventh as a result of a three-bagger by Filmore, one in the eighth as a result of a wild pitch, and in the ninth when Filmore stole home from second while the batter was being tagged out at first.

BRANTFORD MEET ALERTS IN NEXT

Bell Telephone Softballers Put West Hamilton Out of Race.

Special to The Advertiser.

Brantford, Sept. 26.—Staging a big rally in the eighth inning with two men down the Bell Telephone Co. of Brantford, came from behind and scored 8 runs when the Hamilton team went to pieces in the return game of the first round in the intermediate semi-finals of the Ontario softball play-offs. The game, which was witnessed by over 1,000 softball fans, while ragged and loose in spots, was intensely exciting from a spectator's viewpoint, as first one team, then the other, took the lead.

In the first inning, the West Hams started and scored one tally, and the score remained 1 to 0 until the third, when the pole climbers brought in three counters. Trouble arose in this frame on a decision at the plate, given by Umpire Flaherty.

A runner advancing home was touched by the catcher and called out, but the catcher dropped the ball. The fans swarmed on the diamond but the umpore refused to change the decision. The score stood 3 to 1 for the Bell phone, but the Hams came back strong in the fifth, when the Brantford team blew up.

Five runs were scored and the score stood 6 to 3. In the sixth the Brants again warmed up and scored four runs, making the score 7 to 7. The eighth innings broke up the Hams' chances, when the Pole Climberrs knocked their pitcher all over the lot and disorganized the entire team. This second victory send the Ball Phone into the second round, and they will meet the London Alerts next. It is probable the first game will be played in London, Saturday of this week.

The teams were:

Hamilton—Quick, Cheyne, Ward, Darling, Blankestine, Bishop, Hayes, Weller, J. Cheyne.

Brantford—R. Fraser, Smith, Jeffries, Scott, G. Campbell, Chinnery, Brown, Sankey.

Score by inninds:

Hamilton ..... 100 050 000— 6
Brantford ..... 003 004 08x—15

Umpires—Flaherty of Hamilton; Kaufman of Brantford.

FULLARTON WINS U. F. O. BALL TITLE

Middleport Team Uses Four Hurlers To Stem Slugging Winners.

Special to The Advertiser.

Woodstock, Sept. 26.—The play-off in the semi-finals of the Provincial U. F. O. Baseball League for the Burnaby Trophy took place here today between Fullarton and Middleport. The former team won an exciting contest by 4 to 3.

The teams had previous to today a win each to their credit, and the third game here was made necessary. The Middleport team brought along Pitcher Smith of Brantford. The slab artist who put the quietus on the Galt team in the O. A. B. A. semi-final lasted but one inning today—at least, he was yanked at the end of the first, after the Fullarton team had secured three hits and a run off him in the first frame.

The Fullarton club officials threatened to protest the game if Smith was allowed to continue.

Woodley was on the slab for the winners, and he pitched a nice steady game. He was also quite handy with the willow, and tied up the count in the seventh with a homer. The winning run was scored in the same frame. Baker hit for three bases, and Nairn scored him with a single. The Middleport team used no less than four pitchers.

Summary: R.H.E.

Middleport ..... 200 010 000—3 8 4
Fullarton ..... 100 010 20x—4 12 2

Batteries — Smith, Brown, Moffatt, Morrison and Morrison; Woodley and Reid.

KIRKWOOD'S MIRACLE PLAYS FEATURE GOLF

Three Down At 18th, Won One Up On 35th After Both Made Birdies.

(Associated Press Despatch.

Pelham Manor, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Playing under leaden skies, through a mist that hung deep over the course throughout the day and soaked the fairways, the majority of the players in the third 36-hole round of the United States Professional Golfers' Association championship performed a countless number of links miracles.

The "miracle men" of the day's play were Joe Kirkwood, the Australian; George McLean, the Grassy Sprain mentor of Bronxville, N. Y.; Robert Cruickshank, the cocky little Scot of the Shackamaxon Club, Westfield, N. J., and Fred McLeod, the Columbia Country Club pro, Washington, D. C.

Joe Kirkwood declared tonight after he had defeated young John Farrell of Mamaroneck, one up in 36 holes, that he had a whole bagful of miracles. When he finished the first nine today he was two down to Farrell, and when he finished 18 he was three down. Between the 18th and 27th he squared the match. On the 35th Kirkwood was one up, and both made a birdie on the last hole, giving Kirkwood the match.

Cruickshank finished the morning round three down to Ray Derr of Glenside, Pa., was one down when they reached the 27th, and seven at the 35th, as a result of an iron shot of about 275 yards dead to the pin. This gave him a birdie four. He won out at the 36th by holing a 20-foot putt, and Derr failed on a short one for a half.

McLeod and Clarence Hackney were up and down all day. First McLeod was in trouble, then Hackney. They see-sawed from hole to hole, and when they reached the last one both were called upon to make almost impossible second shots. Fred did it, and Clarence did not.

Tennis Players Meet Renfrew

Special to The Advertiser.

Banff Springs, Alta., Sept. 26.—J. O. Anderson and R. Sleschinger, the Australian Davis Cup team, and Mrs. Anderson were presented to Lord Renfrew yesterday.

The Australian tennis experts are stopping at the Banff Springs Hotel on their way home after playing in the recent Davis Cup tourney. Just before leaving the hotel for his return to High River, Lord Renfrew asked that they be presented. General Trotter spoke to Sleschinger. There was a slight delay while Anderson and his wife were being found.

Lord Renfrew shook hands with them and chatted for a few minutes. Lord Renfrew and Sleschinger, a dark-haired, ruddy-cheeked fellow, are of about the same height. Anderson, the team captain, a tall, lanky fellow, seemed to tower over the two.

The Australians had a game of singles in the morning and attracted quite a gallery to the courts. At that time Lord Renfrew was golfing.

THINK GREB COULD OUTPOINT JACK

Chances Are Two Will Get Together During Winter Months.

By FAIR PLAY.
Special to The Advertiser.
Copyright.

New York, Sept. 26.—Harry Greb says he is willing to defend his middleweight crown when any challenger arises who can draw a gate. In the meantime he wants to go after further honors. Gene Tunney, the inactive light heavyweight champion, need look no farther than Greb if he pines for a busy evening, but Harry's chief concern is Mike McTigue, who holds the international championship title in this division.

A match for next winter against Jack Dempsey is quietly cooking, and the chances are the two men will get together. Harry Greb, in the opinion of many fans, has a better chance than any one else of outpointing the champion. He did it when he served as Jack's sparring partner at Toledo, and he did it on the level.

Jack doesn't care particularly for any fighter who presents a moving target. What he likes are big fellows, such as Willard and Firpo, who give him a real mark at which to sock. When Jack can stand flat-footed and let his fists go, something has to drop, but Tommy Gibbons showed that his punches are not so frightful when he has a weaving, elusive target in front of him.

Dempsey Real Champion.

But take Jack Dempsey all in all, he's a real champion. There is now an almost unanimous opinion that he is probably the greatest heavyweight who ever held the title. John L. Sullivan was a good right-handed hitter, but his left was not so much, and as a boxer, Charley Mitchell made a show of him. Jeffries was strong and rugged, but not the classy hitter and boxer that Dempsey is. Corbett was just a boxer, and Bob Fitzsimmons perhaps as powerful a hitter as Dempsey, was too light for his job, and his hands never stood up. Jack Johnson was—and still is—one of the greatest boxers the ring ever saw, but he had many defects that kept him out of the class of great title holders. As for Tommy Burns—a joke.

A great deal of Harry Wills' prestige comes from the fact that he is a negro. Men of color in the ring impress the fans chiefly because they do not show the bruises and other results of blows as clearly as white men. The impression is they are harder to hurt than a white man. But this is only an impression.

Not Invulnerable.

Ring experience shows that they are hurt as easily by a wallop as men of any other color. They'll go down when they get it right just as quickly as a white man, and in most cases, more quickly.

The failure of the proposed Leonard-Dundee fight right in Leonard's home town suggests that Benny has to do something in the knockout line against some able boy in the near future. Just at present, Mickey Walker seems to be the one opponent capable of making the lightweight champion extend himself, but the match has not yet been built up to a point where any hurrah can be made over it.

The fans like a hitter. They want knockouts, not decision triumphs. Over in Philadelphia, Bobby Barrett is a fine example of this attitude. Bobby is not even a near-champion, but he can sock, and when he fights the hall is always filled.

STEVE DONOGHUE TO RIDE PAPYRUS AT BELMONT

Associated Press Despatch.

London, Sept. 26. — It has been definitely settled that Steve Donoghue, premier jockey over the flat in England for the past nine years and the only rider of three successive Derby winners since that classic was originated nearly a century and a half ago, will have the mount on Bernard Irish's cold, Papyrus, in the forthcoming match race in the United States between this year's winner of the Epsom classic and the best three-year-old in America.

KITCHENER C. I. RUGBY CREW OPENS AT STRATFORD.

Special to The Advertiser.

Stratford, Sept. 26.—Kitchener Collegiate will open the local rugby season here Saturday afternoon in a friendly game with the local team. The Stratford boys have had some good workouts, and have developed a neat team, so that Saturday's game should be a good one.
