HUGO HAASE IS SHOT IN BERLIN

LEATHER WORKER OF VIENNA HELD FOR ASSAULT.

Berlin, Oct. 9.— Hugo Haase, leader of the Independent Socialists, was shot yesterday but a quarter of an hour before he expected to make a sensational disclosure to the National Assembly in connection with the Government's Baltic policy and the tolerant attitude of Berlin toward the West Russian anti-Bolshevik Government. the establishment of which was the resultof a hoax perpetrated by an individual posing as the representative of a New York banking house.

This fact gave surrency to a rumor that the attempt against Herr Haase's life had a political origin, but a cross-examination of Voss, his assailant, indicated that he was actuated by motives of personal revenge.

NOT DANGEROUS.

Herr Haase, accompanied by his wife, was going into the Reichstag building when a well-dressed man fired several shots at him. Haase and his wife jumped aside, seeking to find shelter behind a projection of the Reichstag building.

His assailant, who is a native of Vienna, named Johann Voss, pursued his victim and fired again. Haase afterwards was found to have been struck in the thigh, abdomen and forearm. His wife, who was notinjured accompanied her husband, who had collapsed to Hedwig's Hospital. Haase's wounds were pronounced not dangerous.
