ESSEX WANTS THAT $25,000 FINE

Toronto, Nov. 15.—The town of Essex wants the $25,000 fine that was imposed by Mr. Justice Riddell on the Michigan Central Railway for carelessness in handling cars of dynamite, the explosion of which caused loss of life and great damage to property in the town. Apart from the sheriff's fees, totaling some $1,000, and some other fees that do not total a great deal, the fine would go to the Province.

A deputation, which waited on Hon. Mr. Foy at the Parliament Buildings today to urge that view, was promised consideration.

The deputation was introduced by Mr. J. Auld, M. P. P., South Essex, Mayor James Hicks, Messrs. J. E. Stone, R. B. Brett and Dr. J. W. Bryan, all of Essex. They stated that while it was true that none of the municipal buildings had been injured, that being confined to private residences and stores, considerable loss had resulted to business and trade. These were not only suffering now, but would feel the effects of the setback caused by the explosion for some time to come.

Affidavits Were Missing
A Sensation at Chatham

Taken From the File and Clerk Robinson Refusee To Say Who Took Them.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 15. — A wholesale attempt to stuff the voters' lists in the Township of Raleigh was apparently made in the interests of the local member in the Dominion House, H. S. Clements, M. P., who is also the Conservative candidate for another term. It is alleged it was done by means of affidavits which were, it would appear, fraudulently made, taken on Sunday, or not sworn at all. This instance of Conservative "impurity" was exposed today, under a four-column head, in the News, and created a profound sensation.

For a considerable time past suspicions have been expressed in certain circles as to the manner in which the Conservatives have been conducting this campaign. At first only desecration of the Sabbath was hinted at. Then followed suspicions as to the trustworthiness of the affidavits, it being more than hazarded that some of them were false, while others were not sworn to at all.

Subpoenas Served.

Stories of these alleged delinquencies soon spread, and on Wednesday, while Hon. George E. Foster was preparing to assist Mr. Clements in a "purity" talk here, subpoenas were served on Messrs. J. Milton Pike and Ward Stanworth, the former president of the West Kent Conservative Association, the latter ex-secretary, and now solicitor for the license board. These gentlemen were subpoenaed to appear before the court of revision, sitting in the Raleigh town hall yesterday, to furnish explanations regarding the affidavits.

The subpoenas, from what can be learned, created dire confusion in the Conservative camp. Mr. Pike was chairman of the Foster meeting here on Wednesday evening, and talked "purity," as did the rest. It is even said that the ways and means committee of the Conservative association held a hurried meeting after the smoke was over. The subpoenas were served about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, so that while the orators were talking "purity" some of them faced charges of fraud.

But Messrs. Pike and Stanworth, though they were subpoenaed and given their conduct money to attend the Raleigh court of revision on Thursday, took cold feet and stayed away. They thus are liable to a charge of contempt of court.

Affidavits Disappeared.

The Liberals are today asking: Why did these two gentlemen dodge the issue which the Liberal representatives at the court of revision wished to make with them? Their action, it is claimed, looks very suspicious.

But the great surprise was vouchsafed the Liberal representatives, Messrs. A. B. McCoig, M. P. P., and Robert L. Brackin, when they reached the court. They found that the affidavits of which they were suspicious had been removed from the file, in spite of the fact that they were in the custody of the clerk of the court, who is a Conservative.

Clerk Robinson admitted, on being asked, that they had been removed from the file, thereby bringing down upon his head a rebuke from the judge. Further, the clerk, on being questioned, would not say where the affidavits were, nor would he state who removed them.

Messrs. H. S. Clements and S. B. Arnold represented the Conservatives at the court. When Mr. Brackin, for the Liberals, challenged Mr. Clements as to where the affidavits had gone, the Dominion member would not answer. Then Mr. Arnold was challenged to the effect that some of the affidavits had been made on Sunday.

Mr. Arnold's argument was that, even so, they would be legal.

The affidavits under suspicion, that were removed by Mr. Clements, numbered 27.

Not Bona Fi[illegible]

Why were they r[illegible] is asked. Would it have bee[illegible]ry to remove affidavits tha[illegible] above suspicion?

Another fact w[illegible]omment is that some Conservatives hurried to the courthouse in advance of the Liberal representatives. It seemed quite clear that they got there first, removed the affidavits from the file, and by so doing lost a batch of votes—but hoped to avoid worse.

The following is the part of the voters' list act pertaining to this matter, and a careful perusal will show that ample allowance is made for just the kind of fraud which has been exposed:

"In the case of a list for a town, incorporated village or township, the judge may receive as evidence in support of an application to have the name of a person entered on the list, the affidavit of such person or of some other person who has and deposes that he has personal knowledge of the matters set forth in the affidavit (form 4); provided that the affidavit is delivered to the clerk of the municipality before the time for making complaints has expired."—Sec. 14, subsection 5, the Ontario voters' lists act, Statutes of Ontario, Canada, of Edward VII., 1907.

TANGLED IN HIS DATES

Important Witness in the Druce Case Gets Badly Mixed.

London, Nov. 15. — The hearing of testimony was resumed today in the proceeding brought by George Hollamby Druce, grandson of the late Thomas Charles Druce, against Herbert Druce, who is charged with perjury by the former in stating that he saw the body of his father, Thomas Charles Druce, lying in a coffin on Dec. 28, 1864, and that he attended the funeral, the case being an outcome of the contest for the Duke of Portland's estates.

Horace Avory, for the defense, continued his searching cross-examination of Robert C. Caldwell, of Staten Island, N. Y., who in his testimony got tangled up with dates. He swore he was married in Ireland after returning from India in 1864, while Mr. Avory produced a certificate showing the ceremony occurred in 1861. Mr. Caldwell swore that Thomas Charles Druce did not die in December, 1864 as alleged by the defendants.

WELLS IS IN WINNIPEG

Missing Traveler Has Been Following Clues—Has Chain Nearly Done.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15. — William J. Wells, the Toronto traveler who disappeared from a Vancouver hotel in June last, and has not since been heard from by his family or friends, is in this city. Wells is still busying himself with the Barton murder mystery, and claims to be in need of only a couple of threads of evidence to have a complete case, showing that the murder was committed by a Toronto traveler. This man, he claims, was divorced and married again. He picked up the murdered woman in Philadelphia and killed her to get rid of her.

Wells says he will leave for Toronto in a day or two.
