THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Report of the Chief Librarian on the Condition of the Central Institution.

Chief Librarian Bain yesterday reported to the public library board as follows: On June 1 ninety volumes were still in the hands of borrowers, but since that date every book has either been collected by an officer sent from the library, or returned by the borrower. The registered number of volumes in the library acquired either by purchase, exchange or donation, amounts to 34,704. On examination it was found that this number was represented as follows: Reference library, 12,504; Central circulating library, 13,920; western library, 4106; northern library, 4003; donated to troops in the Northwest, 83; exchanged, 8; withdrawn for binding, 4; withdrawn as imperfect, 20; lost and paid for, 32; missing, 25. Total, 34,704. The total circulation of books for home reading has been, from April, 1884, to May 30, 1885, 188,155, so that the number lost and withdrawn as imperfect amounts to a very small percentage. The condition of the books is highly satisfactory, few of them showing the wear that might reasonably be expected during so large a circulation. This result shows that the books generally have been read with care, and that the assistants have attended to the minor repairs immediately on the return of the books.

Hamilton's Brave Peelers.
From the Spectator.

There was consternation in No. 1 police station at noon to-day. A reporter and a policeman were standing on the steps outside, and several policemen were grouped inside. There was a very sudden and faint, yet audible report, and the policemen inside unanimously called out, "What's that?" A search was instituted, and several small fine splinters were found on the floor. They looked as if they had been knocked from a board by a bullet. "Somebody tried to assassinate us," cried Detective Reid, "I heard the bullet whistle past my ear." The startled group felt their faces growing pale. They grew paler when a bullet hole was found in the large beam in the ceiling. For several minutes the excitement ran high. Detective Campbell looked anxiously towards the open door as though he would like to close it. But it was left to P. C. Robinson to solve the mystery. "You chumps," he said in a most scornful voice, "the spring on this door has pulled the hinge out. That accounts for the splinters, the noise and everything." So it did. The policemen looked sick. The reporter smiled.

He Goes to Niagara.

—He is head clerk in a big establishment;
He went to Niagara on Thursday;
Of course he took the Chicora;
Capt. McCorkindale is a fine man;
The water was rough;
The head clerk was sick;
And so was his wife;
And so were his youngsters;
And so were all the other passengers;
He came home the same day;
He was sick again;
To-day he is still selling hats at Dineen's.
Dineen's hats are the best in town. Buy one.

A Case Settled.

The criminal suit against Father J. J. Egan, charged with a severe assault on Duncan McCaigue, will probably not come to trial. Owing to Mr. McCaigue's inability to attend the winter and spring assizes on account of his injuries he caused a civil suit to be entered against the reverend gentleman. The suit was lately settled by Father Egan paying McCaigue $450, not, he says, because he was legally obliged to do so, but as a reasonable compensation for the injuries received. At the late summer assizes the crown counsel stated that a settlement of the civil case was on foot, and that therefore the criminal suit would in all probability be dropped.

On Strike.

—We will not pass judgment on the wisdom of strikes—they may be right or they may be wrong. One thing is certain, that during a strike the wives and daughters of those out of employment have not much cash to spend on dress. Alive to meet an emergency, Mr. McKendry has slashed down the prices of dry goods in all departments, so that during July $2 spent at the Waterloo House will go as far as $3 spent elsewhere. 246

A Comforting Assurance.

It was at the height of a gale that the only parson on board came trembling on the bridge, and, in faltering accents, implored the captain to say if there was any really great danger. The captain took him forward to the forecastle companion, and asked him to listen. The men were playing cards, and their language was not quite what you would find in Sunday school books. "Do you think," said the captain, "that those men would be going on like that if there was any real danger?" The parson was satisfied, but half an hour afterwards a figure was observed creeping anxiously forward again and in a few moments to exclaim, "Thank heaven, they're swearing still!"

A Close Fit.

—Ladies come and get a pair of our corsets made from measurement, and if they don't give you perfect satisfaction we will refund your money. Remember we guarantee our work. We have the largest and finest assorted stock of hoopskirts, bustles and paniers, latest New York styles, cheaper than any other house in the trade. Call and see for yourselves. Vanstone Corset company, 354 Yonge street, Toronto. 615

Police Court Penalties.

William Dobblin, drunk and disorderly, $20 or three months; Francis Churchill, assault, $20 or sixty days; John and Carrie Snow, assault, the former $3 and costs or 20 days and the latter $1 and costs or 20 days; Chas. Brown, exacting more than allowed by law for the hire of a hack, $10 or 20 days; Thomas Courtney, cruelty to a horse, $2 and costs or 20 days; James Murphy, driving his cab after he had been suspended, $1 and costs or 20 days.

The Plague in Toronto.

—The people of Toronto are all complaining of being plagued by bad timekeepers, watches out of order, etc., and watchmakers are denounced as wholesale robbers. The end of all this is, that they are compelled to take their watches to Doherty's, 360 Queen street west. 136

Decrease in English Clerical Incomes.

The decrease of English clerical incomes from land, especially in the eastern counties, has been something startling. From 25 to 50 per cent. falling off is a common showing. One income of $2500 and another of $1750 have been wiped out—indeed, the former is "worse than nothing," since it has to bear a fixed charge of $405; a third, of $3500, has fallen to $1200, there being a fixed charge still to be met of $1235; a fourth, of $3300, to $650; a fifth, of $3000, to $1250; a sixth, of $2500, to $650, and two others, of $900 and $350 respectively, to $300 each.

A Want of Activity.

—Much of the ill condition of chronic invalids is due to want of activity in a sluggish liver. Burdock Blood Bitters arouses a healthy action of the liver to secrete pure bile, and thus make pure blood, which gives perfect health. 246

LOCAL NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

The police want an owner for a silver watch and a gold chain.

The annual picnic of St. James' cathedral Sunday school was held at Lorne park yesterday. The attendance was large and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The Southern Belle makes her usual cheap trip to Oakville, Burlington beach and Hamilton to-day, leaving the Yonge street wharf at 10.45 a.m. It is one of the pleasantest trips you can make.

Mr. Wragge has received a telegram from Dr. Nattress stating that he and the rest of the Red Cross corps, with the exception of Dr. Jones, who is with the Grenadiers, will reach the city to-morrow.

The frame of a new building in course of erection on Bloor street, between Dovercourt road and Westmoreland avenue, was blown down by Thursday afternoon's wind, and a five-year-old son of Mr. Ford, the builder, was seriously hurt by the falling timbers. His legs were broken and his body very badly bruised.

The special committee of the Canadian Press association met at the Rossin house yesterday and decided that the annual meeting shall be held at Toronto, Tuesday, August 4, at 2 p.m. Their trip will be via Montreal and the White mountains to Boston, returning by way of New York and up the Hudson river to Albany, then via Niagara Falls to Toronto.

A Strange Disease.

—There is scarcely a symptom belonging to chronic complaints but that is common to the poor dyspeptic, and he often feels as if he had every disease in the catalogue. Burdock Blood Bitters cures the worst form of Chronic Dyspepsia. 246

English Passion for Decorations.

The Pall Mall Gazette thus assails the passion of its countrymen for decorations: "Lord Kimberley is to be gartered, and Lord Eversley and Lord Sherbrooke are to receive the grand cross of the order of the Bath. Do these old gentlemen really care for these gewgaws? We suppose they must or they would not receive them, but is it not an extraordinary illustration of the childishness of man that aged and experienced statesmen, who have shared in the government of the empire, should in their declining years be soothed and solaced by a bit of ribbon, a cross or a star? But as men are infants to the last, pleased with a rattle, tickled with a straw, it is one of the great advantages of our monarchical regime that we can reward them with trifles light as air instead of resorting to the grosser and more direct means of corruption in vogue in countries where the reward for political service is cash down."

Harness, Harness, Harness.

Never before in the dominion of Canada could harness be bought so cheap as at the present day. This is the opinion of all who have examined our work. Imagine getting a set of harness for $9, worth $15, hand-stitched. Other grades as cheap in proportion. Why not buy at wholesale prices and save money. Canadian Harness company, opposite Hay Market, 104 Front street. 246

Coasting on Wheels.

The invitations sent by the roller coaster committee attracted large crowds to the Island last night for the purpose of taking a trip of 500 feet in a few seconds. The "sleighs" were filled up immediately on arriving at the top and shot down the one side of the slide with an impetus that easily carried them up the other. When they arrived at the top they were rapidly filled by an eager crowd and shot off again. About 9 30 the guests repaired to the Hotel Hanlan, where a feast of ice cream and strawberries awaited them. "Captain Bob" Hamilton, surrounded by his lacrosse "boys," was jubilant. He said that on this first night much more had been cleared than was expected, and that the venture was certain to prove a success. The slide is well worth a trial.
