THE LEAFS AGAIN LEFT.

TORONTO BEATS THEM THIS TIME BY EIGHT TO FIVE.

A Challenge to Hamilton—Trotting at St. Catharines—Racing at Jerome Park—The Toronto Football Club—Newmarket First October Meeting.

Possibly Mr. Sleeman's aggregation can play better ball than they have done here, and if so, it is a pity they didn't give Torontonians a better sample of their work than they did yesterday and the day before. Yesterday's play was scarcely so bad as on the previous day, but at no time did the calibre of their opponents call for the Torontos to put forth any extra effort. Veach was in the box for the home team, and pitched a nice steady, easy game, holding the visitors down to scattering hits, which, although more numerous than those of the Torontonians, were not so effective. Faatz still being away, Macklin played first for more than half the game and then in the sixth innings an accident to Humphries' hand needed a shuffle around, Emslie being called upon to take first, Macklin going to second, Albert to short and Darling behind the bat. Humphries' left thumb was terribly split. Campau was at the bat and hit a foul which Humphries, who had previously taken several foul flies in a masterly manner, tried to capture. He was close up and a cannon ball could hardly come in hotter. Humphries grabbed for the ball. It hit his thumb and burst it between the first and second joints. A doctor had to be sent for. After that, with a hit or two and some rather indifferent play on the part of the fielders, Guelph got in the five runs with which they are credited. In the eighth and ninth innings Osterhout played first and Emslie right. Zell tossed the ball for the Guelphites, and really did some splendid work. He was well supported by Dillon.

A Challenge to Hamilton.

The Toronto Baseball Association herewith challenges the Hamilton Baseball Club to play a series of five games of ball under International league rules for a flag to be known as the Canadian pennant, not to cost less than $50, to be paid for by the losing association: the first game to be played in Hamilton Saturday, Oct. 2; the second in Toronto, Tuesday, Oct. 5; the third to be tossed for and to be played Oct. 6; the fourth to be played in Hamilton, Thursday, Oct. 7, and the fifth and final game to be played in Toronto Saturday, Oct. 9.

Fair Balls.

Robt. Carruthers, one of the crack pitchers of the St. Louis Browns, has retired from baseball owing to an affection of the heart.

While the Rochester Association will end the season without any indebtedness on its hands, there will not be any money to spare for dividends.

Ex-umpire Clapp of the International League is reported to be in destitute circumstances. The Rochesters have presented him handsome sum of money.

The Park Nine of Kingston defeated the Ottawas Wednesday for a hundred dollar purse by 8 to 0. Valois pitched for Ottawa and McLntyre for Kingston.

Cleveland Plaindealer: "All down the line, from the pigmies to the crack, dissipation, disease, carelessness and inability go in one package labelled 'hard luck.'"

To-day the Torontos play at Guelph. McKinley and Darling will be the battery and the veteran Charley Maddocks will play second. To-morrow the Torontos tackle Hamilton.

Detroit and New York have not settled their differences regarding Phenomenal Smith of New York and yesterday New York got out a writ forbidding him to play for Detroit. Baldwin had consequently to pitch for the Wolverines.

Knouff has returned his advance money of $200 to Mr. Appleton of New York and will remain with Syracuse. The stars have also reengaged Manager Gifford, Kappel, Andrews, Crothers, Buckley and Tonney. It is expected the club will open next season with about the same team as it closes this.

All the stands have been erected and the club house set in thorough order. To-morrow afternoon a kind of housewarming will be given. The Master of Hounds, on behalf of the Toronto Hunt Club, has accepted an invitation to lunch with the members of the Glen Grove Association. The regular Saturday afternoon meet of the Hunt Club will take place at the Park and the finish will be in the paddocks back of the club house. After the run the lunch will be given. General Notes.

Paul Patillo opens his new sparring school this evening.

Inflammation of the bladder is given as the cause of John Forbes' death. He was only 48 years old.

The 2-year-old colt of C. H. Todd, which broke the best mile record at Stockton, Cal., made seven-eighths of a mile at San Jose, Cal., Wednesday, in 1.28¾, beating the record one-quarter of a second.

The proposed race between the Mayflower and Galatea was declared off yesterday and the former yacht went out of commission. The Galatea will winter at New York.

The stand taken by Mr. James Carruthers, the referee in the Toronto-Montreal match on Saturday, is attracting much favorable comment, and it is safe to say that were there more of his stamp to take the field the game would soon be left free of roughness.—Montreal Star.

Thomas Conners, the champion wrestler of England, who arrived in New York on Sunday, has issued a challenge to Joe Acton or any other man in America to wrestle for $1000 a side, the match to take place in New York or Philadelphia from six weeks from signing articles.

It is rather remarkable, says the London Sporting Life, that three fillies that ran at Doncaster were in foal. They were Belinda, who finished second to Selby in the Great Yorkshire Handicap, Philosophy and Kinfauns, the mate of the trio having been Lowland Chief in the instance of the first named and Skylark in the case of each of the other foals.

At the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association races at Lexington yesterday the 3-minute class race was won by Woodard & Harrison with Lady Kate second, Smuggler third, Simmons fourth, Mark Allen fifth and Gen. Wilkes sixth; time 2.27¼, 2.31, 2.27¼, 2.29¾. The Kentucky stake for 3-year-olds was won by Wild Ranke with Bermuda second, Nut Breaker third, Sphynx fourth, Kentucky Hambletonian fifth; time 2.24¾, 2.24¼, 2.22¾.

TO RESUME THIS MORNING.

The Latest Break in the New Pumping Engines Repaired.

The new pumping engine's latest ailment is a serious case of break in the cast steel rim of one of the large spur wheels on the pump shaft. The break occurred at 5 o'clock on Monday evening and the engine will start work again this morning. The segment of the casting that gave out has been clamped on and the engine will run with the disabled wheel in that condition for about six weeks. By that time the contractors calculate to have succeeded in casting a new wheel.

A detailed history of the many stops the new engine has been forced to make on account of breaks, small and great, and a description of methods employed in making repairs, the cost of all of which, to their justice be it said, the contractors (Messrs. Inglis & Hunter) themselves must bear, would be of great interest to that part of the public that takes any interest in municipal affairs. Such a statement Superintendent Hamilton will furnish the Waterworks Committee at its meeting on Monday. The present break is in that part of the engine to the principle of whose structure so many objections were raised before the awarding of the contract and have been raised since. The question of the efficiency of a cogged wheel gearing is a most vexed one. Superintendent Hamilton openly disfavors such gearing. At any rate the present break is the second one that has occurred among the cogs. The last time it was the brass pinion; this time it is the spur wheel. Mr. Hamilton some time ago advised the Waterworks Committee to make some arrangement whereby the contractors should furnish a reserve set of pinions and spur wheels, but the committee did nothing in the matter. Had his suggestion been acted on, the present break could have been permanently repaired inside of a month.

Besides the trouble with the cogged wheels, there has been a great deal with the air pumps, not on account of defective design or construction, but of insecure foundation. Some time time ago the pump broke down completely and stopped the engine for days.

Comparatively recently one of the crank wheels snapped right across. Assigned cause defective casting. The break before the present one was somewhat unimportant. The key of the crank pin fell out and the engine was stopped.

The Worthington engines alone are supplying the city at present. Yesterday they put four inches of water in the reservoir.

THE HEATHEN'S LADY FRIENDS.

Meeting of the Central Board of the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society.

The fourth annual meeting of the Central Board of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was convened in the Elm-street Church yesterday morning, sat in the afternoon and evening, and will wind up the year's business by electing officers. The board is composed of delegates from the Auxiliaries in the Toronto and Bay of Quinte conferences. Some 150 delegates were present. The President, Mrs. Dawson Kerr, of the Metropolitan Church, occupied the chair.

The meeting was opened at 9 in the morning. After devotional exercises Mrs. Bastedo of Elm street Church read a welcome to the visiting delegates, Mrs. Massey of Wallbridge responding. Mrs. Briggs of Carlton-street Church, Recording Secretary of the Board, and Mrs. Brown of Sherbourne-street Church, Treasurer, read their respective reports. They showed that in every regard the society's work is in a most satisfactory state. There are at present in the district over which the Board has jurisdiction, 30 Auxiliaries and 10 Mission Bands, an increase over last year of 10 Auxiliaries and 8 Mission Bands. The total membership is 1527, including 28 life members and 516 members of Mission Bands. This is an increase of 443 over last year's total membership. The total amount received during the year was $4066, better than the preceding year's total by $1343.

In the afternoon, greetings were tendered the Board by Mrs. Castle for the Baptist ladies of the city and by Mrs. Ewart for the Presbyterians. Speeches on the work in the Northwest were made by Mrs. McDougall, mother of the late Rev. George McDougall, and Miss Lawrence. Mrs. James Gooderham of Sherbourne-street Church, President of the Missionary Society, also made an address. The rest of the afternoon was taken up by the reading of reports by the secretaries of the various Auxiliaries represented or the Board.

In the evening a public meeting was held and missionary addresses delivered by Rev. Dr. Potts, who presided, Rev. Dr. Sutherland, Rev. John McDougall and Mrs. Irvine of Niagara Falls.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Silver King" at the Grand and "Hoodman Blind" Next Week.

The revival of "Silver King" at the Grand last night was greeted by a well filled and well pleased house. This powerful and entertaining melo-drama is too familiar to the Toronto stage to require either comment or commendation. It is a standing favorite here, always acceptable. Headed by the popular and sterling actor Mr. Carl A. Haswin, King Hedley & Harrison's Company has the piece well in hand and give a fine performance. Mr. Haswin does full justice to the difficult role of "Wilfred Denver." Natural and forcible throughout, he never oversteps the bounds of legitimate acting for effect's sake, and is without the tragical air which mars the otherwise splendid rendition of the same character by Mr. F. C. Bangs. Miss Eleanor Moretti divided the honors with Mr. Haswin as the loving wife of the unfortunate but generous "Will," and deservedly so. The cool calculating "Spider" finds a fitting representative in Mr. G. Morton Price, and Mr. Sam H. Verney is recognized and welcomed as the ever faithful "Jaikes." That worthy trio—"Elijah Coombes" (Dear Boy), "Harry Corkett" (Duke of York), and "Cripps" are seen in the persons of Mr. W. Athwold White, Mr. Willard Lee and Mr. Milt. C. Bowers, all good. A word of praise to little Tonins Adams and Lily Adams who played the Denver children. The original and realistic scenery sets off the play well. "Silver King" for the remainder of the week with Saturday matinee.

"Hoodman Blind," which will hold the boards at the Grand all next week, is a melodrama constructed by Mr. Wilson Barrett and Mr. H. A. Jones, and will be produced by French & Sawyer's company, straight from New York, and headed by Mr. Joseph Haworth and Miss Sydney Anderson. "This play," says the Times, "tells an interesting story clearly; it abounds in effective situations; it introduces a number of well sketched characters, and two remarkably strong ones, and much of its text is either vigorous and inspiriting or sprightly and amusing; while the opportunities offered by the drama for the display of handsome scenery and the employment of novel mechanism, form not the least of its merits from the point of view of the manager."

The Mayor's Proclamations.

Editor World: In your opinion, is it a proper and legal action of the Mayor to issue placards urging the citizens to vote in favor of a bylaw of which he happens to approve? Is his position not rather that of an umpire? Is it therefore honorable and in keeping with the true position of the Mayor to issue such placards at the expense of the ratepayers as he did in favor of the Don Improvement Bylaw, and as he intends doing in favor of a sewer scheme which may land the citizens in a $3,000,000 expenditure? RATEPAYER.

The Leading Carpet House.

Mr. John Kay is now showing one of the largest and finest assortments of carpets ever seen in Toronto. Particularly worthy of mention are his Victorian Axminster, Wilton, velvet and Brussels carpets, which are really magnificent. The floor-cloth department is stocked with the latest designs in oilcloth and linoleum, as is also the rug and mat department. John Kay's warerooms are known throughout Canada, being noted for quality, quantity and prices. x

Moxie Nerve Food Co.:

GENTLEMEN,—I have much pleasure in certifying to the good effects I have observed in cases of neurasthenia, or nervous debility, from the use of the new remedy known as Moxie Nerve Food.

Should this remedy bear out the high expectations which it has already excited in its favor, it will prove to be a boon to society, because diseases of the nervous system is the spectre that haunts our modern civilization.

What Makes the Ladies Smile?

—It's an awfully hard question to put to any one, but so easily answered. It takes quite a bit to make some women look pleasant, but in the West End the husbands can only account for the "angelic countenances" their wives have through the fact that they get their "Tea" at Wiggins & Lewis, cor. WALKER

REMAINS WITH US.

Everybody's Friend

When fortune spites you, then Walker invites you,
He'll comfort and help you, if anyone can;
Walker is not a blower, his figures are lower,
And there's his wonderful instalment plan.
The emptiest larder and times growing harder,
We'll show you it's folly to board any more;
For whatever nice is, gets up in high prices,
And life as you find it is almost a bore.

Much better a hovel, a tin pan and shovel,
Belonging to you than all luxury hired;
Stop heavy expenses, return to your senses,
And cease to be hungry and worried and tired.

There was never a woman with sensations human,
Who did not prefer a domain of her own,
To shallow pretensions and narrow dimensions,
Where she sleeps with a sigh and walks with a groan.

Walker furnishes houses which much envy rouses,
Because of their elegance, comfort and style;
His small compensation creates a sensation,
He gives you your money's worth—well, I should smile.

If your taste is exquisite, just make him a visit,
No matter how little you feel you can give;
Own poverty meekly, and pay your bills weekly,
He'll show you the truest and best way to live.

My wife and her mother, they counseled each other,
They saw that economy asked for a change;
Hard times, like all talkers, cuts work for Walker,
He is sought by all classes, and that is not strange;
The man who can aid us, the man who has made us,
Is he who gives all, but who takes easy pay;
Our bills are not heavy, he is not one to levy,
The fact is, Walker is not built that way.
