Look at Your Feet.
There is nothing about a person so conspicuous than the feet. There are some people who have had the good fortune to have a pretty foot and any shoe will look neat and stylish. Again there is a large percentage that it takes the boot to make the foot look pretty.
This is our Business
We make it a study to handle a certain class of Boots, Shoes and Slippers to fit and suit all classes and kinds of feet. Will you let us fit you with a stylish pair of shoes? We can ease all the sore spots, give the corns comfort, and at the same time give your foot a neat and stylish appearance.
Do You Want It?
We know you do. Our new Oxford Shoes are just the thing. Made specially for us. The style our own, B C D & E widths always in stock.

ELGIN.

SATURDAY, Aug. 1.—Dr. McAmmond and wife arrived here last night to spend a few weeks with friends in the village and vicinity.

Our village is still increasing in population. It is a daughter at N. H. Howard's this time.

Miss Pennock is having some fine improvements put on her house in the shape of a veranda.

The Ladies Aid are making a strenuous effort to free the parsonage from debt and are likely to succeed.

A. G. Austin is at home again, he has been for some months attending the high school in Cornwall.

MALLORYTOWN.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—A sad accident occurred here on Saturday last by which an old resident, Mr. Thos. Haffey, lost his life. Deceased who was almost entirely deaf was crossing the G. T. R. track and was struck by the through passenger train going east. Dr. Lane was called but he was beyond medical assistance and expired in about two hours.

We are pleased to notice the decided success with which our genial tailor Mr. B. Dixon is meeting. He does some of the finest work to be seen in this section of country.

Rev. Ainsworth of Escott will preach in the Methodist church here next Sabbath morning at 10.30.

CHANTRY.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Spring crops are looking fine. Hay is a light crop in this section.

Miss Anna Herrington spent part of last week at Mr. Bolin's.

Miss A. Elliott is going to Prescott on a visit soon.

Rumor says that Miss Katie Bolin is going to Montana with her brother.

Raspberries are a good crop here this season, and there is lots of pickers.

Miss Ganford of Lyndhurst while on a visit at Mr. Bolin's was taken very sick, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. Creggan she is rapidly recovering. Mr. Bolin's family were unremitting in their attention while with them.

LYN.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Since my last another of our old residents has passed away, Norman Coleman, Esq. He had been confined to his room for over two years.

Our factories are all running full time, except the cheese factory, which has given up the ghost, having been squeezed out by the cordon of small factories surrounding it.

The foundry starts up this week on full work.

Somebody made a raid on the Eyre M'f'g. Co. a few nights ago and stole three sets of harness. Whether done for spite or gain is a question.

Mrs. Henry Booth is very low, no hope of her recovery.

Farmers are busy both haying and harvesting; the grain is extra heavy.

The Methodist S. S. excursion comes off on the 5th from Union Park to T. I. Park.

FORFAR.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ackland of Athens spent Sunday with Mr. Ackland here.

Mrs. McGee of Belleville and Miss Brown of Portland were the guests of Mrs. Kendrick.

Farmers have finished haying, it was a light crop but was better than was expected in the early summer.

Mr. P. Downey and wife were awakened one night by the sound of a robber in the house. He called to his neighbor Mr. Geo. Preston and when the latter arrived it was found that the thief was only Mr. Preston's dog which had been shut in the house when the family retired to rest.

Mrs. Potter will return home to Gananoque during the latter part of this week. Mr. Fred Morris will accompany him.

Miss Jennie Smith intends visiting friends in Smith's Falls.

NEWBORO.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Mr. Willard Lee has disposed of his gun and waggon to Mr. Thomas Butler. Competent judges claim that Mr. Butler has made an unprecedented bargain, the waggon alone being worth the money. It is what might be called a fast waggon" and a man to keep his hat on must hold his head down while his coat-tails stick straight out behind. It is ironed in a first class manner having a high spring seat which allows the coat-tails to clear the box and is just the kind of vehicle for attending fairs or travelling around the country. Tom intends to get there with his waggon every trip.

A game of baseball played on Saturday between the "Models" who reside a couple of miles to the west of the village and our mismanaged nine, resulted in a victory for the Models. Our nine should employ Mr. Hugh Ferguson to give them "Law" on baseball and probably they would be more successful.

We were aroused from our slumbers the other night by the ringing of one of the church bells. The sexton who always sleeps with one eye open got around in time to catch the green glare reflected from the green optic of the ringer. Next day he occupied the position of nurse and looked as innocent as his tiny burden.

ADDISON.

SATURDAY, Aug. 1st.—Mr. Joseph Mullen of Mt. Royal is spending a few days at Charleston Lake.

On Thursday last the wife of the ex-mayor of Browntown presented her husband with a fine baby girl.

Mr. William Maud and Richard Ferguson have purchased the little Maxwell binder from H. B. Brown. Mr. Brown has done a good businesss this year having three orders in one day.

Mr. James Gibson and lady have gone to North Augusta to attend the funeral of a friend there.

Farmers have mostly finished haying in this section and report about half an average crop.

Mr. A. McDougall has discharged his farmer and engaged Mr. George Enens to look after the affairs on his estate at Lake St.

The match of baseball played between the Athens and Rockspring teams resulted in favor of Athens, they having scored 28 to 15.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Mr. George Goodall and Mr. Dempster of Gananoque are buying fat cattle for the Montreal market.

Canada must surely be in a flourishing condition when even the bone gleaner can afford to wear spectacles.

Miss Edith Tennant is spending her holidays with her father, mother and sisters in the village of Caintown.

Mr. John Ladd who has been visiting friends here, has returned to Cass City, Michigan.

Now is the season of honey, as many people have learned of late years to extract a quantity without destroying the comb which can be replaced and refilled by the busy bee. We sampled a nice dish at the residence of Mr. J. P. Buell of Caintown.

Mr. E. Poole lost a fine horse on last Friday by being caught in the rope of a hay fork.

Mrs. D. Tennant has returned from the west where she had been visiting her son.

Miss Livey Moore of New Dublin is visiting friends in Junetown. Miss Moore is a young lady of prepossessing appearance.

Miss Edith Tennant, daughter of Mr. John Tennant of Caintown whl take a course at the Normal school, Ottawa this year.

Business of all kinds seems to flourish in Caintown, particularly is this the case at the corners. The blacksmith shop run by Mr. Jackson always draws a large crowd, the post office and store, carried on by Mr. Hogaboon are well attended on Saturday, by many of the most prominent men of the village.

FRANKVILLE.

MONDAY, July 27.—Farmers in this vicinity have commenced haying and report a very light crop. Grain is looking exceedingly well.

The long looked for repairs on our sidewalks is completed and people can pass over them once more in safety.

The Salvation Army is billed to bombard our village on Thursday, July 30th. They will hold their fort in Mr. Brownbridge's hall. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. C. Bellamy, of Shady Nook, is doing a rushing business in the dry bones and scrap iron line.

Mr. A. H. Parker's beautiful residence is about completed and will add very much to the appearance of our village.

Wedding bells once more pealed forth their melodies on the evening of July 22nd. it being the marriage of Mr. Daniel Best, of Smith's Falls, to Miss Charlotte Steacy, eldest daughter of Geo. Steacy, Esq. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Raddley, Methodist minister, in the presence of a number of their friends. Mr. Wm. Nickleson acted as best man and Miss Steacy, of North Augusta, assisted the bride through the ordeal. After the nuptial knot was tied, the company repaired to the dining hall where a sumptuous repast was waiting to which all did ample justice. After five hours of social enjoyment were spent, the happy couple left for their new home in Smith's Falls, with the best wishes of all present that their life may be a happy and a prosperous one.

WASHBURN'S CORNERS.

SATURDAY, Aug. 1.—In last week's "Reporter" we noticed that your enquiring correspondent of Delta gave the Haysed nine a breeze on the sly, with the desire to put a good face on the defeat inflicted on his team on July 10, by boasting. He accuses us of getting good players from other teams but we can say that we only played such men as practiced with us and belonged to this vicinity. We might accuse them of the same but kicking is not our business. He also spoke about the willingness of the Deltas to play us again within two weeks but, as the time is very busy for our boys, still we could put our men in fighting trim enough to bring the Deltas and all their gold to an early tomb. However this is not our intentions. The Deltas felt confident of a sweeping victory over us and by that means lift up their fallen reputation, but alas! for their misconception, they found that they had more than they could handle, and so slunk home to nurse their wrath, and pour upon us the imprecations for which they are noted. When the Deltas are prepared to come upon the field and willing to act as gentlemen we will meet them.

MONDAY, Aug. 3rd.—Farmers are nearly done haying in this locality.

One of our young ladies intends going to Oshawa college.

Miss Morrison has been visiting friends in Brockville.

One of our young men while driving home on Sunday night was frightened by a (wild cat.) We hope this will be a warning for others who stay out late.

Our boys say they will play the Delta flunks at any time if they will play the same team as they did at the picnic for fifty dollars or upward. We hope all our young men are as solid as the one who makes his trips to Delta.

There is talk of a church being built at Sheldon's school house.

Lett Kelly sold his horse last week for $125.

Trial Postponed.

The trial of Fred. C. Fitzsimmons, of Brockville, for the murder of Detective Gilkinson, has been postponed until the September term of court. The court of Judge Stows and Slagle was crowded yesterday morning by the people who wanted to hear the celebrated case. Fitzsimmons sat in the prisoner's box, paler from confinement but otherwise looking as determined and gritty as ever. His wife sat in front of him, dressed in deep black, and waving a sable fan to cool herself. Thomas Marshall, jr., chief attorney for Fitzsimmons, was in poor health and not properly able to conduct the case, which was asked to be postponed. District Attorney Burleigh consented to this. Fitzsimmons and his wife wanted the trial to go on, but finally consented to a postponement. The latter will be final.

The Triple Links at Lyn.

On Friday night last a lodge of I. O. O. F. was instituted at Lyn by D. P. Hamilton, D. D. G. M. A large number of brethren from Lansdowne, Mallorytown and Brockvillle lodges were present and took part in the ceremonies. After the lodge was regularly instituted the team from St. Lawrence lodge took charge, when about thirteen candidates were initiated.

Recess was called and the members invited to a sumptuous repast in an adjoining room, prepared by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. After doing justice to a spread that reflected credit on the ladies, they repaired to the lodge room and finished the work of degrees. Grand Master Hamilton was assisted by the following Past Grands: U. E. Brown, Mallorytown, as Grand Rec. Sec.; Wm. McConnell, Lansdowne, as Grand Treas; J. Beaupre, Lansdowne, as Grand Per. Sec. The following officers were installed: Geo. A. Hoag, N. G.; Edwin Latimer, V. G.; W. A. Halladay, R. S.; Wm. Bowen, P. S.; Dr. Judson, Treas.; Chas. Partridge, War.; John Davidson, Con.; Wm. Bigford and John Service, S. N. G.; F. Burns and Jos. Lathan, S. V. G.; N. Lathan and H. Dickey, S. S.; Geo. Beach, O. G.; N. Forester, Chap.

Brockville Cheese Board

Special to Reporter.

ASHWOOD HALL, July 30, 1891.

Our market to-day was brisk, competition among local buyers being keen indeed. Every buyer appeared to have an order for goods. The gentlemen known as the "small fry" figured largely and keenly for first place in choice of goods. They got there, and got nearly the entire offerings of the board. We had one of the largest exporters of cheese present watching the working of the board. It was refreshing to see one of the small gentlemen approach him for information respecting the "stuff." Our visitor informed him that prices were being crowded up too high and he could sell him all the fine cheese he wanted for 8¾c. in Montreal, which would be better than prices paid him. The little man promptly replied that he would take 500 boxes, and walked forward to the board and secured as many more. Prices for white cheese were a shade better than last week. Colored goods had the lead in price, but the difference was not so large and did not score as much money today.

The offerings chalked on board today were 3198 white and 3,215 colored, a total of 6,413. The white cheese sold at from 8½ to 8⅝c. Colored, 8¾ to 8 13/16c.

Special cable reported Liverpool market, cheese 44 shillings.

The make of cheese is keeping up well, the copious rains having kept the pastures fresh.

Ruling price of cheese a year ago was 8¼c. Cable report, 41 shillings.

On Tuesday last the Athens and Rockspring baseball clubs played a match at Addison. It was the "same thing over again" so far as the Athens boys were concerned; for they downed their opponents in fine style, beating them 28 to 15. In the evening our boys returned home rejoicing, heralding their victory with a glad refrain, improvised for the occasion.

She is Kept Busy Now.

Before she was married her cares were few,
Her life was merry and gay;
She had little to do, and she hardly knew
How to pass the time away.

She was sometimes afflicted with ennui,
Which out of idleness grew,
But she married a man to reform him, and she
At last has enough to do.
