King and Germain Sts. CARD. WE regret to announce to our subscribers wand friends the total destruction of our Printing Office. In New York, on Christmas Eve. This erent will necessarily cause a postponement in the delivery of our January Reference Book. We have, however, duplicated Manuscripts of the entire work, in our numerous tranches, so that although the fire is a very great calamity to us, the delay in issuing the book is the chief feature involved in it. We hall immediately commence the work again, and respectfully ask the if udugence of subscribers under these calamitous circumstances. The preparation of new type, the press work, that we may safely premise that the delay will not exceed two months at the utmost, and in the meantime the detailed information on our office Records (the foundation of all the ratings) is fracily at the services of subcribers.

Respectfully yours, Respectfully your and palm branca—

Love.—''If Love be real, if I whom ye behold Be aught but glittering wings and gauze of gold, Be aught but singing of an arcient song Made sweet by record of dead stingless wrong, How shall we part at that sad garden's end Through which the ghosts of nightly lovers wend?

How si all ye faint and fade with giftless hands Who once held fast the life of all the lands?—Beloved, if so much as this I say, I know full well ye need it not to-day, As with full hearts and glorious hope ablaze Through the thick veil of what shall be ye gaze, And lacking words to name the things ye see Turn back with yearning speechless mouths to me, have and wat the time has been Cured!
