THE old range of tenements on Pownal Street, known as the "Barracks," are to be pulled down. The numberless tenants housed therein have been notified to seek new habitations. Two young men, Charles and Albert Cann, age respectively 28 and 23, left Westport, N S, early Friday morning in a boat to fetch their trawls. They intended to return about 10 o'clock, but did not. Towards evening their non-arrival caused so much uneasiness and positive alarm that the steamer Westport was despatched to search for them. Two hours scouring the vicinity in which they were unquestionably fishing failed to reveal trace of the missing boat. Old fishermen think that they overloaded their boat and swamped. Both young men were married and each leaves a widow and one child.

WE clip the following from Vacaville, (Cal.) Reporter of June 17: On last Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, J JA. Malone jr this place and Miss Mary E. At the close of the ceremony an elegant dinner was tendered the bridal party by Mrs. Theresa McDonald of Oakland, a cousin of the bride. Mr. Malone is one of the most highly esteemed citizens of Vacaville and worthy of the charming prize he has won.

Two brothers, named Evan and Ave Negus, aged 14 and 15, belonging to Eastern Passage, N. S., rowed across the channel to McNab's island to dig clams. The dory upset and the boys were precipitated in the water. Two delicate little girls, sisters, named Mary and Bridget Black, aged 12 and 14 years, witnessed the accident from the island and immediately launched a boat and rowed to the assistance of the drowning boys. Evan clung to the boat and it was difficult to get a hold on him, as the boat oscillated around, and the weight of the almost unconscious boy kept part of it beneath the water. The little girls got Evan into the boat, and Mary Black, aged only 14, made a desperate clutch at the other boy as he went down, and at arm's length below the surface, got hold of his hair; but his hair was cut short and there was no hold, so he sank. The girls then rowed the boy they had saved to land and worked with him until he returned to consciousness.

Sid Thomas, the English 10-mile amateur champion sprinter, smashed the world's three-mile record at the Ranelagh Harriers club run on June 3, doing the distance in 14 24. The best previous record of 14.29 2-5 was held by Jas. Kibblewhite, another English long distance crack. Thomas also equalled the world's record for 2½ miles—12.06—made by W. S. George in 1884.

At the races of the Keystone Bicyle Club, of Pittsburg, Pa., John S. Johnson, the skating champion, created two new records. He won the two-mile handicap in 4.47 3-5. C. E. Willers has achieved an enviable position in the amateur athletic world by wiping out the mighty Sid Thomas and his famous four-mile record. The sensational contest took place at Paddington track, London, Eng., on June 10. Such sterling performers at Kibblewhite, Pearce, Moran, Martin and Davis also toed the scratch in the race. At New London, Conn., Friday, Yale defeated Harvard in their annual boat race by five lengths. The distance was four miles. Yale's time was 23.01, and Harvard's 23 15. It was the hardest as well as the closest race pulled by the great rivals for years, and until the last half-mile was reached was full of interest. A strong head wind came up about 10.40, and blew a stiff breeze squarely against the backs of the crews and kept the time nearly five minutes slower than the record made by the crews last year. Every instant during the race the breeze increased, and by the time half the course had been traversed the river was in a formidable state of disquiet.

The races at Summerside, Dominion Day were attended by over 1,800 people, and the meet proved one of the most successful ever held there or in the Province. News in Brief.

The work of purging the United States pension rolls of imposters has apparently begun in earnest.

A cable from Ronen, France, states that an unlimited amount of hay can be disposed of there at 170 francs, or $34 per ton.

The Manitoba wheat fields are reported in head in some districts. If the existing conditions continue, harvesting will commence two weeks earlier than last year.

The publishers of the city directory of Chicago say that city is now the most populous in America, beating New York by 400,000. The 1893 estimate of Chicago's population is 2,160,000.

Mercier is to lecture in all the French centres in New England. His object, he says, is not a political one, but merely to become intimately acquainted with his countrymen across the border.

It is currently reported that Duncan McIntyre, the Montreal millionaire, reputed to be worth all the way from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, dropped $2,000,000 during the recent trouble in the Chicago wheat market.

An Ontario man has remitted eighteen dollars by cheque as conscience money to the customs department. The case is an extraordinary one. Money of this kind usually comes in anonymously. The remitter first of all owned up, asked the amount of duty and then forwarded it.

The pope has given his consent to the proposal that Maestro Mustafa, director of the choir of the Sistine chapel, and members of the choir should visit Chicago and sing there during the progress of the exposition This will be the first time that the choir as a choir will have sung outside the Holy City.

Gov Altgeld, of Illinois, has pardoned Samuel Fielden, Oscar Neebe, Michael Schwab, the anarchists who were serving terms of imprisonment at Joliette penitentiary for alleged complicity in the Haymarket riot in Chicago on the night of May 4th, 1886. The governor takes the ground that the men did not have a fair trial and that the court was prejudiced.

Prof Boradine, of the University of St Petersburg, Russia, is at Ottawa. The professor has just returned from a visit to the World's Fair. He was so gratified there with the Canadian fisheries exhibit that he determined to come to Ottawa for the purpose of obtaining information in regard to fish culture in Canada, with a view to introducing better methods in Russia.

John Hennessy and Michael Mulcahy who were sentenced at Montreal three years ago by Judge Church to 14 years penitentiary for alleged assault upon Melvina Robert, Point St Charles, have been liberated by order of the department of justice. Proof almost incontestable had since been adduced to show that the girl Robert was a disreputable character, and that the young men were certainly not guilty of the grave crime for which they were condemned.

M Michael de Bernoff, a Russian journalist whose pedestrian feats have made him famous on the continent, is in London. After a short stay there he will make a walking tour through the British Isles, and then proceed to New York, when he will make his way on foot to Chicago. Since he left St Petersburg, in December, 1890, he has covered about 6,500 miles. During his tour he has been making geographical observations, some of which will be shortly submitted to the Royal Geographical society in a paper which he has been invited to read before that body.

Irish Elections.

DUBLIN, June 29.—The election in Northeast Cork to fill the vacancy in the house of commons caused by the withdrawal of Michael Davitt, anti-Parnellite, was held yesterday. Wm. Abraham was elected without opposition. It is thought that should Mr. Davitt be granted a first-class certificate by the bankruptcy court (insolvency having caused his retirement from Parliament), Mr. Abraham will retire and Mr. Davitt will offer himself for re-election.

The contest in southeast Cork for a successor to John Murrogh, anti-Parnellite, who withdrew because of the dissension over the Freeman's Journal promised to be interesting. The anti-Parnellites split and put up two candidates—Dr. Andrew Cummins, who unsuccessfully contested South Roscommon last July, and Dr. Magney, comparatively unknown. The election was held yesterday, but Dr. Magney withdrew. Dr. Cummins was the only candidate in the field, and the sheriff declared him elected.

LONDON, June 29.—Captain Bourke senior officer of the warship Victoria will be tried by the special naval board, sitting at Malta, for having lost the vessel Further proceedings will depend upon the outcome of this trial. No steps will be taken in the matter of court martialling Rear Admiral Markham and officers of the Camperdown until after the end of Bourke's case.

OVER THE WIRES.

LONDON, June 27.—The bye-election in Pontefract yesterday resulted in the victory of T. Williams Nussey, Liberal, who received 1,191 votes, over Elliott Lees, Conservative, who received 1,159 votes.

The vacancy was left by the unseating of Harold James Rackett, Liberal, for securing his election on February 13, 1893, by bribery. A the last general election Rowland Winn, Conservative, was elected, but a few months afterward was raised to the peerage.

The constituency is very close, as is shown by the fact that Mr. Nussey's majority was but 32. In the February bye-election Mr. Rickitt's majority was 63, and in the last election Mr. Winn's majority was 40.

SAN LOUIS, Potosi, Mex., June 29.—The drought which has prevailed here for the past five years was broken on Tuesday by one of the biggest floods that has ever visited this section. Much property was damaged.

OTTAWA, June 29.—The government has decided to grant the sum of £1000 to the Victoria relief fund as a tangible expression of the sympathy of the Canadian people with those bereft by the awful disaster of last Thursday.

OTTAWA, June 29.—George Barbeau, an experienced lineman of the Standard Electric Company, mounted a pole this morning to put a wire into Molson's Bank. While sitting on the converter which transforms a strong current of 1000 volts into the current of 50 volts which goes into buildings, he slipped and grasped the severed end of the outside wire. He already had a hold of the other end. Calling out, "Boys I am done for" he fell back on the converter and died before he could be reached.

WINDSOR, Ont., June 29.—Mrs. John Cartwright heard that Geo. Curtis, an employee of the Ferry Company, had been making uncomplimentary remarks about her. She met Curtis in the street last night and pulled a raw hide from under her dress and began plying it vigorously over the head and shoulders of her alleged defamer. After satisfying her wrath she allowed Curtis to proceed on his way with a warning not to repeat the offence. Mrs. Cartwright is a powerful woman and handled the whip like a cow boy.

OTTAWA, July 3.—A frightful accident occurred at the Union station this morning. An immigrant train of twelve cars with about five hundred souls on board arrived from Quebec, most of the passengers destined for Manitoba and the Northwest. While the colonist sleepers were being substituted for second class cars the immigrants were about the station and yard. Nearly all were foreigners and did not seem to understand what train arrangements were. A French woman named Martin carrying a boy of five attempted to board a car in motion. She was carried beyond the platform hanging on only by her hands. Her feet caught in the frog while the train was passing over the points. This dragged her from her hold and the boy rolled under the wheels and was cut in two. The woman's legs were severed. She was taken to the hospital, where she died this afternoon.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

THE spell was broken last evening about 6 o'clock, when for the first time for over a month rain began to fall It continued to fall until some time this morning. Its coming was none too soon, and the benefit the hay crop will derive from it will be of very little advantage Our farmers had just about despaired of being able to house a crop of any kind this season, when the welcome element came and shattered their fears. Prayers had been offered for rain Sunday in nearly all the city churches, and in many others throughout the Province.

TAKE WARNING!

Neglect Not These Signals of Danger.

A Useful Lesson on Health Taught by The Indians' Example.

Let the Remedy be Simple and Safe—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa.

If you are ailing, not exactly sick but not feeling "just right," have a drowsy, dull feeling, bad taste in the mouth, variable appetite, occasional pains in the joints and muscles, and other signs of impending sickness, why not do as the Indian does—drive such symptoms out of the system by the judicious use of their reliable vegetable remedy, Kickapoo Indian Sagwa?

"Thundering Horse," a Kickapoo chief, age 89 years. From his photograph.

Don't neglect such warnings.

That pain in your shoulder may develop into rheumatism, and a month's sickness deprive you of the income of your toil.

That white, furry tongue denotes your liver is out of order, and disease would easily take root in your system.

What could you do then!

Think of your business, your income and your family.

Seek safety as you would fly from cholera or small pox.

You are in danger if you neglect these warnings. They may pass off, but the chances are against you, and even then the poison is only latent in your system.

Do not, however, put your trust in the numerous mineral medicines with which the market is flooded. The action of many of these decoctions comes from mineral potions they contain, such as mercury, arsenic, strychnine, bismuth, iodide of potassium, and the like and any druggist will tell you if he tells you truly, that this is so.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and other Kickapoo Indian medicines contain only the product of the field and forest, nature's own vegetable growth of roots, barks and herbs, and of necessity are free from all mineral poisons whatever, because the Indians have no knowledge of them, depending wholly upon nature's laboratory for their resources, and upon their skill, born of centuries of experience, in preparing them.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, made by the Indians from roots, herbs and barks of their own gathering and curing, is obtainable of druggists and medicine dealers only. One dollar per bottle; six bottles for five dollars.

FREE. Send three two-cent stamps to pay postage and we will mail you free a thrilling and interesting book of 128 pages, entitled Wills and Sagwa Among the Kickapoo Indians. Tells all about the Indians. Address HEALTH & BOOK CO., Distributing Agents, 381 Grand Ave New Haven, Conn.
