This vinage was the scene, ast night, of a terrible crime, involving parricide and suicide. John Clemmens, aged sixty-eight years, some three weeks ago, took unto himself his third wife. This act displeased his son James, a young man of twenty-six years. Previous to the marriage the father and son had trouble about some property owned by the for about some property owned by the for mer, which the latter alleged had been transferred to him. The marriage comtant transferred to him. The marriage complicated the difficulties, and the newly acquired stepmother and James were bitter Also, Revolving, Repeatiny, Deringer and Vest Pocket enemies. man had freely used lumps of coal as weapons of attack, one of these striking her stepson on the head and starting him to the Squire's office, where an information charging his stepmother with assault and battery was preferred. The case was tried yesterday and a verdict rendered favorable to old Clemmens' new bride. This exasperated the son, and last night he went into Scott's butcher shop and sharpened a huge knife, and, putting the weapon under his coat, went out. He walked deliberately to his father's house, where he met the old gentleman just coming out of the door. He stepped up to him and plunged the knife into his abdomen, producing a deep wound six inches in length. Evidently satisfied that he had killed his father, the crazed man held aloft for a moment the dripping knife and then plunged it in his own heart; staggering for a moment and then falling a corpse.

The question is almost delivered "What is the cause of the of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vinegar Birunparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to.
