Wedding Bells.

At the Talbot Street Baptist Church this afternoon, shortly before 1 o'clock, Miss Mary J. Halse, of this city, was united in marriage to Rev. Ernest Grigg, pastor of the Baptist Church, Perth, in the presence of a large number of the young friends and acquaintances of the contracting parties. The bride, becomingly attired in white, entered the church, supported by Mr. J. J. Wellstead. Miss Aggie Dixon, of Goderich, and Miss Mary Grigg, of Exeter, made charming bridesmaids, while Mr. Benjamin Grigg, of McMaster University, Toronto, and Rev. H. J. Haviland, of Uxbridge, acted as best men. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. McKay, B.A., of the South London Baptist Church, who tied the knot neatly. After the marriage the young couple departed, bearing with them the good wishes of loving friends, made manifest by the usual tokens of rice, etc. They subsequently left for their future home in Perth.

Lecturer Burdick's Trouble.

The series of temperance meetings held under the leadership of Mr. P. A. Burdick were brought to a sudden close last evening on account of the unexpected indisposition of the leader. Over a month ago Mr. Burdick was unfortunate enough to sprain his ankle, and before the sprain was perfectly mended the lecturer started walking. The result is that the ankle bones have become affected and the doctors have grave fears that the trouble will not be confined to the ankle joint alone. When the time came for the lecturer to go on the platform last evening he was in bed and totally unable to appear, so the meetings were by consent discontinued. Rev. M. P. Talling, Rev. Trotter Carr and Rev. A. C. Courtice each made short addresses on temperance, and the series of meetings which had opened so auspiciously were brought to a close. The following resolution was submitted to the audience and carried unanimously:

Mr. P. A. Burdick, Alfred Center, N. Y.:

Dear Sir and Brother,—We desire at this time to express to you our heartfelt sympathy in the painful affliction which is your lot at present, and still more in the disappointment which you must feel is discontinuing this work so auspiciously commenced under your leadership. Be it therefore resolved that we cannot let the opportunity pass without stating our confidence in the spirit and the methods of your work and the hope we entertain of a successful series of meetings. It is our intention to continue this branch of Christian work in your absence, and we pray that the divine blessings abiding with us to give success may go and abide with you to heal and restore, so that in great vigor you may continue in the Divine Master's service.

It is the intention of the management of the temperance campaign to hold a series of meetings in the Victoria Hall on Saturday evenings.

London Convalescent Home.

The following is a copy of a letter sent by the Board of the Convalescent Home to the clergy of the city:

London Convalescent Home,
444 York street, October, 1890.

Dear Sir,—I am requested by the Board of Management of the above to ask your kind sympathy and co-operation in their work, so that in the long winter before us the full benefits of the home may be extended to those for whom it was especially designed, viz., those recovering from illness, either in their own homes or in the City Hospital, and who need rest and nourishment to complete their cure. The clergy of the city can do much to further our efforts, and the home could in return do much to help them in just such cases, as must in the course of their visiting of the sick, come to their knowledge and claim their assistance. Since its inception a little over two years ago there have been 70 admissions into the Convalescent Home. Of these only two have paid in full, and twenty in proportion to their means; the rest have been received gratis. Twenty-nine of our patients have come from the City Hospital, either directly sent by the recommendation of the authorities, or finding themselves homeless have drifted to our home as to a haven of rest, guided thither and received therein for "Sweet Charity's sake." For only two as yet has any payment been received from the city. Some of the clergy urged the taking in of men as well as women, saying they would help us if we did so. We have done so, and have found that perhaps to men more especially our Convalescent Home has been the greater boon. We have refrained from canvassing for help, and our funds have been kept up largely from private sources hitherto. Whether we are enabled to carry on our work on the same liberal basis another year depends on our friends. Will you help us by naming the home and its work the members of your church, by ascertaining suitable cases for admission amongst your sick and needy, and sending them to us with your own signature upon the forms I inclose as a guarantee that they are what they represent themselves to be and suitable candidates for admission? And will you accept our invitation again cordially extended to visit our home and its inmates at any time, and to take a personal interest in our work. Our Board meetings take place the second Thursday in every month, when your presence to open them with prayer and a few words of sympathy and counsel will be heartily welcomed. I am, sir, very faithfully yours,

H. A. BOOMER, president.
