The Times Berlin special says that Baron Holstein testified at Von Arnim's trial, yesterday, that in consequence of being informed by Landsberg that Arnim mistakenly attributed to Bismarck the intention of going to war with France, on account of the pastoral letters of French bishops, he wrote to a friend in Berlin to inform Bismarck that the Ambassador in Paris was becoming nervous at a critical period. Additional despatches are published. Among the most important is one from Von Arnim stating that Germany should not discourage the hopes of the Bouspartists, as they were the only party which did not proclaim the necessity for a war of revenge. Bismarck replies that there is no occasion to encourage any action while Thiers faithfully fulfilled Treaty stipulations. Another despatch from Bismarck informs Von Arnim that he is mistaken if he thinks Germany desires Italy and France to quarrel, as in that event Germany would be dragged in to support Italy.
