Shipping Notes.

A letter from Gaspe Bay, of the 6th inst. states that the lighthouse on Anticosti Island, was completely destroyed in the late hurricane. The house of the lighthouse keeper was also destroyed and Mr. Baxter, the keeper, his wife and six children, were all killed. Several small fishing vessels were also wrecked on the Island.

Messrs. Baine, Johnson & Co, of Saint John's, N. F, have purchased the steamer City of Halifax, late of the Inman Line. She is undergoing repairs at Glasgow, Scotland, preparatory to being placed on the route between Halifax and St. John's.

One of the crew of the schooner Dauntless, at Halifax, named Shea, had one of his legs broken by falling from aloft. The captain, thinking the broken leg story a sham, he having had trouble with Shea before, had him conveyed to the Police Station. A doctor who was summoned expressed it as his opinion that the leg was broken, and sent the man to the hospital.

The brigantine Omer, of this port, Ruggles, commander, bound to New York, while at anchor in Halifax harbor during the gale of Sunday last, lost her anchor and 35 fathoms of chain. On the afternoon of Tuesday last she was run into by the brigantine Laurella, from Demerara, while attempting to come to anchor, and lost her lower topsail yard.

The brig M. McFarlane, Hall, from London for Baltimore, which put into Portland Roads on the 12th Nov., had flying jibboom carried away and sails split, during a heavy squall off the North Foreland. She has also had steward and an A. B. (Wm. Bennet) sick. The seaman was paid off at Weymouth on the 19th and sent to London. The steward is recovering.

The circulation of the DAILY TRIBUNE is rapidly increasing.

A Lively Runaway.

Between seven and eight o'clock this morning, as the coaches were waiting at the Eastern Railway Station, a pair of horses attached to the sleigh cab of Mr. Michael Blackall became restive, and before the driver, Michael Nally, could obtain the reins, started on a runaway. After reaching Pond street the cab became overturned and was dragged on its side at a furious pace up Mill and through Dock streets to the Market Square, where it brought up against an iron awning post. Singular to say that with the exception of touching the Eastern Express sleigh, no collision occurred during the passage. The cab was, however, badly broken.

The Fire Alarm again.

This morning when the fire was discovered at the office of Mr. Thomas an alarm was sounded from Box 26 at Gabel's corner. Through some deficiency in the working of the telegraph the number was only heard in certain parts of the city, and at the Police Station no sound was given. The gong at the Bell Tower was sounded by the fire and not by anything indicated by the alarm. It may be stated that the alarm was given from Germain street church but in respect to the general system the opinion is that all was inaccurate.

City Police Court.

Only one prisoner was arrested last night and even he wasn't a captive of the police. William McDonald, 28, N. B., was found by Marshall Hancock drunk on Britain street and the worthy Marshall at once conveyed him to the station and this morning he (McDonald, not the Marshall) was fined $4.

The Canadian Monthly for December gives the conclusion of Louisa Murray's "Carmina"; "The Jewels—a Jewish Legend" (poem), by Edward J. White; "The Dumb Speech," by John Lesperance; "The Maiden's Lament" (from Schiller); "The Labour Movement," by Goldwin Smith, M. A.; "The Sonnets of Michael Angelo"; "The Game of Checkers"; "The Emigrant Mountaineer"; "Current Events"; "A Christmas Ode"; "Stanley's Discovery of Livingstone"; "On the Law of Progress," Book Reviews, and Literary Notices. It is a good number, and should be in the hands of every one who desires to promote a healthy Canadian literature

Subscription price of the DAILY TRIBUNE, FIVE DOLLARS a year. New subscribers will receive it from date until December 31st, 1873, on payment of the yearly subscription.

By an amusing typographical error in the Bangor Commercial the post office department was made to have transported a large number of cattle from Danforth. "Mail" should have been "rail."

Edwin Forrest, the eminent actor, fell dead in Philadelphia to-day, while dressing.

The weather is cold, and there is a snow storm prevailing.

LONDON, Dec. 12, p. m.

The Bank of England rates have been reduced 1 per cent.; they now stand 5 per cent.

Consols 91⅝.

The ship Franklin, from Hamburg, several days ago, for San Francisco, with a large number of emigrants, has been stranded on an island in the Netherlands in the North Sea and gone to pieces. Eighty persons are known to have perished.

No hopes are entertained for the recovery of the wife of Disraeli.

A special from Paris to the News says the gales in that city on Tuesday last were dreadful.

Versailles was also visited by a hurricane. The damage to property was very great and several persons were killed in both cities.

PARIS, Dec. 12.

The Left in the Assembly is much censured for arising inopportunely to the question of dissolution, and thus giving the Germans a pretext for rejecting the guarantees for the payment of the war indemnity, and an excuse for refusing to evacuate the country.

M. Goulard, Minister of the interior, has instructed the prefects to prohibit the signing of petitions for dissolution in the wine shops.

Raoul, Duval, Lucombe and Daufilfert Pasquier will take part in the debate on Saturday. The debate will not be on the petitions now coming in, but those that were presented at the last session of the Assembly.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.

News has been received of Herr Manch, the German Explorer of Africa, that he had arrived at Giullame on his way home, and was in good health.

THE HOTEL HORROR.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.

Mary Fagan, a victim of the Fifth Avenue Hotel fire, has died in great agony at the Bellevue Hospital.

The fire originated according to the evidence before the Fire Marshal in a servant's room on the third floor. One of the proprietors says, however, that the origin of the fire is not at all known. Another of the proprietors says that he ordered an alarm to be given after the discovery of the fire. Both are of the opinion that the poor girls met their death from suffocation. The loss on the building will be only $10,000, but the furniture is damaged to the extent of $80,000. An eye witness says there is no doubt that if an alarm had been sounded on the discovery of the fire the girls would have been rescued. The general impression is that the hotel proprietors in their anxiety to save their furniture and carpets wanted to put out the fire themselves.
