DR. TORREY TELLS WHY SOULS PERISH

Pride and Public Confessions Two of the Reasons.

SHOULDN'T WED UNCONVERTED

Eminent Evangelist Addresses Great Gathering on Christ's Invitation to Sinners.

Toronto, Jan. 11.—Last night marked the top-notch of any of the week night meetings so far held in the Torrey-Alexander mission. At 7:20 the big auditorium of Massey Hall was filled, and an overflow meeting of over 500 people was held in the Metropolitan Church. It is intended to hold overflow meetings there every night but Sunday of the mission from this time forth. The number of conversions was also the largest on record at a week-day service. Altogether over 75 names were handed in to the secretaries, including eight from the overflow meeting in the Metropolitan Church, which was addressed by Rev. Walter Russell. Messrs. Butler, the soloist, and Harkness, the pianist, assisted Mr. Russell for a while.

After a prayer Mr. Alexander asked the top gallery to name a hymn to be sung. "The Glory Song," called out a man with a strong voice, and as it met with approval, the people in the gallery had to sing the first verse alone.

"Now back of the posts in the first gallery," cried Mr. Alexander cheerily. "I want to see if you can sing. I can't see you." That section of the audience responded well.

A Little Talk on Singing

"I believe that when you come to sing the Lord's songs you should do your very best," went on the singer evangelist with his sunny smile. "If you do your best, then all right. If you can do a little better than you do, then that's all wrong. Some of you men and ladies wait till we get started two or three words before you join in. Why not be getting ready to get ready before we begin? A great many people from a distance want to hear the Glory Song. You can spoil your part of it by being slow to start. Some of you men have the reputation of being good business men. If you did your business the way you sing you would soon have to take down your sign. You're always late. I like to see you sing all over. Don't just sing with your mouth. Sing with your whole body. Why don't you say 'Amen?' It sounded so lonesome around here.

"Amen!" came from a dozen quarters of the hall.

"I saw three ladies and one man over on that side that didn't sing a note," Mr. Alexander continued after the audience had sung. "Friends if you don't sing the Glory Song, soon people will begin to think that you are not educated. Everybody is singing it that is going to school and can read, and many are singing it who can't read. Let's all fall in line. What did you say?"

Requests for Prayer

Rev. Dr. Torrey read a number of requests for prayer. Among them were petitions for "a father, mother, and grandmother—by one who was converted last night"; "a dear husband, that he may be led to these meetings and to Christ"; "a son and two daughters"; "a whole family of professing Christians, that they may attend these meetings and wholly surrender to God"; "a friend and her husband given up to worldly society"; "the son of an English Church minister"; "two sons of an Episcopalian minister in the States, one of whom is separated from his wife and living in open sin"; and "a man and wife in St. Marys."

Rev. Mr. Pugsley offered a prayer embodying these requests.

Mr. Alexander secured one of the most beautiful effects in singing at any of the meetings yet by asking the ladies in the back of the first gallery to sing softly, almost in a whisper:

"In the sweet by-and-bye,
We shall meet on that beautiful shore."

It was like the sound of sweet voices across a stretch of water.

"I think you people are the best people I ever saw, not to be running out and in during the service," remarked Mr. Alexander a moment later. "Your pastors have trained you properly."

"And ye will not come to me that ye might have life"—John, v., 40—was the text from which Dr. Torrey preached his sermon.

This was the saddest utterance that ever fell from the lips of the Saviour. He wished he could reproduce the tone and the look with which Christ said it. He believed it would break many hearts. Christ had come down from heaven to earth to bring life to men, and had gone up and down proclaiming it and offering it to everybody, but, like a great many men of today, they wouldn't come to him.

"That same Jesus is standing in Massey Hall tonight, with outstretched arms inviting everyone here to himself and everlasting life, but you won't come," said Dr. Torrey. "You will come to this hall in great crowds, but you won't come to himself. That text contains the whole explanation of why it is that anybody is lost. If anyone is lost it is simply because he will not come to Christ that he might have life. No man is lost because he needs to be lost. The Universalists are right that far. Salvation has been secured by everybody and offered to everybody.

Should Not Marry Unconverted

Love of friends kept many away. It would separate you from some dear friend who is not a Christian. "Shall I choose Jesus or my earthly friend? Let me say to anyone facing that question," said Dr. Torrey, "that the best friend to have is Jesus." ("Amen" from the audience.) "No person on earth ever chose an earthly love instead of Jesus that didn't live to see that friend a curse to them. I have received scores of letters from men and women who have made such choices, and have had broken hearts as a result.

"My life has been blasted. I beseech you to warn Christian men and women against becoming married to unconverted people!"

Fear of man kept many away. "Right in this place tonight are dozens of men and women who would stand up and accept Jesus, but you say, 'What will such a person say? How he would laugh at me!' That is keeping more people from coming out boldly than most other sins. Let them laugh at you. The time is coming when they will laugh at themselves. I would rather be laughed at in this world for having done right than be laughed at in hell by the devils for having done wrong. Those who laugh at you are the fools, not your friends. Come on; let them laugh, sneer, persecute. It's worth while. You get Christ, and in all probability you get them."

Hatred Keeps People Away

An unforgiving spirit kept many away. "I think that most of us would be very much surprised if we knew how many people there were who were kept from Christ by bitterness of heart toward somebody that has wronged them, or whom they think has robebd them. For the poor, miserable sake of hating somebody, you are refusing Christ, and losing your soul. Men and women, put away the hate that is damning you, and take Jesus.

Pride kept many away, more than most any other sin. "It makes men and women who have lived respectable, moral, decent, amiable lives unwilling to admit that they are poor vile worthless hell-deserving sinners and must be saved in just the same way as the drunkard, the harlot, and the state's prisoner. If there were two ways one for respectable sinners, you would take it, but there is no other one than that the drunkard and harlot must go. You are a sinner just the same as they. You have broken the law of God."

"Pride makes people unwilling to do certain things. You say 'I want you to understand that I won't stand up in Massey Hall and I won't come down to the front to confess Christ.' Nobody supposes for a moment that it is necessary for you to do that in order to become a Christian. But if you say you won't, it isn't likely you will find peace until you do. God will humble the stout heart, and if a man says he won't, God holds him till he does. Some of you people have said in your pride that you will not come down to the front seats. In all probability you won't find peace till you do. Men and women put your pride away. A blessing is waiting for you right here if you have taken that stand."

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Manager Turton, of the Grand Opera House, announces the famous play, "Way Down East," for tonight. The drawing powers of this great play is simply marvelous. No rural play has ever approached its record. Season after season, it has gone to the same cities—Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis and other places—and with each succeeding visit its takings have increased. The natural deduction is that it is a play that the masses and the classes want.

"The Way of the Transgressor" will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House at popular prices tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon and evening. It has many comedy features, a host of entertaining vaudeville specialties, and the scenic surroundings are of rare beauty. The plot is charmingly unique, but at the same time so full of heart interest that it will appeal to all classes of theatergoers.

One of the features of the production, and one that cannot be duplicated by any other company, is the introduction of a group of highly-developed canines, who perform parts in the play in a manner that will convince anyone that they are almost human.

When Viola Allen presents Clyde Fitch's comedy, "The Toast of the Town," at the Grand on Monday evening next, she will again impersonate an actress. It will be recalled that Miss Allen's first great stellar success was as Glory Quayle in "The Christian." Glory, while called an actress, flourished in a music hall; but the charming Betty Singleton, in "The Toast of the Town," was the leading lady of old Drury Lane during the time of George III. This is Mr. Fitch's second play laid in a like period, the first being his great success, "Beau Brummell." Isabel Irving has been induced to relinquish her stellar career for the present to appear with Miss Allen

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

How Food Headed Off the Insidious Disease.

The happy wife of a good old-fashioned Michigan farmer says:

"In the spring of 1902, I was taken sick—a general breaking down, as it were. I was excessively nervous, could not sleep well at nights, my food seemed to do me no good, and I was so weak I could scarcely walk across the room.

"The doctor said my condition was due to overwork and close confinement and that he very much feared that consumption would set in. For several months I took one kind of medicine after another, but with no good effect—in fact, I seemed to grow worse.

"Then I determined to quit all medicines, give up coffee and see what Grape-Nuts Food would do for me. I began to eat Grape-Nuts with sugar and cream and bread and butter three times a day.

"The effect was surprising! I began to gain flesh and strength forthwith, my nerves quieted down and grew normally steady and sound, sweet sleep came back to me. In six weeks' time I discharged the hired girl and commenced to do my own housework for a family of six. This was two years ago, and I am doing it still and enjoy it." RUSH TO NEW GOLD CAMP

Manhattan, Nev., Jumps From Population of 20 to 4,000 in a Week

Goldfield, Nev., Jan. 12.—One day a mountain valley with 20 inhabitants, in a week a mining camp of 4,000 people—that is the story of Manhattan, 80 miles northeast of Goldfield. The streets of Goldfield look deserted. A low estimate places the exodus to the new fields from Goldfield alone at 2,000.

Two hundred dollars a day is being offered for autos by those anxious to reach the camp in a hurry. Hundreds of teams line the two roads to the latest camp. Yesterday a crowded stage tipped over, killed the driver and slightly injured several passengers. The life at the new camp is strenuous. There is no law or order.

The tremendous surface finds have made men hysterical. Lots have jumped in price from $25 to $3,500. Meals are away up. A bath in a round tin tub costs $3. Saloons are making hundreds of dollars a day and at night space is sold on the floors for sleeping.

The excitement at Goldfield was caused when W. F. Bond came into camp with samples glittering with gold. Selected specimen assayed $180,000. The first property sold today for $10,000 cash on its surface showing.

Manhattan is a poor man's camp. The gold is free and is obtained on surface with little work. The greatest showing of free gold ever found in Nevada is credited to this camp. It is not known whether values continue to any depth, but Goldfield, Tonopah and Bullfrog have been deserted by the entire surplus mining population who have joined in this latest gold rush across the desert.

MORE WHOLESALE THEFTS

Big Robbery of Silks From a Toronto Firm Unearthed.

Toronto, Jan. 11.—A new robbery has been brought to light in Toronto that had not been reported to the police, as the result of the seizure of nearly $2,000 worth of stolen goods at Chatsworth, and the arrest of Conrad Lurie, a second-hand dealer there, on the charge of receiving stolen property.

While the police were going over and sorting out the goods a member of the wholesale firm of Debenham, Caldecott & Co., recognized among the silks some samples that had been stolen from their warehouse. The firm, however, did not know to what the total thefts amounted.

Lurie came before the police magistrate today, pleaded not guilty, and was released on bail.

He will appear again on Tuesday, when Joseph Warren and Charles Goodman, who are under arrest in connection with the same series of robberies, will come up for examination.

Goodman's family and relatives, who are wealthy, are making every effort to have the accused released on bail, and today presented doctors' certificates to the effct that Goodman was a sick man. The crown, however, has refused to accept bail.

INDIANS IN PATH OF PROGRESS

Four Indian reservations located in the rich agricultural belt lying along the Rainy River are doing a great deal to retard settlement, and the opening up of the country, and the Ontario Government is endeavoring by negotiation with the Indian department at Ottawa and with the Indians to have these holdings disposed of.

One of the reserves consists of 20,000 acres lying adjacent to the town on Rainy River. It is not used by the Indians at all, and is a great barrier to colonization, no roads or other improvement being possible upon it. The other three reserves are inhabited by Indians. Altogether they hold about 40,000 acres. The Ontario Government is anxious to deal generously with the Indians in the matter.

Altogether, in the district north and west of Lake Superior, the Dominion Government set aside some 340,000 acres for the Indians as reserves, but these have never been formally recognized as such by the Ontario Government. These reserves were set aside under the same treaty under which the Dominion is now suing the Province for $1,500,000 cash paid to the Indians, but they will be dealt with separately to the cash item.

The Government is also negotiating for the release of 120 acres held on Father's Point, at Fort Frances, for purposes of a park for the town.

ESCAPES FROM MIMICO

Ingersoll Boy Gets Away From Institution and Nothing Is Said.

Ingersoll, Jan. 11. — Chief of Police Wright received word this morning that John Roberts, the Ingersoll lad who was sentenced about six weeks ago to two years in Mimico for breaking into a local store, had escaped from that institution three weeks ago. No particulars were given. The delay of the Mimico authorities in notifying the police is unaccountable. Roberts was seen in town soon after his escape, but is not thought to be here now.

Roberts broke away while the boys were exercising in the gymnasium, in charge of officers. Roberts ran up the stairs to the balcony in the course of erection, slid out of a window and down the scaffolding. Ten minutes later, when the boys were numbered, Roberts was missed, but he had disappeared in the darkness.

WORK IS ON INCREASE

Aberdeen Association Extends Its Usefulness During the Year

The London branch of the Aberdeen Association held its sixth annual meeting, at the city hall on Tuesday.

A gratifying progress in the work was shown by the reports read. There are now 80 families on the mailing list, and parcels are sent to 7 lumber camps, a hospital at Port Simpson, several missions and the British colony at Floydminster.

The association wishes to thank most cordially all donors of literature. Contributions of magazines of recent date will be gratefully received, especially church papers and children's magazines.

Deep regret was expressed at the loss of the president, Miss Hopkirk, who was engaged in the work from its beginning. Therefore, the association particularly misses one who was so thoroughly conversant with the work in all is details.

In addition, the absence of Miss McMillan is one keenly felt, as her influence permeates the society, and each individual feels that her withdrawal, though but temporary, has left a vold.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Miss Kirkpatrick.

Convener of Rooms Committee—Mrs. Murray.

Recording Secretary—Miss Matthews.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss McMillan.

Treasurer—Miss Waugh.

Convener of Parcel Committee—Miss Boyd.

Assistant Corresponding Secretary—Miss Burgess.

Aid for Horse Show.

Hensall, Ont., Jan. 11. — A meeting of those interested in the horse show was held at the Queen's recently. There was a fair attendance, and the old officers and committees were reappointed. It was resoived to petition the Minister of Agriculture to give liberal help to horse shows and also to request a grant from the county council.

A Gallant Rescue.

Toronto, Jan. 11. — While a group of stalwart men begged her not to enter the home of Walter Scott, which was burning fiercely, Mrs. Miller, of Kenilworth avenue, entered the place and rescued two small dogs, which were locked in a room. The men had refused to enter the house. She will be recommended for a medal.

NEW FACTORY FOR CHATHAM?

Americans May Establish a Beet Sugar Plant There.

Chatham, Jan. 11.—There appears to be every probability that a sugar beet factory, financed by some United States capitalists, will locate in Chatham if all goes well.

Since his reappointment as chairman of the industrial committee, Ald. Austin has worked hard to get the representatives of the company in question to come here, and after a visit, which they paid the city yesterday, they expressed the opinion that the location was a most favorable one, and that they would give the city every consideration.

A proposition from the company is expected later.

HELPED AID SOCIETY

Partial List of Those Who Sent Donations at Christmas.

Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid, desires to thank the fellowing for donations to the society at Christmas, the present list being an addition to the one published a week ago: Kilwinning Masonic Lodge, No. 64, $5; Sunday School, Byron Methodist Church, $6; Salem Methodist Sunday school, Derwent, $3 75; Miss R. M. E. Sanders, $2; Master Compton Bertram Wilson, $2; a friend, $3; London Circle, No. 8, Canadian Order Home Circles, $5; Court Forest City, No. 5744, A. O. F., $5; Pride of the East Circle, No. 55, Companions of the Forest, $3; St. George's Royal Arch Chapter, No. 5, capitular Masonry, $5; Court Forest Queen, No. 6563, A. O. F., $5; Fidelity Lodge, No. 5, A. O. U. W., $5, a total of $49 75.

Spain on the Watch.

Madrid, Jan. 11.—It is stated in well-informed quarters that three Spanish warships, the armored cruiser Emperador Carlos V., the cruiser Rio de la Platat, and the cruiser Extremadura, have been ordered to proceed to Algeciras and remain there during the Moroccan conference.

Brokers Fail.

New York, Jan. 11. — The stock brokerage firm of H. H. Hoyt & Co., closed its doors today, a petition in bankruptcy having been filed against it in the United States district court. The liabilities will reach $50,000.

Cheesemakers' Day.

Peterboro, Jan. 11. — This is "cheesemakers' day" at the dairy convention, and the addresses at this morning's session were in keeping with this branch of the dairy industry. The attendance was about five hundred, and great interest was manifested.

The speakers were: George A. Borr, chief dairy instructor of Western Ontario; G. G. Publow, chief dairy instructor of Eastern Ontario; and Dr. W. T. Connel, bacteriologist of the Kingston Dairy School. Mr. Publow presented a report of the work of the syndicated factories in Eastern Ontario during the past season, which showed progress along all lines.

The factories had been improved, better dairies erected, and the farmers were beginning to take better care in handling the milk on the farm.

TEDDY AND THE SENATE

The U. S. Chamber Intends to Curb the President,

Washington, Jan. 11.—There has been no more important political step in recent years in Washington than that which has been decided upon by the leading members of the Senate, without regard to party, with reference to the propensity of President Roosevelt to act on his own responsibility and without reference to Congress.

It has been definitely decided that Mr. Roosevelt shall be effectually curbed. Whether this is to be a peaceful revolution will rest entirely with the President.

The Senate is going to investigate every move of the President that it considers unconstitutional or as invading its prerogatives, and as a first step it proposes to inquire at great length and with much formality into the action of Secretary Taft, under instruction from the President, in making the now famous agreement for the purpose of maintaining the parity of the silver coinage of the Republic of Panama with the money of the United States.

Firemen May Strike

New York, Jan. 11.—After a day in conference with his fellow-workmen, Vice-Grand Master C. A. Wilson, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, announced tonight that he would go at once to Scranton, Pa., to again place the demands of the Lackawanna firemen before General Superintendent Clark. The firemen want shorter hours of work and more pay. Mr. Wilson would not indicate what the action of the firemen will be in case their demands are refused. He denied that a strike was contemplated at this time.

A BOTTLE of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, taken according to directions, will subdue a cough in a short time. This assertion can be verified by hundreds who have tried it, and are pleased to bear testimony to its merits, so that all may know what a splendid medicine it is. It costs you only 25 cents to join the ranks of the many who have been benefited by its use.

THAT ASPHALT MIX-UP

Castro and the Receiver Accused of Fraud and Conspiracy.

New York, Jan. 11. — The Tribune today says, according to private advices just received from Caracas, Venezuela, President Castro will offer for sale to the highest bidder the concessions for the asphalt lake at Guanoco, of which the New York and Bermudez Company was deprived about a year and a half ago.

The asphalt property, which is in the State of Bermudez, is now being operated by Ambrose Howard Carner, as receiver, under appointment by the high federal court. Since taking charge of the affairs of the property, Mr. Carner has been steadily shipping the product to this country, where it is controlled by Anzi Lorenzo Barber, of the Pan-American Company, and the A. L. Barber Asphalt Company. In its complaint to the state department at Washington, the New York and Bermudez Company dwells on the business relationship between Mr. Carner and Mr. Barber, and says that the entire proceedings are the result of a conspiracy with President Castro by the company's business rivals. These statements and others not yet made public will be placed before Congress at the expected investigation of the asphalt case. The New York and Bermudez concession of Guanoco Lake would expire in 1908, but President Castro, according to trustworthy information, will, without regard to the rights of the company under the concession abrogated by his courts, sell the concession and terminate the sovereignty.

When a man or woman doesn't care, the case is hopeless.

Three Die in Mine

Kalamazoo, Mich., Jan. 11.—The Tamarack copper mine, one of the deepest in the world, is on fire, and three miners have met death half a mile below the earth's surface.

Uppper Lake Levels.

Detroit, Jan. 11.—Tomorrow before the Lake Carriers' Association a resolution relating to diverting of the St. Mary's River into water power canals will be discussed.

There is a strong element among the delegates favoring the adoption of resolutions asking the United States and the Canadian Governments to prevent further privileges being granted, and if necessary to revoke the charters of power canals already authorized, in order that the level of water in St. Mary's River may not be reduced.

Removes Poison From the Blood

There's a need in every home of a medicine that will promptly cure biliousness, kidney derangements and constipation.

A medicine that by cleansing the filtering and excretory organs will remove all poisonous waste matter, and by so doing prevent fevers, colds and such deadly diseases as dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease.

No medicine satisfies this need so well as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

This is no idle boast, but an absolute fact that is backed up by the testimony of a hundred thousand homes.

As a treatment for backaches, headaches, indigestion, aching limbs, liver derangements, kidney disorders and constipation, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are prompt, thorough and effective. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates &
