ELEVENTH YEAR. MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1890. ONE CENT.

THE EMPEROR AT THE HELM.

WILLIAM PROPOSES TO KEEP A SHARP EYE ON LEGISLATION.

Sending Federal Princes Trying to Tone Down His Self-Confidence — Russia Warned Against Further Provocation —Austria to Have a Hand in the Balkans.

BERLIN, April 12.—The Pesther Lloyd in an official communication alluding to the concentration of 150,000 Russian troops on the Austrian frontier, says it rejoices in the formal renewal of the triple alliance and warns Russia that the allied powers will not much longer submit to continued provocation. According to the same paper Chancellor Von Caprivi's note to Prime Minister Kalnoky reaffirming the alliance did not admit an identity of interests in Eastern Europe. Austria will have a free hand in the Balkans and act on her own responsibility. The accord with Italy is equally perfect although the alliance has been weakened through the uncertain position of Signor Crispi.

The Progressist press indulges in dreams of a revision of the tariff in the direction of lowering or abolishing duties on article absolutely necessary for the use of the people. It is not believed the Emperor will entangle himself in the difficulties entailed by a review of the tariff. Equally discredited are the rumors that the Emperor intends to propose a revision of the constitution in the direction of reducing the powers of the Bundesrath while centralising power in the hands of a ministry controled by the Emperor. Neither the Reichstag nor the Bundesrath will ever assent to an extension of the Imperial power toward absolutism.

Already the leading federal princes of the Empire, incredulous of the Emperor's capacity and scared by his methods of governing, are trying to tone down his self-confidence. It is an open secret that the governents of Bavaria, Wurtemburg and Saxony, which hold 14 votes in the Bundesrath, will not cooperate in imperial measures unless the Emperor consults them more on the general lines of his policy.

To-night the Reichsanzeiger has a curt, significant disclaimer of the reported organisation of the central ministerial departments. It is denied that the Government ever contemplated increasing the responsibility of the ministers. The temper of the leading Federal Governments would not brook any discussion of the subject.

The Samoan treaty was formally signed to-day.

Court advices from St. Petersburg are that the movement in favor of a constitution finds adherents in the Czar's circle. The Grand Duke Vladimir, the Czar's brother, induced less by liberalism than by fears of a revolution, heads a ministerial section that is urging the Czar to create a Parliament consisting of representatives of the nobility elected by the Zemstvos with a limited number of delegates elected by towns.

The millowners of Gorlitz have agreed to discharge workmen joining in the strike movement, and the workmen in the state factories of Austria have been warned that if they absent themselves from work May 1 they will be dismissed.

Prince Bismarck is credited with describing his last days in Berlin as a frightful funeral.

THE BLYTHE WILL CONTEST.

Protracted Fight Over an Estate of Four Millions in Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The taking of testimony in the celebrated Blythe will case came to an end yesterday. The contest was begun for a $4,000,000 estate on July 15 last, and yesterday was the 178th day of actual trial. The strongest case has been made by Florence Blythe, a 15-year-old girl, whose mother was betrayed by Blythe on one of his visits to England. He acknowledged the girl as his daughter and corresponded with her, but did not adopt her according to the California law. The other chief claimant is Alice Edith Dickinson, who claims to have been married to Blythe by verbal contract, but who only proved that she had been his mistress. One of the best cases has been made by what are known as the Gypsy Blythes of Kentucky, who trace their descendants from Betty Savage, who married Blythe's father. As counsel for each of the claimants will be given a chance for argument, the case will consume at least a month more.

Politics Red Hot in North Essex.

[Windsor Cor. Detroit Free Press.]

The political pot of the Reform party is boiling as it never boiled before and there is an open rupture between Pacaudites and Clearyites. Recent developments show that in spite of the declaration of Mr. Pacaud his supporters are loud and caustic in their denunciation of the action of the convention, claiming that as Pacaud won the county four years ago he is entitled to a recognition and preferment. Yesterday afternoon a petition was circulated and largely signed asking Pacaud to run, no matter what happens. During the day a deputation waited upon Mayor White and made a proposition that if he would not run for the local and would run for the Dominion House, they would give him their support. Mayor White, when spoken to by a Free Press representative, said he had not yet made up his mind and had a number of propositions under consideration, and it would be hard to say what he would do. Taken all in all, the prospects for a bitter local election are very good.

The friends and supporters of Gaspard Pacaud, M.L.A., will hold a mass meeting at the Opera House Tuesday afternoon.

Personal Mention.

Rev. T. W. Jeffery continues to improve and his present condition gives hope of a speedy recovery.

Rev. Prof. Boys continues in a critical condition at the General Hospital. He is gradually growing weaker.

Rev. John Gillespie's condition took a decided turn for the better yesterday, and at the last reports he was "doing nicely."

Miss Evelyn Severs, a popular young soprano, who has been pursuing her studies under the most eminent vocal teachers in New York, has returned to the city.

Mr. H. M. Lindblad, late foreman of the clothing department of the Gutta Percha Rubber Manufacturing Company, has been presented by the operators with a valuable cigar case at his residence, 51 Elm-grove.

With newspaper men Mr. Watt of The Brantford Expositor has always been a warm favorite. They will regret his departure from among them and wish him ample success in his old profession that of law which he again pursuing in Brantford.

Rev. George Nattrass is the recipient of a handsome gold watch and chain from the Sunday school and his friends, and a set of communion linen from the Women's Guild as a token of their high appreciation of him, on his leaving the church of the Holy Trinity to associate himself with the Rev. Dr. Rainsford at New York.

Mr. L. K. Cameron, president and manager of The London Advertiser, who has been in the city for the past week settling his family in a new residence he has purchased in Markham-street, is to be banqueted in the Forest City to-morrow evening. The mayor of London is to preside and many of the leading citizens take part in the "send-off." Lud has many friends in Toronto, all of whom are glad to see him come to the Queen City as a permanent resident. The World will join in welcoming him, as he is a newspaper man whom we esteem.

Catholicism and Progress.

Charles Watts at Science Hall last night lectured to a crowded audience on the subject, "Catholicism and Modern Progress." The great battle of the future, said the lecturer, would be between Free Thought and Catholicism, because both were consistent. Mr. Watts dealt with Catholicism both as a political and as a theological organisation.

A MISTAKE FIVE MILES LONG.

The Queer Error that Cost a Railroad Company $3000.

BANGOR, Me., April 12.—The love of a Yankee jury for a great foreign corporation was most clearly shown in the Supreme Court room in this city yesterday. Last July there was a serious accident on the Canadian Pacific Railway near MacKamp Station, in this state, and as soon as it occurred a conductor left the place on a handcar to go 15 miles for assistance. Telegraph offices on this section of the road are miles apart and in order to estimate the distance from the train to the nearest station the conductor counted the telegraph poles, but in computing the distance by them made an error of five miles.

Charles H. Laskey, an engineer, was sent with a relief train, and his orders, signed by Supt. Van Zile, gave the number of miles reported by the conductor. Owing to the error the disabled train was found five miles nearer than was expected and the relief train struck it in a cut while running at great speed. Engineer Laskey reversed his engine, took every precaution and then jumped, breaking two ribs and seriously injuring his back. Had he stayed aboard his locomotive he would have been killed. He promptly sued the Canadian Pacific for $10,000 damages on the ground that he was running under orders when injured. The defence was that it was through the misinformation of a fellow-servant, and that the railway was not responsible, a very common principal in law. The case, however, went to the jury and a verdict of $3000 was given to the plaintiff, exceedingly generous damages considering his injuries. The finest counsel obtainable appeared for the railway, but they had no weight with the jury. The foreign corporation was obliged to take its medicine.

JAMES HUGHES ACCEPTS

The Conservative Nomination in Peel—He Does Not Need to Consult the School Board.

James Hughes, inspector of public schools for Peel, sent a letter on Saturday to the Peel Conservative Convention accepting the nomination in that county against Mr. Chisholm for the Local Legislature. Mr. Hughes says the acceptance will not interfere with his school duties; that he can leave Toronto after 4 o'clock any day and be in any part of the riding in time for meetings. He will hold a big meeting in Brampton on Saturday afternoon.

The Forthcoming Picture Season.

The studio of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reid in the Yonge-street Arcade was visited by a large number of friends Saturday afternoon and evening in response to invitations for a private view of the celebrated pictures "Mortaging the Homestead" and "The Other Side of the Question." Both are masterpieces and delighted all those who were fortunate enough to see them. Mr. Reid will be an exhibitor at the forthcoming exhibitions at Montreal and also at the Grosvenor Gallery, London, Eng.

The studio of Mr. L. R. O'Brien, 20 College-street, was open to the public Saturday afternoon and a large number of visitors availed themselves of the opportunity of inspecting his work of last season. The exhibition will be continued this afternoon.

That Separate School Business.

Between the Separate School Act on the one part and the Public School Act on the other, and parties who are desirous of interpreting both to suit themselves, City Clerk Blevins is being fairly worried to death. On Monday Assistant S.S.B. Secretary Hall will apply for information, on Tuesday a note from Inspector Hughes or a school principal will be received wanting to know if certain public school supporters were on the S.S. list. Then the day following some further enquiries will be made; in fact, so pronounced has become the work resulting from the school agitation, that the time of a clerk is being almost kept constantly employed in sending replies and foraging for the information asked.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

Arrangements are being made for a first-class concert to be given in Association Hall on Thursday, April 24, when a number of well-known singers will take part. The proceeds will be in aid of the ladies' furnishing fund. At the same their sale of work will be held, and arrangements are being made to have it as attractive as possible. Dinner and tea will be served each day at the Y.M.C.A. building.

The last of the series of gymnasium exhibitions will be given on Friday evening, the 25th.

At the gospel and song service last evening, Rev. Thomas Bone delivered an address to men only, his subject being "From the pit to the rock."

The Union Jack.

Arrangements have been made for holding the regular meeting of Kent Lodge S.O.E.B.S. this evening in the large parlor of Shaftesbury Hall, when Bro. F. Barlow Cumberland will lecture on "The Union Jack." Every accommodation has been provided for visitors, who will be received by a special reception committee. It is expected that the turnout of members will be the largest in the history of this flourishing lodge. Mr. H. M. Blight and Mr. W. E. Ramsey will enliven the proceedings in their usual happy manner.

To-night Marcicano's Grand Italian Orchestra will give a free concert at the Model Clothing Store, 219 and 221 Yonge-street.

That Charge of Malfeasance.

The piece de resistance of to-night's City Council meeting will be the fruition of Ald. E. A. Macdonald's notice of motion charging certain of his colleagues with malfeasance of office. Webster's unabridged defines malfeasance as "The doing of an act which a person ought not to do; evil conduct; illegal deed." It is freely stated that the junior representative of St. James' Ward has the Mayor in his mind for alleged connection with the printing contract and Ald. Boustead for reasons not yet specified.

The Fatality Through a Street Car.

Coroner Pickering opened an inquest Saturday morning at the Lakeview Hotel, Winchester and Parliament-streets, on the body of little Lawrence O'Regan, who was crushed to death by a street car in Sherbourne-street. After viewing the body and taking the evidence of Dr. Teskey, who attributed the victim's death to the pressure of a heavy body on the chest, thereby fracturing the spine, the inquest was adjourned till Thursday evening.

The "Model" for one price only. The "Model" for good quality. The "Model" for good workmanship.

Too Many Drunks and Trespassers.

"The jail has all it can do just now," said Governor Green to The World yesterday, "accommodating the drunks who have been pouring into it of late. Then we have been deluged with Grand Trunk trespassers. It seems ridiculous to me to arrest a man because he may happen to cross a track."

"How about the health of the jail?"

"Why, it is first-class."

Hospital for Sick Children.

The ladies of the committee beg to acknowledge with sincere thanks the receipt of $50 forwarded by a merchant of this city, who received it as conscience money from his servant maid, also the sum of $30, proceeds of an entertainment given at 42 Charles-street by the "Little Reapers."

The "Model" for Spring overcoats. The "Model" for men's fine suits. The "Model" for children's suits.

"The Escaped Nun,"

As Miss Edith O'Gorman is known to the world, will lecture in the Horticultural Pavilion Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday afternoon on "Life in a Convent." She is spoken of as one of the finest lady elocutionists in the lecture field.

25 Leader Lane.

Ed Becton, the high grade watch specialist, has removed to 25 Leader-lane.

BEWARE OF THE BIG HEAD!

WOULD SEEM TO BE A TIMELY WARNING TO STANLEY.

The Explorer Interviewed at Cannes—He Denounces the Conduct of Various Other People Who Have Traveled in Africa—The Town of New Tipperary—Panama Canal.

LONDON, April 14.—The Times' correspondent at Cannes has had an interview with Henry M. Stanley. Stanley declared that the statement Father Schinze made could only emanate from a deepraved and degraded nature. Schinze's party were half-naked and half-starved until he provided for them and paid them tribute on arriving at the coast. In regard to the wave, it was heaped up at Wadelai but widel scattered and it would occupy at least a year of hard work to collect it, detracting much from its value. Regarding Emin, Stanley said:

"Emin was friendly enough until he fell into the hands of the Germans. As to acquiring his province, one of the first things I showed him was his own offer to the British company.

"'Confound it!' he exclaimed. 'They ought never to have published that.'

"The whole of Emin's action," Stanley continued, "is on a par with De Brazza's who got king Leopold's money and handed the results of his labors with it to France." Stanley is surprised that England allowed the Wissman enterprise to proceed without a protest. He says the exploits of Dr. Peters ought to be carefully watched.

Stanley continues immersed in revising his book.

New Tipperary's Gala Day.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The ceremonies attending the opening of the town of New Tipperary took place yesterday afternoon. Deputations from all parts of Ireland were present with about twenty M.P.'s and many other notables. Speeches were made by Lady Sandhurst, Messrs. Dwyrit and O'Brien, M.P's, and others. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

THERE IS A BIG KICK.

Getting Bigger Every Day—Will it Come Up in Council?

The recent promotion of six of the rank and file to the position of patrol sergeant is creating a very bad feeling in the police force. All the men are agreed that Peckham, Breckenwreid, Mitchell and Lewis were fairly entitled to the reward of long and faithful service conferred upon them. The great kick is over the elevation of Geddes and Watson. Both are good men, but neither their length of service nor what their duties as a policeman, it is claimed, is such as should entitle them to being placed over the heads of men who walked the beat when they were scarcely in the country.

It was understood that all things being equal, length of service would be the great point when promotions were in order, and now that has been disregarded, those officers who have been passed over are proportionately aggrieved. It is probable that the Mayor as chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners will be asked for an explanation in Council to-night.

Roland Israel Gideon Barnett Will be a Witness.

Chief Justice Sir Thomas Galt, sitting in chambers at Osgoode Hall on Saturday morning, made an order at the instance of the solicitor for the Central Bank for the issue of a writ of habeas corpus ad test to have Barnett, who is now serving a term in the Kingston Penitentiary, produced at the trial at the present Toronto Assizes of an action of Central Bank v. Roaf as a witness on behalf of the plaintiffs. The action is for the recovery of the amount of a sterling bill for £500, which it is alleged was endorsed by the defendants and discounted at the Central Bank by Barnett.

At the Synagogue.

At 8½ Saturday evening the Feast of the Passover terminated and the Jewish colony of the city resumed the eating of leavened bread. Appropriate services were at 10½ a.m., held in the Richmond and Elm-street synagogs, and impressive memorial prayers for the dead were chanted. The services were of a most impressive nature. The next Jewish feast will be that of Penticost the end of May. There were large numbers of gentiles present and at Richmond-street synagog the full choir was in attendance.

The Rebellion of '37.

Fifty-two years ago Saturday Lount and Matthews were hanged in the Toronto jail yard, just where the present Court-street is, for complicity in the rebellion of 1837. Mr. Charles Durand, who is still alive, was a witness of the execution from one of the jail windows, where he was confined as a suspect. The men were hanged, notwithstanding 30,000 citizens petitioned for their pardon.

AIX LES BAINS, March 29, 1890.

W. Barwick, Esq., Toronto Ont.

SIR,—I have laid your letter of the 15th inst. before the Queen, who commands me to assure you that Her Majesty will have much pleasure in sending to the library of the University of Toronto a copy of her journal as soon as she returns to England.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,
HENRY F. PONSONBY.

OUR NEW TOWN IN THE NORTH.

Who Will Compose the First Municipality of North Toronto.

The excitement over the approaching elections in the new town of North Toronto continues unabated. The act of incorporation provides that "George Ward or the village clerk" shall hold the nominations, and owing to the ambiguity of the clause both have issued notices. The candidates in the field are:

Mayor—John Fisher and J. J. Gartshore.

Reeve—A. L. Willson and R. H. Moyes.

Deputy-Reeve—J. S. Davis.

Councillors—Eglinton West, J. S. Stibbard, Dr. Jakes and J. Gardiner; Eglinton West, S. Lawrence, S. J. Douglas and Dr. Richardson; Davisville, J. T. Couch, G. Lawson and E. Stocker.

Music Worthy the Church.

The musical services at the Church of the Ascension conducted by Organist Doward were yesterday particularly fine. In the morning the Te Deum by Kotzschman was sung, the solo parts being taken by Mrs. A. Wright and Mr. Harry Barker. Martin's offertory sentences were also sung. In the evening the cantate and Deus by Gilbert were sung, as was also the anthem "They have Taken Away My Lord" by Sir John Stainer. The voluntaries were played by Mr. Doward. They were the pastorale from the sonata in D minor, by Guilmant and Beethoven's Hallelujah.

Good Without Christ's Teaching.

Rev. Principal Grant yesterday preached the anniversary sermons morning and evening at Chalmer's Church in the West End. In the afternoon he delivered a very interesting address to the children of Knox Church, telling them of the many excellent traits of character of the children of Japan. They, though they had never heard of Christ's teachings, were always kind to the dumb animals, dutiful to their parents and respectful to the aged and learned. During his visit to Japan the Principal had been treated with more respect as a learned man than if he had been possessed of many riches.

It Will Cause a Fight.

The recommendation of the Executive Committee to expend $700 in the purchase of certain copies of the well-known work "Toronto Called Back," will be the ground work of a big fight at to-night's meeting of the City Council. Ald. Gillespie and Frankland are the great supporters of the grant, while Ald. Boustead and Dodds are its determined opponents. The head and front of their opposition is that no advertisement of the city's work is a dead failure, and further the council has not the power, even should it have the will, to spend the people's money in such a dubious fashion.

To Kill the Vagrant Curs.

Dr. J. G. Hodgins, Dr. McCausland and Secretary Kelso of the Toronto Humane Society called on City Commissioner Coatsworth Saturday afternoon and handed him a document dealing with the methods of killing unlicensed dogs in the various cities of the States. The Commissioner was too much pressed for time to discuss the contents with the deputation at the moment, but will give his views on the matter at as early a date as possible. Meanwhile the old method will be pursued.

Trinity's New Professor.

Rev. Arthur Lloyd, M.D., who has been appointed classical professor at Trinity, is a graduate of Cambridge University. He took his bachelor degree in 1874, when he stood thirteenth in first-class honors in classics in a large list of honor men. He was fellow of Peterhouse College, Cambridge, for several years, and at present holds an important educational appointment in Japan. Professor Lloyd will begin his duties next October and will not arrive in Toronto for some months yet.

The John Ryan Company.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating Peter Ryan, registrar, John Ryan and James Frank Cassidy, merchants; Bernard Ryan, manufacturer; James Haverson, barrister-at-law, all of the City of Toronto, to carry on the business of wholesale drygoods merchants, of embroidering textile fabrics, and manufacturing clothing by the name of "The John Ryan Company of Toronto (limited)," with a total capital stock of $40,000, divided into 400 shares of $100 each.

An Ounce of Concession Worth a Pound of Obstinacy.

A strike is a costly luxury, as the bricklayers of Toronto, both employers and employed, will soon discover. In a case of this sort an ounce of concession is worth a pound of obstinacy. If half the money that will be lost in this strike were expended for quinn's silk and wool striped neglige shirts, Toronto would look very gay.

THE AUSTRALIAN FLOODS.

Hundreds of Families Homeless and Many Fatalities Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The steamer Mariposa, from Sydney and Honolulu, brings the following advices:

Extensive floods have done great damage in New South Wales and Queensland. A large part of Brisbane was inundated, wharves submerged and railway traffic stopped. Hundreds of families are homeless and many fatalities are reported. Grafton, Singleton, West Maitland and other towns were flooded. Many losses of life and great destruction of property are reported from the interior points. At last accounts the floods were subsiding and communication between the different points was being restored.

A railway collision occurred March 1 on the Penshurst & Koroit line and seven men were killed.

The American schooner Cassie Hayward was lost on an island of the Hervey group Feb. 4. The crew were saved.

The schooner Agnes with all hands has been lost six or seven miles north of Brunswick River.

A BULGE IN PORK.

Wild Excitement in the Chicago Provisions Pit—An Advance of $4 per Barrel.

CHICAGO, April 12.—When trade opened in pork here to-day the wildest excitement prevailed, the crowd waking up to the fact that the market was cornered. For some months past the Sawyer-Wallace clique of New York, it is generally supposed, have been buying up pork, and when business started this morning there was no May pork for sale under $12.75. The closing price yesterday was $11.45. It kept advancing 5 cents or more at a time and before the close of the first hour was selling at $15.25. Very little was sold but there was tremendous excitement and the pit was crowded with traders and speculators. July pork showed a similar advance and lard and ribs were somewhat higher. McCormick & Co., the representatives of the New York clique, were prominent buyers of July pork Armour, Hutchinson, Poole and Baldwin were also buyers. Later in the morning Hutchinson's men bid $15.75 for July pork, an advance of more than $4 per barrel over to-night's closing prices. It was apparent that the clique was after some big shorts, most of the orders coming from New York to Hutchinson. As no regular pork can be made until October the clique have control of all the months up to that time. Subsequently July pork was offered at $12.55 and it looked as though some big short had been run in, for the offerings were numerous and there were no bids. At 7 o'clock the house called margins for $300,000 on provisions. A good many on the board, however, attributed the squeeze to Armour. They say the Sawyer-Wallace clique transferred the deal to him when they found they were unable to carry it through and that he is now the master hand. Hatley and Swift were large buyers of lard and Armour bought ribs, while T. J. Ryan & Co. bought 4,000,000 pounds of May and July ribs.

Wheat Takes a Jump at New York.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The wheat dealings after close of change suddenly jumped to an advance of 2½ cents, with May option to 93½ cents and July to 91¾ cents, wholly on account of some rumors from Chicago and the dread that the Butterworth anti-option trading bill will be favorably considered by Congress. Subsequently May declined to 92⅞ cents.

THE T., H. & B. SUBSIDY.

Mr Smith Thinks the Government Will Grant It—Ambitious City News.

HAMILTON, April 12.—C. B. Smith, W. H. Gillard and George Roach have returned from Ottawa, where they went to press the claim of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway for a subsidy from Welland to Hamilton, and on the Brantford, Waterloo & Lake Erie line between here and Waterford. The company did not ask for a subsidy from Toronto. Mr. Smith said to-day that the interview with Sir John A. Macdonald was a very satisfactory one, and he thinks that the Government will grant a subsidy. Mr. Helm remained in Ottawa, and J. N. Young, the financier of the company, returned to Chicago.

Boquet Benson, the old pensioner who has been advertising for a wife, died in the hospital last night. He has been suffering from a lung trouble for years.

Alexander Chosie has been convicted at the Assizes of arson. The jury recommended the prisoner to mercy. Robert O. Fielding of Fenelon Falls was on a charge of forgery and was acquitted, as was also John McInerney, larceny, in whose case the jury were out all night. Two other alleged larcenists were acquitted.

The smallest will on record in the local courts was probated this morning. The testator's name was William McFarlane of Barton, and the amount devised $10. It was done for the purpose of a suit.

ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE.

Hitt's Reciprocity Resolution.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Representative Hitt, chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, to-day introduced in the House this resolution:

Resolved—That in the opinion of this House closer commercial relations with the other states on the American continent would be of material advantage, and the House would view with favor reciprocity treaties modifying the duties upon the peculiar products of different countries by tariff concessions on both sides conducive to increased commercial intercourse and mutual profit, widening the markets for the products of all and strengthening the friendly relations of this country with its neighbors.

They Marched to Church.

The officers and men of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Divisions No. 1 and No. 2, and Branch No. 12 of the Emerald Beneficial Association marched in a body to St. Patrick's Church to attend 9 o'clock mass yesterday morning, headed by the Emerald Drum and Fife Band. All the members of both orders received Holy Communion in accordance with the rules of their respective bodies. There was no sermon, a fact which disappointed quite a number who had expected to hear a good address.

VICTIMS OF CARELESSNESS.

A SAGINAW BAY STEAMER CRASHES INTO A RAILWAY BRIRGE.

Thirty Passengers Swept from the Boat Into the Water—Eight Persons Reported Drowned—The Engineer and Steersman Arrested but the Captain Eludes the Police.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., April 13.—The steamer Handy Boy of the Bay line of river steamers running between Saginaw and Bay City, while bound down to-day ran into the Flint and Pere Marquette Railroad bridge carrying away all her upper works. She was sixty feet west of her proper course. Carelessness of those in charge is given as the cause of the accident. Captain Dolsen got ashore and escaped although the police are searching for him. Engineer George Little and Wheelman E. are in jail. The following are reported drowned:

Miss May Haight, aged 22.

Mrs. Catherine Nevins, an old lady.

Two unknown women.

One unknown men.

Joseph Cassidy and two unknown men are also reported among the missing.

A number of the passengers were slightly injured. J. W. Thompson was badly hurt and taken to the hospital. It is estimated there were 30 people on the boat and they were all swept into the river. The number of lost, therefore, is merely conjecture. The river is being dragged for the bodies.

WRANGLE IN A CHURCH.

Brothers and Sisters Indulge in a War of Words Over a Scandal Case.

JOLIET, Ill., April 13.—The scandal in the First Baptist Church, involving the pastor, Rev. Dr. Whitman, who came here from Charlottetown, P.E.I., reached a climax last night at the annual meeting of the church. The election of officers resulted in the choice of a board of trustees and a clerk favorable to the pastor by a small majority. A resolution was offered sustaining the pastor, equivalent to an increase per week of 50 hours of $3.50. The ultimatum was presented to the Federated Builders' Association and was refused, and 340 men quit work and will not return to their ever, until the increase is granted. Permits will be issued as in the case of the other strikers.

Up to last night 92 of the smaller employers of bricklayers had conceded the terms asked for, and about 350 men are at work. About 87 others have drawn their traveling cards and left the city. The actual number entitled to strike pay has not yet been obtained, but is thought to be about 375.

There are no new features in the laborers' strike, except that more non-union men were brought into the strikers' ranks Saturday than on any day since the strikes. There is nothing further to chronicle in connection with the stonemasons' strike.

Pickets are at work on behalf of all the unions, and the stations are watched night and day, and all workmen belonging to either of the trades arriving are importuned either to join the union or proceed on their journey; if they have no money to go further they are seen to.

The strikers talk jubilantly of the success of the first week of the strike, and express the opinion that the first of May will see all the strikers at work at the advanced wages. The Association builders smile blandly when this is hinted to them, and say that they have had little difficulty in obtaining all the help they wanted at previous wages for buildings needed to be pushed, and that by the time bricklayers and masons are wanted on the large structures there will be hundreds of outsiders in the city not only willing but anxious to work on the terms which the local unions decline to accept.

VERY MUCH SHOCKED.

Archbishop Cleary Says His Circular Was Not Intended for Publication.

[From The Kingston News, April 11.]

When Archbishop Cleary's circular, printed in yesterday's News, was received at this office [in The Toronto World of Thursday morning], it was not known for a fact that it was authentic. What caused doubts as to its having been issued by His Grace was the receipt of a telegram [at the Palace] from [The] Toronto [World] asking if the circular were authentic, and as the Archbishop was out of the city at the time the despatch was received, a reliable reply one way or another could not be returned. He reached the city, however, from Brockville last evening, when it was learned that the document was authentic and had been issued by him on the day in question—Feb. 24 last. He was very much shocked on learning that it had been published, because it was of a private nature and intended for the clergy only. It is said that a resident of the Toronto diocese saw the circular and secured several copies, some of which were given to the press of that city.
