AROUND TOWN.

—St. Paul's Church is being decorated for Xmas.

—Oysters only fifteen cents at the Entertainment to-morrow evening.

—The C. P. R. exhibition car will be at Sackville Station next Tuesday. See Adv.

—Tantramar Skating Rink will be under the control of the Mount Allison Rink Association this season.

—The Salvation Army had a goose supper in Chignecto Hall on Tuesday evening and realized $66.

—Mr. Alfred B. Dixon left, on Tuesday evening, for Ontario, where he will spend the winter with his uncle.

—Sackville Lodge, No. 134, I. O. G. T., will meet on Saturday night at 7.30 p. m., instead of Friday as formerly.

—Skating has been good on the marshes during the past week, and some of the youths of the place spent the greater part of Sunday on the ice.

—The closing Exercises of the Mount Allison Institutions will be held in Lingley Hall next Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock local time. Admission free.

—The regular terminal examination at Mount Allison Institutions began yesterday and will end next Monday. The Christmas vacation begins next Wednesday.

—Rufus and Thomas Richardson, who have spent the last six years in the United States, arrived here yesterday to spend their Christmas holidays with their father, Mr. John R. Richardson.

—Lizzie Scott, daughter of Mr. Chas. Scott, had a narrow escape from drowning while skating on the Spectacle marsh last Saturday. She broke through the ice on the canal, where the water was five or six feet deep, but fortunately was able to support herself by clinging to to the edge of the ice till her brother and another boy come to her assistance and rescued her from her perilous position.

Rockland Station.

—Mr. John B. Tingley has been top-dressing a piece of marsh with upland soil this fall.

—James Anderson has shipped his last cargo of deals for this fall and is now preparing for the woods for a big supply of logs for the coming season.

—Mr. D. Dotten, tanner and currier is now preparing largly in the larrigan business. He sells a large quantity of these during the winter for domestic use.

—Mr. Robert Buck, Supervisor of Great Roads, has bought the Hiram Hicks property and intends refitting up the farm for a summer residence for himself. The high tides last week did great damage to the dykes and flewed nearly all of the Memramcook marsh from the mouth of the river to the Charters bridge. All hands are at work rebuilding the broken dykes. Mr. John Sutherland mail carrier and Mr. McElvie's son came near been drowned crossing the bridge near Jonas Taylor's. The tide had overflowed the road to such a depth that they went off the end of the bridge. Mr. McElvie had his horse drowned and the two men were saved with great difficulty.

—A heavy earthquake shock was felt at Rimouski Friday morning. Bishop Langevin's palace trembled violently but no damage was done. This shock was also felt at Father Point, Trois Pistoles, St. Flavie and other places along the lower St. Lawrence.

LOCAL MATTERS.

DON'T Miss the entertainment in the basement of the Methodist church to-morrow evening.

A LARGE DEPOSIT.—The Sackville Marsh Improvement Company estimate that the last run of tides, which were exceptionally high, deposited upwards of 15,000 tons of mud on the Sunken Island property.

ROYAL ARCANUM.—Crystal Council, No. 480, meets in Powell's Hall next Monday evening. A full attendance of members is requested as the election of officers for next year and other important business is to be transacted.

LADIES' COLLEGE.—A musical recital, by the pupils, will be given in Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., at 7.30 o'clock, local time. The Art Studio will be open to visitors from Friday afternoon next to Monday afternoon. A special musical programme is being prepared for the entertainment of the friends of the institution who may attend the closing reception at the Ladies' College Saturday evening.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Chipman Richardson of Westcock was seriously injured on Monday afternoon at Wood Point. He was working on the bank of the N. Y. Freestone Quarrying Co's grounds, and was engaged in stripping the rocks when a piece of earth weighing nearly half a ton became detached from the bank and fell upon him, putting one shoulder out of joint and inflicting other hurts, which will lay him up for several weeks.

NEW MAP OF THE DOMINION.—Mr. G. N. Tackabury, of the well-known map publishing house of G. N. & G. W. Tackabury, Toronto, was in town this week soliciting orders for a new and complete map of the Dominion. The map shows all post offices, designating money order and savings bank offices, and also shows telegraph stations, lines of railway etc. The map of the Great North West is drawn from the latest surveys and gives an accurate view of the position of Indian reserves, main trails and mounted police stations. The map should find a place in every household in the Dominion.

Parrsboro.

—The harbor still remains open and coal shipments continue brisk. Some say the harbor cannot close till after 26th on account of the dredging. But some people will say anything.

—Regret is heard on all sides for the loss of Mr. Hanney, who went to St. John on Monday to take charge of the evening Gazette. Who the editor of the Leader is to be is not known; perhaps the "Judge" will have a hand in it.

—Missionary meetings are to be held in the Baptist and Episcopalian Churches on Thursday evening. The speakers at the Episcopalian Church are to be the Rev. V. E. Harris, of Amherst, and Rev. Mr. Wiggins, of Sackville.

—Mr. A. R. Dickey has been paying a visit to Parrsboro Shore and finds everything encouraging. A public meeting was held in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, but was not very largely attended owing no doubt to the shortness of the notice.

—A concert was given in Howard's Hall last Friday evening in aid of Mr. Butler, the blind musician, and proved a decided success. It was repeated at Port Greville on Tuesday evening in aid of McBurnie, who got hurt on the tug Bertha last summer.

—His Lordship Bishop Courtney made his first visit to this parish last Wednesday evening and inducted the Rev. Mr. Gibbons as pastor. Afterwards quite a number assembled at the Odd Fellows' Hall, where an address was presented on behalf of the vestry and parishioners, to which His Lordship made a suitable reply.

—Mr. Jas. Kelso, of Kelso House, intends selling off his surplus goods at auction, and seeking some more congenial climate. Here is a good opening for a wide awake man, and we hope when next season opens the right one will come along, as Parrsboro is becoming quite a popular summer resort, and to have this house closed will doubtless stop many who would otherwise come.

"Grip."

With the new year Grip enters upon its thirty-second half-yearly volume, a fact which speaks eloquently for the merits of this unique and favorite Canadian journal. No former attempt in the field of humorous journalism in Canada was ever successful, because in no former case was there the happy combination of elements essential to the success of such a venture. In the first place, an uncommon fertility of invention is required to keep a comic paper abreast the times, and this must be backed up by an artistic ability equal to the task of interpreting the happy thoughts evolved in a popular manner. Secondly, there must be the solid basis of right principle upon which to build. Truth, honor, fairness and good taste are all as essential to the success of a comic journal as of a magazine of the highest class. All these features have, from the first number, distinguished Grip in a high degree. It stands to-day alongside of the very best productions of its class in the world, and enjoys a fame far beyond the bounds of Canada. To Canadians it ought to be more and more an object of patriotic pride, and certainly but little can be said for the patriotism of any Canadian who pretends to culture, and can afford the price, whose name is not found upon Grip's subscription list. The subscription price is almost ridiculously low, when the rates of similar (and not equally able) journals elsewhere are considered. It is only two dollars a year, although the paper contains sixteen pages filled with bright original humor of pen and pencil, and always gives, without stint, political cartoons on passing events, which for point, power and humor are certainly unsurpassed in any humorous paper of the day. For ourselves we can say that Grip is the very first journal we open and enjoy on the arrival of our weekly exchanges, and we believe the same is true of nearly every editor in the country. Get it for 1889 without fail.

To Our Subscribers.

Send to F. P. Shumway, Jr., Boston, Mass., for a free sample copy of the COTTAGE HEARTH, a beautiful illustrated Magazine, and so realize what an extraordinary offer we are making when we offer to send both the COTTAGE HEARTH and the CHIGNECTO POST for a full year for only $1.50, when the price of the COTTAGE HEARTH alone is $1.50 a year, thus giving you two standard publications at price of one.

—The very full report of the meeting of Colchester Farmers' Institute that was given by the Colchester Sun of last week ought to be appreciated by the farmers of that County. Friend Alley is always on the lookout for the interests of his farmer subscribers.

—On Friday, special customs officers Bonness and Keith made an unexpected visit to M. H. Patten's establishment, at St. Stephen, and seized a large quantity of whiskey and cigars, which it is alleged, were smuggled by the proprietor and his clerks. A deposit sufficient to meet the value of the smuggled goods was made by the owner and the articles were returned.

Point de Bute.

—Rev. Mr. Crisp is on a visit to his friends at Keswick.

—A service of song, with a short history or biography of Charles Wesley, and some of his hymns, was held in the Methodist Church, Sabbath evening.

—The old Westmorland Division, which will soon celebrate its thirty-eighth birthday, never was in a much prosperous state, judging by the interest taken in its weekly meetings.

—Rev. Mr. Skinner, Baptist, has been called to take charge of the upper Point de Bute and Port Elgin Churches. He preached in upper Point de Bute on Sabbath.

—The Women's Missionary Societies, of which there are two here, one in the interest of the Baptist church, and one under the direction of the Methodist church, are progressing finely. A fraternal visit between the two societies was made last week.

Wallace.

—Mr. Dickey, Government candidate, will speak on Wednesday evening next.

—The threshing season has come and threshing machines are in great demand. The grain appears to be turning out fairly.

—There is talk of having a skating Rink; a number of gentlemen have contributed handsomely towards the movement.

—Bishop Courtney, of the English Church, held a confirmation service on Thursday last. There were two candidates for confirmation.

—Rev. Dr. Lathern is to lecture in Wallace on Saturday evening next. Subject: "Havelock's Relief of Lucknow." The Doctor will also preach on the Sabbath and conduct a missionary service.

—Capt. E. B. Elderkin, prohibition candidate, addressed a largely attended meeting in the village on Saturday evening last. Representatives of both parties were present and unite in speaking most favorably of the ability and courtesy by which the Captain's address was characterized.

—A most influential meeting of the citizen of Wallace was held on Monday evening last to take steps to secure a branch from the railway into the village, to reach a deep water terminus. Messrs. Dobson, R. M. Fulton, J. W. Morris, L. H. Betts and Dr. McKay were appointed a Committee to take the matter in hand.

—A very sad accident occured at the North Shore on Thursday last. Mr. D. G. McKenzie, contestant in the late municipal election for Dist. No. 14, fell from a high scaffolding on a large pitching fork which had stuck in the barn floor. The handle, surmounted with an iron staple and ring, entirely penetrated the unfortunate man's thigh, protruding four inches. With wonderful nerve Mr. McK. released himself from the instrument of torture and with help reached the house. Drs. McKay, Roach, of Tatamagouche, and Mitchell, of Amherst, have been in attendance. While the sufferer's condition is precarious, a favorable issue is hoped for by very many.

Dorchester.

—Rev. Mr. Hoyt, of Andover, was in Dorchester on Thursday and visited the Penitentiary to see Trafton and Phillipine, the murderers of Mrs. Howe on the Tobique. These men were parishoners of Mr. Hoyt.

—A verdict has been found in the long fought suit of the Halifax Banking Co. vs. T. H. LeBlanc et al, of Cape Bald. This suit arose out of a note discounted by the bank at its Sackville agency, but which was not taken up when due. The trial occupied eight days last November, and when a disagreement was the result, Judge Botsford intimated that he would not try it again. It was entered and tried this court before Judge Wedderburn, and took the Court seven days. On Friday, the trial ended in a verdict for the Bank. Damages, $354.—T. A. Kinnear, Hannington, Q. C., for plaintiff, Landry, Q. C., and A. D. Richard for defendants. The next case taken up was the Queen, on Complaint of overseers of poor, &c., Moncton, vs. Andrew Alexander, which resulted in an acquittal.—Knapp for Prosecution; Geo. P. Thomas for deft. Renton vs. Wilbur, on an account is now before the Court.

—A very sad accident, by which the Deputy Warden's apartments at the Penitentiary were set on fire, and Deputy warden, Geo. Keefe, lost his life, occurred on Monday night. About eleven o'clock an alarm of fire in the Prison was given, and soon a large number of persons where standing around the buildings, watching the flames which were, by the energetic efforts of the officials confined to the rooms occupied by Warden Forster, when Deputy, but since occupied by Mr. Keefe. It was thought that Mr. and Mrs. Keefe were at Memramcook, and it was not until Mary LeBlanc had in her terror leaped from the second story window to the ground, twenty-five feet, that it was learned that they were in the burning apartments. Miss LeBlanc had broken her hip and otherwise injured herself in her fall, but her first thought was for those still in the room. The party who at once ran up stairs were horrified to find Mrs. Keefe lying in the hall and Mr. Keefe on the floor in his room. Both were insensible. Mr. Keefe never recovered consciousness, but died in about an hour. Mrs. Keefe was delirious all day Tuesday, but was better Wednesday, and will probably recover. Dr. Mitchell was in Amherst, but Dr. Church did all that could possibly be done for Mr. and Mrs. Keefe and Mary LeBlanc. The prisoners in the building were considerably excited, but only one or two made any disturbance. A very strict guard was maintained.

Salisbury.

—The weather continues to be very disagreeable and the lumbermen are unable to do much in the woods yet. It is rumored that A. L. Wright & Co., have given the Albert Railroad Co. a guarantee for four hundred car loads of lumber before the first of March.

—The Salisbury Glee Club gave a grand musical literary entertainment in Examinative Hall Tuesday evening. The Rev. W. W. Lodge occupied the chair and an interesting programme was carried out. The managing committee feel under deep obligations to a large number of the enterprising ladies of Salisbury as well as to some of the leading citizens who spent their time and money in helping along the project.

Amherst.

—Bad weather for the Ship Railway.

—Heavy rain set in Tuesday night, to-day (Wednesday) weather very disagreeable.

—W. F. Cutten, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

—Election to decide whether or not Amherst shall be incorperated takes place on Saturday, 15th inst.

—James Miller, of Oxford, is again in Jail for an offence against the "Scott Act." He was fined before Justices Chapman and Hicks.

—Dr. P. R. Moore, of Sackville, was here a few days ago in consultation about Mr. Cutten's sickness with a number of Amherst M. D.'s.

—Nomination day for House of Commons 19th. Election day on the 26th instant. Mr. Dickey is now at the eastern end of the County.

—The Salvation Army continues to draw crowded houses on Sundays, especially at the evening service, at which the speaking is good and the music loud.

—Mr. Alexander McPherson of Oxford who, it appears, is in some way a party to the liquor prosecution against Miller, was arrested on Saturday last and lodged in gosl here on a warrant issued by T. J. Copp, Esq., on the information of Jas. Miller. The charge against McPherson is that a couple of years ago, with others, he maliciously upset and destroyed a building occupied by Miller, at Oxford. The trial, which has created much interest is now being held before 'Squire Copp at the Jail where Mr. Miller, the complainant, is confined. W. I. Moffat appears for Miller, and J. W. Hickman for McPherson.
