The feature of the Stock Exchange to-day was a decided weakness in Ontario Bank stock, which dropped from 120½ to 112. Buyers and sellers of Molson's each made concessions without sales. Commerce was a shade higher, with sales at 126½. Other bank stocks unchanged. British America was stronger with a few sales at 103. Buyers of Western Assurance raised their bid ¼, with no sellers. Northwest Land exhibited enhanced values, 60 shares changing hands at 83½. In loan stocks, Canada Permanent was stronger and wanted at 201½. Canada Landed Credit was ½ weaker with sales at 118. Lon. & Can. was a couple of points stronger, 100 shares realizing 134. For People's Loan 117½ was bid with no sellers. THE STREET MARKET.

The market is steady with prices unchanged. The arrivals continue light. Quotations:

Wheat—White 87c, red 85c, spring 83c, goose 80c.

Peas—54c to 55c.

Oats—32c to 33c.

Barley—38c to 46c.

Dressed hogs—In moderate supply, $5.75 for light and $5.50 for heavy.

Hay—There were 48 loads marketed to-day, and as a result prices were easier, only extra loads bringing as high as $12. Quotations are $9 to $12 for timothy and clover $6 to $7. The demand is fairly active.

Straw—About a dozen loads sold at $6 to $7.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

The arrival of the lenten season has given an impetus to the fish market, but prices remain unchanged notwithstanding increased enquiry. Fresh cod bring 10c. per lb, haddock 8c. per lb, white fish 10c. per lb, salmon trout 8c. per lb, black bass 15c. per lb and fresh herrings from 20c. to 50c. per dozen. Butter advanced to 18c. and 19c. for large rolls and lb rolls sold at 20c. to 23c; in some instances as high as 25c. being asked. Eggs are higher at 17c. to 18c. for fresh laid and 14c. for limed. The poultry market continues high, turkeys bringing 13c. to 15c. per lb, geese 8c. to 11c., chickens from 50c. for scraggy birds to 80c. and 90c. for choice. Ducks are worth 80c. to $1 per pair. Apples sell all the way from $2 to $3 per barrel, $2.25 to $2.50 being about the average figure paid. Potatoes command 60c. to 70c. per bag, with 55c. as an average. As Lent advances and the demand lessens cheaper meats are looked for. To-day's prices were, however, unaltered from those of the past few days, beef fetching 4½c. to 5½c. for forequarters and from 6½c. to 7½c. for hindquarters. Lamb is worth 8c. and mutton 10c. No veal offering.

AMONG THE PROVISION DEALERS.

With the increased demand consequent upon the arrival of the Lenten season and supplies of about the same compass, dealers look for an advance of 1c. in the price of eggs during the next day or two. Quotations to-day are, however, unchanged at 15c. for fresh and 12c. to 14c. per dozen for limed. The demand for choice varieties of butter continues active, large rolls readily bringing 15c. to 16c. for the best, 11c. for medium, with slow sales, and 9c. for the poorer varieties which are a drug; as low as 7c. was reached for some decidedly inferior stock; choice fairy tub is worth 16c. to 17c. with fairly good enquiry. A large consignment of salmon trout arrived from the north this morning and is held at 7c. per lb. The anticipated improvement in the cheese market has as yet failed to put in an appearance, and holders appear willing to unload at from 8½c. for the poorer grades to 10½c. for new. It is only prime cheese, however, that will command more than 9c. per lb. Apples are in fair demand, some of the choice varieties in a few isolated cases realizing as high as $3.25 per barrel; $2.50 to $3 may be quoted as the average, however.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

OSWEGO, N.Y., Feb. 19, 11 a.m.—Barley quiet; No. 2 Can. held at 55c; No. 2 extra Can. 57½c; No. 1 Canadian 61c. No shipments.

OSWEGO, N.Y., Feb. 19, 3 p.m.—Barley unchanged; No. 2 Can. held at 55c; No. 2 extra Can. 57½c; No. 1 Canadian 61c.

IN BUTTER THERE IS A GOOD DEMAND for choice in rolls or tubs, it being quite scarce. We look for a little higher prices for eggs. Eggs are now steady at 15c for fresh. Consignments of above solicited. We have for sale choice butter in tubs, pails, crocks and rolls, choice cheese from the County of Hallidaiton, Canadian and American lard, a car of fine potatoes, for which we solicit your orders.

The demand showed an improvement over yesterday, although the market is still dull and prices are fully 25 per cent. lower than they were a year ago. Nearly all the horses offered were of the general purpose class, the demand for drivers being very limited. The majority of this class which were put up had to be withdrawn owing to ridiculously low bids.

Business Embarrassments.

The creditors of T. A. Lackie, general merchant, Lansing, met to-day at Henry Barber & Co.'s, Front-street, and adjourned until Friday to allow Lackie to offer 50 cents on the dollar on assets of $2500 with $5000 liabilities. The offer will probably be made.

Thomas Tyler, furniture dealer, Church-street, has assigned to J. W. Fenwick, his clerk. The liabilities are small, not exceeding $4800, and are nearly covered by the assets, dull trade being ascribed as the reason of the trouble.

Sydney Davies, of Davies Bros., furniture dealers, 285 Yonge-street, was seen this afternoon and denies the street report that his firm is not solvent. Mr. Davies had been absent from the city some days arranging the affairs of his brother, C. G. Davies, who, while one of the partners in the Toronto business, also conducted a separate and distinct business in Quebec. He left Quebec some days ago $30,000 or $30,000 short in his accounts with Bryant & Co., the London, Eng., timber firm, whose agent he was, but his departure does not affect the standing of the Toronto firm.

Mr. J. McArthur Griffiths, the trustee acting with the inspectors, has inquired into the estate of Harry Collins, the Yonge-street house furnisher, and as a result Mr. Collins will probably purchase back the stock at 35 cents on the dollar on a chase back the stock at 35 cents on the dollar on $40,000 liabilities and continue the business.

Business changes: W. Hillman, grocer, Blenheim, sold out; Fessenden Bros., sewing machinery, London, dissolved, W. R. continues; Stanley Bernard, general store, Lucan, sold out; E. D. Martin, drugs, Ottawa, sold out to H. Waters; Buckley & Simpson, grocers, Sarnia, dissolved, Simpson continues.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS' COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
