BEATEN BY THE BISONS.

THE LEADERS DEFEATED BY THE SIXTH IN THE LEAGUE.

And Badly at That—Enright Partly Atones for the Disgrace by Paralyzing Buffalonian Griffin at Sculling—Racing in the United States.

BUFFALO, July 14.—Peter Wood has been suspended for the balance of the season for indifferent play in recent games. Foley has not reached here yet to take his place, but may get around by to-morrow. Other releases will follow. The new blood that has been infused into the Buffalos has improved the team very much. It is certainly as strong if not a stronger batting and fielding club than any in the International League.

National League Games Yesterday.

BUFFALO, July 14.—The game at Philadelphia with Boston was cut short after the third complete innings by a heavy rain storm. The Phillies were leading, having scored 2 runs in the first innings, while Boston had not reached the tally point.

Fair Balls.

McGucken has joined the Torontos.—Hamilton Times.

The Syracuse Stars have released Taylor and Alcott, and laid Devine off without pay.

Isn't it about time Toronto got another pitcher to second the efforts of Elmslie to win the pennant?

A Woodstock paper states that Quant, who lately caught for the baseball club of that town, has signed with the Torontos.

To July 8, inclusive, the National League made 103 home runs. The Bostons made 10, Chicagos 20, Detroits 21, Kansas City 3, New Yorks 8, Philadelphias 15, St. Louis 11, Washingtons 10.

At the last Kansas City-Boston game the Kansas City nine hired a burly colored gentleman as a mascot. They dressed him in one of their uniforms and marched him to the players' bench, while the crowd applauded and the band played, "When I Behold His Manly Form."

The second game between the Gurney Baseball Club and the Diamonds was played yesterday afternoon on the Exhibition Grounds. The playing of both sides was very good. Up to the end of the fifth innings the Gurney Club had succeeded in obtaining only two runs. At the end of the ninth innings the score was 24 to 13 in favor of the Diamonds.

In a recent game Dunlap was hit twice in succession by the wild man Stemmeyer, and painfully injured each time, and yet he proposed to the league adopting the "hit by pitcher" rule. Three years ago we informed millionaire Lucas of the St. Louis Club that he was a "chump" to enter into the baseball profession. He would not heed the good advice, and is now the loser of one hundred thousand dollars by his foolish venture.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Enright Beats Griffin.

PERRY, N. Y., July 14.—A very much pleased delegation of Torontonians left here at 8 o'clock to-night for home. They carry with them a good many Yankee dollars which at 6 o'clock were trustfully reposing in Yankee pockets. The exchange was effected as a result of the Griffin-Enright boat race for $500 a side, which was to have taken place yesterday, but owing to rough water had been put off for a day. It was not a first class course that Hamilton Busby of the Turf, Field and Farm saw steamed over at 6 o'clock, but after consideration and consultation with the oarsmen and their representatives he decided to start the race. It was 6.40 when all preparations were concluded and the men were ready for the word. A fair start was obtained, both closing off almost on the stroke, but the Toronto man was encouraged by the knowledge that his friends had backed him at long odds; $100 to $40 was the figure made in individual bets. At the start Griffin was pulling a clear swinging stroke, while Enright appeared to take matters easily and playing the "pumping" dodge on his opponent. The turn was made in 10 min. 20 sec. and the race home began. Enright allowed Griffin a fair lead at the last half-mile and appeared utterly regardless of the advantage lost. His friends, however, felt confident that even this lead would not give Griffin the race, and still backed the Toronto man at heavy odds, one enthusiastic Canadian putting up 100 to 20 that Enright would carry off the purse. Within a dozen lengths of the line Enright's trainer yelled, "Come up, Tom," and the Torontonian fairly lifted his boat in response to the call. A half dozen strokes and the boats were even. Another half dozen put Enright two lengths in the lead, and he crossed the line the winner, in 21.45, of a very easy race.

A Dead Heat for the Liverpool Cup.

LONDON, July 14.—This was the second day of the Liverpool July meeting. Leopold de Rothschild's bay horse Middlethorpe, and A. Benholm's bay mare, Perdita II., ran a dead heat for the Liverpool Cup. W. Gilbert's bay horse, SailorPrince third.

Racing at Brighton Beach.

BRIGHTON BEACH, July 14.—First race, ¾ mile—Al Reed won, Belleview second, Magyar third, time 1.18¾. Second race, ⅞ mile—Craftie won, Leda L. second, Mentmore third; time 1.30¾. Third race, ¾ mile—Renick won, Lancaster second, Montauk third; time 1.3½; certificates $228 and $101.90 for place. Fourth race, 1 mile—Belle B. won, Commander second, Berlin third; time 1.45; certificates $350.55. Fifth race, 1 mile—Florence M. won, J. W. White second, Bessie B. third; time 1.46¼. Sixth race, 1⅛ miles—Kensington won, Tenstrike second, Peekskill third; time 1.59. Seventh race, ¾ mile—Frolic won, Biscuit second, Billy Brien third; time 1.3¼.

Racing at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Washington park races: First race ¾ mile—Cataloss won, Bertha C second, Sailor third; time 106¾. Second race ¾ mile—Loupe won, Our Friend second, Rico third; time 121¾. Third race 1¼ miles—Myrtle won, Hertogas second, Idle Pat third; time 215¾. Fourth race ¾ mile—Hellanthus won, Tony Pastor second, Little Joe third; time 117¾. Fifth race one mile—Anna Wan won, Typo second, Miss Nelson third; time 149¾.

The British Chess Tournament.

LONDON, July 14.—Following are the scores in the third round in to-day's chess games: Taubenhaus beats Blackburn, Burn beats Schillop, Mortimer beats Gunsberg; Hanam beats Mackenzie, Zukertort and Mason not finished, Lipschutz, being the odd man, did not play.

General Notes.

Eton beat Harrow at cricket on July 9 and 10 by 6 wickets.

W. A. Rowe of Lynn beat the ten-mile bicycle record, making the distance in 28 minutes 3 2-5 seconds.

G. Gatehouse, the English tricyclist, beat the world's two-mile record recently, going the distance in 5 minutes 55 4-5 seconds.

Ed. Mallahan, on behalf of Frank Hearld, has issued a sweeping challenge, offering to fight Mitchell or any one else for $1000 a side. He has posted $100 forfeit with Richard K. Fox.

At the games of the Brooklyn Athletic Association on Saturday, C. I. Wiegand, in the 220 yard hurdle race, 10 hurdles, 3 ft. height, beat the record by covering the distance in 28 4-5 secs.

Martin Dempsey offers to give five pounds to any featherweight who will fight him for $250 a side under London ring rules. He weighs 118 pounds, but claims he can train down to 105 pounds.

The single scull race between Laing and Hosmer, intended to have been rowed next Saturday, has been postponed until July 31. It will be rowed at Valleyfield, where there is a good course.

The chestnut filly Counterpane, by Hermit—Patchwork, for which the Prince of Wales paid 400 guineas last year at the sale of the Mentmore yearlings, dropped dead from heart disease in a race at Newmarket recently.

Beach, the champion sculler, is furnishing the Thames critics with much food for criticism. His sliding seat is put level with the gunwale, and as this in a racing boat is some three inches above the true gunwale, the centre of gravity is unusually high. He sculls in excellent form, though, with the professionals' round back.

The regatta of the Northwestern Amateur Rowing Association at Grand Rapids, Mich., was practically a failure. The attendance was small and the entry list poor. Harry Ball of Chatham, Ont., won the senior single scull race, doing the two miles with turn in 15.45. J. F. Corbett of Chicago being second and W. B. Wells of Chatham last.

Ed. O'Donnell of Grand Rapids, Mich., writing about the fight between the heavyweight J. P. Clow and Jim Pell, says: "Clow was a cool fighter and a good general. He adopts Jack Dempsey's style. He is no rusher, but goes in for a long fight, and studies how to stay and give punishment without receiving it. He had a terrible left hand. Had the contest with Pell gone on one or two more rounds Clow would have certainly knocked him out."

B. J. Warding, manager of the Australian team of cricketers, has written to a Newark, N.J., cricketer that he is anxious to play his team this autumn in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Toronto. He wants a guarantee, rather than run the risk of a poor attendance or bad weather. Mr. Warding, through Mr. Alcock of the Surrey Cricket Club, made this proposition to F. M. Bissell of the Philadelphia Match Committee. Mr. Bissell has written that the Philadelphians could make the Australians no guarantee, and were just as unwilling as they were to run the risk above mentioned. "Besides, there is so much cricket," said Mr. Bissell, "down for the fall, that the Philadelphians could not make any move in the matter."

Early Closing.

Editor World: I have been on the point of writing you a letter on this subject for some time, but I have felt somewhat backward in doing so as I have never before sent a letter to a newspaper and do not know exactly how I should go about it. However, I feel that I have one or two thoughts about the matter which have not been put before the public in any of the letters I have read. I am a working man and must be at the shop where I am employed at 7 o'clock in the morning. I have one hour for dinner and then work till 6 o'clock at night excepting on Saturdays, when I get away at two. If I am late either in the morning or at the noon hour I am in danger of losing half a day, which I can ill afford to do, for I have a family to support and find it hard enough to make both ends meet. The only time I have to do my shopping, as the ladies call it, is I need to spend in looking about and finding out how to make my money go the furthest is on Saturday afternoon or in the evenings, and if all the dry goods and clothing stores are to be closed I think it a great hardship to me, for then I have to lose a part of my time when I could be earning money to spend what little money I would have to spend. I am, therefore, in favor of clerks having their half-holiday on Wednesday or any other day except Saturday. Surely, Wednesday for the clerks and Saturday for the workingmen is fair and reasonable. Therefore, I say all honor to those merchants who have decided to give their clerks a half-holiday by closing their stores on Wednesday and to give the 10,000 workingmen of Toronto a chance to spend their money to the best advantage by keeping open on Saturday. WORKINGMAN.

One of the Finest.

—Proprietor George Briggs, of the Briggs House, corner Queen and Bay streets, has has just completed elaborate alterations in his hotel. The bar has been considerably enlarged and is now without doubt one of the finest in Canada. The fittings are very handsome and a cosy office adds greatly to the convenience of those having business directly with the proprietor. In the rear of the bar are a number of elegantly furnished sitting-rooms fitted with electric bells, while south of it is a large room fitted up as a conservatory. The sleeping-rooms, dining-room and other apartments have been thoroughly renovated, and taken altogether the Briggs' House is now one of the best appointed hotels of its size to be found anywhere, and one of which the proprietor is justly proud.

On The Rise.

—"Leaves have their time to fall," says the poet, but wild strawberry leaves are on the rise just now, being utilized in such enormous quantities in making Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry—the infallible remedy for cholera morbus, diarrhœa and other summer complaints. 246

A Novelty in To-day's Procession.

The greatest curiosity on the continent is going to follow the Pythian parade to-day through the streets of Toronto, consisting of a horse standing the highest in height of any in America. It is perfectly quiet, and may be put in any position, and will remain gentle. It is the only horse ever known who never showed vice of any kind. It will stand without a weight—and never move. It eats little, always has a shiny coat, and never shows fear at music or a big crowd, and it will appear to-morrow in a handsome new set of harness made by the Canadian Harness Company, 104 Front-street east, Toronto. 246

It is now quite well understood that the People's Company sell organs, pianos and sewing machines so low that they are within the reach of all. Retail at wholesale prices is their motto.

Goldwin Smith on the President.

From Macmillan's Magazine for July.

I went to the White House on the evening of the reception, not only to see a unique ceremony, but to see President Cleveland. I desired to look upon the face of President Cleveland more than I had desired to look upon the face of any American statesman since Lincoln. It is, as might be expected, a face full of strength and firmness. So happy an event, I apprehend, as this President's election has not for a long time taken place in the United States—I may say on the continent—for the good influence of a triumph of public probity extended even to Canada. Mr. Cleveland was not one of the "available men" of whom the country had such bitter experience in the persons of Polk and Buchanan; nor had he attained party prominence by stump oratory or the arts of a demagogue. In rhetoric, indeed, he seems to be rather deficient. He had shown himself worthy to govern the nation by his conduct as Governor of the State of New York. He is now treading, as it seems to me, with a firm and resolute step, the arduous path of civil service reform. Too much must not be exacted of him. It cannot fairly be expected that he shall cast off party ties or disregard party obligations; honor, as well as necessity, forbids him. The scale, it is true, was turned in his favor by the Independent Republicans, who, to use the American phrase, bolted their party ticket; but he received his nomination from the Democrats, and owed his election mainly to them. The Independent Republicans themselves have not repudiated party, though they will hardly get back into the lines. By his loyalty to reform President Cleveland has already incurred the hatred of Tammany and of all the corrupt. On the other hand he has, I trust, won the hearts and will receive the support of all who care less for any party than for the country.

The man who in reality had most to do with the election of President Cleveland is Mr. George W. Curtis, the editor of Harper's Weekly. Mr. Curtis is excluded from Congress by the political localism into which the Americans have unhappily fallen. He cannot be elected for any district but that in which he lives, and in that district the other party has the majority. But he is the practical leader of the Independent Republican party, which was determined mainly by his advice to cast a patriotic vote in favor of Cleveland. He has also been the most zealous and effective advocate of civil service reform. Without a place in the Legislature or the Administration, he has yet been one of the most influential as well as one of the most upright and wisest of American statesmen.

See! her brush is gently gliding o'er that can vas on its rest,
And her thoughts are of a lover, whose hand she's often held and pressed.
She thinks how soon the moments 'll fly, when a home she'll try to make,
And many a fancy will sit through her to furnish it nicely for his sake,
First, a stove and kitchen utensils, a parlor suite so pretty and neat,
A bedroom set with curtains and blinds to keep away the sun's fierce heat.
She knows his dollars are hard earned, and 'twould take some years to wait
Until he could a home prepare sufficiently pleasant for his sweet mate.
Walker's system is a boon, she murmurs, as her fingers deftly form
Certain words upon her easel, 'tis through him only we can have a home,
And so think many who toil in life, and drag an existence through
Various stages of boarding, rooming and changing very often too,
How a great many, from the rich to the poor, at the time can't always pay
The cash right down to furnish a home, I care not who says nay,
At 10¾ Queen-st. west, the widow, spinster, landlady, merchant and lover
All find what they want at spot cash prices, we guarantee no other.
