First Time in History

China Requires of Students a Knowledge of the Bible.

All Paris Aroused by the Dreyfus Scandal.

The Germans' Stay on Chinese Territory May Be Prolonged.

Panic at a Wild Beast Show, and Eight Persons Killed—Activity in the Russian Navy—Reported Submission —of the Philippine Rebel Leaders—Dentist Evans Left $15,000,000.

WILLIAM'S WARNING

Berlin, Nov. 19.—The ceremony of swearing in the Guards recruits took place here yesterday. They were warned by the emperor that they might be called upon to fight an enemy within the empire.

FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Oriental advices say that at the recent examinations at Nan Chang Fu, the students were required to write an essay on "Noah and his family, or the re-peopling of the earth after the flood." This is the first time in the history of China that a knowledge of the Bible was required in a state examination.

EVANS, THE DENTIST, LEFT $15,000,000.

Paris, Nov. 19.—The late Dr. Thos. W. Evans had made his will. It is understood that the estate is even greater than has been stated, and will probably be valued at near $15,000,000. The bulk of the money will go to endow educational institutions in the United States.

A LA TAMMANY.

London, Nov. 19. — The meeting, which was held at the Guild Hall yesterday afternoon, to give the candidates for election to the London school board an opportunity of addressing the electors, was an extraordinarily stormy one. Canon Ingram and others were hooted and interrupted with shouts of "Jesuit priest in disguise," "No Popery," etc.

RUSSIA'S WHEAT CROP.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—The ministry of education today publishes a report of the crop of the Russian Empire for 1897 as follows: Rye, 946,047,000 poods; winter wheat, 156,680,000 poods; spring wheat, 321,314,000 poods; oats, 515,522,000 poods; barley, 288,977,000 poods; buckwheat, 469,377,000 poods; millet, maize and peas (together), 155,992,000 poods. A pood is equivalent to 36 pounds in weight.

DISASTROUS PANIC AT A SHOW.

London, Nov. 19.—A special dispatch from Berlin describes a terrible fatality in Poland. While a performance of wild beasts and their tamer was in progress at a village near Kovno, Poland, the lion tamer was killed by a lion and a tigress. A fearful panic ensued in the audience, and eight persons were crushed to death, many others being seriously injured.

NAVAL ACTIVITY IN RUSSIA.

London, Nov. 19.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from St. Petersburg says: Vice Admiral Tyrtoff, Russian minister of marine, has ordered that eleven vessels of the Black Sea squadron shall be held ready and fully equipped. These ships will include four first-class battleships, three gunboats, three training ships and one transport vessel. This order indicates that the Russian government regards affairs in the east as affording little reason for tranquility.

TORPEDO BOAT SUNK.

Algiers, Nov. 19.—The French torpedo boats, No. 133 and Doudart de Lagree, while maneuvering yesterday evening came into collision, with the result that No. 133 sank in four minutes. The crew of the latter was saved. The Doudart de Lagree was badly damaged.

EVACUATED CRETE.

Canea, Island of Crete, Nov. 19.—Germany's contingent of the international army of occupation, consisting of an officer and twelve marines, embarked on the Kaiserin Augusta this morning. The German flag had previously been hauled down from the international redoubt.

THE PHILIPPINE REBELLION.

Madrid, Nov. 19.—All the important insurgent chiefs of the Philippine Islands have surrendered to the Spanish authorities, and Capt.-Gen. Primo de Rivera announces the complete pacification of that colony.

At the meeting of the Spanish cabinet, a letter from United States Minister Woodford was read, expressing the satisfaction and gratitude of the United States government relative to the settlement of the Competitor case, and other current incidents. The communication created a good impression in political circles.

DR. NANSEN'S NEXT.

London, Nov. 19.—Hjalmar Johannessen, the Norwegian army officer, who was with Dr. Fridtjohf Nansen, in the latter's recent Arctic expedition, referring to the plans for the doctor's next trip north, says arrangements have already been made for a sojourn hut on Franz Joseph Land. The Fram, Nansen's ship, will be accompanied by a large vessel called the Starkodder. There will be many more dogs, more scientific men, and one of the ships will advance through the ice until ice-bound. From there sleigh expeditions will start north. The other ship will go along the ice border, making scientific researches in the ice, in the water and at the bottom of the sea.

ALL PARIS AROUSED.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Paris is in a condition of high excitement over the Dreyfus mystery, and even if the authorities had any notion of smothering up the scandal, it would now be impossible. Public opinion demands instant action of some kind, and it is expected that the ministry will be compelled to bow to its impatience. Major Esterhazy's story of how he received an intimation that a plot was afoot to implicate him has excited suspicion against him instead of allaying it. It is claimed that the documents Dreyfus was charged with selling to Germany were never really sold to the agents of that country, but were prepared in imitation of Dreyfus' handwriting, to blackmail him, his wife being in good circumstances. The plot, it seems, was conceived in 1893, when the wave of Jew-baiting swept over Europe. Dreyfus is of Hebrew extraction, and these jackals of Parisian society determined to "bleed this wealthy Jew." A beautiful adventuress is said to have acted as the go-between in these shady transactions. Finally, it is said that the plan for the mobilization of the French army was a comparatively unimportant document, the features of which were in the possession of all foreign governments, and was easily fabricated by experts.

CABLE NOTES.

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "Pecuniary embarrassment has reached an acute stage at the Yildiz Kiosk. Salaries of ambassadors are left unpaid for months."

The French officials have arrested a man, supposed to be a German, spy, at Pagny-Sur-Moselle, a village about twelve miles from Metz, on the Paris and Strasburg Railroad.

A dispatch from Paris to the Daily Mail says that the friends of Dreyfus assert that Count Walsing Esterhazy was assisted in his treason by an Alsatian sergeant-major, who is now in Alsace, and has made a full confession.

In a railroad collision at Leffenham, near Stamford, Wednesday morning, Capt. Homfray's 5-year-old bay horse Splendor and Lord Dunraven's 3-year-old chestnut colt Kirschwasser, were fatally injured. Three stable boys also sustained injuries.

CHINA DOESN'T WORRY.

About the Advent of a German Force in Kiao-Chau Bay.

London, Nov. 19.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: In the absence of official intelligence as to the relations between China and Germany, the cabinet is undecided as to the course to pursue in the event of China's refusal to accede to the German demands. Probably in that case a prolonged occupation would be necessary.

According to a special dispatch from Shanghai, Admiral Von Diedrich, commander of the German cruiser Division, before landing marines at Kiao-Chau on Monday morning, notified the British, French and Russian admirals of his intentions, and it is said that the Russian admiral expressed approval. The Chinese do not appear to be much distressed over the matter, declaring that Russia, Germany and France are preparing to attack Japan, and will use Kiao-Chau as a naval base.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says: Two steamers have been chartered here to convey stores and material to the German fleet in Kiao-Chau Bay. The occupation is apparently to be more than temporary. The Chinese general in command of the forts decided to retire because he had no ammunition.

The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says: The murder of the German missionaries must be laid chiefly to the account of the Chinese priests and mandarins, who egged on the mob by the assertion that the missionaries were gathered at Yen-Chu-Fu to celebrate All Saints' Day because that town is the birthplace of Confucius.

Bishop Anzer, vicar of the German Catholic missions in China, has received a dispatch from South Shan Tun, saying that the murders of the Rhenish missionaries, Nies and Hennie, were committed in the village of Chang-Kio-Chuang. The Christians defended themselves, wounding some of their assailants.

Blazing Fiercely.

Great Fire in Progress in Old London.

Huge Blocks in the Heart of the City in Flames.

Many Houses Gone—Fifteen Warehouses in Ashes.

Firemen Give Up Hope of Extinguishing the Blaze and Are Working Only to Prevent It Spreading.

London, Nov. 19.—The most serious fire in recent years is now raging here. In several streets adjacent to the general postoffice huge blocks of buildings are blazing fiercely. Many houses have collapsed and fifteen warehouses have already been destroyed. Buildings are ablaze on both sides of the streets, thus preventing the firemen from reaching the burning buildings.

London, Nov. 19.—The most serious fire in recent years is now raging here. Buildings are ablaze on both sides of the street, thus preventing the firemen from reaching the burning buildings.

WHERE IT STARTED.

London, Nov. 19.—The fire broke out in Hansell street, and worked through the houses to Well street, a narrow thoroughfare. There the flames leaped and seized the opposite houses. From that time the conflagration extended rapidly both up and down the street. Well street is now involved from end to end, and the flames are rapidly nearing Nicholas Square, which is surrounded by tall warehouses.

BEYOND CONTROL.

The fire brigade have given up hope of subduing the fire, and is devoting its energies to preventing its spread. The occupants of threatened buildings are busily removing their books and business documents. No casualties have thus far been reported.

ENORMOUS LOSS.

The damage done by the fire is enormous. Most of the buildings destroyed were six stories high and filled with merchandise. At 3:30 this afternoon, 30 fire engines were engaged in fighting the flames, and others were arriving momentarily from all parts of London. Many thousands of people have gathered to see the fire. One end of Jewin street is now attacked by the flames. It presents the appearance of a huge furnace.

Several large buildings have already fallen and the debris completely blocks the roadway.

OVER FORTY ENGINES AT WORK.

The flames by 5:30 p.m. had worked their way from Jewin street in Redcross street, where an entire block of houses on the west side of the street was threatened. Over 40 engines were at work by this time. It is impossible to make an estimate of the damage done or regarding the real extent of the fire at present. Various newspapers publish sensational estimates of the loss. Many of the buildings burned, or threatened, contained large numbers of girls, employed in various capacities. Very many of them escaped with difficulty.

SCENE OF THE CONFLAGRATION.

Hamsell street, where, according to the dispatches from London, the great fire originated, is in Cripple Gate district of London, not far from the general postoffice. Aldergate street is the largest thoroughfare near the scene of the fire, and passes the general postoffice into St. Martin's le Grand, which is opposite the southern portion of the postoffice.

Hamsell street contains the businesses of R. L. King & Co., manufacturers; Ramsey & Co., brace manufacturers; Yates, Vialdu & Co., warehouse men; Wm. Riema & Co., manufacturers' agents; Phillips & Abbot, mantle manufacturers; Bing, Harris & Co., New Zealand merchants; Turner, Archibald & Co., elastic web manufacturers; H. J. Brady & Co., embroiderers; J. H. French, ostrich feather merchants; Auerbach, Franklin & Franklin, merchants; Frederick Newton & Co., manufacturers' agents; Wm. Taylor, mantle manufacturers; Thomas Walton, tie manufacturers; Gustavus Strauss & Co., importers; S. Hecht & Co., commission agents; John Ellis, fur and skin merchants; Mansell & Mark, mantle makers; Sadlier & Entrop, manufacturers' agents; James Butler & Co., lace manufacturers; Glover & Barnes, printers; James Sayse, mantle manufacturer; Roberts & Co., general carriers; Alfred Brookman, merchants; Henry Pentony, Jun., & Co., tie manufacturers; William Earl & Co., umbrella makers; Fred Mohlau & Sons, indigo cotton print manufacturers; and Lethem Bros. & Mellin, commission merchants.

GREAT PRAIRIE FIRE.

Four Hundred Square Miles of Territory Burned—Over 3,000 Sheep Burned.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 19.—A special to the News from Emma, Texas, says: A terrific prairie fire passed through Lubbock, Hale and Crosby counties Tuesday, doing great damage to the ranges, and traveled at lightning speed. At least four hundred square miles of territory were burned over. Many cattle were burned to death. North of Emma, 3,000 sheep were burned and many farmers lost their winter feed.

STORM AND FLOOD.

Furious Gale in Oregon—Rivers on the Rampage.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 19.—For the past 24 hours a furious wind storm prevailed over the entire north Pacific coast, with rain. The wind reached a velocity of 50 miles, and the rainfall for 24 hours has been about three or four inches. The storm played havic with telephone and telegraph service. The custom house at Yaquina Bay was blown down and the records of the office lost in the bay.

Everett, Wash., Nov. 19.—The water in the Skikomish and Stillopanish rivers is higher than ever before known. The Great Northern track between Sultan and Index is practically all washed away. At Admiralty Head the new wharf for the government fortifications was wreck by the wind. The White River started to rise on Wednesday afternoon. By morning it had risen ine feet, and was climbing up its banks at the rate of four inches an hour.

The Stuck River is going up at the rate of ten feet every 24 hours.

FROST IN THE SOUTH

New Orleans, Nov. 19.—The coldest weather of the season was recorded here yesterday morning, the thermometer registering 42 degrees. Cold and frost were general throughout the state. Alexandria reported a temperature of 28, with ice and frost that killed vegetation. The fever situation was otherwise improved, there being but one case and one death since the night before.

THE DEATH CHAIR IN OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Albert J. Frantz, the murderer of Bessie Little, of Dayton, was electrocuted in the annext at the Ohio penitentiary at 12:22 this morning. He took his place in the chair at 12:18, without an apparent tremor. The first shock did not cause death, and the current was applied again three times before life was pronounced extinct.

DR. NANSEN'S DENIAL.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 19.—Dr. Nansen, who delivered a lecture here last night, when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Christiana saying that arrangements for his next Arctic trip have been completed, said there was no truth in the story. He says he has no plans for the future, has not decided if he will make another trip, and has not authorized arrangements such as are said to be under way in Christiana, Norway. Dr. Nansen's health is giving way under the strain of his lectures and the receptions accorded him everywhere.

"Only the Best."

Should be your motto when you need a medicine. Do not be induced to take any substitute when you call for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Experience has proved it to be the best. It is an honest medicine, possessing actual and unequaled merit. Be wise and profit by the experience of other people.

HOOD'S PILLS are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

The Result!

There are many cases in which the end can be seen from the beginning. It's so with Shoes. If you buy a poor Shoe, just because it's cheap, you will have trouble without end. There is no case where merit is so necessary as in the selection of a good Shoe. You know our reputation in this line.
