Cabinet-Making.

The New Liberal Ministry to be Sworn in on Monday.

A Former Londoner May be in the Government.

How the Liberal Triumph Was Welcomed in Britain.

Remarkable Changes Effected Down by the Sea.

Ottawa, July 11.—It is not likely that the new Liberal Cabinet will be sworn in until Monday, when all the new Ministers will have arrived here.

A proclamation has been issued proroguing Parliament. It had been called for the 16th inst. It is prorogued until Thursday, Aug. 6.

Indications are that Hon. Mr. Sifton, of Manitoba, will enter the Laurier Cabinet. Mr. Sifton is a native of London, Ont., and a young man of great promise.

Senator McInnes, of British Columbia, may be in the Cabinet.

Hon. David Mills will certainly have a portfolio.

The distribution of portfolios is something that will not be touched till the entire Cabinet list is perfected. The new Government will be of the same number as the late Administration. It has to be so by law, and until the statute is altered, the entire list must be filled up to form a full Cabinet.

The Speakership of the House of Commons and of the senate are also at the disposal of the new Ministry. Of late years the practice has been to appoint a French and English member in succession, but this time the chair of the Lower House may be occupied by an Englishman, in which case the Senate would be presided over by a Frenchman.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM BRITAIN.

Hamilton, July 1.—Mr. A. T. Wood, one of the new Liberal M. P.s for this city, who was the only delegate from Hamilton at the Congress of Boards of Trade in Great Britain, returned yesterday. He says the return to power of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was warmly welcomed by Englishmen generally. Preferential trade between England and the Colonies, Mr. Wood found to be idle talk. "The Englishmen will meet you civilly, talk consderately and be thoroughly courteous gentlemen, but they will not discriminate one-half of one per cent in favor of the colonies as against other countries. The bulk of their trade is with foreign nations, and it is clearly not to England's advantage to discriminate against those with whom she does her greatest trade. Nothing was more clearly proven than this at the Chamber of Commerce. The Canadians had met beforehand, and Mr. Osler's motion was drawn up. They knew it could not succeed, and Sir Donald Smith's amendment was prepared. Mr. Osler presented his motion at the Chamber of Commerce in a five-minute speech—simply laid it before the meeting. It got no support, and with Sir Donald Smith's amendment, was withdrawn in favor of a resolution submitted by the London Board of Trade.

Mr. Chamberlain expressed the English feeling exactly when he said: "Whatever is done must be on the basis of free trade."

Mr. Wood laughed when asked if there were any signs of a revival of protection sentiment in England. "No," he said, "there is not a sign of it. No constituency in England today would elect a man to Parliament on such a platform, or on one of tariff discrimination against foreign nations in favor of the colonies." Wherever he went Mr. Wood found a feeling of confidence in the future. Trade has improved in England, and good times are looked for in all lines. In Canada, he feels, we are on the verge of a return to prosperity, and under the guidance of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal Government he is satisfied that prosperity will return; work will be more plentiful than in the past, and wages better.

A VETERAN LIBERAL.

Ex-Reeve James McFarlane, of Dover, was in the city today for the first time since the 23rd, and called on a number of friends for mutual congratulations over the Liberal victory. Macfarlane is over 91 years of age, and is undoubtedly the oldest elector who exercised the franchise two weeks ago. Mr. Macfarlane is indeed a veteral Liberal, never weary in welldoing. In 1834 he was chairman of a Liberal committee in Perthshire, Scotland, at an election which resulted in the defeat of the Conservative Administration, and coming to Canada soon after, his interest in the cause of Liberalism has never waned. He attended the great Liberal convention at Ottawa three years ago, being the oldest delegate in that vast assemblage. He was introduced to the convention by Hon. Mr. Laurier, and made a short address, which was much appreciated.—Chatham Banner.

NOVA SCOTIA LIBERALISM.

Halifax, N. S., July 11.—Recounts in Nova Scotia show that out of the seventeen constituencies in this Province the Liberals carried nine and the Conservatives seven, while in the other each party elected one man. The result by members shows that out of the twenty members the Liberals have ten and the Conservatives ten. At th last Dominion election the Liberals carried but five constituencies, the Conservatives sixteen, and of the total representation of 21 members the Liberals had five and the Conservatives sixteen. In the recent election developments show that Annapolis and Lunenburg were carried for the Conservatives by the most flagrant corruption, while in Pictou intimidation of workmen and other unfair methods defeated the Liberals, and in Colchester the Intercolonial Railway, operated by the Dominion Government, was the machine made to do effective duty.

A LIBERAL TOWNSHIP.

Mara township in North Ontario f the recent election gave a majority o 364 against the Government.
