CHINA.—The ship John N. KINGSTON, U. C. August 21.

Mr. Buckingham's Lectures.—This distinguished gentleman has fully realized in Kingston the high conception entertained of him previous to his arrival. His Lectures on Egypt, at the Union Church, were remarkably well attended, and the satisfaction afforded so great, as to induce the Lecturer to prolong his stay in town, and deliver his course on Palestine. Mr. Buckingham, although past the middle age of life, possesses a noble and commanding counienance, and his delivery is graceful in the extreme. His voice, though not loud, is nevertheless clear, and his enunciation so good as to make every word tell even in a crowded auditory. His manner is highly pleasing, and his lectures are rather a series of lively descriptive anecdotes, than a mere topographical detail of the countries he describes. His powers of elocution are great and varied, and we question much whether any given Lecture has been delivered in the same or even similar language to two audiences. He has now been eighteen years before the British and American public, six years of which he passed in Parliament, and his attraction is as great as ever.—Mr. Buckingham leaves Kingston for Montreal to-morrow morning, thence to Quebec, Halifax, St. John, N. B., and so to New-York, where he embarks for England. He is accompanied in his present tour by Mrs. Buckingham and a son about 17 years of age.—British Whig.

The first number of a Gælic Newspaper was issued in this town last week. It is entitled the "Tourist of the Woods," and is intended for circulation among the Gæls in this country and the U. States, and for distribution in the Highlands and Isles of Scotland. Iss design is to promote emigration from Scotland to Canada, ihe advantages of which will therefore be described, in its general character, scenery, productions, settlements, &c. The paper is under the management of Messrs. Urquhart, McNabb, Rose, Gunn, Ross and M'Intosh. To those who are acquainted with the language, the "Tourist" will revive interesting recollections of their native land, as well as be the means of directing its redundant population to seek better fortunes among these western woods.—Kingston U. C. Herald.

North-Eastern Boundary.—Captain Talcott and Professor Renwick, the U. S. Commissioners appointed to explore the North-Eastern Boundary Line, have had a colleague assigned to them from the Topographical Bureau to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Professor Cleaveland. Major James Graham, who has lately been employed in the determination of the Boundary which divides us from Texas, is the officer appointed. The high personal and professional character of these three gentlemen will, it is hoped, enable them to lay a Report before Congress which can be depended upon as a basis upon which to frame an arrangement between the two countries.—New-Yorker.

LATEST FROM CHINA.

There have been two arrivals from Canton, the ship Asia on Sunday, and the ship John N. Gosler on Monday, bringing dates to the 20th of April. Up to that time only one vessel belonging to the English expedition had arrived, the Druid of 44 guns. Very little alteration had taken place in the relations between England and China. The foreign trade had been to a certain extent renewed, and all the vessels, both English and American, had obtained full freights. The preparations of the Chinese, to meet the expected attack, are represented as being extremely feeble, the garrison consisting of only 1000 men. The American merchants expecting that they would be ordered away from Canton, have sent their most valuable property to Macao.

The English expedition was expected in a few weeks.

We subjoin the following extracts from the Canton Register.

MACAO, 4th April, 1840.

LOCAL.—The tranquillity of the settlement has not been disturbed. Whatever may be the orders from the court, it is the present policy of Lin as well as of the Taou tae to keep the peace for very obvious reasons. A silent horror of what is coming forth prevails among the mass of the people, but this is likely to die away, if again many months elapse, before any operations are commenced. In the district of Seming, to the west, several opium smugglers have been caught, and as some natives residents of this place have been implicated in the accusation, a great fear existed that sudden seizures might take place. A deputation of Mandarians has proceeded thither. The priest of the Kwan yin temple having produced an egg, which he said a cock had laid, gave rise to great sensation amongst the officers. The Keun min foo especially took the matter much to heart, he considering such an untoward event as a very unfavourable omen. What a wretched superstition? The Taou tae's edict is rather favourable for the trade: if such a doughty hero who was going to exterminate every one, exhorts the people to continue buying and selling, it shews that in some quarter or the other there must be a want of cash, which trade alone can supply.

MACAO, 11th April.

We are equally unable to relate any events of importance as having taken place here. The Chinese are awaiting quietly it appears, the issue of events, nor are we aware that any extraordinary measures are yet being taken to prepare for the arrival of the English, except what we noticed some weeks since of their having erected batteries on several parts of the Coast and islands, and of some three thousand recruits being daily drilled in Canton. There the new Mandarins's House, a spacious brick building on Jackass point is nearly completed, and granite steps into the river are replacing the former wooden pier. Palissades have likewise been run along the river the whole length of the factories, though hitherto an outlet to the water is left open in front of every houg. All foreigners landing at Canton from Wampoa continue to be subject to strict scrutiny, lest some Hung-mooi-Kwei or English devil should enter the place.

The foreign trade on Canton for the season seems to be drawing to a close—very few teas for European markets remained in the hands of the Chinese, and the shipments now preparing may be considered the last.

[From the Canton Free Press.]

MACAO, 18th April, 1840.

There are rumours of an intended expulsion of all foreigners from Canton, but we know not whether they deserve attention. It is now confidently asserted that an Imperial edict addressed to Lin has been received, in which the Imperial displeasure about some of his acts is made known to him. The Sae tue or Admiral is said to have a share in this reprimand, which probably is on account of the affair at the Bogue, and the false reports forwarded to Pekin regarding it. It is also said that the true state of the affair at the Bibaine has reached the Imperial ears. Lin is said to have been degraded three degrees in rank. A Chinese boat laden with raw silk and silk piece goods destined for Macao has lately been seized by the Mandarins on the pretext that her cargo was intended for the English.

Mr. Snow, the American Consul has arrived here from Canton. Of late several vessels have experienced difficulties on entering the Bogue, the Chinese refusing to allow them to pass on the plea that they have taken in their cargoes at Tungkoo. In some instances these difficulties have been overcome, but several vessels are still waiting outside.

CHINA.—The ship John N. Gosler, which left Macao on the 20th of April, reports that an English vessel arrived there the day previous from Singapore, bringing information that one of the transports from India, with troops, destined for China, had reached that port, and that a large fleet supposed to be the Expedition, was seen bearing into the bay when the above mentioned vessel left. RAIL ROAD TRAVELLING.—138,030 persons were conveyed on the Harlem Rail Road New-York, in the month of August last.

The London and Blackwall Rail Road conveyed in three and a half weeks, from the day of its opening, July 6, to July 24th, 146,066 passengers.

The London and Greenwich Rail Road, in the month of July, conveyed more than 140,000 passengers, who paid fare amounting to more than £4,500.

ASSASSINATION.—The Montreal Courier states that a few days since Lieutenant Farquhar of Col. Dyer's corps of volunteers was shot at Phillipsburg by Capt. McAdam of the same corps, and died soon after his wound. They had quarrelled at mess the previous evening. The assassin was arrested.

There has been a most disastrous drought at Jamaica, and the coffee crops are nearly destroyed.

THE AFRICAN EXPEDITION.—The English are about making a great effort to penetrate the interior of Africa, by ascending the Niger. Three iron steam vessels built expressly for this purpose are to be used, to be commanded by Captain Henry D. Trotter of the Navy, who will also have charge of the expedition, Commander William Allen, and Commander Bird Allen.

U. S. SQUADRON FOR CHINA.—A squadron consisting of the razee Independence, frigate Constellation, sloops of war Concord and Boston, and another sloop of war, is now fitting out for the East Indies.—It is said that Commodore Lewis Warrington will have the command. Capt. F. H. Gregory has been ordered to the frigate Constellation, at Boston.

MAJOR NOAH.—We were inclined to unbelief when we heard it stated that M. M. Noah, Esq. had retired from the editorial life. Perhaps it was because we were unwilling to have it so. With sincere regret we learn that his chair is vacant, and the pleasure of his daily sprightly greeting is hence ended. Requiescat pace. Very pleasant hast thou been unto us, brother! Rare mixture thou, of patriarchal authority with the playfulness of childhood; of sage wisdom with almost obstreperous mirth; of biting wit with gentlest love; with all the virtues of the Jew, and scarce a blemish of the Christian.—Phil. Sentinel.

We have been obligingly handed the following extract from the journal of Mr. Clarke, one of the passengers in the Acadia. Such rapidity in travelling such a vast distance is unprecedented, and incontestibly establishes the very highest character for the "Cunard Line" in Atlantic steam navigation.

Left Paris, 31st July at 5 p m—Reached Havre, 1st August, 10 a m—Left Havre same night at 10 p m—12 hours at Havre.

Reached Southampton, 2nd August, 9 a m; left do. do. at 1 p m—4 hours at Southampto.

Reached London at 5 p m—Left London at 8 p m—3 hours in London.

Reached Liverpool, 3rd August at 7 a m—left do 4th, at 5 p m—34 hours at Liverpool.

Reached Halifax on the 15th August, at 7 p m—left do. at 11 p m—4 hours at Halifax—and 10 hours off the harbor.

Reached Boston, 17th August at 8 a m—left Boston same day at 5 p m—9 hours at Boston.

Reached New York, 18th August, at 7 a m.

Making 398 hours from Paris to New York—distance exceeding 3900 miles, which gives a rate of 10 miles an hour, including stoppages; and over 12 miles an hour, deducting 76 hours stoppages.—Halifax Recorder.

New South Wales.—As an instance of the fertility of the soil in some parts of this country, it is stated that land upon which last year a bushel of wheat had been sown to the acre, returned, at the last year's harvest, the astonishing quantity of ninety-five bushels to the acre.

Women looking up.—A Liverpool paper says that the banner of a female society in Bolton, bears an inscription of which the following is a copy: "To the Queen Victoria of England—may she always rule: and the same to all other women!"

Mr. Finlaison calculates that in May, 1841, the total population of England and Wales will exceed sixteen million.

NEW-YORK MARKET, Sept. 1.

TEAS.—The sale at auction on Thursday of Teas, received per ships Horatio, Florida, Samarang and Lehigh, was well attended, and nearly the whole catalogue, 6342 packages, were sold at prices showing an advance of full 2 c. per lb. on most descriptions offered. The sales of Hyson were at 61 to 76 c.; Young 50½ to 80 c.; Hyson Skin, 53 c., s s; Gunpowder and Imperial, 65 to 71½ c.; Souchong, 61½ c., s s; Pouchong, 43 to 57 c. Since the auction sale the market has acquired considerable firmness, and prices have an upward tendency. There is a good business doing in the article among the trade.

CORN EXCHANGE.—The receipts of flour down the North River continue large. During this week they have been nearly 40,000 bls. The market has appeared dull, and yet the receipts have almost all been sold. Prices declined 12 a 18 c. brl, on all Western. The sales of Genesee were at $5 06 to $5, and for scattering lots $4 94. Ohio and Michigan closed at $4 88 a $5, though some sales were made in fair order at rather less than the lowest of these prices. Jersey mountain Flour brought $5 50. Georgetown and Howard st., $5 62; common Southern sorts are dull at $5 50. Rye Flour sold at $3 2 a 25, and Corn Meal at $3 a 3 12. A parcel of Western Wheat brought 109 c. at the close of the week. Several cargoes of Southern Wheat sold at 106 c. for fair down to 103 for inferior. Southern Corn sold at 53 c.
