Stocks, Grain and Produce—There Will Be No Further Issue of Consumers' Gas Stock at Present—Business Embarrassments—The Money Market—Foreign Exchanges.

President Austin, of the Consumers' Gas Co., says that the board of directors has not considered the issue of new stock. The company has permission from the Provincial Government to issue $2,000,000 worth of stock as is required, but none will be issued at present.

The old American Hotel has disappeared. The debris being carted away and operations on the new Board of Trade buildings will be commenced without delay.

On Change to-day the very low temperature recorded at some points shown on the weather symbol map was the subject of much remark. Users were expressed that there might be damage to wheat by frost ere the present cold snap were over.

TUESDAY EVENING, May 28.

Business was brisker on the local stock exchange than it has been for some days past, but trading was confined to a few lines and those the cheaper stocks. The total transactions were 878 shares, out of which 725 were Northwest Land. Prices were materially unchanged. During the day Imperial gained 1½ points; Northwest Land declined ½ and B. C. L.
