Pretty Home Wedding

UNDERWOOD-GRAVES

A quiet home wedding took place at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, July 4th, 1917, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Graves, Granville street, when their daughter, Laura Hall, was united in marriage to Mr. O. E. Underwood, of Detroit, Mich., the ceremony being performed by Rev. L. F. Wallace, of Annapolis Royal.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a travelling suit of brown taneta, with hat of brown and yellow, and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. Little Miss Irene Crowe received the guests and Miss Marguerite Hicks played the wedding march.

The decorations were particularly pleasing, and were the work of the "J. B." Club, of which the bride has been a very prominent member. Pink and white roses were used in the dining room, and daisies and ferns in the parlor, with an exquisite bell of snowballs under which the bride and groom stood.

The bride has been a teacher in the Bridgetown school and also taught very successfully for two years in Alberta. She was presented with a shower of beautiful gifts at the home of Mrs. J. W. Peters, on the Saturday evening previous to the wedding, and also received many presents from former pupils. The collection of presents was a laige one and consisted of gold, silver, china, cut glass and linen, together with substantial cheques from the groom's and the bride's parents.
