LAST BASEBALL OF THE YEAR.

Championship Trophy Awarded to Royal Canadians—Sunlight League

A meeting of the Sunlight Baseball League will be held on Wednesday night at the R C B C rooms at 8.30 o'clock, to close up the league's business for the season. A fitting testimonial will be presented to the Royal Canadians, the league champions and undisputed champions of the city.

The protest that had been lodged by St. Marys against the playing of R. O. Miller of the Royal Canadians came up before The News trophy trustees yesterday. Messrs. Jess Applegath, T. D. Bailey and Ed Mack being present. The board discussed the matter thoroly from an impartial standpoint, and a decision was quickly rendered that the Royals were well within their rights in having Miller on the team, and that the Sunlight Leaguers are entitled to the championship and trophy, which will be formally handed over to their safekeeping for a year. The incident puts an end to baseball, as far as Toronto is concerned, for the year.

That the three post-season games were extraordinarily interesting no one who witnessed them will doubt, and the play demonstrates the fact that fans need not look to talent from across the line, for all that is most acceptable in baseball.

Deadest Ball Town on Earth.

Jack Haskell tells a pretty fair one on "Scoops" Carey and Rochester, N. Y., the deadest baseball town on earth.

Last spring Rochester started off with a long losing streak. One afternoon, by actual count, there were 88 people at the lot.

"Are you going to play?" asked Carey of Haskell. "Of course; why not?" queried the umpire.

"I just thought if we should happen to win," explained Carey, "that there are not enough people here to prove it."

And still it is thought in some quarters that the Eastern League won't try to get rid of such a town.—Ohio State Journal.

All the fondest hopes of the rooters in two dozen leagues find concentration in the following roster of the champions, on whose fields pennants will be hoisted in the spring of 1905. Chesbro Explains Spit Ball.

Much has been written about the "spit ball" of late, but as yet there has been no particularly lucid explanation given as to what constitutes this style of delivery that is playing hob with batsmen in the National and American Leagues. Jack Chesbro, the highlanders' twirler, has the best "spit ball" of any member of the American League, and his explanation of how it is thrown is extremely interesting and enlightening.

"To throw the 'spit ball,'" said Chesbro, "you moisten the first and second fingers of the pitching hand, allowing those fingers to rest lightly upon the surface of the ball, which is held in a fairly firm clasp between the thumb and the third finger doubled into the hand. The grasp, except for the fact that the ball is not clinged by the first and second fingers, is the same as that used in throwing the fast ball. The style of delivery is the same, too, but as the ball simply rolls over the moistened first and second fingers, instead of being guided by them, the ball does not revolve as it goes toward the batsman.

"On the contrary, it is about as unerring as a slow ball. There being no whirling motion to it, the ball is liable to take any kind of a shoot when it reaches the batsman, dropping out, and sometimes dropping straight before him. I have seen 'spit ball' take a drop of a foot and a half, making the batsman who struck at it extremely ridiculous. When the 'spit ball' is delivered with the same motion as a fast straight ball it does not go as fast, having the speed of an ordinary curved ball—that is, about the speed between a fast ball and a slow one. There seems to be no way to control the 'spit ball' at present. All a pitcher can do is to throw it and take his chances of having it go in the right direction to fool the batsman."

Stallings and Barrow Attended.

New York, Oct. 24.—The annual meeting of the National Association of Baseball Leagues opened here to-day. Representatives of 23 leagues, containing 168 clubs, were present. Late in the afternoon the national board went into executive session to consider 31 disputes, and formally submitted questions.

To-night the Eastern League gave the visitors a smoker and vaudeville entertainment. To-morrow the baseball men will be taken on an automobile ride, and on Wednesday President Powers of the Eastern League will give a banquet.

Among those at the meeting are George Stallings of Buffalo and Edward Barrow of Montreal.

Sporting Notes.

In the last month or so Pete Maltman, last year's goaltender for the Woodstock Hockey Club, has received many tempting offers from outside clubs. Among these was one from the Canadian Soo, where it is his intention to play this winter. Pete turned down the first offer, but another, one still more tempting, was received last week, and he accepted.

Our system of strict and careful examination enables us to keep the true standard of Semi-ready.

Although we import fabrics direct from English Manufacturers, we have each piece carefully and minutely examined before a single snip of the scissors.

When the suit is at the basting stage—ready to be fitted, examiners again go carefully over it once more—when it passes their searching scrutiny it is perfect in materials and workmanship.

ASSOCIATION SCHEDULE 3 CLUBS IN SENIOR SERIES

Ten in Intermediate—Arts Meet S.P.S. on Wednesday—Some Rugby Notes.

The schedule of the University of Toronto Association Football for the fall term, 1904, was issued yesterday. Saturday games will be played at 10.30 a.m. and all other games at 3.30 p.m. All games will be played on the Varsity athletic field.

The latter is a new rule and is a good move. Another innovation is the charging of admission fees to all games.

The following are the officers of the club: Hon. president, Prof. McCurdy; president, W. Green, Victoria College; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Reid; Medical College; manager, E. T. Hays, Arts.

The prospects for the club this year look good. There are but three teams in the senior series, S.P.S., Meds and University College, but this fact will only make the competition all the keener between these three. The senior series opens Wednesday, Oct. 26, when the Arts and S.P.S. clash.

There are three series in the intermediate and 10 teams. Knox College and the Dents are without a senior team. The principle adopted in arranging the schedule was that home and home games should be played. Each win counts 2 points and a tie 1 point.

A meeting of the W. of T. Association Football Club was held at the gymnasium late Monday evening to draw up a constitution. The constitution of the Rugby club was followed and the Association club was brought under the supervision of the W. of T. athletic directorate.

Those present were: President W. F. Green, Victoria; Vice-President F. F. Dowling; Secretary-Treasurer, W. H. Reid; Manager E. G. Hayes.

Several changes were made by the athletic directorate in the schedule as originally drawn. The opening date was changed from Oct. 25 to Oct. 26, when the S.P.S. champion team meets Arts.

The schedule as finally adopted was:

—Senior Series—

Arts v. S.P.S., Oct. 26.
Meds. v. S.P.S., Oct. 28.
Meds. v. Arts, Nov. 2.

Meds v. S.P.S., Nov. 11

—Intermediate Series—

Trinity v. Arts, Nov. 12.

—Series B.—

McMaster v. S.P.S., Nov. 2.

McMaster v. Knox, Nov. 21.

—Semi-Finals—

Winner of A v. winner of B, Nov. 19.

—Final—

Winners of A for B v. winners of C, Nov. 24.

Association Football.

A full turnout of the Toronto Scots Football team is requested for this (Tuesday) evening at Bayside Park from 5.30 on. All members of both senior and junior teams are requested to attend.

In the Scots-R.C.B.C. game on Saturday only three men decorated the fence, Gerow and Ledger for five minutes each and Paisille, for a very minor offence, was given two minutes.

The Eureka Athletic Club junior football team defeated the Gutta Percha Juniors Saturday at corner of Rusholme-road and Dewson-street, in a well-contested game. At half-time the score stood 3 to 0 in Eurekas' favor. In the second half, however, the Rubberites picked up, and the score ended 4 goals to 2 in favor of the Eurekas. All players are requested to turn out to practise on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights in Bellwoods Park.

The Eureka A. C. juvenile team won from the Capitals in Chester by default, the Capitals not being able to get the field clear till 4.30. A practice game was played, the Eurekas winning by 4 goals to 1. Curry, in goal, played a star game. The line-up: Goal, Curry; backs, Fenny, Fowler; halves, Read, Curzon, Roe; forwards, Fleming, Mackey, Hunter, Cornes and Lowry. All players are requested to be out for practice this week in Bellwoods Park.

In their game on Saturday at McMaster grounds, the W. E. Chalcraft & Co. football team defeated the Aura Lees by a score of 2 to 0. The visitors were superior in every way to their opponents, the team lining up as follows:

Goal, Clarke; backs, Davidson, Stewart, Thompson, Bush, Barkley; forwards, Fraser, Worden, Hackley, Cressell, Arnold.

Sporting Editor World: The Central Canada and Norwich Union met last night in one of their games in the Financial League. The Central Canada called the game on a penalty kick, given by the referee on account of the goalkeeper of the Norwich Union taking more than three steps with the ball. Kindly state if this should have been a penalty kick or a foul kick.

Norwich Union Football Club.

Ans.—A penalty kick should be given where an intentional trip, hold or handle takes place within the 12-yard limit. The case above was a foul, the penalty being a free kick.

Drop Kicks.

Upper Canada College play Ridley College a school match on Nov. 5.

The Victoria Seniors have transferred their home game to London for next Saturday and will practice in Ketchum Park to-night and every night this week from 7 to 8.30. Cliff. Rolph, an old Varsity man, will turn out and also Cotton and Sheppard, who have just returned from Winnipeg. The Vics intend to place this game at least to their credit for the season.

The Trinity Rugby Club held a meeting last night in their rooms and re-elected Captain Tommy Hay, who had resigned from that position. They also elected Joe (Irish) Hurst as manager and now they are confident that under these capable players they will make a strong bid for the senior honors. Trinity will play the St. Michael's College team on Saturday on Trinity campus.

The Independents Rugby Club of the Junction having a bye in the City League on Oct. 29, would like to arrange a game with any of the city teams, those of the Collegiate League or any other teams coming up will be given a good clean game. Address W. J. Harper, 121 Mulock-avenue, Toronto Junction.

The students took a rest Monday after their game with Peterboro and little was done.

The Torontos' back division was pretty well crippled as a result of the Argonauts game. Houser was rendered unconscious and forced out. Trow was lamed and Clarke was hardly able to walk. The victory of the Argonauts can, however, hardly be attributed to the mutting out of the game of Houser or the injury of the Toronto players. The Argonauts on Saturday played a little the better game and deserved to win. The Torontos went into the game quite confident of winning and when they saw the game unexpectedly slipping away from them a sort of panicky feeling seemed to take possession of the team. Especially was this noticeable during the last 15 minutes of play.

The Hamilton Tigers are the only team in the O.R.F.U. that is playing senior Rugby and they are certainly doing it.

The average weight of the Hamilton Tigers is 185 lbs. The Victorias average 145 lbs.

The Argonaut-Toronto game demonstrated one fact, namely, that even in the snap-back game speed is not everything. Weight counts for a great deal.

Queens will certainly do their best to defeat the Varsity Seniors next Saturday. A victory for Queens will put the Presbyterians tie with McGill, the leaders. If Queens win then Toronto can make all teams tie by winning the remaining two games scheduled. If Toronto win the next three games then the championship comes here.

Peterboro should give the Torontos a hard game at Peterboro next Saturday. This will be the Torontos first experience outside of Toronto and their last game in district No. 2.

The Torontos may not meet the Tigers after all. If Peterboro win next Saturday then Toronto and Peterboro are tied and if Peterboro beat the Argonauts in Toronto on Nov. 5, then they win the district.

Varsity Seniors' chances are much improved as a result of the victory of Queens over McGill on Saturday. Umpire George Biggs expressed the opinion that the blue and white would win from Queens on Saturday. He stated that Queens were lucky to win, as their backs in the first half did not take advantage of the wind, which was in their favor, but ran too much and kicked hardly ever.

Jack Williams, Queen's seniors' fast centre half, whose splendid punting helped to defeat McGill on Saturday, played for the Limestones, junior champions last year in Rugby, and was the right outside of the Limestone's champion O.H.A. Juniors last season. He is 18 years old and a Kingston boy.

Donald C. Malcolm, McGill's fast outside wing, has made a touch-down for McGill in every one of the senior games this year. He is quite a find for McGill, as this is his first year at Rugby. He is a Med. aged 20 and hails from St. John, N.B. He is a fast sprinter and a hard tackler. In Jermyn of Varsity and Malcolm, the colleges have as good wings as are in the game to-day.

Adrian S. Rathbun and Captain Pete Flett of Upper Canada College Rugby team are two of the best men in their positions in the school league this year. Rathbun is the best quarter and Flett the best half in the school league and this pair always figure in the score card. They are intended for Queen's. College should about win the school championship this year. The hard game will be with Ridley on Nov. 5.

Hamilton have scored 86 points to their opponents' 21. The Victorias have had 126 tallied against them and have themselves made 17.

On the Links.

The ladies' handicap match will be played on the links of the Toronto Highlands Golf Club this afternoon. This match will also be the qualifying round for the ladies' championship of the Highlands Club.

Dr. F. C. Hood won the final game for the Rosedale Club championship from E. O. Cooper by 1 hole. The consolation final went to W. E. Rundle, who defeated A. R. Williams 2 up.

The play in the Lambton Club championship has narrowed down to four, Dudley Dawson, by defeating Bert Edgar, has won his way to the finals. H. J. Martin has got to the semi-finals, where he is waiting to meet the winner of the C. C. James-Dr. Capon match.
