JEWISH DELEGATION APPEALS TO GOV'T TO AID RELATIVES IN RUMANIA AND POLAND

Urged Upon Gov't That These Relatives and Dependents of Jews Now in Canada Were Exposed to Persecution in the Countries Named.

Ottawa, Nov. 19—A delegation from the Canadian Jewish Congress waited upon the Government this afternoon to make representations with regard to the very serious conditions of relatives and dependents in Roumania and Poland of Roumanian and Polish Jews, now residing in Canada. The delegation which was headed by Mr. Lyon Cohen, of Montreal, and introduced by S. W. Jacobs, M. P., also of Montreal, was received by Hon. C. J. Doherty, Sir Henry Drayton, Hon. Martin Burrell and General S. C. Mewburn.

It was urged upon the Government that these dependents and relatives of Jews now in Canada were exposed to persecution in Roumania and Poland and the request was made that the Government give credentials to a committee which would consist of three men named by the Canadian Jewish Congress which would also meet their expenses, to go to these countries and seek out the relatives and dependents in question. The delegation also asked that when these relatives and dependents were found, the Government should, on being satisfied that they meet the requirement of the Immigration Act grant permits which would enable them to leave the countries in which they at present are. It was requested that the countries where they now are will not allow them to emigrate without such a permit.

It was also requested that, subject to the expenses being met by the Congress, the Government should facilitate the obtaining of transportation to Canada of those who are found to be suitable immigrants.

The members of the Government promised to take the matter into their sympathetic consideration. It was pointed out that there are certain difficulties entering into the matter, but it would be carefully looked into.

GOV'T SOON TO FORMULATE NAVAL POLICY FOR CANADA

Admiral Jellicoe to be in Ottawa Next Week and Will Give to the Government the Benefit of His Knowledge of Naval Defence—Government Expected to Have a Definite Plan to Lay Before Parliament in Regular Session.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 19.—Hon. O. C. Ballantyne, the Minister of the Naval Service, intimated in an interview given today that the Government would undertake in the very near future to formulate a naval policy for Canada, and might be prepared to submit its proposals to Parliament at its next session. He vouchsafed the information in the course of a statement in which he announced that Admiral Viscount Jellicoe would arrive in Ottawa on November 27th in the course of his tour of the Empire, and pointed out that the Admiral would not recommend a permanent policy for the Dominion, but would give the Government, in an advisory capacity, the benefit of his experience and knowledge of naval defence.

Lord Jellicoe comes to Canada in the course of a tour undertaken as a result of an understanding reached by representatives of the overseas Dominions at their meeting in London in August, 1918. A tentative scheme of naval defence of the Empire had been submitted to the Overseas Ministers by the Admiralty in conformity with a request made at the Imperial War Conference in March, 1917.

The Overseas Ministers, after considering the Admiral's plan, subscribed to a memorandum suggesting, it was stated at the time, a permanent overseas naval policy on the basis of navies to be built by and administered by the Dominions on a system which would permit close co-operation with the British navy. The memorandum also said: "It is thoroughly recognized that the character of construction, armament and equipment and the methods and principles of training, administration and organization should proceed upon the same lines in all the navies of the Empire. For the purpose the Dominions would welcome visits from a highly qualified representative of the Admiralty who by reason of his ability and experience would be thoroughly competent to advise the naval authorities of the Dominions in such matters. As matters come to be developed on a considerable scale by the Dominions it may be necessary hereafter to consider the establishment for war purposes of some supreme naval command upon which the Dominions would be adequately represented."

The naval question first came into prominence in Canada in 1909. It had been discussed at several Imperial Conferences and it came before the Canadian Parliament in March 1909, in the form of a resolution introduced by Sir George Foster and calling for Canadian participation in naval defence. In the following year Sir Wilfrid introduced his naval service bill, calling for the construction of a number of cruisers of the Bristol type and submarines. This legislation was passed, but before action under it had progressed far the elections of 1911 brought a change of government. Sir Robert Borden then, in accordance with a pre-election pledge, consulted the Admiralty as to the form Canada's contribution to naval defence should take. In December of 1912 he introduced his naval aid bill calling for an appropriation of $35,000,000 for the construction of three "of the largest and strongest ships of war which science can build or money supply," to use the words of the Admiralty memorandum. Those vessels were intended as an emergency contribution to the naval strength of the Empire. They were to augment Britain's strength in European waters. It was clearly stated by the Prime Minister that the subject of a permanent naval policy for Canada would be left for consideration at a later date and that the three dreadnoughts would be available if in the future the Canadian people should decide to establish a Canadian unit of the Royal Navy. The naval aid bill was defeated by the Senate. It has since been justified by the events of the war which proved the "emergency" that was derided by the opposition in Parliament in 1912 and 1913 really existed. The emergency legislation, however, never became law, and now, apparently, it is proposed to consider in the light of conditions disclosed by the events of the war the subject of permanent policy.

M. CLEMENCEAU COMMENTS ON THE ELECTIONS

Returns Show France Must Proceed According to Law and Order in Reconstruction of the Country.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Premier Clemenceau, replying today to the congratulations of Senator Monis on the results of Sunday's elections, said the returns showed France understood she must proceed according to law and order in the reconstruction of the country. France would be stronger than ever, he declared, because more united.

Georges Mandel, who was elected to the Chamber of Deputies in the Bordeaux constituency today tendered his resignation as Premier Clemenceau's chief confidential secretary. The Premier congratulated M. Mandel on his election, saying that no one better than he could appreciate the enormous difficulties M. Mandel had overcome.

GOV'T PLANS TO MEET UNREST IN EGYPT AND MALTA

London, Nov. 19.—(By The Associated Press).—A constitution for Egypt and local self government for Malta, both of which were announced today are designed to meet the unrest in those countries, which have been demanding the application to themselves of the theories of self-determination and the rights of smaller nationalities.

The extreme Egyptian Nationalists have raised the banner of complete independence, like the Sinn Fein and Cairo messages say that the cabinet has resigned as an answer to Field Marshal Allenby's statement of the British plans.

One of the Egyptian complaints has been that Great Britain has published its intention to maintain a protectorate, but has kept the Egyptians in the dark regarding what is meant by a protectorate, and how it is to be carried on. Great Britain's action in preventing an Egyptian Nationalist delegation from going to the Paris Conference to present grievances has been another cause for complaint.

The government's justification by the charges of neglecting Egypt has been the enormous load of other matters on its hands. The Milner Commission, which is to investigate the causes of unrest in Egypt, has not yet started and the natives threaten to boycott it and refuse to give any information.

Malta was in a state of tumult for several weeks during the summer, but there were no casualties and little news of the movement there has reached England.

Another sign of the times is that a group of Burmese, with the support of former British Burman officials, have begun an agitation for Burma, for measures of self government which the Montague scheme will give India.

Tired of Talk Wants Justice

Janet Canuck Pleaded for More Appreciation of Women in Dollars Instead of Words — Fine Address Before Toronto Business Women.

Mrs. A. W. McDougald of Montreal, who is touring Ontario in the interests of the I.O.D.E. War Memorial Fund gave a very interesting talk on this subject at Cornwall, Ont., recently.

Mrs. John McMartin, regent of the Montreal Municipal Chapter, presented the newly-formed Muncipal Chapter of the I.O.D.E. with seventy-three pictures of important personages and events in British history.

Mrs. McMartin explained that the pictures were intended to be used for the purpose of inculcating and developing the spirit of patriotism among the school children of the district. They will be circulated as a travelling exhibit in the public and separte schools in the town of Cornwall and the counties of Stormont and Glengarry. The pictures were hung in the town hall, where in the afternoon they were viewed by fifteen hundred visitors, including about one thousand school children.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffing, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

SYNDICALISTS FAIL TO FOMENT GENERAL STRIKE

Even Small Strikes Which Kept Barcelona in a State of Unrest Many Weeks Are Virtually Over.

Madrid, Nov. 19.—Reports from Barcelona indicate that the attempts of the Syndicalist leader to foment a general strike have thus been a failure. Even the small strikes, which kept Barcelona in a state of unrest for many weeks, are virtually over. The waiters, following the example of the cooks, have returned to work, their demand for a fifty per cent. increase in wages and all the tips they take having been met. The dressmakers are the only workers still on strike. All the newspapers have resumed publication except the Vanguardia, the employees of which refuse to resume owing to the dismissal of two of their Syndicalist comrades.

WEDDINGS.

McGuiggan-McCormick.

Miss Nellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCormick, Harvey street, was married yesterday morning to Leo McGuiggan, the ceremony being performed with Nuptial Mass at St. Peter's church by Rev. E. Scully, C. SS. R. Miss Catherine McCormick, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. Jack Murphy supported the groom. Following the ceremony, wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple afterwards leaving on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at City Line, West Side. There were many beautiful presents in cut glass and silver. The groom is employed with Timothy Donovan, West Side.

Harrington-Flood.

A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at 5 o'clock with Nuptial Mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, by Rev. W. M. Duke, when Estella S. Flood and Ernest S. Harrington were united in marriage. The bride was given away by her uncle, James Keenan, and was attended by Miss Lena Harrington. Douglas McCarthy supported the groom. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's uncle, 50 Peter street, the happy couple left on the Boston train for the honeymoon in the border cities. The popularity of the young couple was displayed by the numerous and costly wedding gifts.

Smith-Burdon.

Fredericton, Nov. 19.—St. Anne's parish church was the scene of a pretty wedding this evening when Miss Helen Mayes Burdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Burdon, of this city, and B. Nash Smith, of Woodstock, were married. The bride has been a popular nurse, while the groom was a member of the Canadian Expeditionary Force to North Russia. Rev. A. Bate tied the nuptial knot.

WINNIPEG READY FOR BATTLE OF BALLOTS NOV. 28

Citizens' Committee Formally Launches Its Campaign —Appeals to Voters to Defeat Labor Candidates.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 19.—In a full page advertisement in a local paper the Citizens' Committee today formally launched its campaign in an appeal to the citizens to defeat labor candidates in the civic elections to be held on November 28.

The local Trades and Labor Council last night fully endorsed the whole of the labor candidates in the field. This was done in order to make their position clear on the issue.

A resolution was also passed to support the defence fund of the eight labor leaders facing charges of sedition now in the courts. It was recommended that this matter should be taken out of the hands of any union and made a separate issue, wherein all of the labor element could support the defence.

Mrs. Phillips, to Tony, who has just come home after his first day at a kindergarten school:

"Well, dear, and how do you like going to school? I suppose you are the youngest of all the little boys, aren't you?"

Tony (indignantly): "I'm not, mother! Two of our fellows come in perambulators!"

A Courteous Hint.

After talking for a good twenty minutes without stopping, and awful bore finished by saying:

"I can speak English, French, Italian and Spanish, but I prefer to speak English"—a fact which all his hearers had noticed.

"And in which language," said one of them, with a most amiable smile, "do you prefer to hold your tongue?"

If Thin and Nervous Try Bitro-Phosphate

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals, it is a well-known fact that the lack of phosphorous in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition.

It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorous may now be met by the use of Bitro-Phosphate, which can be obtained from any good druggist in convenient tablet form.

In many instances the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue soon produces a welcome change—nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy and the whole body loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing.

CAUTION:—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

IN CHANCERY COURT.

The case of Baird vs. Jones Bros. was resumed in Chancery yesterday morning before Sir Douglas Hazen, C. J. Harry D. Baird testified that he lost about $3,000 in work since John B. Jones had resumed business in the city.

D. Mullin, K. C., for the plaintiff, concluded his case in the afternoon, and an adjournment was made until Thursday, November 27. The defendant appeared without counsel.

In the matter of Cluny Reid and John C. Reid, children of the late Jas. A. Reid, of Charlo, application was made by J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., on behalf of Geo. Chalmers, uncle, and Isabel McCurdy, grandmother, for appointment as joint guardians. Mr. Justice Grimmer ordered reference to Geo. Gilbert, K. C., master in chancery, to report as to the qualifications of the applicants for appointment.

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

The Higher the Price of Milk the More Economical it is to Use KLIM

Milk is a necessary food. To do without plenty of it is a hardship upon every member of the family. The constantly increasing price of milk is taking a large amount of money from the household purse. Yet the bills must be paid or less milk consumed!

There is one practical satisfactory way of overcoming high milk bills and waste through souring.

Use Klim—separated milk powder.

A pound of Klim in dry powder form equals the food value of ten pounds of liquid separated milk. You buy Klim dry and add the water as you require a supply of separated milk for cooking, baking and giving the milk flavor to tea, coffee and cereal. To make a pint of separated milk place 4 level tablespoonfuls of Klim in tin or a pint of cold water in a bowl or pitcher and whip briskly until dissolved—then you have sweet, pure, pasteurized separated milk just as it was originally.

Order a one-pound tin of Klim from your grocer—follow the directions on the label.

Send for our interesting recipe book—"The Wonderful Story of Klim."
