HUGE LAND GRANT

(Ottawa) asked what had been done for forestry.

Hon. Mr. Duff replied that the Government last year had secured several 100-acre lots for replanting. More such lots would be secured this year.

Mr. Reed (South Wentworth) complimented the Government on the work it was doing.

Mr. McDougal asked if the Government had taken steps to husband the forests in the same manner as in Germany.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane replied that the department had devoted a great deal of attention to the question, which required both time and money. Several thousand miles of land were under preservation now, and soon the Government would have to take power to deal with the mature timber on the reserves, which required cutting. The Government was now considering establishing a reserve in Rainy River district. The whole policy regarding the sale of pine and timber lands had changed entirely since the Government came into power. No sales had been made, and when they were made, strict regulations regarding cutting would be enforced.

Mr. McDougal thought the Government should build roads through the forests, as is done in Germany, to prevent the spread of fire.

Sir James Whitney said the discussion of the forestry question was not out of place, but it must be remembered that conditions in Canada and in Germany were widely different. No Canadian would live for 30 days in Germany under the conditions cheerfully accepted by the peasants there. The German could scarcely take breath except by statute. Half a million men would be needed to look after Ontario's forests on the German method. The Government would be alert in forest conservation, because the subject was an important one, and the policy of preserving the forests would meet with popular approval.

Mr. Stock (South Perth) advocated that poor settlers in Muskoka and other districts unfitted for agriculture should be given farms in the clay belt in exchange for their present holdings, the latter to be then reforested.

Attacks Salvation Army.

Mr. Studholme (Labor, Hamilton) energetically protested against the appropriations of $8,334 to the Salvation Army immigration work, and $20,000 for provincial immigration offices in London. He gave instances of depravity and pauperism on the part of immigrants, and urged greater efforts in deporting undesirables, but objected to the Province bearing the cost, which should be paid by the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Hanna pointed out that many undesirables did not come within the provisions of the act.

Mr. Studholme said the Salvation Army's immigration work was a plain business proposition. The army got the money and dumped the immigrants on the Province. Ninety-nine out of every hundred vagrants and paupers were new arrivals from Britain or Europe.

Messrs. Downey, Hanna, Macdiarmid and Duff denied the accuracy of Mr. Studholme's figures, whereupon the member for Hamilton reduced his estimate to 60 per cent. He criticised the London offices, and said what was wanted was a practical farmer, who would go into English rural places and bring out tenant farmers. Immigrants should not be allowed to come to Canadian cities to flood the labor market. Mr. Studholme then moved in amendment that the two items—$8,334 to the Salvation Army and $20,000 for London offices—be struck out.

Whitney Defends.

Sir James made a lengthy reply to Mr. Studholme. While recognizing the value of Mr. Studholme's services in the House, Sir James said the Labor member didn't know what he was talking about, but was repeating street talk. No immigration movement had done more valuable work for Ontario than had the Salvation Army. Their immigrants were not dumped in, but were carefully picked, and were taken direct to the farms of their prospective employers. It would be improper to allow such an attack on the Salvation Army to pass unchallenged. The former minister of agriculture, Hon. Mr. Monteith, had likewise done the Province great service by his trip to England, and his interest in the Franco-British Exhibition, at which the Dominion Government had made a most creditable display of Canada's products. Right opposite that display was the Ontario exhibit, which had given better results than keeping up an expensive office in the Strand. By that one action, Mr. Monteith had saved to the Province a sum much greater than the expenses of his trip.

A difficulty which the Province met was that so many immigrants brought to Ontario went on to the west. Another was that every newcomer meant increased expenditure for the Provincial Government.

A large amount of expenditure had been saved by allowing the Dominion to take over the work of distributing and locating immigrants.

Sir James said his resume was intended to show Mr. Studholme that his misstatements were too glaring. Ontario was the most fortunate country in the world, and Mr. Studholme would recognize that some day.

Three members of the Opposition, Messrs. Clarke (Northumberland), McDougal (Ottawa), and McCormack (E. Lambton), indorsed Sir James' eulogy of the Salvation Army, and approved of the Government's general immigration policy.

"Why don't you go and look at the unemployed downtown?" asked Mr. Studholme.

"Most of them are unemployable," answered Sir James.

Mr. Studholme's amendment was lost, he alone voting for it.

In considering the appropriations for hospitals and charities, Sir James said that there was a growing feeling that the whole cost of maintenance of public institutions should be saddled on the Government. What right had the Province, he asked, to become responsible for the care of all tuberculosis patients? If all the applications made were granted, the Province would be bankrupt in five years. The Government must make haste slowly, and refuse reckless demands.

Sir James denied the truth of Mr. Mickle's contention that charities felt an adverse effect from the operation of the succession duties tax.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Legislature of Ontario at its present session for an act:

1. To authorize the Council of the Corporation of the City of London, without obtaining the assent of the electors, to pass a bylaw authorizing the issue of debentures to an amount not exceeding $5,000, for the purpose of paying for the completion of the erection and the equipment of the laundry at Victoria Hospital, and to make necessary alterations in the present contagious ward of the said hospital.

2. The existing debenture debt of the said city, not including any local improvement debentures, except such portion thereof as is payable by the said corporation at large, is as follows:

General debenture debt	$2,413,488 62
Waterworks	601,159 36
Debentures authorized, but not yet issued:
Consumption Hospital	5,000 00
Electric power distribution plant	235,000 00
	$3,254,647 98

The reason for requiring the above issue of debentures is the necessity for paying for the completion of the said laundry and its equipment, and to make alterations which are necessary in the present contagious ward of the said hospital.

Dated at London this 17th day of March, A. D. 1909.

APPLICATION TO PARLIAMENT.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the Legislature of the Province of Ontario, at the next session thereof, by the Municipal Corporation of the County of Middlesex, for an act consolidating the debenture debt of the said corporation, amounting to $486,260, being part of the issue of debentures authorized by the act, 53 Victoria, Chapter 90, of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, and authorizing the said corporation to raise by a new issue of debentures, payable in twenty years from the issue thereof, the said sum of $486,260 for the purpose of discharging and paying such debt.

The debentures issued under the said act, 53 Victoria, Cipter 90, are now beginning to mature, and, owing to the large sum of money expended by the said corporation in connection with bridges, road improvements, repairs to public buildings and other necessary expenditures, it would be unduly oppressive on the ratepayers to pay off the said debentures in addition to meeting the current annual expenses of the municipality. D. D. GRAHAM, warden; T. E. ROBSON, clerk. Dated at London this 14th day of January, A. D. 1909. 88n-v
