BRACKIN SAYS HEARST IGNORED VETS FOR JOBS

Liberal Candidate States Appointment of Game-Keeper Wrong.

INJUSTICE OF GAS ACT

A. B. McCoig, M.P., Says Government Gave Power to Waive Farmers' Contracts.

TILLBURY, Oct. 14.—"When it came to appointing a gamekeeper at Government Park the Hearst Government went over the heads of a dozen returned soldiers who had applied for the job and gave it to a political friend. The man who now holds the job is a man who never lifted a finger in the interests of the empire during the war. About the beginning of the war he went to the United States and remained there until it was finished."

So charged R. L. Brackin, the popular champion of Liberalism in the three-cornered contest for provincial honors in this riding, at an enthusiastic Liberal rally held here tonight. Continuing his attack on the Hearst Government's plea for support on patriotic lines, the premier himself came in for some caustic criticism. Mr. Brackin said: "So far as Premier Hearst is concerned, his son, an "A-2" man, had a "safety first" job from 1916 at the ordnance department at Ashford, Kent, England. I will defy anyone to contradict the truth of that statement."

Coming on top of the charges that the son of the Hon. I. B. Lucas also had a safey first job in England, the statement was greeted with shouts of disgust.

Most Enthusiastic.

The meeting held in the interests of R. L. Brackin was one of the most enthusiastic ever held here. The candidate was applauded again and again as he outlined the stand he is taking on the public questions of the day. He called attention to the fact that in a campaign such as this it is necessary that the electors should know on what grounds a man seeks election. He emphasized the fact that he was prepared to win or lose on the platform of the Liberal party.

In addition to this he had put before the electors his own platform, and reminded his hearers that his opponent, Milton Shaw, the Conservative candidate, had stated again and again that he was seeking election on the past record of the Hearst administration.

The candidate discussed the various matters referred to in his platform. Speaking of the Ontario drainage act, he said he would advocate for the drainage referee to be permanently located in this part of the province, as it was the most vitally interested in drainage matters. "Only this summer I had occasion to act in connection with the Burke drainage scheme in Harwich Township," he said.

Eighty Dollars a Day.

"As dispute arose and it was impossible to get the referee to come here and settle the matter because he was away on his holidays. For 30 days there was idleness at the drainage scheme, and it cost $80 a day, which had to be paid out of public money."

The Hearst administration also came in for a flaying under the eloquence of A. B. McCoig, M.P. He pointed out the injustices not only to urban centres in the riding, but to farmers as a result of the recent natural gas act. In order to cater to big corporations legislation had been adopted which gave the railway board power to waive all contracts farmers had with the gas company.

"The premier is speaking in Chatham tonight," he said. "Will he tell the people of the injustices this act has been the means of creating? Will he tell the people that the act has robbed the county of its natural resources? Will he tell them that their effors to induce industries to come to county towns have been frustrated, because the gas which they had held as an inducement to industry is now allowed to supply towns and cities miles and miles away from this county?"

Have Mercy on Us.

Mr. McCoig also made reference to the "Have Mercy on us" campaign literature which the Ontario Government is circulating in the riding of West Kent. "This pamphlet which I hold in my hand, and which has been circulated among you farmers, requests you not to hold the Government responsible for the federal issues, such as tariff embargoes, the fixing of the price of wheat and cheese, and military service," he said.

"They cry for mercy, but you have only to think of the way in which Hearst and his followers fought us on reciprocity. They cry for mercy on the embargoes. You ladies know what it costs for children's shoes and clothing. They want you to show mercy. Why—remember that there is an embargo on hides, and that Sir Herbert Ames is interested in a big shoe company. Then they ask mercy on the military service act. Did they not promise if they conscripted men that they would also conscript wealth? Today the soldier is getting the cold shoulder, while the profiteer still has the fabulous sums in his bank which he made while the men were fighting."

WINGHAM PRESENTS WATCHES TO HEROES

WINGHAM, Oct. 14.—Citizens yesterday assembled in Victoria Park, where splendid addresses by the mayor and aldermen and Capt. (Rev.) Riddiford of London's Own Battalion and the town clergy were delivered, commending the bravery of the boys and nurses overseas, after which Mayor W. H. Gourney read an address and, assisted by Aldermen W. H. Willis and R. A. Currie, presented gold watches, suitably engraved, to 75 soldiers and 3 nursing sisters and 10 women who had lost sons or husbands in the war. A parade of the veterans was held in the forenoon, led by Capt. E. S. Copeland, and in the afternoon by Lieut. H. McLean, M.C. A grand concert was also put on at night, also a dance in the armories for the benefit of the G. W. V. A.

The watches were presented to the following nursing sisters: Miss Hanna, Miss Elliott, Mrs. McGillvray, and to the following wives and mothers of soldiers killed: Mrs. Atcheson, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Murch, Mrs. Howson, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Utting, Mrs. Helps, Mrs. Pullen, Mrs. Chittlebough, in addition to the 75 soldiers.

NILESTOWN THANKSGIVING.

NILESTOWN, Oct. 14.—The thanksgiving services here Sunday were a decided success. Harold Lawson spoke both morning and evening. He was welcomed back to his old home most cordially. The musical features of the day were good. The concert on Monday night was given to a full house.

A Simple Way To Reduce Wrinkles

Remember that wrinkles and bagginess of cheek or chin are due to the muscular tissue losing its strength and shrinking. The skin is then too large in area to fit such tissue smoothly. It wrinkles or sags.

To remedy this condition there's nothing so effective, so quick acting, as a simple wash lotion easily made at home. Just get an ounce of pure powdered saxolite at your druggist's, and a half-pint of witch hazel, mix the two and bathe your face in the liquid. This at once tightens the skin and solidifies the underlying tissues—which, of course, smoothes out the lines and draws in the sagging skin. It also stimulates capillary circulation bringing natural color to faded cheeks.—Advt.

U. S. Troops To Sail For Europe This Week To Occupy Silesia

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—American troops, which will form part of the force to occupy the province of Silesia, if such action is ordered by the supreme council in Paris, will sail this week from New York on the transport President Grant, Secretary of War Baker announced today.

CAPT. MOWBRAY PLEAS FOR ADEQUATE VETERANS' PENSIONS

Liberal Candidate Delivers Fighting Speech at Blenheim.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLENHEIM, Oct. 13.—A splendid meeting was held here last night in the opera house in the interests of Capt. James Mowbray, the independent Liberal candidate of East Kent. At the outset of his speech, which showed the captain to be a broad-minded fighting candidate, one who stands for the masses and not for any class, he urged all electors who worked or voted for him to keep above all things the election clean, so that after it is over, whether he won or lost, it might be said that Mowbray fought the cleanest election in East Kent.

The candidate, in his remarkable speech which thrilled the audience which filled the building, had nothing but good words to say if his opponent, J. B. Clark, the U. F. O. candidate, but he showed up beyond a doubt that the platform of the U. F. O. was laid down for farms and farmers alone, and that the recall plank to which his opponent subscribed left Mr. Clark in the hands of a very small percentage of the electorate.

Captain Mowbray at the outset made it clear where he stands on the great question of the day as he termed it. "I go out on Monday," said he, "to the poll to mark my ballot four times in the 'No' column,'" he said with emphasis.

The speaker outlined his platform, which among other things stood for:

(1) Adequate pensions for soldiers and soldiers' widows; equal pensions for equal disability.

(2) Better grants for councils to assist in good roads rather than an expensive provincial system.

(3) A greater interest in agriculture to particularly reduce the cost of production to the farmer and thus produce greater production.

(4) Working together as a united people rather than for the interests of one particular class to meet the tremendous problems which lie before us as a people and a nation.

He appealed for support on the grounds that he was a practical farmer, had had considerable business experience and experience in dealing with men.

Mrs. Creighton of Highgate spoke on Liberalism and temperance, and thought the ladies were providentially called to vote for just such a time as this. She urged all to stand by Capt. Mowbray and go over the top October 20 as he went over with the boys in France.

Major Adams of Chatham spoke strongly for the captain. He had learned to highly prize him in his three years of comradeship in the war. "You can trust a man like him," the major remarked, "with the affairs of this country. Soldiers fought to make the country safe. Great problems are ahead. Canada became a nation during the war."

T. B. Shillington spoke in the interests of prohibition.

Angus Gollouders of Orford and O. K. Watson of Ridgetown made capital speeches for the candidate.

Capt. Peter Ryan of town said: "I have been with Captain Mowbray in England, France and up to Germany. Every man of the 5,000 we were with had nothing but good words to say of Capt. Mowbray who did his work and shared the hardships over there with us."

Mayor J. J. Cookson presided at the meeting.

Russian "Reds" No Longer Hope For a Victory

Gen. Denikine May Be in Moscow Within a Month.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 14.—The position of the Bolsheviki is declared in a report from Russia to be critical owing to General Denekine's advance. One newspaper claims that Denekine will enter Moscow within a month, and that the Reds no longer hope for victory. If Tula, 120 miles south of Moscow, is taken, says the newspaper, the Bolsheviki commissaries intend to flee into Turkestan.

Staggering Success.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—"The success of Gen. Yudenitch against the Bolsheviki is so complete as to be almost staggering," says the Daily Mail's Reval correspondent, telegraphing Monday. "His advance guard took Koloshova, 50 miles from Petrograd, Sunday, and his army recovered almost the advanced point of the Jugo offensive. A thousand prisoners, thirteen guns, many machine-guns and an armored train were captured yesterday.

"A force detached from the northward seized Goonontova and 600 prisoners. Pskov was retaken this morning. The Russians also are close to the important station of Luga, which probably already has fallen.

"The Bolshevists everywhere are in panic. The Bolshevik ministries in Petrograd are said to have been closed.

"General Yudenitch's offensive is continuing under a wave of patriotic enthusiasm on a front of a hundred miles."

FURNITURE WORKERS GIVE EMPLOYERS AT STRATFORD 3 DAYS

STRATFORD, Oct. 13. — Furniture manufacturers of the city have until Thursday noon to meet the demands of their employees for a revised schedule of wages and working conditions.

This decision was reached at a mass meeting of the organized furniture workers, and if no arrangement is reached by Thursday the question of a strike, effecting several hundred men here, will be taken up at a mass meeting Friday night.

The manufacturers were given the three days' grace in view of the fact that there is a meeting of the furniture manufacturers' association in Toronto today.

The agreement which the men have submitted is only the first step in a provincial-wide move for a standard schedule. A fifty-hour week, a minimum wage of 55 cents an hour and closed shops are the feature.

FORMER CLOWN PRINCE WANTS TO PURCHASE A CASTLE NEAR PAPA

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 14.—The former German Crown Prince is endeavoring to purchase the castle of Echteld, in the province of Gelderland, according to the Handelsblad. This is situated near Tieland and about 20 miles from Amerongen and Doorn. The purchase of an estate near his father's was discussed at the time of Frederick William's visit to Amerongen. Because of the delay in repairs and the rearrangements at Doorn it is believed that the removal of the former emperor will be postponed until early in 1920.

Although the restrictions of the Dutch Government on the free movement of the exiles are still nominally effective, William Hohenzollern is now permitted to motor through Doorn and Amerongen territory.

U. F. O. RECALL HITS BLOW AT BRITISH CONSTITUTION—CODY

INGERSOLL, Oct. 14.—Hon. Dr. Cody, minister of education, was the principal speaker at a mass meeting in the interests of Victor Sinclair, Conservative candidate, held in the Massey Arena tonight. He was received in a manner befitting a distinguished son of Oxford County.

His reference to the recall signed by the candidates of the U. F. O. was significant. He said anyone who fetters a member of parliament by a prepared resignation is striking a deadly blow at the independence of parliament, and the independence of members of parliament. He considered it a dangerous principle, and one striking a blow at a fundamental of the British constitution.

TO START SHREDDING CORN AT WABASH

WABASH, Oct. 14.—A meeting of the Wabash Corn Shredding Company took place recently at the home of Engineer Timothy Kelly, and arrangements were made for the work to commence in the course of about a week.

A few of the farmers have husked their corn in the field and considerable fall plowing has been done.

Potato digging has also commenced in this district, and there seems to be a great variation all over the township in the production of the crop. In some localities, the potatoes are large, plentiful and free from blemish. In other places they are quite scarce, small and wormy; while in others there are practically none at all. Those fortunate enough to have them for sale are getting $2.50 a bag.

Fall wheat presents a flourishing appearance at present, and owing to the warm showers of the past week pasture lands are also in splendid condition.

During the past week hogs have sold for $16.50 per hundredweight. Spring chickens are selling at 18 cents a pound and spring ducks at 14 cents, which is a decrease of 11 cents per pound on the price paid in September. Old ducks are selling at 13 cents, which is a decrease of 7 cents a pound on the earlier price.

Apples and pears are scarcely to be found in this vicinity, but quinces are plentiful and are selling at $2 a bushel.

Some of the farmers secured a supply of fall apples out near Lake Erie at from $1 to $1.25 per bushel.

THORNDALE ANNIVERSARY.

THORNDALE, Oct. 14.—Anniversary services were held in the Methodist Church Sunday morning and evening, and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. McDonald of Kintore Presbyterian Church delivered two splendid discourses. The music was rendered by Bailey's Choir at the morning service and Thorndale choir in the evening.

The annual Sunday school convention of West Nissouri Township will be held in Wellburn Church on Thursday afternoon and evening.

The Way to say "No"

Mark Your Ballot with an X after Each Question under the word "No."

		YES	NO
1	Are you in favour of the repeal of the Ontario Temperance Act?		X
2	Are you in favour of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one-hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure through Government agencies and amendments to The Ontario Temperance Act to permit such sale?		X
3	Are you in favour of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one-hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure in standard hotels in local municipalities that by a majority vote favour such sale and amendments to The Ontario Temperance Act to permit such sale?		X
4	Are you in favour of the sale of spirituous and malt liquors through Government agencies and amendments to The Ontario Temperance Act to permit such sale?		X

Above is an exact reproduction of the Referendum ballot, showing the correct way to Vote in order to sustain the Ontario Temperance Act as it stands.

Everybody should study the four questions and realize exactly what they mean. Do not be misled by the insidious demand for "light" beer.

The beer of the ballot is 118% stronger than the Ontario Temperance Act now allows, and over five times as strong as the limit allowed for beer defined as non-intoxicating in Great Britain and the United States.

Must Answer Each Question

1. Unless you vote on every question your ballot is spoiled.
2. You must mark your answer to each question with an "X" only. Anything else would spoil your ballot.
3. Unless a majority vote "No" on question 1 the bars will be restored and the sale of all kinds of intoxicants permitted.
4. Unless a majority vote "No" on questions 2, 3 and 4 the Ontario Temperance Act will become almost worthless.
5. The only SAFE course is to mark your ballot as shown above.

"No!"—Four Times—"No!"

No repeal; No government beer shops; No beer saloons; No government whiskey shops.—Four X's, each under the word "No."

C. N. R. EXPRESS MEN TO GET OVERTIME ON A RETROACTIVE BASIS

TORONTO, Oct. 14.—By an award of a board of conciliation, of which Mr. Justice Metcalfe was chairman, the employes of the Canadian Northern Railway Express Company will receive overtime from Sept. 1, 1918, until the eight-hour day was put into effect. The men claimed that when the schedule went into force it was retroactive until Sept. 1, 1918, and asked for overtime for the four concluding months of 1918. By a mutual agreement a committee representing the men and the company will travel over the system and adjust the claim in each locality after an inspection of the books.

DIVORCES GRANTED IN HUNGARY UNDER SOVIET WILL BE INVALIDATED

BUDAPEST, Monday, Oc. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Hungarian Government has issued a decree invalidating all divorces granted under the regime of the soviet, during which period very liberal divorce legislation was put into effect. The only divorces not invalidated by the decree are those in which remarriage of one or both parties has taken place.

TORONTO WOMAN PRAISES TANLAC

Mrs. Emma Benson Says Results She Has Derived Have Been Marvelous.

"Tanlac certainly has proved to be one of the best friends I ever had," said Mrs. Emma Benson of 683 Runnymede road, West Toronto, Ontario.

"I had been in a badly rundown condition for a long time," she continued, "suffering from neuralgia and such terrible headaches that I would have to go to bed and stay there for days at a time. My nerves were shattered, and I would lie awake at night for hours before I could get to sleep, then often I would wake up feeling so weak and nervous that I would faint dead away. I was completely worn out and was simply miserable all the time.

"My husband had been relieved of stomach trouble by taking Tanlac, so I decided to try it myself, and now that terrible neuralgia is completely gone. I haven't had a headache since I started on Tanlac, my nerves are quiet and I sleep like a baby. That tired feeling has passed away, and I am stronger and better in every way than I have been in a long time."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

Eight Vassar Girls Head Five-Act Vaudeville Bill At The Grand Today. John Barrymore in the Photoplay, Raffles.

The Eight Vassar Girls are the headline attraction on the vaudeville bill to be presented for the last time today. William H. Macart and Ethelynne Bradford are a versatile team who present a thoroughly pleasing comedy offering. Fred Gill and Frances Venk have a highly amusing sketch entitled "Help Yourself." Jack George is a blackface artist who offers an original and ludicrously funny monologue. Violet and Lewis in a novelty aerial offering conclude the vaudeville bill.

John Barrymore appears at the Grand for the last time today as "Raffles," the amateur-cracksman, in the screen version of E. W. Hornung's novel and stage play. The story of "Raffles" is almost too well known to invite description. The action starts on a steamship where "Raffles," posing as a count, gains the information through Mrs. Vidal, a society leader, that a priceless pearl is in the possession of a certain man on the boat. Raffles cleverly steals it, jumps overboard and swims ashore, but is seen by Mrs. Vidal. The rest of the story revolves around Raffles' clever elusion of the detectives and of his subsequent getaway after returning the stolen jewels.

Mutt and Jeff's Dream At The Grand Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Once again those two humorists, "Mutt and Jeff," will be seen and heard at the Grand Tomorow, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15, and Saturday matinee at 2:30.

This time they appear as seekers after fame and fortune, their adventures taking place in the "Land of Dreams." These two cartoon characters quickly make their way to the heart of the kiddies and grown-ups, where they indugle in all sorts of sidesplitting capers and escapades, with the result that their antics and frolics arouse incessant and wholesome laughter from the opening to the final curtain. The action is punctuated with the lastest song hits, ensembles, dance feature novelties, surprises, screams, rib-tickling bits, and revelry, without the semblance of any lulls or monotonous moments. A pretty and fascinating chorus, attired in captivating array have been engaged. Seats now on sale.

At the Majestic

Sennett's Beauties and "Jack Canuck In Berlin" Still Drawing Great Crowds To Majestic.

It has been many months, indeed, that London has had such a popular attraction as is now playing at the Majestic. Sennett's stunning bathing beauties have created a delightful interest. "Jack Canuck In Berlin," the comedy, has also set the whole town laughing. Those few who have not yet seen the attraction, and those who have not yet seen the girls and the picture, today and tomorrow are the last opportunities you will have of seeing it. The charming young beauties, in their more than charming bathing costumes delighted the audiences yesterday and Monday. There is a little two-reel picture which is a prologue to the act, which also should be mentioned. This is of a series of scenes of all Mack Sennett beauties taken at Santo Monica on the beaches, and pictures the girls in the water. If you have any doubt of their ability to swim you must see this picture. "Jack Canuck In Berlin," is a most splendid, laughable comedy. It is a big five-part caricature on a certain William Hohenzollern, and the adventures of a Canadian aviator disguised as a vampire, after some important information from the German general headquarters.

DOUBLE SHOW AT MAJESTIC FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Friday and Saturday at the Majestic will be the occasion of a big double program. Wallace Reid in "The Valley of the Giants" will be shown, and a big special Christie comedy "Rowdy Ann," featuring that marvelous beauty of sparkling vivacity. A new feature in pictures will also be shown, a screen magazine showing the private life of many famous movie stars, their habits and hobbies, and many interesting glimpses behind the scenes at the big studios.

"The Valley of the Giants" is a love story with a thrill, a real out-of-doors romance, with the man forced to fight for that which is rightly his. True to the memory of his mother, with the brawn and brains of his giant father, and inspired by the love of one of the sweetest girls of the world, you have the sort of picture which grips your heart, thrills your blood and leaves you with a great feeling of contentment and satisfaction that all the romance is not dead yet.

"The Valley of the Giants" was a huge success as a novel, written by Peter B. Kyne at his best, it is a story of the Californian redwood forests. Wallace Reid was never shown to better advantage in any picture than as the virile young son of this land of strong men.

At the Patricia

GEORGE WALSH AT THE PATRICIA

No comedian of the films gives more pleasure to an audience than George Walsh. His inimitable antics on the screen are always enjoyed, and in "Putting One Over" there is sentiment and romance enough to make the picture a really enjoyable one. His impersonations in this undoubtedly clever film story completely captures his audiences. The mystery in this picture is intricate and interesting, and is worked out with skill and precision. "The Honorable Cad" with Julia Dean is also an artistic story of intrigue, while the vaudeville act of "The Melody Maids" completes a bill that has already packed the Patricia.

ALICE JOYCE APPEARING IN "THE WINCHESTER WOMAN" AT THE PATRICIA THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

A demonstration of the latest methods employed by coroners in the investigation of mystery receives visual treatment in the late Vitagraph picture "The Winchester Woman." This subject, presenting Alice Joyce in the stellar role, will be seen at the Patricia on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The new form of inquest proceeding as shown here, consists of merely an informal discussion between the coroner and a group of representative citizens. According to the laws of New York, in the Long Island district of which the story is laid, it is no longer necessary for the coroner to impanel a regular jury and hold a formal inquest in the case of mysterious death. He merely calls together as many representative citizens and persons having knowledge of the surroundings of the case, as he choses, and discusses the matter, reaching his own opinion.

DOUBLE BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

"Danderine" creates mass of thick, gleamy waves

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the "Danderine" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed.

Let "Danderine" put more life, color, vigor, and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair, and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.
