Some of the above homes have garages.

100,000 FACTORY WORKERS IN DETROIT IDLE TODAY THROUGH COAL SHORTAGE

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 7.—Approximately 100,000 factory workers will be idle here tomorrow, the first day of a half-time working schedule adopted by a number of the larger manufacturing plants as a coal conservation measure. The number is expected to reach 200,000 by the middle of the week, unless strike developments at Indianapolis Tuesday warrant use of fuel reserves until normal production of coal is resumed.

Factories in other Michigan cities are similarly affected with no reserves or supplies for only two or three days.

The possible resignation of the viceroy is talked about.

"Notables of County Clare, including H. V. MacNamara, who was shot at last Thursday while on a hunting trip in the Carron district, have joined in a popular complaint to the Government against the stopping of county fairs and markets and requested it to remove the restrictions."
