JUNE WEDDINGS

Weston-Retallick.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Retallick, 215 Ludlow street, Carleton, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Winnifred Retallick, became the wife of Bruce Vernon Weston, son of Capt. R. H. Weston, of the S. S. May Queen. The parlors were very prettily decorated for the happy event, which was witnessed by relatives and immediate friends. The bride wore a very pretty wedding gown of white silk ninon over duchess lace, and carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. H. Sampson, rector of St. George's Church, there was a reception and Mr. and Mrs. Weston left last evening on a honeymoon trip to Washington and other American cities. On their return they will take up their residence for the summer at Oromocto. Both the bride and groom are very popular young people and hosts of friends showed their interest in the happy event by useful and beautiful remembrances. The groom's gift was a substantial check.

Whitebone-Gaulton.

St. Paul's Valley Church was the scene of a very pretty event on Monday evening at 7.30, when Rev. E. B. Hooper united in marriage Allan A. Whitebone and Miss Elizabeth Gaulton, daughter of George B. Gaulton, chief engineer of the Cornwall and York cotton mills. On account of the recent death of the bride's mother, the ceremony was conducted as quietly as possible. There was a large congregation in the church to witness the wedding. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who subsequently gave her away. As the party passed up the aisle, the organist, T. Percy Bourne, played a wedding march. The bride was prettily costumed in white and wore a long bridal veil, carrying a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. Immediately following the ceremony a reception for a few intimate friends was held in the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Whitebone will reside for the present at the corner of Meadow and Forest streets. There was a very large number of useful and costly presents received.

Horne-Howard.

Carmarthen street Methodist church was crowded at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, when Rev. T. J. Deinstadt united in marriage Mr. Walker Torrence Horne and Miss Edith Edna Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Howard. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with lilacs and apple blossoms. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Jessie L. Howard, was dressed in a very becoming costume of white, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her bridesmaid was in pink silk. The groomsman was Mr. James R. Thorne. The full choir was present, and assisted in the ceremony. Mr. John H. Bullock presided at the organ, and played the wedding march. Following the church ceremony, there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Carmarthen street. Mr. and Mrs. Horne have gone to Woodstock on their honeymoon. The wedding remembrances from friends were both numerous and beautiful.

Holbrook-Brookfield.

Halifax, June 18.—The marriage took place this morning in Grafton street Methodist church of Edith Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Brookfield and Prof. Elmer A. Holbrook, of the Technical college. Miss Brookfield, who was given away by her father, wore a tailored suit of grey cloth, with a hat of light straw trimmed with burnt orange velvet and tiny rosebuds of the same color, her bouquet being a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Brookfield, wearing a tailored suit of a light tan color white hat trimmed with pink roses, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Immediately after the ceremony, Professor and Mrs. Holbrook left for the wedding trip, proposing to spend the honeymoon in the states.

Stilwell-Williams.

Miss Nellie A. Williams, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Williams, was united in marriage to Bayard Stilwell last evening at 8.30 o'clock, at her residence, 146 Durham street. Rev. David Hutchinson, D.D., officiated at the service. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white satin, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations. She was given away by her brother, Warren W. Williams. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. The young couple were unattended. They will reside at 179 Waterloo street. The popular young couple were the recipients of a large number of magnificent presents among which was a cut glass water pitcher, which was presented to the bride by the members of the Main street Baptist church choir. The groom received a beautiful Morris chair from his fellow employes in Barnes and Co. An uncle of the bride, John W. Williams, of Tacoma, Washington, sent a substantial cheque.

Paikowsky-Gilbert.

Last evening at 6.30 o'clock, Miss Harriet Gilbert, daughter of Harris Gilbert, was united in marriage to J. C. Paikowsky, of Waterville, Me. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, Union street. The bride, who was given away by her father, was costumed in a magnificent dress of white duchess satin, trimmed with duchess lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were the Misses Gertrude and Eva Paikowsky, sisters of the groom. Both wore very pretty dresses of light blue chiffon over silk, and carried bouquets of pink roses. Miss Bessie Gilbert, sister of the bride acted as the maid of honor. She wore a beautiful dress of white silk, trimmed with duchess lace. Joseph Gilbert, brother of the bride, was the best man. Little Miss Ada Weber, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was costumed in white and carried a basket of white roses. Following the ceremony, a bounteous supper was served. The happy couple will leave on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia including the Annapolis Valley. They will reside at Waterville, Maine. The home of the bride was artistically decorated for the occasion. Among the large number of guests, both from this city and from other cities present at the wedding were Ernest Gilbert of Winnipeg, formerly of this city; the groom's parents, his two sisters, the Misses Gertrude and Eva, and his two brothers Hyman and Isadore, and Hyman Weber, of Digby, N. S.

McDonald-McWhinney.

Kindersley, Sask., June 10.—A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church, Saskatoon, Wednesday, June 5th, when Rev. W. C. Clark united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Jennie A., eldest daughter of W. J. McWhinney, of Fairfield St. John Co., N. B., to J. Norman McDonald, of Kindersley, Sask.

The young couple received many handsome and useful presents. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome watch and chain.

After arriving from Saskatoon they will reside at Kindersley.

Foster-Skinner, Skinner-Gallop.

Birch Ridge, June 17.—St. Bartholmew church, Birch Ridge, Vic. Co., N. B., was the scene of an unusually pretty double-wedding, when Miss Jennie M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Skinner, was united in marriage to William Foster, of England, and Miss Edna E., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gallop, to Chas. Skinner, of Birch Ridge.

The brides entered the church leaning on the arms of their fathers, to the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march beautifully rendered by G. M. Sutthery.

The Misses Iva Gallop and Florence Skinner were bridesmaids, while the grooms were supported by Richard Skinner and Henry Gallop, Jr.

The brides looked very charming in silk marquisette voile with veils and orange blossoms, each carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses.

Rev. H. T. Buckland, of Fredericton, N. B., performed the ceremony.

The ushers were Harry Skinner and Leigh Campbell.

A reception was held at the home of H. A. Gallop, where both bridal parties participated. A luncheon was served to seventy-five guests by ten little girls attired in white.

The brides received many costly gifts of cut glass, silver, China, linen, and furniture. The grooms' presents to the brides were substantial checks; to the bridesmaids pearl pendants. A feature of the happy event was the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Buxton and little son, Mylard, of England, Mrs. Buxton being the youngest sister of Mrs. Gallop.

REV. DR. FLANDERS GOES TO FAIRVILLE

Fredericton, June 18.—At the closing session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference held last evening, the report of the vote on church union, as taken recently in the Methodist churches of the conferences and tabulated during the session of the conference, was made. It showed that Methodists voted almost 10 to 1 in favor of the proposed union with the Presbyterian and Congregational churches. Following is a summary of the vote in the conference:

Members of official boards—Yes, 1,107; No, 192.

Members 18 years and over—Yes, 7,003; no, 1,160.

Members under 18 years—Yes, 498; No, 81.

Adherents—Yes, 2,879; No, 427.

Totals—Yes, 11,487; No, 1,860.

Some 9,000 qualified voters refrained from casting any ballot on this question.

The conference stationing committee did not make any change in arrangement with reference to the Centenary and Fairville churches. Rev. Dr. Flanders will be the Fairville pastor and Rev. Mr. Ross is given charge of Centenary for the coming year. What changes will be made next year when Rev. Dr. Flanders goes back to upper Canada remain to be seen.
