MASSED BAND WILL PLAY "O CANADA"

People in Queen's Park Are Asked To Sing Anthem Tonight.

The massed bands will play "O Canada," and the committee of the Canadian Order of Foresters ask the public to join in the anthem at the coronation in Queen's Park tonight:

"O Canada."

O Canada, our home, our native land,
True patriot love thou dost in us command.
We see thee rising fair, dear land, the true north, strong and free;
And stand on guard, O Canada; we stand on guard for thee.

Chorus:

O Canada, O Canada,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, where pines and maples grow,
Great prairies spread and lordly rivers flow,
Thou art the land, O Canada, from east to western sea,
The land of hope for all who toil, the land of liberty.

O Canada, beneath thy shining skies,
May stalwart sons and gentle maidens rise,
And so abide, O Canada, from east to western skies,
Wherever thy pines and prairies are, the true north strong and free.

WOULDN'T AID P. C. GIVEN TWO MONTHS

Montreal Man Punished for Refusing to Help Make Arrest.

Montreal, June 21.—Two months in jail for refusing to aid a policeman in effecting an arrest was the sentence handed out to Elzear Goulet by Judge Leet today.

Yesterday afternoon a constable attempted to take Jos. Johnson, charged with highway robbery, into custody, and a fierce fight ensued. The constable called on bystanders to assist him, and Goulet then shouted "Don't do it. What do you think he's here for? Let him handle his own affairs himself."

Disregarding the advice, however, lookers-on went to the policeman's help, and Johnson was finally subdued.

CLASS OF 1911 RECEIVE MEDALS

Graduation Exercises Held Yesterday in St. Joseph's Hospital.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

His Lordship Pointed Out the Great Responsibilities of a Nurse, and the Need For Constant Study.

At a strictly private graduation exercise, held in St. Joseph's Hospital, yesterday afternoon, the class of 1911 received their medals and diplomas from Bishop Fallon. The graduates, Misses Julia King, Anastasia Dettinger, Agnes McDonald, Lea Hardy, Phoebe O'Leary, Eva Brady, Gertie McCue, Amy McFie and Mary McGuire, were introduced to his lordship by Father Valentine, who complimented the nurses on having reached that period when they were to receive their diplomas and go out into the world and put into practice the work that for four years they had been studying so faithfully.

Their work, he assured them, was the noblest that any woman could undertake, and he urged them always to be true to their profession and do their duties in the most efficient manner possible.

Bishop's Address.

Bishop Fallon gave the young ladies of the graduating class a practical talk. He assured them that their work, instead of being ended, was only just beginning. After four years of hard and faithful study, they were about to take up their life-work in earnest, and upon themselves alone depended their future. He urged them all to show unremitting kindness and care to every sick person that they might be called upon to attend, and told them that their service would bring its own rich rewards.

His lordship pointed out the need of studying steadily in order that they might keep up with the progress that is continually being made in the various branches of surgery.

At the conclusion of his address he presented each nurse with her diploma and a medal.

The nurses, standing in a body, thanked his lordship for the honor he had done them by presenting them with their medals and diplomas, and also for his kind words.

A Social Evening.

Last evening the class of 1911 were the guests of the graduates of former years in St. Peter's Hall, and a most enjoyable social evening was spent at the reception held in their honor.

Everywhere, the colors, white and gold, were in evidence, and the reception rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, flowers and bunting. During the evening games of cards were played, and later a dance was held in the big hall, which was most tastefully decorated.

A splendid programme of music was rendered by the Tony Cortese orchestra, and the graduates, the former graduates and a large number of their friends enjoyed the dance.

FORD IS AFRAID HE WILL HURT OTHERS

New York, June 21.—The lack of effectiveness of Russell Ford, the star Highlander twirler, in the last few games, is explained by his teammates as coming from worry over hitting Shortstop Corhan, of the White Sox, in the neck two weeks ago. Corhan was in a serious condition for several days, and Ford actually lost sleep over the unfortunate affair. Now, it is said, he is afraid to cut loose.

NEW STREET LIGHTS TONIGHT

Ornamental System Will Be in Use for the First Time.

BULBS TO BE REMOVED

Work Will Now Be Rushed on the Ornamental System for Victoria Park.

The new ornamental street lighting system will be used tonight.

Last evening Superintendent Glaubitz and his staff went over all the lights and tested them, finding everything in first-class order.

The value of the lighting was very apparent when the energy was turned on, but Mr. Glaubitz did not leave them on sufficiently long to give the citizens an idea of their brilliancy. As soon as the test showed that everything was in perfect order, he had them switched off.

There will be some ceremonies in connection with the inauguration. At 8 o'clock Chairman Pocock, Mayor Beattie and the commissioners will meet at the city hall, and will turn on the different switches that will connect the various districts.

There are four of these sections. One is at the corner of King and Richmond, another at Carling and Richmond, a third at Dundas and Talbot, and the fourth at Dundas and Clarence. Every night they will be turned on by the "trouble man" of the electrical department.

String Bulbs To Be Removed.

The strings of bulbs that have been doing service on the down-town streets since Dec. 1 will be removed. In fact, one of them has already been removed and placed in Queen's Park. It will form part of the decorations for the Foresters' demonstration tonight.

It is probable that the others will be utilized in Queen's Park also in connection with the lighting the grounds at fair time.

Work will be commenced at once on the ornamental posts for Victoria Park. Superintendent Glaubitz has worked out a design, and it will be adopted.

A model has been given to the contractors in the city, and prices are being obtained as to the cost. The lights will be fed from underground cables. These will not be placed in conduits, as on Richmond and Dundas streets, but will be lead-covered cable placed a foot or two underground. Wherever this system has been tried it has worked out most successfully.

MACK GETS PRIZE COLLEGE PITCHER

Lester Long, Lafayette No-Hit Twirler, Captured by Athletics.

Philadelphia, June 21.—Lester Long, who is one of the striking young collegians of the year in the pitching line, will join his brethren of the Mackmen tomorrow, the latest addition to the corps of hurlists, for whom Connie Mack's scouts are scouring the country. The latest Mackman is a Summit, N. J., lad, and as a twirler of Lafayette broke into the select class of those who refuse to permit their antagonists either a hit or a run.

It was against Pennsylvania that Long turned his heetic trick, and he has been the sensation of the year at the Easton institution. Long twirled his final game for his alma mater when he took the South Orange club into custody, giving the latter organization but six hits after sending fifteen of the batsmen over the wahff route.

Several of the big league teams were angling for the boy, but he was snared by the thin Tlogan.

ANOTHER AUTO DRIVER KILLED

Walter Donnelly Goes Through Fence at Milwaukee, Fracturing His Skull.

Milwaukee, June 21.—Walter Donnelly, of Cincinnati, driving a Cino car in a 50-mile automobile race at State Fair Park, was killed today when his car ran into a fence. Donnelly's skull was fractured against a post. He died in a hospital.

Donnelly was making the turn at the three-quarters post of the 40th mile, when a tire came off the rear right wheel, causing the machine to skid. A dozen machines made a great cloud of dust at that point, and officials believe this prevented Donnelly from righting his machine so as to avoid the fence.

At the time of the accident Donnelly's wife was sitting in the grand stand, holding her baby and watching the race. She had just told a friend that her husband had never met with an accident in all his automobile racing.

San Francisco, June 21—Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight, is so confident of victory over Matty Baldwin when they meet here next Friday night, that he has agreed to fight Champion Wolgast for $10,000 a side before the club offering the best inducements. Welsh's defy was accepted yesterday by Tom Jones, Wolgast's manager, and certified checks of $1,000 each were posted today to bind the match. Should Welsh or Wolgast meet defeat in their coming fights with Baldwin and Moran, respectively, the proposed match will be cancelled.

Wolgast has been preparing himself in Southern California for his fight with Owen Moran.

BURGLARS RAID DOZEN DWELLINGS

Enter Houses in New Jersey While the Occupants Are Absent.

Newark, June 22.—Burglars romped through nearly a dozen dwelling houses in Roselle Park during the past 24 hours and apparently got as much fun as plunder out of it. They cleaned up in all what is estimated to aggregate $2,000 worth, all from houses, by a coincidence, in which graduates of the high school, which had its commencement in the evening, are residents.

The burglars appeared to get their fun out of transferring wearing apparel and small objects from one house to another, and in raids on pantries. One banker, for instance, woke up to gaze on the trousers of his neighbor, a lawyer, and the lawyer found a pocketbook belonging to his family physician among his own rifled effects. Silver spoons, small pieces of jewelry, revolvers, clothing and cash made up the booty. Policeman Maddon, who was out hunting burglars, was himself one of the victims, for his house was ransacked in its turn.

Delegates Are Off Today on a Two-Days' Excursion.

Toronto, June 21.—The business sessions of the Canadian Press Association were concluded today, and the members will leave tomorrow morning for the two-days' excursion, which brings the annual meeting to a close. Then they take the Northern Navigation steamer Waubic for Parry Sound, where after dinner at the Belvidere, they transfer to the steamers Germanic and Majestic for the night. Tomorrow they journey to Collingwood by boat, and, after spending the day there as the guests of the town council, they will return to Toronto in the evening.

SPEEDS THE NAGS ON HORSE CARS

Aged Driver Is Fined in New York for an Unwonted Burst of Speed.

New York, June 22.—John Scott, who has been driving horse cars for 46 years, appeared in the Tombs court yesterday, charged with speeding.

"One moment," said Magistrate Corrigan to Gillis, of the traffic squad, "did I understand you to say speeding—speeding horse car horses? Where did this atrocious offense take place?"

"At Broadway and Duane street last evening," replied the policeman. "The plugs attached to his old yellow car were tearing along and endangering pedestrians. 'Twas a strange sight."

"Undoubtedly," agreed Judge Corrigan. "Scott, what have you to say in answer to this formidable accusation?"

The driver, who is 73 years old, assured the magistrate that Gillis must have been mistaken. He seemed quite upset.

"Been drivin' 40 years, and this is the first time anybody ever got me into court," said he.

"Well," said the judge, shaking his head. "Only your gray hairs save you, Scott. You are guilty of an almost unbelievable crime, of an unheard-of outrage against the citizens of this commonwealth. Scores, yes, hundreds, might have been shocked to death at the sight. I will be merciful. One dollar."

"I'm danged if I know what was the matter with that policeman," said Scott. "Then old nags of mine haven't moved out of a slow trot for twelve years. In 1902 they ran away through Chambers street, but they were caught at sundown in West Broadway."
