INTERMEDIATE LAWN TENNIS.

Another Victory for Varsity Students Will Likely Get the Championship.

What will probably prove to have been the decisive match in the contest for the Intermediate League championship was played on Varsity's courts yesterday afternoon, when Cork (Rusholme) was defeated by Dr. Needler (Varsity II.) in the ninth event by 6—2, 4—6, 7—5. It was anyone's game until the last stroke, and Cork was but eight aces behind in an hour and a half's play. Though playing on the enemy's courts, and with only one or two club mates present to help him out, he played coolly and consistently, and no one could have done better under the circumstances. Varsity now leads the league, with a reasonable probability of winning the championship. The students have still to meet Osgoode Hall, St. Matthew's and Canada, but they are in no danger, except from the other students at Osgoode, who have to play on Varsity's courts on Aug. 13. Varsity has so far lost only a single match (the return with T.A.C. II.), while all the other clubs have been beaten twice or oftener.

The full team of Osgoode, say Sharpe, Langton, Smellie, Medd, McLaughlin and Langley, would make it interesting for any team Varsity could put on the field, and an exciting time may be looked for when the two clubs meet. A win by Osgoode would mean a tie between them—T.A.C. II. and Varsity II.—and extra matches would be necessary to determine the lead. Mr. Chris Campbell has taken charge of Varsity's team the last few weeks, and is entitled to great credit for getting and holding his men together at this season of the year.

Singles—Moore (R) beat Paterson (V) 7—5, 6—3, 9—7. Peppal (R) beat Dingman (V) 6—4, 6—3. Dr. Needler (V) beat Cork (R) 6—2, 4—6, 7—5. Pardoe (V) beat Dr. Pearson 6—1, 7—5. Battle (V) beat Hart 6—0, 7—5. Sheffield (R) beat Sellery 10—8, 6—0.

Doubles—Moore and Peppal beat Dr. Needler and Paterson 2—6, 6—4, 6—3. Dingman and Pardo beat Fearson and Cork 6—1, 6—3. Sellery and Battle beat Hart and Sheffield 6—2, 6—2.

Regatta Drawing Near.

Now that the time for the regatta is drawing near each of the different clubhouses in Toronto present a busy sight. At the Argonauts the eight and the big four are doing good work, and should make a good showing. Charlie Goldman has greatly improved since the National Regatta, and will put up a great race in the singles. The Torontos and Dons are also fast getting their men in trim. With the oarsmen in Toronto there should be little difficulty of keeping the banners here.

Before the Breeze.

A cablegram from London, Eng., says The Times announced yesterday that the Royal Ulster Yacht Club has arranged to challenge for the America's Cup. The New York Yacht Club will be notified of the decision immediately.

The regular monthly meeting of the Queen City Yacht Club will be held in the club parlors to-night. A full attendance of members is requested, as business of importance concerning the coming regatta will be transacted.

Canada, Vivia, Vreda and Merrythought, four of the Toronto representatives which were at Kingston, are now at their buoys in front of the R.C.Y.C. They left Kingston Wednesday, and, after cruising to several points on the lake, called at Cobourg for the Saturday night hop, and yesterday morning left for home.

Mr. Jameson's yawl Ailsa is making a record for herself, now that her run of illluck seems to have been terminated. She distinguished herself during the Clyde fortnight, beating her old rival, the Duc d'Abruzzi's cutter Bona, by a substantial lead, both at the Royal Northern Regatta, when there was scarcely enough wind to drift a feather, and at the Campbelltown regatta, where a stiff breeze made the yachts go around the course in record time.

Rowing Ripples.

On Wednesday night, at the T.A.C., there will be a meeting of the Reception Committee of the C.A.A.O. In all likelihood, this will be the last chance to hold a meeting before the regatta, and a full attendance is requested at 8 p.m.

The Don Rowing Club's annual fall races will take place Aug. 27. There will be prizes for fours, singles, swimming and a tub competition. The Brockville oarsmen will arrive for the regatta to-morrow, and will be the guests of the Dons.

Secretary William C. Jupp of the Northwestern Amateur Rowing Association has announced the following as the number of entries for the respective events for the coming Northwestern Regatta at Toronto, Aug. 10 and 11, as follows: Single sculls, junior, 4; single sculls, senior, 7; pair-oared shells, senior, 2; pair-oared shells, junior, 2; double sculls, junior, 2; double sculls, senior, 2; four-oared shells, junior, 7; four-oared shells, senior, 5; four-oared gigs, 2; tandem canoes, 2; single canoes, 3.

McDuffie Beat Taylore.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 1.—McDuffie defeated Taylore to-night by two-thirds of a lap in 25 miles. Time 34.56. McDuffie breaks all world's records the 20th mile by 22 1-5 seconds.

TORONTO TOOK THE RUBBER.

Pop Williams Started a Rally With the Stick in the Ninth.

Six Runs Put the Islanders Two Ahead and They Stayed There — Hemming Held the Irwinites Down to Two Hits for 8 Innings, While Suthoff Was Touched Up Moderately by the Ponies.

Toronto took three of the five games just finished with Springfield, but at the end of the eighth innings it looked as if the Ponies would take the rubber. Manager Barnie has a well-balanced team, and everyone wonders how they dropped that straight bunch in Montreal. Gilbert, who showed up last week at the Island as the weakest hitter in the league, has been released, and Catcher Shea, late of Brockton, signed. Nichols held down third only second to Casey. The scene shifts around to-morrow, with Syracuse at the Island, Wilkes-Barre at Montreal, Springfield at Buffalo, and Providence at Ottawa, and if the Barons only do their duty the Islanders will lead the league before Saturday night. The record:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Montreal	44	34	.564
Toronto	45	39	.536
Wilkes-Barre	40	35	.533
Buffalo	46	41	.528
Syracuse	41	40	.506
Ottawa	39	45	.464
Springfield	34	42	.447
Providence	33	46	.417

Games to-day: None scheduled.

Pulled It Out of the Fire.

Toronto pulled yesterday's game out of the fire in the ninth innings, after everyone thought it was lost. The score was 6 to 2. Toronto made up the deficiency and two over by two bases on balls, two stolen bases on balls, a sacrifice and one error. Up to the ninth there were only two hits off Hemming, Freeman's homer in the fourth and a single by Casey in the eighth. Williams, who batted for Suthoff, was the hero of the day by starting the batting after the first two up in the ninth had walked. Hemming gave eight bases on balls, three of which grew to runs. The game had a peculiar start. Hemming filled the bases on balls, Casey going out on a sacrifice that was not needed. Freeman's grounder to Gleason scored one run, and Gatins' fly to Bannon retired the side. Two Ponies retired without ado. Then Green and Massey hit safely to right field, and Bannon's walk filled the bases. Shea sent an easy grounder to Gatins, who fielded cleanly, but stumbled around, and, after a balk, threw low to Beaumont, and the runner was safe and a run in. Reilly singled to centrefield for two more. Gleason retired short to first.

Gatins had three more errors all in a row in the fifth. After Massey retired second to first he fumbled Bannon's bounder. Next he threw Shea's grounder to the track for one run, Shea being caught at the plate, and a muff of Reilly's fly was the third. Taylor threw Gleason out at first.

Freeman's homer over the fence in the sixth, after two were out, was Toronto's first hit and second run of the game. Toronto filled the bases in the eighth. Grey walked. Hannivan flew to Green. Casey singled to centre. Gleason made a splendid stop of Beaumont's grass-cutter and two were out. Hemming used good judgment by deliberately pitching Freeman four bad balls. Gatins had a great chance to redeem himself, but only sent a short fly to right. The loyal fans were rooting vigorously and their hearts sank when the innings went for naught. The grand stand gloom was worse when the Ponies plucked a brace in their half, and made the game look lost. They did it on clean hitting—singles by Reilly, Nichols, Dolan and Green, with Gleason's sacrifice.

The crowd stood up to go home, and all sat down when Snyder and Taylor walked to first on bad balls. Williams was applauded when he stepped up to bat for Suthoff. He promptly lined out a single to centre, and one run was in. Grey hit another to the same spot, and Taylor crossed the plate. Nichols missed Bannon's throw, and Williams scored, Grey going to second. Hannivan singled to right and Grey scored. Hannivan stole second on the throw to the plate. Casey bunted safely, and allowed himself to be caught between first and second for Hannivan to run home, and put Toronto one ahead. Beaumont sacrificed, and Casey stole on to third. Freeman sent out a fly so far that Bannon didn't try to stop Casey at the plate. Gatins ended it all with a fly to Green.

In Springfield's half Bannon retired on an ugly grounder to Casey. Shea put up a fly for Taylor. Reilly hit safely. Dolan batted for Gleason and cracked out a liner that Williams stopped with his gloved hand and the game was over. Score:

Baseball Brevities.

The Athletics want to arrange a game for Saturday with the Trinitys, Regents, Pastimes, Standards or Independents. Address 17 Brant-street.

The Young Elms would like to arrange a game for Civic Holiday morning, average age 13 years. Address G. Henry, 193 Centre-avenue.

The Ambrose Kent Baseball Club journeyed out to Weston Saturday to play the return match with the Weston club, and won by 27 to 7. The features were Brown's clever base running and also the batting for the winning club. After the game the clubs had supper at the Eagle House, and a pleasant evening was spent.

Stratford played two games of baseball at home yesterday with the Bain team of Woodstock. The visitors were the victors in the morning game by 6 to 1. Stratford won the afternoon game by 14 to 4.

The East Toronto Baseball Club would like to have a practice game on Thursday evening next with either the Kew Beach or Balmy Beach teams. Telephone 2226. They would also like to arrange a match for Saturday afternoon with the Pastimes of the city.

The Silver Greys have organized for the season with the following officers. President F Chantler; manager, W Brereton; secretary, H Holland; treasurer, D Patterson; captain, Fitzroy. They would like to arrange a game with some outside team average age 16 years, for Civic Holiday. Address H. Holland, 89 Palmerston-avenue.

The Capitals Baseball Club will hold a meeting to-night in Jesse Ketchum Park for the purpose of making arrangements for their game in Walkerton on the Holiday. All players are requested to be on hand.

The Orioles II. would like to arrange a game with some outside team on Civic Holiday, average age 13 years. Hamilton, Whitby or Oshawa preferred. Apply A. Davis, 124 Markham-street, Toronto.

The Wilkes-Barre Record answers a question thusly: Bucky Freeman was a member of the Washington club, in the employ of J. Earle Wagner, in the National League in 1892, the first year of the 12-club circuit. He pitched six games for Washington, winning one each from Cincinnati and Pittsburg, losing one each to Brooklyn, Chicago, Cincinnati and Baltimore. His arm became injured and cut short his pitching career, and then he developed into the splendid batting outfielder that he is to-day.

Outfielder White of Buffalo ought to make a good man for Boston. He is remarkably fast in his outer garden exhibitions. Selee is thinking of drafting him.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

The man who gets into an argument with the genial Doescher gets the worst of it. There was a man on the stand yesterday yelling at him and making himself generally conspicuous. It just took "Doesh" five words to turn the laugh on him. "What are you anyway," yelled Doesh, "a lacrosse player?" It was cruel.—Montreal Herald.

The Athenaeum Baseball Club will practice to-night at the Island leaving Yonge-street by the 6.20 boat.

The Elms are open for challenges for Saturday Aug. 6, also Civic Holiday. Orioles II., Dukes II., Young Resolutes, Roseberry Clippers preferred. Average age 14 years. Address W. Carson, 224 Chestnut-street.

Results of the Races at Saratoga—Imperator Won the Handicap.

Saratoga, Aug. 1.—Inclement weather affected the grand stand attendance at the Saratoga track, but there was a large number of persons in the free field which was thrown open to the public to-day. The racing was of the usual order. In the fourth race, following a tedious delay, the horses got away to a poor start, Imperator gaining a big advantage, while Sir Vassar and Poetess were almost left at the post.
