JOSEPH G. HURST HANGED.

Alleged Murderer in Montana Declared on the Scaffold That He Was Innocent.

Glendive, Mont., March 30.—Joseph C. Hurst was executed in the jail yard here today for the murder of Sheriff Cavanaugh. In reply to a question by Sheriff Aiken, Hurst, while on the scaffold, said:

"It's all a mistake; I am innocent."

Outside the walls scores of men awaited news of the execution, it being freely stated that a reprieve would result in a lynching.

Hurst and Cavanaugh were respectively Republican and Democratic candidates for sheriff in 1898, the latter being elected by a small plurality. Shortly afterwards Cavanaugh was assassinated in an alley. Hurst being appointed sheriff by the county commissioners. Hurst was convicted on circumstantial evidence and a sensational fight for his life has been made.

Balmoral Castle.

Among the many big hotels, particularly the first-class ones in Montreal, The Balmoral, conducted by Archie Welsh, a clever young Scotchman, whose name in that city is synonymous with everything honorable and fair, is certainly a wonder for the rates which they quote, moderate, indeed, when one learns of the different features about this house, which none of its competitors offer the public. A free 'bus service to and from all trains and boats; a cafe open day and night, run a-la-carte, where you can get most anything you wish to eat; also the fact that this hotel, being operated on both American and European plans, is a want much appreciated by the up-to-date traveling public. Then, again, the location and surroundings of The Balmoral are quite a good thing in its favor, being located near to Victoria-square, Notre Dame Cathedral, and many of the most historical spots in Montreal, also near to McGill-street, the main artery of the city's commercial life, in close touch with nearly all the large wholesale and retail firms, it makes The Balmoral the real place for mercantile men, tourists and family parties. The Balmoral is equipped with all the latest fire preventives. The only hotel in that city having fire stairways on both back and front of the building, also the steel armored conduit system of electric wiring and lighting, which is one of the greatest fire preventives in the world. In patronizing this hotel, we are confident everyone will more than get their money's worth.

DYSPEPSIA vs. CONSUMPTION

Frequently Deceive the Doctors By Their Similarity.

Men Have Died With Dyspepsia, Thinking They Had Consumption—The Safest and Surest Course to Follow is to Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many a man has been killed by fear. Many a man has fretted himself to death. Many a man has gone to his grave, supposedly a victim of Consumption, whose complaint was neither more nor less than Dyspepsia.

Consumption bears such a close similarity to certain forms of Dyspepsia, that it is easy and natural to mistake one for the other. The chief symptoms are identical. In each case there is a cough, loss of flesh, paleness and night sweats. In some cases even the most skilled physicians have mistaken one for the other.

Being under the mistaken belief that they have Consumption, dyspeptics sometimes obtain treatment for the first-named disease. Thus they take medicine for a disease that does not afflict them, and which medicine does them no good, while they take no medicine for Dyspepsia, which they have.

The safest, surest and best course to follow is to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are, as has been shown hundreds of thousands of times, an infallible cure for Dyspepsia. In nine cases out of ten, the patient will recover perfect health, strength and vigor in a few weeks, for in nine out of every ten cases of this kind the disease is Dyspepsia and not Consumption.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure Dyspepsia in the only rational way—by removing the cause. They make the cure complete by curing the Constipation that nearly always accompanies Dyspepsia, and by putting the liver in thoroughly healthy condition.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets prevent Consumption by filling the veins with fresh, rich red blood, and strengthening the system at every point against the dread disease.

A NEW INDUSTRY IN CANADA

How Skewers are Made by the Shipe Manufacturing Company at Clarksburg, Ont.

A MILLION TURNED OUT DAILY

And the Bulk of the Output is Exported to England—Gipsy Brand Knife-Edge Skewer.

During the last few years the trade relationship between Canada and Great Britain has undergone a phenomenal change. The Mother Country has at last come to realize that her oldest colony has wonderful possibilities before it and her natural source of supply for many things lies here. By a combination of circumstances the eyes of Britain have been turned towards Canada, and prosperity in almost evely line of business is as a result following. A new era tho has now commenced, and the export trade is on the threshhold of a rosy future.

The Manufacture of Skewers.

A new industry that has sprung up in Canada during the past few years, and which promises to reach large proportions very shortly, is the manufacture of skewers. Heretofore Great Britain has had to depend almost entirely upon the United States for this very necessary article, but with commendable business enterprise the Shipe Manufacturing Company conceived the idea of establishing a factory here and competing against the huge American trust that so long enjoyed the monopoly.

A Perfectly-Equipped Plant.

They did so, and have now at Clarksburg, Ontario, a perfectly equipped plant capable of turning out over a million skewers a day. Extensive maple timber limits were secured at the same time and the firm are able to manufacture at a lower cost skewers, with which the American article is not to be compared. Their machines, in which they are cut, are the only ones of their kind in existence, and have only been perfected after a world of trouble and expense.

Output Goes to England.

The bulk of the output is shipped to England, and from latest advices from their representative over there the firm anticipate an enormous increase in their business. "Gypsy Brand, Knife-Edge Skewer" is what it is called, and it is well within the mark to say that it will soon supplant the product of the combine on the other side. Already several heavy consignments have been shipped across the Atlantic, and when their merits and superiority become better known, and that won't be long, the factory will undoubtedly be taxed to its utmost capacity.

Success Crowns the Enterprise.

Success is plainly written all over the enterprise. It is an industry that is bound to go ahead. Good, live business men are behind it, and their one object is and will always be to produce a skewer that is perfection in every sense of the word.

The Factory at Clarksburg.

The factory at Clarksburg has had no expense spared upon it. Machinery of the very latest pattern has been installed, and it is a wonderful sight to see the white, smooth boards put in one end and come out skewers a moment later at the other. Unlike other factories, the Shipe Company's machinery is so constructed that the skewer is only handled once, and a great saving is thus effected. The wood—maple—from which they are made, is admitted to be far ahead of any other kind for the purpose, and it is used in the Clarksburg factory exclusively.

It is no guess to say that this industry, which is yet in its infancy, will in time take a prominent place in the commercial world. A new field for labor is opened up, and besides Great Britain and Australia other countries will be brought into closer touch with Canada thru it. Great expectations are expected from the Shipe Manufacturing Company. The world is their market, and if business ability counts for anything the day will not be far distant when their goods will be shipped everywhere.

DEATH OF ARCHIBALD FORBES.

The Celebrated War Correspondent and Author Passed Away Thursday Night.

London, March 30.—Archibald Forbes, the well-known war correspondent, died in this city during the night. He had for some time been unable to write or to do anything, owing to complications arising from rheumatism and paralysis. He spent most of his time at his home in London. He wrote up the Tirhoot famine in 1874, three campaigns in Spain, the Prince of Wales' tour in India, 1875-76, the Servian war of 1876 and the Russo-Turkish war of 1877. He was in Cyprus in 1878, and in the Afghan campaign, which began that year. After that he was in the Zulu campaign, 1879, and the following two years lectured in Britain, Australia and America. NEW YORK POLICE ARRAIGNED.

Grand Jury Presented a Severe Indictment Against the City Government.

New York, March 30.—The March grand jury concluded its labors this afternoon by handing up to Recorder Goff a presentment some 70 typewritten pages long, which arraigns in severest terms the police department and the city government, the Third-avenue wreckers, and the district attorney and the newspapers; and among the papers handed to the recorder were all the letters which had been exchanged by the district attorney's office and the grand jury room.

Recorder Goff, as he discharged the grand jury, praised it for its work.

Death of P. P. Lynch.

Regret was expressed on all sides among the railway officials at the Union Station yesterday on the death of Mr. Patrick P. Lynch, a former Grand Trunk Railway employe of this city. Mr. Lynch died on Thursday night in New York, from heart failure, a disease he had been suffering from for some time. About a month ago he visited his friends in Toronto, and was then feeling unwell.

Deceased commenced his railway life at Belleville and in Grand Trunk freight offices here, as a lerk. Later he was appointed chief clerk to Mr. Wragge, who was then local traffic manager for the Grand Trunk. He held this position for about a year, when he was appointed agent at York. On being transferred back to Toronto again, he entered the freight offices. About a year ago he went to New York, and had lived there ever since. He was about 40 years of age, and leaves a widow and family. He was related to Mr. Thomas P. Phelan, vice-president of the Canada Railway News Company. The remains will be brought to Toronto for burial this morning.

RESCUED FROM DRINK.

Heroic Work of a Girl in Saving Her Brother from Drunkenness.

Put a Remedy in His Coffee and Without His Knowledge of the Secret Was Completely Cured.

The terrible evil of drunkenness has at last found a conqueror. Miss Mary Roberts of 1033 Golden Gate-avenue, San Francisco, Cal., tells how she saved her brother from ruin and her words burn with a new hope to every woman who would rescue a son, brother or husband from the scourge of drunkenness. She says:

"Yes, it is true that my brother is now a reformed man. For years he drank only occasionally, but at last he got so bad that to be sober seemed a living death to him. After a spree he would tremble and shake and act as if he were going insane. He would then drink sparingly, but in a few days would start off again and I wouldn't see him for a week. I saw a notice in our home paper that there was a remedy called Golden Specific to be given secretly in tea, coffee or soft food, and that they would send me a free trial. I wrote for it and gave it to my brother early one morning in a cup of coffee before he had a chance to go out and get a drink. The effect was wonderful, and seemed to brace him up. He went out and came back quite sober for him. In the meantime I had sent for a regular treatment of Golden Specific, and after using it my brother was a changed man. Day after day, I watched and prayed, and it all seemed too good to be true. His whole manner changed. I said nothing about the remedy I had been giving him secretly, and did not talk of his being cured, but I would often tell him how happy I was and what a noble man he was to stop drinking. He, of course, knows it all now, but his new life, prosperity, new friends and self-respect have long ago forgiven me for the way in which I saved him from a drunkard's grave. May every mother, sister or daughter learn from my experience is my devout hope, and in thus making public the story of our private misfortune and subsequent blessings, it is my earnest desire that every woman read in my words the way to happiness not only for herself, but for the man who is struggling with the curse of liquor upon him. Dr. Haines, who discovered Golden Specific, is deserving of woman's homage, and I am glad to know that he will send a free trial of the remedy to every woman who writes him."

Send your name and address to Dr. J. W. Haines, 1822 Glenn Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, and he will mail the remedy to you in a plain envelope and thus you can begin the cure at once. The remedy is odorless and tasteless, and you need have no fear of discovery. m, 31

NEW ONTARIO'S RESOURCES

Will Be Described by Mr. F. H. Clergue, the Soo Magnate, Before the Board of Trade.

A special general meeting of the Board of Trade has been called for Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, when Mr. Francis H. Clergue, the man of many enterprises, will deliver a lecture on "An Instance of Industrial Evolution in Northern Ontario," dealing with the natural resources of Sault Ste. Marie and its vicinity. It is the opinion of the Council of the board that the wonderful development of New Ontario should be more widely and better known, particularly to the business men of Toronto and the other distributing points in the province.

The supplementary report of the Committee on Resolutions for the fourth congress of the Chamber of Commerce of the Empire, as adopted by the Council, will also be considered. The committee favors colonial bounties under certain conditions, the decimal system of weights, measures and currency, and representation of the United Kingdom in the colonies for the promotion of mutual trade.

The resolutions of the Montreal and Ottawa boards that are to be submitted to the Chambers of Commerce, were not endorsed by the committee, as it was thought that they would jeopardize the success of the resolutions agreed upon by the Toronto board, and which were duly forwarded to London. A resolution in the report recommends the instituting of an Imperial Council at an early day, in which the colonies and Motherland should have representation.

HOT-HEADED ITALIANS.

A Howling Uproar and a Paper Bombardment in the Chamber of Deputies Yesterday.

Rome, March 30.—The scene in the Chamber of Deputies to-day was very dramatic. After the threats of the Socialists, it was thought that Signor Colombo would not preside, but at the appointed hour he entered the House and calmly took his chair. A howl of rage at once went up from the extreme left. Signor Colombo sat impassive in the Presidential seat, with his hand resting on his hip, and looking fixedly at the leftists, some of whom began to throw paper pellets at him. Several of these fell short and struck the occupants of the Ministerial benches. The ushers induced the paper-throwers to stop, but it was impossible to calm the uproar. The rightists then rose and cried "Viva, Coombo!" The majority, composed of the rightists and centrists, rose in a body and joined in the cheers, to which the leftists responded with shouts of "Go out! Go out!" After ten minutes' deafening din, Signor Colombo put on his hat and adjourned the session.

The leftists in the lobbies declared they would never allow Signor Colombo to preside at another sitting.
