WHISKARD'S

TWO BUSY DEPARTMENTAL STORES.

Everybody asked to look, no one urged to buy.

The Family Purse

Feels the draw upon it occasioned by such times as these. The wife's entire energies are bent upon saving wherever possible, for she realizes that every cent counts.

Our prices open a fruitful field for saving. No thrifty housekeeper can afford to ignore them.

Remember that even though we quote the very lowest prices, quality hasn't been sacrificed in a single instance. Nothing but best here.

Will you accept the invitation to save? Here are a few items:

Beautiful patterns in Yard-Wide Oilcloth, 25c yard.

Children's White Lambswool Boas, large size, 25c each.

We Have Struck Luck

We have found out the secret of successful millinery. The object of superior millinery has been to make pretty hats. So far as it went that was good enough. The secret we possess is how to improve the wearer. Our hats are pretty, and our customers are prettier when they wear our hats. A pretty hat and a pretty face is the joint result of our millinery.

Ladies' Satin Crown Sailor Hats, 50c each.

Large Felt Flops, all shades, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1 each.

Ladies' Felt Sailors, trimmed, 50c and 75c each.

BY WIND AND SNOW

Vessels Storm-Stayed at Port Colborne—A Rough Time.

Port Colborne, Ont., Nov. 10.—A heavy wind and snow storm raged here all day Sunday. About five or six inches of snow fell. The steamers Rounds and Newaygo had to run back here for shelter, and are now lying in port, together with the Boyce and Kathadin, waiting for the weather to moderate.

The schooner Singapore, loaded with peas, Detroit to Kingston, arrived at Port Colborne on Saturday night leaking, having been caught out in Thursday night's storm. She had been lying under Long Point for shelter, but had a hard time making there, having lost part of her sails and bulwarks in the storm.

Doctor—Yes, I examined your son carefully, and I am convinced that his condition is due to climatic influences; you ought to send him to a warmer climate. Parent—Why, doctor, that's absurd; ever since he's had a bicycle he has done nothing else but scorch.

FOOTBALL.

KICKS.

The annual meeting of the Ontario Rugby Union will be held in this city on the second Saturday of December.

Plans have been submitted for the erection on the Toronto 'Varsity campus of a swell grand stand, to cost in the neighborhood of $3,000.

Dodds, the Toronto 'Varsity's scrimmage man, is the Sandow of the football field. He enjoys the distinction of being the strongest man in and around Peterboro, from which section he comes.

Scrimmager Wilson, of the Lornes, was terribly kicked about the legs in the London match.

There are many football men who are enthusiastically in favor of the reduction of the number of players on teams to twelve men, and quite an agitation in favor of the innovation is under way. The game would be opener and necessarily cleaner. At Trinity the inter-year matches are played by twelve men a side.

The lightest scrimmage man playing football in the Ontario Union is Gordon Watson, who weights something less than 130 pounds. He depends on his quickness and skill mainly in holding his own.

HOCKEY.

THE LONDONS ORGANIZE.

Fred Beltz, Charlie Sippi, Bert Glover, George Macbeth, Hugh Niven, Walter Smith, J. S. Brown, Harold Southam, R. Lind, F. Reid, J. Hill, E. Hemwood, J. Angus, H. B. Gordon and other well known votaries of manly sports attended a meeting at the Tecumseh House last night, and organized the London Hockey Club for the coming season. They were brimful of enthusiasm and determination to make London a winner. The first step towards this was the election of a capable set of officers, as follows:

Honorary President — George C. Gibbons, Q. C.

President—Dr. George C. Davis.

Vice-President—Walter Smith.

Secretary-Treasurer — Bert Screaton.

Executive—Dr. Davis, Walter Smith and the captain (who is yet to be chosen).

The Princess Rink was chosen for matches, though the terms of the management were criticised, the rink directors asking $20 of the receipts of a game, and half the balance. The latter say they can do no better for the players, as there is no money in hockey for them.

Dr. Davis consented to accept the presidency after much urging, but he warned the members that he would drop out if his policy was not followed. He would do his best to aid in placing a winning team in the field, but the players must undergo a rigorous system of practice, the lack of which, on the part of some, caused their defeat last year.

The club's receipts last year were $181, and the expenses $174 38, leaving a balance of $6 62 to start with.

THE WHEEL.

Ex-Champion Angus McLeod does not propose to retire from the track. He did not by any means make as good a showing the past season as he did in 1895, but the truth of the matter is that he was never himself after his return from Fredonia, N. Y., early in July, where he strained his back. There is a probability that McLeod and McCarthy will be on the same team next season.

SPOKES.

Mr. Wm. Hyslop, sen., has gone to the Bermudas for a two months' trip.

One "humorous" tack-scatterer has got his just deserts. At a recent bicycle race meeting in a Swiss city the approach to the track was liberally besprinkled with tacks, resulting in more or less injury to a large number of tires. Through the combined efforts of the municipal authorities and the members of the bicycle clubs the "joker" was discovered. His "fun" cost him upwards of $400, and but for his ability to pay the amount he would have devoted nearly two years in jail to reflection.

ATHLETICS.

BARRE'S CHALLENGE.

New York, Nov. 10.—Horace Barre, the Canadian heavy weight lifter, has deposited $250 at the Police Gazette office and issued a challenge to Louis Cyr or anybody in the world to lift weights for the championship of the world.

GODDARD DEFEATS SMITH.

London, Nov. 10.—A dispatch from Johannesburg, South African Republic, says that the prize fight between Joe Goddard, of Australia, and "Denver" Ed. Smith, the American boxer, took place on Saturday and was won by Goddard in four rounds. Goddard was at once challenged by Mickey Dooley. Smith, being over-confident, neglected his training, and, not being fit, was easily defeated. The fight was for $5,000 a side and a purse of $5,000 subscribed by Johannesburg sporting men.

SMITH VS. SMITH.

London, Nov. 10.—The fight between Solly Smith, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Willie Smith, the feather-weight champion of England, for a purse of £500, took place last night at the National Sporting Club. The former knocked the latter out in the eighth round, and was awarded the fight. A big crowd witnessed the fight. The Englishman was the favorite at odds of 7 to 4 early in the day, but a fair amount of money was laid on the American at night, the odds then falling to 6 to 4 on the Englishman. Both men fought at 116 pounds. In the third round Solly landed a stinging left-hander on Willie's chin, knocking him clean off his feet. In the eighth round Solly punched Willie all over the ring until the referee stopped the fight, and awarded it to Solly.

MATCHED.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Fitzsimmons and Sharkey have accepted the terms of the National Sporting Club for a ten-round go Dec. 2. They meet at catch-weight for $5,000, winner to take all.

BLOWS.

Boxing is to be revived at St. Louis. The authorities have agreed to remove the ban they placed on it some time ago.

Now that Sharkey is in San Francisco and Corbett in New York they are calling each other curs more than ever. Distance is the great promoter of courage among these actor-fighters.

The New York Evening World says: "Corbett and Fitzsimmons will surely never meet in this vicinity. They are not wanted here. They have already done more to injure the sport than any other pugilists and should they fight let it be in Texas where there will be no interference."

GOLF.

AN OLD GAME.

London Golf says: "The statement that golf is one of the oldest games on record, and a favorite with the church, receives confirmation, as shown by a contemporary, in a somewhat unexpected quarter. It seems that the windows in the aisles of St. Cuthbert's, Earl's Court—a London church well known for its elaborate and advanced ritual—illustrate the life of the patron saint, and that in one of them he is represented playing golf. The vicar, Mr. Westall, says that St. Cuthbert was 'great at sport,' by which he means great at golf."

THE TURF.

TIPS.

John A. Walker, manager and trainer for Seagram's stables at Waterloo, reports a most satisfactory season, having entered in 75 starts, and secured first place 38 times. The stables have captured about $30,000 in prizes.

BASEBALL.

FLYS.

The Cleveland Club will train at Hot Springs again.

Anson more than made up in election wagers for the baseball bets he lost last season.

Ed. Stein, pitcher for the Brooklyn team, who was seriously injured recently by being thrown from his bicycle, is rapidly recovering, and will be able to leave his bed in a short time.

Nick Young says there is not a vestige of truth in the report that the champion Baltimore team was to be transferred to New York next season. "The Baltimore team," says Uncle Nick, "will be practically the same next year as it is today."

The question as to whether the Temple cup games will be abolished promises to furnish a lively discussion when the baseball magnates meet at Chicago next week. President Young is in favor of continuing them.

Hollie A. Sauder, of Ohio, has been signed by Manager Joyce to pitch for the Giants next season. Sauder, who is a right-hand pitcher, did the twirling for a semi-professional team in Hornellsville, N. Y., last summer.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The Ashfield church has extended a call to Rev. Alexander Miller, of Mosa, Presbytery of London.

Mrs. Jas. Kelly, Lambeth, has gone on an extended trip east for the benefit of her health, which has been causing her friends considerable anxiety of late.

The skeleton of a man was dug up on the farm of Mr. J. Weir, a few miles north of Springfield, on Saturday. The authorities were notified, but owing to the evident lapse of time since the corpse was buried it was decided not to hold an inquest. It is thought in some quarters that the remains are those of a man named Peter Cameron, alias McLellan, who worked for Messrs. Wm. and Thos. Little, former owners of the farm. Cameron disappeared mysteriously one day, and has not been heard from since.

ARKONA.

Arkona, Nov. 9.—Mr. A. E. Cutler is paying a visit to Chicago at present in connection with the apple business.

The annual oyster supper in connection with Sycamore Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held in Showler's Hall on Friday, Nov. 20.

Ethel Cutler, who has been at her uncle's, Mr. W. Cutler, in Lobo, for the past few weeks, returned home this week.

Miss L. Randall returned to her home near Uttoxeter this week.

A number of young people spent a lively time at the home of Walter Davidson on Friday evening last.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will preach the annual sermon of the I. O. G. T. on Sunday, Nov. 15, in his church at 2:30.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Willard Eastman took place on Thursday afternoon. The sermon was preached in the Methodist Church by Rev. C. W. Bristol, after the interment. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends. Mrs. Eastman was an earnest Christian and a member of the Methodist Church. Her family and many friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

Rev. Mr. Park, of the Watford Baptist Church, preached here, both morning and evening, Rev. Mr. Baldwin filling his pulpit in Watford.

MONEY IN MAILS.

Satisfactory Showing of the United States Postal Department.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The annual report of Capt. N. B. Brooks, Superintendent of Foreign Mails, shows that the aggregate weight of the mails dispatched from the United States by sea to other countries during the past fiscal year was 6,286,914 pounds, of which over 4,500,000 pounds were transatlantic. It is pointed out that the postage collected by the Government on articles exchanged with foreign countries largely exceeds the gross expense incurred by the department in connection with that service.

Action is recommended on the question of the extension of the parcels post system, the reduction of the registration fee to 5 cents, and on that of a limited responsibility for registered articles lost or destroyed in the international mails in transit through the United States.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.
